(3) No person, other than the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the Defense Supplies Corporation, or an importer, shall hereafter order or accept delivery of any Manila cordage if the amount of the Manila cordage held or under control of such person exceeds one and one half months' supply for such person; and no person, other than those hereinabove excepted, shall have outstanding at any one time orders for future deliveries of Manila cordage in an amount greater than one month's supply for such person. "Supply" as used in this paragraph means the average monthly amount of Manila cordage withdrawn from the inventory of such person, which has been resold or put into actual use by such person, in the three calendar months immediately preceding the calendar month in which said order is placed or delivery is accepted, or in the three calendar months of the previous year which immediately follow the calendar month of that year corresponding with the month in which said order is placed or delivery is accepted, whichever shall be the higher: Provided, however, That there shall be excluded from such amount any Manila cordage purchased from such person by the Navy Department, War Department, Maritime Commission, Defense Supplies Corporation, and, if such person is a dealer, any Manila cordage imported by such person.

(f) Control of stocks of Manila fiber. Control is hereby taken of the distribution and use of Manila fiber. Any Manila fiber at any time hereafter in the inventory of any person shall be sold and delivered by such person if and as specifically directed in any order of the Director of Industry Operations which may be issued whenever the Director of Industry Operations shall determine that a shortage of any particular grade of Manila fiber for defense, or for private account and for export, renders it necessary or appropriate so to allocate such Manila fiber in the public interest or to promote the National Defense by so directing its sale and delivery by such person. Any such sale shall be made at the established prices and terms of sale and payment therefor. No person shall dispose of or use Manila fiber in any manner inconsistent with any such order.

(g) Exclusions from this order. The terms and provisions of this order shall not apply to (1) sales and/or deliveries by any Cordage processor or dealer of Manila cordage of any class from stocks on hand or in process as of February 20, 1942, of the following types:

(i) Manila lariat rope

(a) The Army of the United States
(b) The United States Navy, or
(c) The United States Maritime Commission.

(2) Any sales and/or deliveries by any cordage processor or dealer of Manila cordage which on December 19, 1941 was in the form of cut lengths of less than 200 feet.

(3) Any stock of Manila cordage which contains no Manila fiber of the following grades—AB Davao or non-Davao, 1 Davao, JI Davao, G Davao, -S2 Davao, and which is so processed that the Manila fiber therein contained is combined or mixed with at least an equal amount of fiber other than Manila fiber, in the hands of a dealer or cordage processor, or in transit on February 20, 1942, or made from Manila fiber actually placed on machines by a cordage processor on or prior to December 19, 1941.

(4) Any Manila cordage imported into the United States on or after July 4, 1942, and which has been offered for sale to, and rejected in writing by, any two of the following:

(i) The Army of the United States,
(ii) The United States Navy, or
(iii) The United States Maritime Commission.

(5) Delivery by or to any person having temporary custody of Manila cordage or Manila fiber solely for the purposes of transportation or the public warehousing thereof.

(h) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of Manila fiber conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense work to defense work, may appeal to the Director of Industry Operations by letter or telegram, Ref: M-36, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief, or upon such form or forms as may hereafter be prescribed. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate. Applications for specific exceptions from the limitations of paragraph (e) (3) should be made in writing by the person desiring to use the cordage.

(i) Reports. Every importer, processor or other person affected by this order shall file such monthly and other reports with the War Production Board as shall from time to time be required by said office, and shall submit from time to time to an audit and inspection by representatives of the War Production Board concerning all records required to be kept by this order.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(l) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports to be filed, appeals and other communications concerning this order, should be addressed to the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Reference M-36.

(m) Effective date. This amendment shall take effect on July 4, 1942 except that paragraph (e) (2) (i) shall not take effect until September 1, 1942 and until said date the provisions of paragraph (e) (3) (i) of Amendment No. 3 shall continue in effect. Subchapter B—Division of Industry Operations

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–64]

SAMUEL PARIS

Samuel Paris of Bradley Beach, New Jersey, is engaged in the business of buying and selling rayon yarn for his own account. On January 31, 1942, Samuel Paris purchased and accepted delivery of approximately 4,100 pounds of reserved rayon yarn from Albert M. Green Hosiery Mills, Inc., Milroy, Pennsylvania. This yarn had been allocated by the War Production Board to Albert M. Green Hosiery Mills, Inc., for its own use as a former user of silk, pursuant to the provisions of Supplementary Order M–37–a, and no authorization for delivery of this yarn to Samuel Paris had been obtained from the Director of Industry Operations. Despite the fact that Samuel Paris knew that the yarn was reserved yarn and that acceptance of such yarn was prohibited by Supplementary Order M–37–a, he accepted the delivery thereof in willful violation of the order and during the month of February, 1942, in further willful violation of Supplementary Order M–37–a resold the yarn despite the fact that he had obtained no authorization therefor from the Director of Industry Operations.

These violations of Supplementary Order M–37–a by Samuel Paris have impeded and hampered the War Effort of the United States by diverting reserved rayon yarn as the same is defined in this order to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing facts,

It is hereby ordered:

§ 1010.64 Suspension Order S–64. (a) Deliveries of material to Samuel Paris, his successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order, and no preference rating shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to Samuel Paris, his successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations.

(c) Samuel Paris, his successors and assigns, shall not apply for, order, or receive, either for his own account or for the account of others, reserved rayon yarn as the same is defined in Supplementary Order M–37–c, except as specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Samuel Paris, his successors and assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations.

(e) This order shall take effect on July 6th, 1942, and shall expire on October 6th, 1942, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–66]

SUN RAY TEXTILES, INC.

Sun Ray Textiles, Inc., of Paterson, New Jersey, is engaged in the business of converting yarns and also acts in the capacity of a jobber of yarns. After restrictions were placed on the use of silk, the Company applied for and received allocations of reserved rayon yarn, pursuant to provisions of Supplementary Orders M–37–a and M–37–c. During the months of February and March, 1942, the Company sold and delivered to Park Silk Company, New York, New York, approximately 6,136 pounds of reserved rayon which had been allocated to it for its own use by the War Production Board, despite the fact that no authorization therefor had been obtained from the Director of Industry Operations. During the months of February and March, 1942, the Company accepted delivery of 2,881 pounds of reserved rayon yarn in exchange for certain other rayon yarn, despite the fact that the Company had not received authorization for such exchange from the Director of Industry Operations. These transactions constituted violations of Supplementary Orders M–37–a and M–37–c.

These violations of Supplementary Orders M–37–a and M–37–c, dealing with the supply and distribution of rayon yarn, have impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States by diverting reserved rayon yarn to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing,

It is hereby ordered:

§ 1010.66 Suspension order S–66. (a) Deliveries of material to Sun Ray Textiles, Inc., its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to Sun Ray Textiles, Inc., its successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations.

(c) Sun Ray Textiles, Inc., its successors and assigns, shall not order or accept the delivery of reserved rayon yarn, as the same is defined in Supplementary Order M–37–c, and no person shall sell or deliver to Sun Ray Textiles, Inc., its successors and assigns, any such reserved rayon yarn, except as specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Sun Ray Textiles, Inc., from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) This order shall take effect on July 6, 1942, and shall expire on September 6, 1942, at which time the restrictions contained in this Order shall be of no further effect. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

(c) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of asbestos textiles conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board by letter or other written communication, in triplicate, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(d) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Cork-Asbestos Branch, Washington, D. C. Ref.: M–123.

PART 1223—SIMPLIFICATION AND STANDARDIZATION OF PAPER

[Limitation Order L–120]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply for defense, for private account and for export, of wood pulp and other materials and facilities used in the manufacture and distribution of paper, and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1223.1 Limitation Order L–120—(a) Issuance of schedules for the standardization and simplification of paper. The Director of Industry Operations may from time to time issue schedules prescribing simplified and standardized practices and specifications for the manufacture, put up and manufacturer's packaging of paper, with particular respect to grades, weights, sizes, colors, coatings, finish, furnish, markings, minimum manufacturing quantities, quantity of sheets per unit, size and shape of roll or pack, and any other detail or condition of manufacture, put up or manufacturer's packaging. From and after the effective date of any such schedule, and until such schedule may expire by its own terms or be revoked by the Director of Industry Operations, no person shall manufacture any paper with respect to which such Schedule prescribes such practices or specifications otherwise than according to such practices and specifications.

(b) Appeals. Any person affected by this order or any schedule issued pursuant thereto who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him or would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may apply for relief by addressing a letter to the War Production Board, Reference L–120, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(c) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order (and any schedule issued pursuant thereto) and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof (or of any such schedule) may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order (or such schedule) shall govern.

(d) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–120.

(e) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance. (1) Such producer may manufacture replacement parts at his dollar cost value not to exceed seventy percent (70%) of the total dollar cost value of the replacement parts of his own manufacture sold by him during the corresponding calendar quarter of 1941; provided that such production does not result in the producer's total inventory of finished parts (either produced by him or purchased by him from others) exceeding at any time during the third month in either calendar quarter, in dollar cost value, four times the producer's average monthly sales valued at cost during the preceding calendar quarter. In determining dollar cost value of sales, sales to the Army, Navy and other persons enumerated in paragraph (g) below, shall not be included.

(2) Such producer may manufacture replacement parts not to exceed fifty percent (50%) of the total dollar cost value of the replacement parts of his own manufacture sold by him during the corresponding calendar quarter of 1941; provided such production does not increase his inventory of finished parts in total cost value (either produced by him or purchased by him from others) at the end of either quarter, above his inventory of finished parts in total cost value at the beginning of the quarter. In determining dollar cost value of sales, sales to the Army, Navy and other persons enumerated in paragraph (g) below shall not be included.

(f) Restrictions on production of replacement parts for medium and/or heavy motor trucks, truck-tractors, truck-trailers, passenger carriers, and off-the-highway motor vehicles. During the third and fourth calendar quarters of 1942, a producer of replacement parts for medium and/or heavy motor trucks, truck-tractors, truck-trailers, passenger carriers, and off-the-highway motor vehicles may manufacture replacement parts according to either of the following schedules:

(1) Such producer may manufacture replacement parts at his dollar cost value not to exceed one hundred and twenty-five per cent (125%) of the total dollar cost value of the replacement parts of his own manufacture sold by him during the corresponding calendar quarter of 1941; provided that such production does not result in the producer's total inventory of finished parts (either produced by him or purchased by him from others) exceeding at any time during the third month in either calendar quarter, in dollar cost value, four times the producer's average monthly sales valued at cost during the preceding calendar quarter. In determining dollar cost value of sales, sales to the Army, Navy and other persons enumerated in paragraph (g) below shall not be included.

(2) Such producer may manufacture replacement parts not to exceed seventy-five per cent (75%) of the total dollar cost value of the replacement parts of his own manufacture sold by him during the corresponding calendar quarter of 1941, provided such production does not increase his inventory of finished parts in total cost value (either produced by him or purchased by him from others) at the end of either quarter above his inventory of finished parts at the beginning of the quarter. In determining dollar cost value of sales, sales to the Army, Navy and other persons enumerated in paragraph (g) below shall not be included.

(g) Exceptions to applicability of this order. The terms and restrictions of this order shall not apply to any replacement parts sold to or produced under contracts or orders for delivery to or for the account of:

(1) The Army or Navy of the United States or the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Administration, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Offices of Scientific Research and Development;

(2) The government of any of the following countries: Belgium, China, Czechoslovakia, Free France, Greece, Iceland, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Russia, Turkey, United Kingdom, including its Dominions, Crown Colonies and Protectorates, and Yugoslavia;

(3) Any agency of the United States Government, for delivery to, or for the account of, the government of any country listed above, or any other country, including those in the Western Hemisphere, pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled, "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States." (Lend-Lease Act)

(h) Return of replacement parts. Replacement parts returned to a producer by a distributor are not to be scheduled in the producer's inventory during the quarter in which the parts are received, but shall be included in the producer's inventory in the succeeding calendar quarter.

(i) Restrictions on sales by distributors. (1) On and after July 15, 1942, no distributor shall sell or deliver any replacement part (excepting cab assemblies and parts such as fusees and flares which are consumed in use) to a consumer unless such consumer delivers to such distributor concurrently with the purchase of a used part of similar kind and size for each new replacement part delivered to such consumer. No new replacement part shall be sold or delivered to a consumer to replace a part which the Distributor can recondition by use of available reconditioning facilities.

(j) Restrictions on distributors' inventories. (1) On and after August 15, 1942, no distributor, whose principal place of business is located in the Eastern or Central War Time Zone, shall order more than a thirty-day supply of replacement parts, and no such distributor shall accept delivery of replacement parts which, in combination with his existing inventory of replacement parts measured in total dollar cost value, shall exceed a sixty-day supply. Sixty-day supply means a supply in dollar cost value equal to two-thirds of the distributor's total sales, at his cost of such parts, sold by him in the preceding quarterly period.

(2) No distributor, whose principal place of business is located in any other War Time Zone, shall order more than a forty-five day supply of replacement parts, and no such distributor shall accept delivery of replacement parts which, in combination with his existing inventory of replacement parts, measured in total dollar cost value, shall exceed a ninety-day supply. Ninety-day supply means a supply in dollar cost value at distributor's cost equal to the distributor's total sales, at his cost of such parts, sold by him in the preceding quarterly period.

(3) Irrespective of the restrictions in subparagraphs (1) and (2) above, a distributor may accept delivery of specific items of replacement parts when his stock of all items in the aggregate exceeds, or will by virtue of such acceptance exceed, his maximum permissible inventory as specified in subparagraphs (1) and (2) above, but only to the extent necessary to bring such distributor's inventory of those specific items up to a total dollar value equal to the sales of such items shipped from such inventories during the preceding month.

(4) No distributor may keep in his inventory, in his possession or under his control, for a period of more than thirty days, any used, traded-in, imperfect or condemned replacement parts which cannot be reconditioned, but must dispose of the same through the customary disposal or scrap channels.

(5) Replacement parts consigned to a distributor are not to be considered as part of the distributor's inventory.

(k) Emergency orders for replacement parts. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (j) above, a distributor may order and accept delivery of any replacement part which he does not have in stock when required for repair of a designated vehicle which cannot be operated without such part. In such emergency, to secure a replacement part under this paragraph (k), a Distributor must file with his order to the Producer for said part a Certificate in the following form:

Certificate for Emergency Order

I hereby certify that the Replacement Part specified in the attached Order is essential for the repair of the following vehicle, which cannot now be operated without such Part:
Make: _____ Engine Number: _____
(signed) _____
Firm, Partnership or Corporation
By: _____
Title of Individual
Address of Firm, Partnership or Corporation

A copy of each such Certificate must be retained by the Distributor issuing such certificate as a part of his records. A Producer or other Distributor to whom any such emergency order is submitted must give such order precedence in shipment over other orders not of an emergency nature.

(l) Certificate by distributor required. Whenever a distributor places an order for replacement parts, each order must be accompanied by a Certificate in the following form:

Certificate of Compliance with Order L–158

The quantity of Replacement Parts ordered on the attached purchase order does not exceed the quantity which I am entitled to purchase under the provisions of Limitation Order L–158, with the terms of which I am familiar.

(Signed) _____
Firm, Partnership or Corporation
By: _____
Title of Individual
Address of firm, Partnership or Corporation

A copy of each such Certificate must be retained by the Distributor as part of his records.

(m) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(n) Reports. All persons affected by this order, shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as the Board shall from time to time request. No reports or questionnaires are to be filed by any person until forms therefor are prescribed by the War Production Board.

(o) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(p) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact, or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, materials under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(q) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, may appeal to the War Production Board, setting forth pertinent facts and the reasons such person considers that he is entitled to relief. In order to facilitate conversion to complete war production appeals may be made to increase or to transfer to other producers quotas established in paragraphs (e) and (f) above. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(r) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Automotive Branch, Washington, D. C., Ref: L–158.

PART 3002—PLASTICS MOLDING MACHINERY

[General Limitation Order L–159]

The fulfillment of requirements of the War Program of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain critical materials used in the manufacture of plastics molding machinery for the War Program, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the War Program.

§ 3002.1 General Limitation Order L–159—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Plastics molding machinery" means new machinery, of the kinds listed in List A, designed for use in the molding of plastic materials. For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (a) (2) new machinery is machinery which has not been delivered to any person acquiring it for use.

(3) "Manufacturer" means any person producing plastics molding machinery whether for his own use or for sale.

(4) "Dealer" means any person regularly engaged in the business of buying or otherwise acquiring plastics molding machinery for resale.

(5) "Order" means any commitment or other arrangement for the delivery of plastics molding machinery, whether by purchase, lease, rental, or otherwise.

(6) "Approved order" means:

(i) Any order for plastics molding machinery, when accompanied by a PD–3A certificate, to be delivered to and for the use of: The Army or Navy, the Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, the Coast and

Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development. The provisions of this paragraph (a) (6) (i) shall not apply to orders for any privately operated plant or shipyard or other enterprise, whether or not financed or controlled by any of the agencies or organizations mentioned in this subparagraph (6) (i), or operated under their control or direction on a cost-plus-fixed-fee basis.

(ii) Any order for plastics molding machinery, when accompanied by a PD-3A certificate to be delivered to, or for the account of: The Government of any of the following countries: Belgium, China, Czechoslovakia, Free France, Greece, Iceland, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Russia, Turkey, United Kingdom including its Dominions, Crown Colonies, and Protectorates, and Yugoslavia.

(iii) Any order for plastics molding machinery placed by any agency of the United States Government to be delivered to, or for the account of, the Government of any country listed above, or any other country, including those in the Western Hemisphere, pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(iv) Any order for plastics molding machinery bearing a preference rating of A-9 or higher assigned by a Preference Rating Certificate PD-3 or PD-3A countersigned prior to the effective date of this order, by a Preference Rating Order in the P-19 series issued prior to the effective date of this order, or by a Preference Rating Certificate PD-1 or PD-1A, or Preference Rating Order P-19-h (PD-200 or 200A) issued at any time. After the issuance of this order Preference Rating Certificate PD-3A shall be used only to assign preference ratings to Approved Orders of the kinds described in subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph. Any Preference Rating Certificate or order of any of the kinds enumerated above may be used to secure plastics molding machinery only by the person to whom it was originally issued and only when such machinery is expressly specified on the certificate or order (or its Form PD-200 or 200A). Any person placing an approved order for plastics molding machinery bearing a rating assigned by any such certificate or order who does not deliver such certificate or order but retains the same, as permitted by Priorities Regulation No. 3, as amended from time to time, or by the terms of the Preference Rating Order shall, in addition to furnishing the endorsement required by such Priorities Regulation No. 3, as amended from time to time, or such Preference Rating Order, certify to the person from whom the machinery is to be acquired that the certificate or order was originally issued to him and that the plastics molding machinery ordered was expressly specified on the certificate or order (or its Form PD-200 or 200A).

(v) Any order which the Director of Industry Operations authorizes for production or delivery pursuant to paragraph (b) (2) hereof.

Provided, however, That any order for plastics molding machinery on the books of any manufacturer or dealer on the date of issuance of this order, which is an approved order solely by reason of the provisions of paragraph (a) (6) (iv) or (v) above, shall cease to be an approved order if not delivered prior to the expiration of thirty days following the date of issuance of this order.

(b) Restrictions on acceptance of orders for, production, delivery and acquisition of, plastics molding machinery—(1) General prohibitions. No person shall accept any order for plastics molding machinery, or deliver or produce any plastics molding machinery in fulfillment of any order, whether accepted or not, unless such order is an approved order. No person shall accept delivery of any plastics molding machinery except pursuant to an approved order.

(2) Procedure for authorization of orders on books. Manufacturers or dealers may apply for authorization to deliver orders which are not approved orders, on their books on the date of issuance of this order as it affects classes of plastic molding machinery from time to time, by filing with the War Production Board, form PD-55 furnishing the information specified therein. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon, if he shall deem it necessary or appropriate, authorize the delivery of any such orders, or the assignment of preference ratings thereto.

(c) Repair and maintenance parts. Notwithstanding the prohibition of paragraph (b), repair and maintenance parts for plastics molding machinery may be produced, delivered or acquired in accordance with the following limitations:

(1) No person shall accept delivery of repair and maintenance parts except as follows:

(i) To repair an actual breakdown where the required repair and maintenance parts are not otherwise available; or

(ii) To acquire repair and maintenance parts of any kind, providing such acquisition will not increase the inventory of the purchaser to an amount in excess of the average inventory of such kind of repair parts on hand during the last three months of the calendar year 1941.

(2) Manufacturers may produce repair or maintenance parts in minimum quantities sufficient to make the deliveries provided for in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c).

(d) Existing contracts. Fulfillment of contracts or orders in violation of this order is prohibited regardless of whether such contracts or orders are entered into before or after the date of issuance of this order. No person shall be held liable for damages or penalties for any default under any contract or order which shall result directly or indirectly from compliance with the terms of this order.

(e) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(f) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the War Production Board setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(g) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be adressed to: War Production Board, Special Industrial Machinery Branch, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L-159.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who wilfully furnishes false information to the Director of Industry Operations in connection with this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director of Industry Operations.

(i) Records and reports. (1) All manufacturers and dealers affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning production, deliveries, and orders for plastics molding machinery.

(2) All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the Division of Industry Operations, War Production Board, such reports and questionnaires as said Division shall from time to time request. Section 960.1 General Preference Order M–19,[1] as amended May 1, 1942, is hereby amended in the following respects:

1. By striking subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a) of said section and inserting the following in lieu thereof:

(2) "Products containing available chlorine" means any product other than "high test calcium hypochlorite" or "chloride of lime" which readily releases chlorine, including, but not by way of limitation, all combinations of chlorine with caustic soda, soda ash, or lime, such combinations being commonly known by one or more of the following names: sodium hypochlorite, liquid bleach, or sodium chlorite, and also including solutions of such products or any mixture containing such products.

2. By adding to paragraph (a) of said section two new subparagraphs, numbered (7) and (8), as follows:

(7) "High test calcium hypochlorite" means the chemical compound calcium hypochlorite having an available chlorine content of 65% or more, by weight;

(8) "Chloride of lime" means the chemical compound calcium hypochlorite having an available chlorine content of less than 65%, and not less than 30%, by weight, commonly known by one or more of the following names: chloride of lime, lime chlorinated or bleaching powder.

3. By adding to paragraph (b) of said section one new subparagraph numbered (6), as follows:

(6) Nothing herein contained shall be construed to restrict the use by any person of sodium hypochlorite where produced by the person requiring the same, at his own plant, for his own use, by means of electrolytic cells directly producing a sodium hypochlorite solution without using chlorine, products containing available chlorine, high test calcium hypochlorite or chloride of lime. No such person shall sell or deliver to any other person any sodium hypochlorite so produced. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. PART 960—CHLORINE AND PRODUCTS CONTAINING AVAILABLE CHLORINE

[Supplementary Order M–19–a]

§ 960.2 Supplementary Order M–19–a—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "High test calcium hypochlorite" means the chemical compound calcium hypochlorite having an available chlorine content of 65% or more, by weight;

(2) "Chloride of lime" means the chemical compound calcium hypochlorite having an available chlorine content of less than 65%, and not less than 30%, by weight, commonly referred to as chloride of lime, lime chlorinated or bleaching powder;

(3) "Chlorine" means liquid and gaseous chlorine;

(4) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of high test calcium hypochlorite or chloride of lime and includes any person who has such materials produced for him pursuant to toll agreement.

(b) Restrictions on deliveries. (1) On and after July 6, 1942, no producer shall make delivery of high test calcium hypochlorite or chloride of lime to any person unless and until he shall have been authorized or directed to do so by the Director of Industry Operations. During July, 1942 and prior to the beginning of each calendar month thereafter the Director of Industry Operations will issue to all producers specific authorizations or directions covering deliveries of high test calcium hypochlorite and chloride of lime which may or must be made by such producers during such month. Such authorizations or directions shall be based primarily upon insuring the satisfaction of all defense requirements and, insofar as possible, providing an adequate supply for essential civilian uses. Each producer of high test calcium hypochlorite or chloride of lime, upon being informed by the Director of Industry Operations of the deliveries which such Director has authorized or directed, shall forthwith notify his customers of the extent of such authorization or direction as the same may affect them.

(2) In the event any producer, after receiving notice from the Director of Industry Operations with respect to any delivery of high test calcium hypochlorite or chloride of lime which he is authorized or directed to make during any month, shall, for any reason, fail to make any such delivery, such producer shall forthwith give notice of such fact and the reason therefor to the Chemicals Branch of the War Production Board and shall not, in the absence of specific authorization or direction from the Director of Industry Operations, resell or otherwise dispose of the high test calcium hypochlorite or chloride of lime which he has so failed to deliver.

(c) Schedules of deliveries. Each producer of high-test calcium hypochlorite or chloride of lime, on or before the 10th day of July, 1942, and the 10th day of each month thereafter, shall file Form PD–574 in the manner prescribed therein with the Chemicals Branch of the War Production Board, Washington, D. C. After such form has been filed with such Chemicals Branch, any material change of circumstances or matters occurring thereafter pertaining to or affecting any information furnished on said Form PD–574 shall forthwith be reported to such Chemicals Branch.

(d) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(2) Notification of customers. Producers shall, as soon as practicable, notify each of their regular customers of the requirements of this order, but failure to give such notice shall not excuse any person from the obligation of complying with the terms of this order.

(3) Records. In addition to the records required to be kept by Priorities Regulation No. 1, each producer shall keep and preserve for not less than two years, copies of all purchase orders for high test calcium hypochlorite or chloride of lime, whether accepted or rejected, and accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(4) Violations or false statements. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who in connection with this order wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(5) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1306—IRON AND STEEL

[Revised Price Schedule No. 100,[1] as amended]

CAST IRON SOIL PIPE AND FITTINGS

The preamble and §§ 1306.301 to 1306.310, inclusive, are renumbered and amended to read as set forth below:

Cast iron soil pipe and fittings are extensively used in the construction industry to carry off drainage and waste. In the defense program they are widely employed in housing projects, cantonments and all types of factories and industrial plants. The increased need for cast iron soil pipe and fittings prompted Government efforts to secure expanded production by allocating needed pig iron to the industry, but the supply failed to keep pace with the augmented demands stemming from the defense program and the accompanying economic expansion. As a consequence, inflationary pressure caused price increases which outstripped advances in costs, and which served no purpose in bringing out appreciably increased production. Issuance of a price schedule accordingly was necessary to protect consumers, the industry, and the national economy.

The War Production Board, by its Limitation Order No. L-42, as amended, has directed that, on and after June 1, 1942, cast iron soil pipe shall be produced only in the weights set forth hereinafter in Appendix C, which weights are generally known in the industry as "Victory" cast iron soil pipe, and the production of "standard", "medium", and "extra heavy" pipe has been ordered discontinued from and after such date.

The issuance of such amended order by the War Production Board necessitates the establishment of maximum prices for the sale and delivery of "Victory Pipe".

In this Revised Price Schedule No. 100, as amended, the Office of Price Administration is utilizing the Birmingham, Alabama, single basing point system, presently in effect in the soil pipe industry. Such acceptance of this system, merely as a vehicle for determining maximum prices, should not be regarded as approval thereof, nor should this reservation be regarded as indicating disapproval.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Revised Price Schedule No. 100, as amended, has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1306.301 to 1306.311, inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

§ 1306.301 Maximum prices for cast iron soil pipe and fittings. (a) On and after June 1, 1942, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase or other commitment, no manufacturer, jobber, or wholesaler shall sell, offer to sell, deliver, or transfer any cast iron soil pipe and fittings described in Appendix B, incorporated herein as § 1306.310, and no person shall buy, offer to buy or accept delivery of such cast iron soil pipe and fittings from a manufacturer, jobber, or wholesaler at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A, incorporated herein as § 1306.309.

(b) On and after June 1, 1942, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase or other commitment, no manufacturer, jobber, or wholesaler shall sell, offer to sell, deliver, or transfer any cast iron soil pipe described in Appendix C (§ 1306.311), and no person shall buy, offer to buy or accept delivery of such cast iron soil pipe from a manufacturer, jobber, or wholesaler at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A (§ 1306.309).

§ 1306.302 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in § 1306.309, Appendix A, may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1306.303 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Revised Price Schedule No. 100, as amended, shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of, or relating to cast iron soil pipe and fittings, alone or in conjunction with any other material or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1306.304 Records and reports. (a) Every manufacturer, jobber and wholesaler who sells, and every person who buys from a manufacturer, jobber or wholesaler cast iron soil pipe and fittings of a value of more than $200.00 per month after February 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year, complete and accurate records of each such purchase or sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer or the seller, the price paid or received, and the specifications and quantity of cast iron soil pipe and fittings purchased or sold.

(b) Every manufacturer, jobber or wholesaler who sells cast iron soil pipe and fittings for shipment originating from some place other than a foundry shall file with the Office of Price Administration before April 1, 1942, a notarized document containing a description and explanation of the free delivery zone or zones recognized by the seller on October 1, 1941, or a notarized statement that no such zone or zones were recognized.

§ 1306.305 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Revised Price Schedule No. 100, as amended, are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Revised Price Schedule No. 100, as amended, or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1306.306 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking any modification of this Revised Price Schedule No. 100, as amended, or an adjustment or exception not provided for therein may file petitions for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1 [2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1306.307 Definitions. (a) When used in this Revised Price Schedule No. 100, as amended, the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons or legal successor or representative of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other Government agency, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Manufacturer" means a person operating a foundry or plant which produces cast iron soil pipe and fittings. Except for purposes of the records requirements of § 1306.304, the term includes, without restricting the generality of the foregoing, any manufacturer's representative, factory commission salesman, or other manufacturer's agent.

(3) "Jobber" and the term "wholesaler" means a person who purchases cast iron soil pipe for purposes of resale, normally maintains a line of pipe and fittings, and sells primarily to plumbers, contractors and industrial concerns.

(4) "Cast iron soil pipe and fittings" means cast iron soil pipe and fittings of the types listed in Appendices B and C of this Schedule.

(5) "Delivered price" means net price which may be charged by the seller for delivery at the proposed site of installation, including all commissions and all freight and delivery charges incident to transporting the pipe and fittings to the place of delivery as described in paragraph (c) (4) of § 1306.309, Appendix A.

(6) "Carload shipment" or the term "carload quantity" means a shipment or quantity of cast iron soil pipe and fittings, the aggregate weight of which totals at least the lowest applicable minimum carload weight as specified in the established tariff of the rail carrier involved, or for which a carload rate would be paid.

(7) "Jobbing point" means a site used by a manufacturer (other than a foundry site), jobber, or wholesaler for storing purchases of cast iron soil pipe and fittings and for distributing such commodities (such as a warehouse).

(8) "Proposed site of installation" means the site of the construction operation designated by the purchaser at which the soil pipe is to be installed.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1306.308 Effective date. Revised Price Schedule No. 100, as amended, (§§ 1306.301 to 1306.311, inclusive) shall become effective as of June 1, 1942.

§ 1306.309 Appendix A: Maximum delivered prices for cast iron soil pipe and fittings. (a) The minimum base discount from the list prices for cast iron soil pipe and fittings described in § 1306.310, Appendix B, shall be as follows:

2" to 6" Extra Heavy Pipe	52½
2" to 6" Medium Pipe	47½
2" to 6" Standard Pipe	42½
2" to 6" Fittings	37½
8" to 15" Pipe and Fittings	43½

(b) The minimum base discount from the list prices for "Victory" cast iron soil pipe described in § 1306.311, Appendix C, shall be as follows:

2" to 15" Victory Pipe	43½

(c) The maximum price for domestic sales of cast iron soil pipe, including "Victory" cast iron soil pipe, and fittings, delivered at the proposed site of installation shall be computed as follows:

(1) The applicable discount set forth in paragraph (a) or (b) of this Appendix A shall be reduced at the rate of ¼ point for each 25¢ per ton of freight computed at the lowest railroad tariff for a carload quantity from Birmingham, Alabama, to the jobbing point nearest to the proposed site of installation of the cast iron soil pipe and/or fittings. This adjusted discount shall be applied to the applicable list price for cast iron soil pipe and fittings described in § 1306.310, Appendix B, and for "Victory" cast iron soil pipe described in § 1306.311, Appendix C;

(2) A further delivery charge not to exceed the actual transportation charge paid for a shipment from the jobbing point to the proposed site of installation may be made: Provided, however, That where shipment is made direct from the foundry to the proposed site of installation a further charge may be made which shall not exceed an amount equal to a charge for transporting a shipment of identical weight from the jobbing point to the proposed site of installation calculated at the lowest applicable rate for a carrier of the type actually employed in making delivery. If either such delivery is made in a vehicle owned or controlled by the seller, the further delivery charge may not exceed the transportation charge for a shipment of identical weight calculated at the lowest applicable common railroad or motor carrier rate from the jobbing point to the proposed site of installation: Provided further, That no such further delivery charge may be demanded or collected:

(i) Unless the seller has filed the document or statement which he is required to file by § 1306.304 (b); and

(ii) Unless such further delivery charge is shown as a separate item on the billing or invoice; and

(iii) Unless the proposed site of installation of the cast iron soil pipe and/or fittings is outside the free delivery zone or zones recognized by the seller on October 1, 1941; or

(iv) If the delivery is made to a purchaser other than a jobber or wholesaler at the jobbing point.

(3) Where shipments are made by rail in carload quantities, or where shipments of 10 tons or more are made by common or contract carrier, the net delivered price at the jobbing point computed in accordance with paragraphs (c) (1) and (c) (2) of this Appendix A shall be reduced at least by a further discount of 10–10%.

(4) For purposes of this paragraph (c), the seller shall be considered as having delivered to the proposed site of installation when, in the case of a purchase from a jobber or wholesaler, or in the case of a purchase from a manufacturer by a person other than a jobber or wholesaler, a shipment by railroad arrives at the railroad siding nearest to the site designated by the purchaser, or when a shipment by motor carrier arrives at the site designated by the purchaser.

(d) The maximum price at which a person may export cast iron soil pipe and fittings shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Maximum Export Price Regulation [3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(i) Where the seller performs the service of wiring or otherwise bundling pipe and fittings for export shipment, an added charge of $1.00 per ton of pipe and fittings may be made.

(e) No additions to the maximum prices established in this Appendix A may be made for treating cast iron soil pipe and fittings with tar.

(f) Credit terms more onerous than those available or in effect on October 1, 1941, shall not be imposed by the seller.

[Amendment No. 2 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 130[1]]

STANDARD NEWSPRINT PAPER

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment is issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

In § 1347.280 (a), subparagraphs (3), (4), and (5) are redesignated (4), (5), and (6); and a new subparagraph (3) is added. Section 1347.282 (b) is amended to read as set forth below.

§ 1347.208 Definitions. (a) • • •

(3) "Super Standard" Newsprint Paper is a quality of Standard Newsprint Paper, with an average basis weight per shipment of not less than 34 pounds, subject to normal trade variation, which has been specially manufactured and processed in a manner to render it more suitable than ordinary Standard Newsprint Paper for printing by the rotogravure process.

§ 1347.282 Appendix A: Maximum prices for Standard Newsprint Paper. • • •

(b) Manufacturers' differentials for color and sheets. Manufacturers may add to the maximum prices established herein a price differential not in excess of $3.50 per ton for "Super Standard" quality, as hereinbefore defined, when such paper or the container or wrapper thereof is marked in such fashion as to indicate clearly it is sold for rotogravure printing. The payment of this differential by the purchaser shall constitute a guarantee to the Administrator that the purchaser will use such paper only for rotogravure printing. Manufacturers may also add price differentials for color, sheets, the squaring of sheets, or special packing equivalent to the differentials actually charged in sales by the manufacturer of Standard Newsprint Paper during the period from October 1, 1941, to October 15, 1941, inclusive. If no sale of Standard Newsprint Paper in color, sheets, squared sheets or special packaging was made in such period, there may be added to the maximum prices the price differentials which would have been charged during such period, using such cost factors as would have been used to complete such differentials during the period from October 1, 1941, to October 15, 1941, inclusive.

1393.12 Appendix A: Maximum Prices for ice.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of Maximum Price Regulation No. 154 As Amended, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

The title, preamble, and §§ 1393.1 to 1393.9, inclusive, are renumbered and amended to read as set forth herein:

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary to establish maximum prices for the sale of ice because the prices prevailing in March 1942 were abnormally low in relation to the prices in other industries. As the ice business is primarily seasonal in nature, it has been the custom in the ice business to make price increases only at the beginning of the summer season, which occurs in most regions of the United States in the month of April. Accordingly, in most cases, the prices for ice prevailing in March 1942 did not reflect increased costs incurred since the summer season of 1941, and consequently, as noted above, were abnormally low in relation to the prices prevailing in other industries in which price increases are not limited to a particular time of year. The maximum prices established by this Regulation are, in the judgment of the Price Administrator, generally fair and equitable, and in conformity with the general level of prices established by the General Maximum Price Regulation.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 154 As Amended is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1393.1 to 1393.13 inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

Specifically, but not exclusively, the following practices are prohibited:

(a) The reduction or elimination of discounts in effect during April 1942, with respect to any particular class of purchasers, or, where the seller's maximum price for ice is established under § 1393.12 (a) (2), the reduction or elimination during any of the months from April to October, inclusive, of the discounts in effect during the corresponding month of 1941 with respect to any particular class of purchasers.

(b) Changes in the classification of purchasers of ice which were in effect during April 1942, or, where the seller's maximum price for ice is established under § 1393.12 (a) (2), changes during any months from April to October, inclusive, in the classification of purchasers of ice in effect during the corresponding month of 1941.

Price Regulation No. 154 as amended, are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages and proceedings for the suspension of licenses provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 154 as amended, or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest Field, State, or Regional office of the Office of Price Administration, or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

(b) In making application for adjustment under paragraph (a) of this section, any manufacturer of ice who sells ice at retail and also sells ice to distributors and peddlers for resale at retail may make application for adjustment on behalf of those distributors and peddlers who customarily purchase ice from him. If an adjustment of the manufacturer's maximum price is granted upon such application, a like adjustment of the maximum prices of the distributors and peddlers included in the application may be granted. In any such case the manufacturer's prices to such distributors and peddlers may be, but are not required to be, increased by an amount not in excess of the adjustment granted with respect to retail prices.

(c) Any seller at retail who finds that his maximum price for ice and the maximum prices for other retail sellers for ice are abnormally low in relation to the level of maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 154 as amended for manufacturers or wholesalers of ice and that this relationship subjects sellers at retail of ice generally to substantial hardship should immediately communicate such information in writing to the Retail Trade and Services Division, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., so that the Price Administrator may take appropriate action.

§ 1393.10 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 154 as amended the term:

(1) "Platform sale" (or bridge, or dock sale) is a sale of ice, delivery of which is made to the purchaser at the seller's place of business.

(2) "Delivered sale" is a sale of ice delivered to a purchaser at a point other than the seller's place of business.

(3) "Highest price charged" shall be (i) the highest price which the seller charged for ice delivered by him during any designated period or (ii) if the seller made no such delivery during any designated period, his highest offering price for delivery during that designated period.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

(2) Alternative maximum prices. During the months from April to October inclusive, a seller of ice may charge on a delivered sale or a platform sale for any form, quantity, and quality of ice, the highest price charged by the seller for such form, quantity, and quality of ice on a delivered sale or on a platform sale respectively during the corresponding month of 1941 to a purchaser of the same class: Provided, That to avail himself of this alternative method of determining maximum prices the seller must be able to demonstrate by appropriate written records what his prices actually were during the corresponding months of 1941 and must preserve such records and make them available for examination by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Maximum prices determined by reference to maximum prices of most closely competitive seller—(1) Generally. If the seller's maximum price for ice cannot be determined under paragraph (a) (1) of this section, and is not or cannot be determined under paragraph (a) (2) of this section, the seller's maximum delivered price and the seller's maximum platform price for any form, quantity, and quality of ice shall be the maximum price established under paragraph (a) (1) of this section for the most closely competitive seller of the same class for such form, quantity, and quality of ice on a delivered sale or on a platform sale respectively to a purchaser of the same class.

(2) Alternative maximum prices. If a seller has customarily charged higher prices during the summer season than during the rest of the year, and if the seller's maximum price for ice cannot be determined under paragraph (a) (2) of this section, the seller may charge during the months from April to October inclusive, on a delivered sale or on a platform sale for any form, quantity, and quality of ice the maximum price established under paragraph (a) (2) of this section for the most closely competitive seller of the same class for such form, quantity, and quality of ice on a delivered sale or on a platform sale respectively to a purchaser of the same class.

(c) No seller shall require any purchaser, and no purchaser shall be permitted to pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery or supply of ice than the seller required purchasers of the same class to pay during April 1942, except that during the months of April to October inclusive, where the seller's maximum price for ice is established by paragraph (a) (2) of this section, no seller shall require any purchaser, and no purchaser shall be permitted to pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery or supply of ice than the seller required purchasers of the same class to pay during the corresponding month of 1941.

(d) The charges made for any special service shall not exceed the charge made during April 1942 except that where, during the months from April to October, inclusive, the seller's maximum price for ice is established by paragraph (a) (2) of this section, the charges made for any special services shall not exceed the charges made during the corresponding month of 1941.

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

Chapter IV—War Shipping Administration

[General Order 15]

PART 303—TERMINAL OPERATIONS

Whereas by Executive Order 9054, dated February 7, 1942, the President established the War Shipping Administration in order to assure the most effective utilization of the shipping of the United States for the successful prosecution of the war; and

Whereas the Administrator deems it appropriate to issue the following Order concerning the handling of vessels owned or under charter to the War Shipping Administration, the use of terminal facilities by agents or general agents (including any subsidiary or other Company whom the Administrator deems should be included for accounting purposes in order to determine fair and reasonable charges) of the War Shipping Administration, and rates and charges therefor.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the power vested in me by the aforesaid Executive Order: It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 303.1 Designation of terminals within continental United States. (a) Unless otherwise determined by the Administrator, terminals to be used in all ports shall be designated by the agents or general agents of the vessels with due regard for the most efficient and economical handling of the ship's business.

(b) Unless otherwise determined by the Administrator, and except as provided in § 303.3 the agent or general agent in ports within the continental limits of the United States may:

(1) (i) when the designated terminal is not owned or rented by the agent or general agent, pay and charge against the vessel the going tariff rates, less all refunds, in the ports for charges customarily assumed by the vessel for the use of such terminals when said tariff rates are duly filed and approved by a governmental regulating body;

(ii) when the terminal is rented by the agent or general agent, charge against the vessel a fair and reasonable proportion of the actual monthly cost to him for the terminal operating costs which will include rental, fire and liability insurance, light, heat, power, repairs and upkeep, pier superintendent, head receiving and delivery clerk, watchman or gateman, plus compensation insurance and taxes on such personnel.

(iii) when the terminal is owned by the agent or general agent, charge against the vessel a fair and reasonable proportion of a monthly rental rate for the terminal facilities as determined by the Administrator.

(2) pay and charge against the vessel the actual cost for checkers, tallyman, dock labor, coopers, and special cargo or ship's watchman, including compensation insurance and taxes on such labor.

§ 303.2 Payment of tariff rates. Where under the established tariff applicable to any terminal any of the above charges are charged against the cargo rather than against the vessel, such charges shall be paid by the cargo and not by the agent or general agent. The agent or general agent shall make collections from the cargo and remit such collections to the terminal company in accordance with the usual practice.

(a) Where some or all of the expense of the terminal is assumed by the vessel, the vessel's revenue shall be credited with all handling charges collected from the cargo.

§ 303.3 Compensation of general agents or agents. A general agent or agent who directly or through an affiliate performs general supervisory services at a terminal in connection with handling the vessel's business shall be compensated for his services, or a general agent or agent who employs a sub-agent to perform such services at a terminal shall compensate his sub-agent and be reimbursed on the following basis:

Manifest tons handled by each vessel at 5¢ per ton; with a minimum of $100.00 per vessel: Provided, however, That this schedule of fees shall not apply:

(a) When a public terminal or private terminal company not affiliated with the agent or general agent (as determined by the Administrator) performs such supervisory services under a stipulated tariff rate;

(b) In any port outside of the United States, its Territories and Possessions;

(c) In terminals where supervision is handled by special agreement with the War Shipping Administration;

(d) To liquid cargoes at any terminal or sugar, bulk, or other cargoes loaded or discharged at refineries, sugar docks, ore docks, coal docks, lumber or other mills or at private terminals not owned or leased by the agent or general agent or his affiliates. In such cases the agent may charge against the vessel the actual net cost for such dockage, clerking, checking and watching as is customarily and properly incurred for the account of the vessel.

§ 303.4 Basis of compensation to general agents and agents. As approved or required by the Administrator, the net of the terminal operations of each pier or terminal of each general agent or agent shall be taken into consideration in making determination under §§ 330.10 and 330.12 under General Order No. 12 and in accordance with fiscal regulations issued thereunder.

§ 303.5 Reports of general agents and agents. This order shall become effective with the handling of all vessels under G. A. A. 4-4-42 and T. C. A. 4-4-42. All general agents and agents operating terminals where any part of the cost of the operation is charged to vessels owned by or operated for the account of the War Shipping Administration will come within the provisions of this order. Each such general agent or agent shall submit immediately for approval to the Assistant Deputy Administrator for Fiscal Affairs a report containing full data as to location, complete description, rental rate, maintenance, upkeep, etc., of rented piers and similar information including cost and depreciated value of owned piers and such other information as the Administrator may require.

§ 303.6 Method of computing charges. All charges shall be billed and allocated against the vessel in accordance with such fiscal regulations as may from time to time be prescribed by the Assistant Deputy Administrator for Fiscal Affairs. In allowing such charges, the Administrator shall take into account charges made by the agent or general agent against any other agencies of the United States or for the use of terminal for lend-lease or defense aid cargo and may reduce the charges herein provided to the extent that charges are made against other agencies or for the use of terminal for lend-lease or defense aid cargo in excess of the rates provided by this order.

By order of the War Shipping Administration.

§ 330.21 Vessels included. Sections 330.21 to 330.28 of General Order No. 12, as amended by Supplement 1 thereto, are applicable to services rendered in connection with the operation of combination cargo and passenger vessels for the War Shipping Administration under the standard form of service agreement for vessels time chartered from others for the War Shipping Administration (TCA-4-4-42) and the services rendered pursuant to standard form of service agreement for vessels of which the War Shipping Administration is owner or owner pro hac vice (GAA-4-4-42).

§ 330.22 Effective period. Sections 330.21 to 330.28 shall become effective at the earliest dates permissible under such service agreements.

§ 330.23 Definition of terms. The words defined in §§ 330.3, 330.4, 330.5 and 330.6 of General Order No. 12, as amended by Supplement No. 1 thereto, shall have the same meaning in §§ 330.21 to 330.28, except that the terms "general agent" and "agent" shall be deemed to include wholly owned subsidiaries or any other related or interested companies that the Administrator deems should be included for accounting purposes in order to determine fair and reasonable income and expenses.

The term "passenger" as used in §§ 330.21 to 330.28 means each person carried on the vessel other than members of the gun crew, the master, and licensed and unlicensed personnel of the vessel, and military personnel when the vessel is operated as a troop transport.

§ 330.24 Compensation of agents in continental United States ports. Agents for combination cargo and passenger vessels shall be compensated for the handling of cargo at the same rates as provided in § 330.7 of General Order No. 12, as amended for Agents of cargo vessels. In addition, the agents of combination cargo and passenger vessels shall receive as compensation for services rendered in connection with transportation of passengers the following fees: $3 for each passenger carried outward, and $2 for each passenger carried homeward or between out ports.

§ 330.25 Compensation of sub-agents at ports outside of continental United States. As compensation for services rendered outside of the continental limits of the United States including Alaska, the agent may pay with respect to cargo handled or for other services performed at rates provided in § 330.8 of General Order No. 12. In addition, the agent may pay with respect to passengers the prevailing commercial rates, but not in excess of the following: $2 for each passenger embarked, and $1 for each passenger disembarked.

§ 330.26 Compensation of general agents. No compensation shall be paid to any general agent for his services in connection with the management and operation of the vessels where such vessels are chartered under a charter party that makes allowances for the general agents' services (whether designated as overhead or otherwise in the charter party), except, however, the general agent may receive payment for the amounts hereinabove provided for the account of sub-agents, where such services are performed by branch office of the general agent located outside the continental limits of the United States including Alaska.

In cases where the general agent does not receive an allowance for services under a charter party for the combination cargo and passenger vessel, he shall be compensated both (a) as agent to the extent provided in § 330.24, and (b) as general agent to the extent provided below. From the sums received under the agency formula he shall compensate all agents as provided in Article 6 of the standard form of service agreement (GAA-4-4-42). From his compensation as general agent he shall compensate all sub-agents performing services that are required to be performed by him under the service agreement. In addition to the agency fees, the general agent in such cases will be paid compensation as provided in § 330.9 of General Order No. 12, except that "payable tons" for combination cargo and passenger vessels shall be the gross tonnage of each such vessel multiplied by two, and, in the event that the general agent has been allocated cargo vessels as well as combination cargo and passenger vessels, the compensation payable to the general agent shall not be calculated separately for cargo vessels and combination cargo and passenger vessels, but, in such case, the combined payable tons of both types of vessels shall be used in determining the compensation due the general agent for services rendered in connection with both types of vessels.

§ 330.27 Adjustments. The compensation of agents and general agents shall be subject to adjustment in accordance with §§ 330.9, 330.10 and 330.11 of Part I of General Order No. 12.

§ 330.28 Accounting. The provisions of § 330.12 of General Order No. 12 are incorporated in §§ 330.21–330.28 and made a part hereof by reference.

[Docket Nos. B–123 and B–124]

NAPIER AND HENSLEY

CEASE AND DESIST ORDER, ETC.

In the matter of John L. Napier and Shelby Hensley, individually and as co-partners, doing business under the name and style of Napier and Hensley, Code Member.

Order approving and adopting proposed findings of fact, proposed conclusions of law, and recommendation of the Examiner, and cease and desist order.

This proceeding was instituted upon complaints filed by the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to section 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by District Board No. 8.[1] The complaints allege that John L. Napier and Shelby Hensley, copartners, a code member in District No. 8, operating mines designated as Mine Index Nos. 1516 and 1542, wilfully violated the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the Bituminous Coal Code, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and particularly, Price Instruction (A) 5, as set forth in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 8 For Truck Shipments, wherein complainant prayed that the Division either cancel and revoke the code membership of John L. Napier and Shelby Hensley or, in its discretion, direct the code member to cease and desist from further violations of the Act, the Code, and the rules and regulations pursuant thereto.

Pursuant to an Order of the Acting Director dated January 14, 1942, and after due notice to interested persons, this matter came on for hearing on February 17, 1942, before Joseph A. Huston, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Middlesboro, Kentucky. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise participate fully in the hearing. Appearances were entered in behalf of District Board No. 8 and John L. Napier and Shelby Hensley.

The Examiner, on June 1, 1942, submitted his Report, Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law, and Recommendation. He found that code members Napier and Hensley wilfully violated section 4 II (e) of the Act and of the Code by (a) selling and delivering on or about July 15, 1941, 25 tons of high volatile run of mine coal (Size Group 6), produced at Mine Index Nos. 1516 and 1542 at $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. the Post Office, Pineville, Kentucky, whereas the effective minimum price established for such coal, as set forth in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 8 for Truck Shipments, is $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. the mine; (b) selling and delivering to the County of Bell, Kentucky, between October 15, 1940 and May 22, 1941, both dates inclusive, approximately 169.5 tons of high volatile stoker coal (Size Group 3) produced at Mine Index Nos. 1516 and 1542 at $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. Pineville, Kentucky, whereas the effective minimum price for such coal, as set forth in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 8 For Truck Shipments is $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. the mine; (c) selling and delivering between October 15, 1940 and May 22, 1941, both dates inclusive, approximately 172 tons of high volatile run of mine coal (Size Group 6) produced at Mine Index Nos. 1516 and 1542 at $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. Pineville, Kentucky, whereas the effective minimum price established for such coal, as set forth in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 8 For Truck Shipments is $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. the mine. The Examiner found that the code member failed to add the actual or reasonably estimated costs of transporting the coal from the mine to the points at which it was delivered to the respective purchasers, and thereby violated the provisions of Price Instruction 5, as set forth on page 3 of the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 8 For Truck Shipments.

Based upon his proposed findings of fact, the Examiner recommended that an order be entered directing John L. Napier and Shelby Hensley, copartners, as partners and as individuals, their officers, representatives, agents, servants, employees, and successors or assigns, and all persons acting or claiming to act for or in their behalf or interest, to cease and desist from further violations of the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 8 for Truck Shipments, or from otherwise violating the provisions of the Act, the Code, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

An opportunity was afforded to all parties to file exceptions to the Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law, and Recommendation of the Examiner. No exceptions thereto have been filed.

The undersigned has determined that the proposed findings of fact and the proposed conclusions of law of the Examiner in this matter should be approved and adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the undersigned.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the said proposed findings of fact and proposed conclusions of law of the Examiner be, and they hereby are, approved and adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the undersigned.

It is further ordered, That effective forthwith, John L. Napier and Shelby Hensley, copartners, as partners and as individuals, their officers, representatives, agents, servants, employees, and successors or assigns, and all persons acting or claiming to act for or in their behalf or interest, be, and they hereby are, directed to cease and desist from further violations of the Schedule 3 of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 8 for Truck Shipments, or from otherwise violating the provisions of the Act, the Code, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

It is further ordered, That if the code members or either of them fail or refuse to comply with this order, the Division may apply to a Circuit Court of Appeals within the circuit wherein they reside or carry on business for the enforcement thereof, or take such further action as may be appropriate in the premises.

Dated: July 3, 1942.

PART 331—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 11

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF TO EDWARDSPORT EXCAVATING COMPANY

Memorandum opinion and order concerning temporary and provisionally final relief in the matter of the petition of the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 11 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for truck shipment for the Edwardsport Mine of the Edwardsport Excavating Company.

This proceeding was instituted upon an original petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on March 30, 1942, by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 11 (hereinafter referred to as "District Board No. 11"), pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. Petitioner seeks the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for coals produced at the Edwardsport Mine, Mine Index No. 1313, Knox County, Indiana, by the Edwardsport Excavating Company.

A petition to intervene was filed on April 6, 1942, by the Edwardsport Excavating Company.

An informal conference was held in this matter on April 17, 1942, at a hearing room of the Division in Washington, D. C. Telegraphic notice of the conference was sent to interested persons. Appearances were entered by petitioner, by the Edwardsport Excavating Company, and by the Public Service Company of Indiana, Inc.

Discussion at the informal conference revealed that the Edwardsport Mine, located in Vigo Township, Knox County, Indiana, consists of a number of coal properties leased by the Public Service Company of Indiana. All coal produced comes from the Sixth Vein and is consumed by the lessee at its Edwardsport generating plant in Knox County. Like all other Sixth Vein mines in Knox County, the Edwardsport Mine is a truck mine. It is operated by the strip method. The coal is extracted by the Edwardsport Excavating Company, a partnership consisting of Ollie Richardson and John Kerzan, Jr., acting as independent contractor under contracts with the Public Service Company. The independent contractor has "complete and sole supervision over and responsibility for the mining operations * * *"[1] It owns the stripping and loading shovels, a tipple located about a mile from the pit, and the trucks by which the coal is hauled from the mine to the tipple. At the tipple, the mine run coal is passed through a 2" bar screen; the oversized coal passes on to a belt-picking table where impurities are discarded; and thereafter both undersized and oversized coal, having been mixed in the same bin, is hauled by independent truckers as mine run coal to the power plant. The distance from the tipple to the power plant is about 3 miles. At the tipple, the mine run coal is crushed, for the power plant has use for coal only below 1½".

In 1941, 305,617 tons of coal were delivered to, and 288,500 tons of coal were consumed at, the Edwardsport power plant of the Public Service Company of Indiana. The source of 240,422 tons of this coal was the Edwardsport Mine. The remaining 25 percent of the tonnage delivered to the power plant was purchased from other truck mines in Knox County, in both the Fifth and Sixth Veins. According to E. W. Hebel, representative of the Public Service Company at the informal conference, the Edwardsport Mine alone could satisfy the entire fuel requirements of the power plant. However, coal is purchased from other mines in Knox County, it was said, partly as a favor to them and partly because it has been found that a mixture of Fifth and Sixth Vein coals affords more efficient generation.

The cost to the Public Service Company of the coal produced at the Edwardsport Mine as delivered to the power plant is $1.35 per ton. $1.25 of this amount goes to remunerate the independent contractor for the mining of the coal and trucking it to the generating plant, and 10 cents a ton is paid as royalties to the lessors.

Jonas Waffle, Chairman of District Board No. 11, explained that action has been taken only now to have minimum prices established for the Edwardsport Mine, although the Excavating Company became a code member in April 1940, because applications for orders exempting the various coal acreages constituting the Edwardsport Mine from the provisions of Section 4 of the Act had been filed by the Public Service Company under Section 4–A of the Act and had been pending before the Division. On February 28, 1941, counsel for the applicant and the General Counsel of the Division entered into a stipulation providing, inter alia, that if the Director's Order denying exemption in the Seaboard Air Line Railway Case were sustained by the United States Supreme Court, the Public Service Company "'consents to the entry of an order of the Director denying, on the merits * * *'" its application for exemption.[2] The Director's Order denying exemption to the Seaboard Air Line Railway was upheld by the Supreme Court.[3] An Order was then issued by the Acting Director, dated January 21, 1942, in which all pending exemption applications filed by the Public Service Company were denied, the denial to be effective within 60 days or as soon as temporary or final minimum prices were established for the Edwardsport Mine, whichever period was shorter.[4] (Docket No. 506–FD.)

Waffle stated that the Excavating Company requested the District Board on February 2, 1942, to initiate procedure for the procurement of price classifications for Edwardsport coals. Pursuant to a request of the Public Service Company, a conference was held February 13, 1942, at the office of the District Board between District Board officials and representatives of the independent contractor and of the power company. After the committee of the District Board to which the matter had been referred made its report, meetings were held by the Board at one of which representatives of the Excavating Company and of the Public Service Company were present. The District Board caused laboratory and screen analyses to be made of the coal produced at the mine. On the basis of these analyses and of data submitted to it by the Public Service Company, and as a result of the conferences and meetings, District Board No. 11 now proposes that the same price classifications and minimum prices be given coals produced at the Edwardsport Mine as are presently effective for coals produced at other Sixth Vein truck mines in Knox County.

The price recommended by District Board No. 11 for mine run coal produced at the Edwardsport Mine, such as has been delivered to the power plant, is $1.80 per ton f. o. b. the mine for truck shipment. If crushing and screening apparatus were installed at the mine or the tipple, and screenings 1½" and under (Size Group 14) were produced, the f. o. b. mine price would be $1.25 per ton.

Kerzan stated that he would have no objection to an f. o. b. mine price of $1.11 being established for Edwardsport screenings whereby the delivery cost to the power plant for Edwardsport coals would continue to be $1.35 a ton.

Hebel announced that the Public Service Company was opposed to granting the relief asked by the District Board for two reasons. In the first place, Hebel contended that the Division is without statutory authority to fix prices for coal that is produced by an independent contractor for the owner thereof who consumes it. The basis for this contention lies in a restricted interpretation of the decision in Gray v. Powell. Hebel asserted that Gray v. Powell only holds that the independent contractor who extracts coal for the owner must accept the Code. He denied that support may be found in the decision for the proposition that prices may be prescribed for transactions in which no sale of coal takes place.

The Act sets forth in Section 4–A the procedure that is to be followed in applying for exemption from the price fixing provisions of the Act. In this proceeding instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, no argument may be directed against existence in the Director of authority to fix prices. Moreover, it would seem that the company is estopped by its stipulation with the Division to claim exemption. In any event, it is clear that the scope of Gray v. Powell is not to be restricted to the holding that the determination of the Director that an independent contractor in extracting the consumer's coal was to be deemed the producer thereof was not to be disturbed. The court was faced with the contention of the Seaboard Air Line Railway that, when title is not transferred by the producer, price provisions of the Act do not apply. It was expressly held that a sale is not a necessary condition to the existence of the price fixing powers of the Director.

In the second place, Hebel expressed opposition, on behalf of the Public Service Company, to the prices themselves which have been proposed by District Board No. 11. Without himself proposing any specific prices to be substituted for those recommended by the District Board, Hebel contended that the recommended prices should not be established for the Edwardsport Mine because of an alleged requirement of the Act that differentiation in classification must be made between coals produced for commercial sale and those produced for use by the owner thereof. Hebel pointed out that an independent contractor who extracts coal for the use of the owner has no costs attributable to investment in land. Such a producer has no selling expenses; and his administrative expenses are substantially less than those borne by the producer of coal for the open market. Therefore, Hebel argued, in fixing minimum prices for the Edwardsport Mine, there should be subtracted from the minimum price per ton effective for commercial coal an amount which is equal to the costs of production per ton which the producer of such coal has to bear but which are not born by the Excavating Company.

However, the Act does not require that the price structure be so fashioned that each individual producer will realize only his costs of production; and, hence,

[1] Language of the stipulation entered into between the Public Service Company and the Bituminous Coal Division in certain dockets of which the representative of the Public Service Company at the informal conference requested that judicial notice be taken.

[2] The Language of the stipulation is thus quoted in the Acting Director's Order dated January 21, 1942.

[3] Gray v. Powell, 312 U. S. 666, 61 S. Ct. 824, 85 L. Ed. 1111 (1941).

[4] Orders subsequently entered on March 18, 1942, April 23, 1942, and May 21, 1942, have extended the effective date of denial to 150 days, 506 FD. etc.

the Act does not call for any differentiation in classification such as has been suggested by Hebel. The Act does require that in each defined minimum price area the average weighted costs of production be realized; but, once this requirement is satisfied, costs of production are not further involved in the process of price fixing contemplated by the Act. What is involved is the coordinating of prices in a fair and reasonable manner, for coals moving into common consuming market areas. As nearly as possible, the price structure is to preserve existing fair competitive opportunities and reflect the relative market value of coals.

It is claimed by Hebel that, in no event, ought the prices to be established for the Edwardsport coals result in an increase over their present delivered cost to the power plant. It is claimed that an increase will constitute a disruption of a fair competitive relationship now existing between the Edwardsport Mine and other truck mines in Knox County. It is true that maintenance of the differential presently existing between Edwardsport coals and those produced at other truck mines in the Sixth Vein in Knox County will not be detrimental to these other truck mines, because abolition of the differential will probably be of no benefit to the other truck mines. The Public Service Company will probably not purchase more of its fuel requirements from independent operators than it does now should the recommended prices be established.[1]

But it cannot be successfully contended that anything in the price provisions of the Act requires the maintenance of the existing differential between Edwardsport coals and those of commercial truck mines in the Sixth Vein. Preservation of the existing differential will not make for a preservation of existing fair competitive opportunities. No fair, competitive relationship can be said to exist between unregulated coals produced at the Edwardsport Mine and the regulated coals produced at other truck mines in Knox County.

On the contrary, discussion at the informal conference indicates that abolition of the differential by establishing the same prices for the Edwardsport Mine as are effective now for other Sixth Vein truck mines in Knox County will cause the price structure to reflect the relative value of Edwardsport coals as against other Sixth Vein truck coals produced in Knox County. The analyses made of the Edwardsport coals by District Board No. 11 show that these coals are analogous to other Sixth Vein coals produced in Knox County.

This has not been denied. Kerzan admitted that if the Edwardsport coals were sold in the open market he would "probably not" object to the price classifications advocated by the District Board on the basis of the quality of the Edwardsport coals. Furthermore, Waffle pointed out that, whereas the Director in the proceeding designated and known as "General Docket No. 15," had determined that the properly-related differential between Standard Fifth Vein and Sixth Vein coals in screening and industrial sizes was 15 cents on a delivered basis in favor of the Sixth Vein Coals, the differential on a delivered basis that will exist under the prices recommended by District Board No. 11 between the Edwardsport coals and Standard Fifth Vein screenings which could move into the power plant by rail will be 32 cents in favor of Edwardsport coal. Waffle stated that in his opinion the District Board "has been rather generous in not insisting" upon properly-related delivered prices between Edwardsport and Standard Fifth Vein screenings.

The statements of Waffle made at the informal conference show that District Board No. 11 proposed price classifications and minimum prices as proper for the coals produced at the Edwardsport Mine by the Edwardsport Excavating Company after full consideration of all pertinent data, including the points of view held by the producer and by the consumer, the Public Service Company.

As stated above, the fact that certain costs are not encountered by the producer of Edwardsport coals that are borne by producers of comparable quality in Knox County does not require that a price lower than that accorded coals of comparable quality be fixed for Edwardsport coals. There appears to be support for the contention that the prices proposed by the District Board properly relate the coals to comparable coals. However, the Public Service Company should not have to pay more for coal at the Edwardsport tipple than other consumers would have to pay. Provision should be made for the allowance to the Public Service Company of a credit from the price effective f. o. b. the mine equal to whatever royalties the company pays directly to the lessor for the production of coal at the mine.

I conclude that the proposed prices less the royalty will effectuate the provisions of subsections (a) and (b) of section 4 II of the Act and that they may and should be established.

It is, therefore, ordered, That pending final disposition of the above entitled matters temporary relief be and the same hereby is granted as follows:

1. Commencing forthwith § 331.24 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 11 for Truck Shipments is amended by the establishment for the coals produced at the Edwardsport Mine, Mine Index No. 1313, by the Edwardsport Excavating Company of the minimum prices set forth in Supplement T, annexed to and made a part hereof.

2. § 331.21 (Price instructions and exceptions—(b) Price exceptions) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 11 for Truck Shipments be, and it hereby is, amended by the establishment of the following price exception:

So long as the Public Service Company of Indiana, Inc., continues to assume the burden of royalty payments involved in the production of coal at the Edwardsport Mine, Mine Index No. 1313, a credit from the minimum prices effective f. o. b. the Edwardsport Mine equal to such royalty payments may be extended to the Public Service Company of Indiana, Inc.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the petition in the above entitled matter, and applications to stay, terminate, or modify the temporary relief herein granted, may be filed with the Division within 30 days from the date of this order, pursuant to Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final 45 days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: June 22, 1942.

[SEAL] DAN H. WHEELER,
Acting Director.

[1] Hebel indicated that, if the delivered cost to the power plant of screenings produced at the Edwardsport Mine is above $1.35 per ton after prices are established, the Edwardsport Mine might be transformed into a captive mine.

SUBPART A—APPLICABILITY

§ 315.1 Applicability of regulations. These regulations apply generally to all United States Savings Bonds of all series of whatever designation and bearing any issue dates whatever except as otherwise specifically provided herein.

SUBPART B—REGISTRATION

§ 315.2 General. United States Savings Bonds will be issued only in registered form. The name and complete post office address of the owner, as well as the name of the coowner or designated beneficiary, if any, and the date as of which the bond is issued will be inscribed thereon at the time of issue by an authorized issuing agent.[1] The form of registration used must express the actual ownership of and interest in the bond and, except as otherwise specifically provided in these regulations, will be considered as conclusive of such ownership and interest. No designation of an attorney, agent or other representative to request or receive payment on behalf of the owner, nor any restriction on the right of such owner to receive payment of the bond, other than as provided in these regulations, may be made in the registration or otherwise.

§ 315.3 Restrictions. Only residents (whether individuals or others) of the United States, including its territories and insular possessions, the Canal Zone and the Philippine Islands, and American citizens temporarily residing abroad, may be named as owners, coowners or designated beneficiaries, on bonds originally issued on or after April 1, 1940, or authorized reissues thereof.[2]

§ 315.4 Authorized forms of registration, Series E. Bonds of Series E may be registered only in the names of individuals (natutal persons), whether adults or minors, in their own right in one of the following forms of registration:

(a) One person. In the name of one person, for example: "John A. Jones."

(b) Two persons; coownership form. In the names of two (but not more than two) persons in the alternative as coowners, for example:

John A. Jones or Mrs. Ella S. Jones.

No other form of registration establishing coownership is authorized.

(c) Two persons; beneficiary form. In the name of one (but not more than one) person, payable on death to one (but not more than one) other person, for example:

John A. Jones, payable on death to Miss Mary E. Jones.

"Payable on death" may be abbreviated as "p. o. d." The first person named is hereinafter referred to as the owner or registered owner, and the second person named as the beneficiary or designated beneficiary. If it is desired that a bond revert to the United States upon the death of the owner as a donation, it may be registered in the name of the owner with the Treasurer of the United States named as beneficiary.

The full name of the owner and that of the coowner or beneficiary, if any, should be used and should be the name by which the person is ordinarily known and under which he does business; if there are two given names the initial of one may be used, and if a person is habitually known and does business by initial only of his given names, registration may be in such form. The name may be preceded by any applicable title such as "Dr.", "Rev.", etc., and in the case of women should be preceded by "Mrs." or "Miss". A married woman's own name should be used, not that of her husband, for example, "Mrs. Mary A. Jones", not "Mrs. Frank B. Jones". A minor, whether or not under legal guardianship, may be named as owner or coowner, if the bonds are purchased as a gift to him and a minor may name a coowner or beneficiary on bonds purchased by him from his wages, earnings, or other money in his possession; but bonds purchased by a parent or guardian with funds already belonging to a minor must be registered in the minor's name alone without the addition of a coowner or beneficiary. If a person named in the registration of the bond is under legal disability and a guardian or similar representative of his estate has been appointed by a court or is otherwise legally qualified, the registration should indicate such facts by the addition of appropriate words, for example, "Frank Jones, a minor under legal guardianship of Henry Smith". Bonds should not be registered in the name of a person under disability for reasons other than minority unless a legal representative of his estate has been appointed.

§ 315.5 Authorized forms of registration, Series F and G. Bonds of Series F or G may be registered in the names of individuals in their own right as set forth in § 315.4 above, and subject to the same conditions as therein set forth. Bonds of these two series may also be registered in the names of fiduciaries, corporations, associations or partnerships, except that they may not be registered in the names of commercial banks, that is, banks accepting demand deposits in the usual and general course of business. The following forms are authorized for such registration:

(a) Executors, administrators, guardians, etc. In the name of one or more executors, administrators, guardians, conservators, or other representatives of a single estate appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise legally qualified, all of whose names must be included in the registration, followed by adequate identifying reference to the estate, for example:

"John Smith, executor of the will (or administrator of the estate) of Henry J. Smith, deceased", or "William C. Jones, guardian (or conservator, etc.) of the estate of James D. Brown, a minor (or an incompetent)."

If a guardian or other legal representative holds a common fund for the account of two or more estates or wards, bonds should be registered in the name of the representative for each such estate or ward separately, even though the representative was appointed in a single proceeding. A father or mother, as such, or as natural guardian, is not considered a fiduciary for purposes of registration.

(b) Trustees. In the name or names of one or more trustees or other fiduciaries of a single duly constituted trust estate, which will be considered as an entity, followed by adequate identifying reference to the trust instrument or other authority creating the trust, for example:

John C. Brown and the First National Bank, trustees under the will of Henry C. Brown, deceased, or The Second National Bank, trustee under an agreement with George E. White, dated February 1, 1935.

The names of all trustees must be given, unless they are too numerous, act as a board or hold office for a limited period of time. Registration may be in the title without the names of the trustees in the case of unincorporated lodges, churches, societies or similar organizations, title to whose property is held by trustees, and in the case of public officers, corporations or bodies acting as trustees under express authority of law, for example:

Trustees of the First Baptist Church, Akron, Ohio, an unincorporated association, or Treasurer of the State of Nebraska, in trust for the policyholders of X Corporation, under Section ____ of Nebraska Statutes.

If the instrument or other authority creating the trust establishes a board of trustees acting as a board and not as individuals, registration may be in the name of the board as such, for example:

Board of Trustees for the State Hospital for the Insane, under Section ____ of Nebraska Statutes.

Registration may not be made in the names of trustees under an agreement or other instrument purporting to create a trust where the funds used represent merely security for the performance of an obligation, except under a statute the terms of which expressly create an actual trust relationship.

(c) Pension or retirement funds, etc. Registration may be made in the names and title, or title, alone, of trustees of a pension or retirement fund or of an investment, savings, insurance, annuity, or similar fund or trust, but in all such cases the fund will be regarded as an entity regardless of the number of beneficiaries or the manner in which their respective interests are established or determined. Segregation of individual shares as a matter of bookkeeping or as a result of individual agreements with beneficiaries will not operate to constitute separate trusts under these regulations.

(d) Private corporations and associations. In the name of any private organization whether incorporated or unincorporated (except commercial banks as hereinbefore defined), using in each case the full legal name of the organization without mention of any officer or member but making reference, if desired, to a particular bookkeeping account or fund (not a trust), as follows:

(1) A private corporation, followed by the words "a corporation", for example: "Smith Manufacturing Company, a corporation";

(2) An unincorporated association, lodge, church, or society, or similar body, followed by the words "an unincorporated association", for example: "The Lotus Club, an unincorporated association". The term "an unincorporated association" should not be used to describe a trust fund, a partnership or a business conducted under a trade name;

(3) A partnership, considered as an entity, followed by the words "a partnership", for example: "Smith and Brown, a partnership".

(e) States and public corporations. In the full legal name or title of the owner or custodian of public funds, other than trust funds, as follows:

(1) Any sovereignty, as a State, or any public corporation, as a county, city, town or school district, for example: "State of Maine", or "Town of Rye, New York".

(2) Any board, commission or other public body duly constituted by law, for example: "Maryland State Highway Commission".

(3) Any public officer designated by title only, for example: "Treasurer, City of Chicago".

Registration may include reference to a particular bookkeeping account, if desired.

(f) Schools. Registration is not authorized in the name of an unincorporated or public school, or class or activity thereof. Bonds held for the benefit of such school, class or activity should be registered in the name of a school principal or other school officer, as trustee, by title only, for example: "Principal, Western High School, in trust for Class of 1940 Library Fund"; a written agreement of trust will not be required in cases of small amounts.

§ 315.6 Unauthorized registration. Savings bonds inscribed in a form not substantially in agreement with those authorized by this subpart will not be considered as validly issued and will be accepted only for a refund of the purchase price except in those cases in which reissue can be made under the provisions of these regulations.

§ 315.7 Forms of registration on reissue. Bonds reissued under the provisions of these regulations may be reissued in any form of registration permitted by the regulations in effect on the date of original issue.

SUBPART C—LIMITATION ON TRANSFER

§ 315.8 Not transferable. United States Savings Bonds are not transferable and are payable only to the owners named thereon except in case of the disability or death of the owner or as otherwise specifically provided herein, but in any event only in accordance with the provisions of these regulations. Accordingly, savings bonds may not be sold or hypothecated as collateral for a loan and may not be used as security for the performance of an obligation except as expressly provided in these regulations.

SUBPART D—LIMITATION ON HOLDINGS

§ 315.9 Amount which may be held. As provided by section 22 of the Second

[1] The date of maturity is also inscribed on Savings Bonds of Series A, Series B and Series D.

[2] Under the terms of Executive Order No. 8389, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder, bonds may not be issued to nationals (as defined in said order) of blocked countries or to nationals of enemy countries, whether or not residing in the United States, unless such nationals are generally or specially licensed under the terms of the order.

Liberty Bond Act, as added February 4, 1935 (U.S.C. 1940, Ed., title 31, section 757c), and by regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury pursuant to the authority of that section, as amended by the Public Debt Act of 1941, 55 Stat. 7, the amounts of savings bonds of the several series issued during any one calendar year that may be held by any one person at any one time are limited as follows:

(a) Series A, B, C and D—$10,000 (maturity value) of each series.

(b) Series E—$5,000 (maturity value).

(c) Series F and G—$50,000 (issue price) for the calendar year 1941 and $100,000 (issue price) for each calendar year thereafter, of either series or of the combined aggregate of both.

The term "person" shall mean any legal entity, including but not limited to, an individual, a partnership, a corporation (public or private), an unincorporated association or a trust estate.

§ 315.10 Calculation of amount. In computing the amount of savings bonds of any one series issued during any one calendar year held by any one person at any one time, for the purpose of determining whether the amount is in excess of the authorized limit as set forth in the next preceding section, the following rules shall govern:

(a) The holdings of each person, as defined in the next preceding section, individually and in a fiduciary capacity, shall be computed separately.

(b) In the case of bonds of Series A, B, C, D and E, the computation shall be based upon maturity values. In the case of bonds of Series F and G, the computation shall be based upon issue prices.

(c) There must be taken into account (1) all bonds originally issued to and registered in the name of that person alone or in his name with another as coowner, and (2) all bonds reissued to add his name as coowner under the provisions of § 315.29 (a) hereof, or to designate him as a coowner instead of as a beneficiary, under the provisions of § 315.35 hereof.

(d) There must be taken into account all bonds of Series A, B, C and D acquired before March 1, 1941, on the death of another or the happening of any other event, but not those of which such person is merely the designated beneficiary upon the death of the registered owner, or those held for his benefit by a fiduciary, unless he became entitled to such bonds absolutely before March 1, 1941, as the result of the death of the registered owner or the termination of the trust, as the case may be.

(e) Nothing herein contained shall be construed to invalidate any holdings within, or to validate any holdings in excess of, the authorized limits, as computed under the regulations in force at the time such holdings were acquired.

§ 315.11 Disposition of excess. If any person at any time acquires savings bonds issued during any one calendar year in excess of the prescribed amount the excess must be immediately surrendered for refund of the purchase price.

SUBPART E—LOST, STOLEN, MUTILATED, DEFACED OR DESTROYED BONDS

§ 315.12 Relief in case of loss, etc. Under the provisions of the Government Losses in Shipment Act, relief either by the issue of a substitute bond or by payment may be given in case of the loss, theft, destruction, mutilation or defacement of a savings bond. In any such case immediate notice of the facts, together with a complete description of the bond (including series, year of issue, serial number and name and address of the registered owner) should be given to the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, Merchandise Mart, Chicago, Illinois. The Department will thereupon furnish an appropriate form and full instructions for presenting the evidence necessary to secure relief under the law and the regulations as contained in Department Circular No. 300, as amended. If such bond is subsequently recovered immediate notice of such recovery should be given to the Division of Loans and Currency (at the address above), in order that delay may be avoided upon a later presentation of the bond for payment.

SUBPART F—SAFEKEEPING FACILITIES

§ 315.13 Safekeeping of bonds. Arrangements may be made for the safe keeping of a savings bond by the Treasury or by a Federal Reserve Bank as fiscal agent of the United States. Application forms for safekeeping may be secured from postmasters, Federal Reserve Banks or the Treasury Department.

SUBPART G—INTEREST

§ 315.14 General. United States Savings Bonds are issued in two forms: (1) appreciation bonds, issued on a discount basis and redeemable before maturity at increasing fixed redemption values; and (2) current income bonds, bearing interest payable semiannually and redeemable before maturity at fixed redemption values less than the face amount of the bond. At present Series G constitutes the only issue of current income savings bonds.

§ 315.15 Appreciation bonds. No interest as such is paid on savings bonds issued on a discount basis. Such bonds increase in redemption value at the end of the first year from issue date and at the end of each successive half-year period thereafter until their maturity, when the full amount becomes payable. The increment in value represents interest and is payable only on redemption of the bonds, whether at or before maturity.

§ 315.16 Current income bonds. Each such bond bears interest at a specified rate computed on the face amount of the bond and payable semiannually, beginning six months from issue date. Except for redemption at par as provided in § 315.18 (c) of Subpart H hereof, full advantage of interest at the rate specified may be secured only if the bonds are held to maturity; if bonds are redeemed before maturity at current redemption values the difference between the face or full maturity value and the current redemption value then payable in accordance with the table printed on the face of each bond, will represent an adjustment of interest for the rate appropriate for the shorter term, as set forth in the tables attached to the circular announcing the issue of such bonds.

(a) Method of interest payments. Interest due on current income bonds will be paid on each interest payment date by check drawn to the order of the person or persons in whose name the bond is inscribed in the same form as their names appear in the inscription on the bond, except that in the case of a bond registered in the form "A, payable on death to B", the check will be drawn to the order of A alone until the Treasury receives notice of A's death, from which date the payment of interest will be suspended until such time as the bond is presented for payment or reissue. Interest so withheld will be paid to the person entitled to payment of the bond, or in case of reissue to the person in whose name the bond is reissued. Interest checks on bonds registered in the names of coowners will be mailed to the payee first named at his address of record unless otherwise specifically directed.

(b) Reissue during interest period. If a current income bond is reissued for any reason between interest payment dates, interest for the entire period will be paid, on the next interest payment date, by check drawn to the person in whose name the bond is reissued. Ordinarily, if a bond is received for reissue less than a month prior to an interest payment date reissue cannot be effected until after such interest payment date.

(c) Change of address. Prompt notice should be given to the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, Merchandise Mart, Chicago, Illinois, of any change of address by the owner of current income bonds. The notice should refer to all bonds for which it is desired that the address be changed and should describe each bond by date, serial number, series (including year of issue) and inscription appearing on the face of the bond.

(d) Termination of interest. In case of redemption prior to maturity of current income bonds interest will cease on the last day of the interest period next preceding the date of redemption. In case of partial redemption interest on the amount redeemed will cease on the last day of the interest period next preceding the date of partial redemption, and interest due thereafter will be paid only on the lower amount remaining after partial redemption.

(e) Consolidation of checks. Whenever possible a single check will be issued on each payment date for interest on all current income bonds of a single series due to any owner on that date.

(f) Endorsement of checks. Interest checks must be endorsed in accordance with the requirements of the Treasurer of the United States, by the payees, either personally or by an attorney in fact, or in case of the death of the payee, by his executor or administrator. Forms for the appointment of such attorney may be obtained from the Treasurer of the United States or from any Federal Reserve Bank.

SUBPART H—GENERAL PAYMENT AND REDEMPTION PROVISIONS

§ 315.17 Payment at maturity. Pursuant to its terms, a savings bond of any series will be paid at or after maturity at its full face or maturity value, but only following presentation and surrender of the bond for that purpose with a request for payment properly signed and certified as herein provided.

§ 315.18 Redemption before maturity. Pursuant to its terms, a savings bond may not be called for redemption by the Secretary of the Treasury prior to maturity, but may be redeemed in whole or in part at the option of the owner, prior to maturity under the terms and conditions set forth in the offering circular of each series and in accordance with the provisions of these regulations, but only following presentation and surrender for that purpose with a request for payment duly signed and certified as provided herein.

(a) Series A, B, C, D and E. A bond of Series A, B, C, D or E will be redeemed in whole or in part at any time after 60 days from the issue date without advance notice, at the appropriate redemption value as shown on the face of the bond.

(b) Series F and G. A bond of Series F or G will be redeemed, in whole or in part, on one month's notice in writing, on the first day of any month not less than six months from the issue date, at the appropriate redemption value as shown on the face of the bond. The owner's option to redeem may be shown by a signed request for payment or by express written notice, and payment will be made as of the first day of the first month following by at least one full month the date of receipt of notice by the Treasury Department or a Federal Reserve Bank. For example, if the request or notice is received on June 15, the effective redemption date will be August 1. If express notice is given, the bond must be surrendered to the same agency to which the notice is given not less than fifteen days before the effective redemption date. (See § 315.16 (d) for provisions as to interest in case current income bonds are redeemed prior to maturity.)

(c) Series G—Redemption at par before maturity. Subject to the provisions of the preceding paragraph a bond of Series G (but not of Series F) will be redeemed at par before maturity, in whole or in part: (1) upon the death of the owner or a coowner if a natural person; or (2) if held by a trustee or other fiduciary upon the termination of the trust, in whole or in part, by reason of the death of any person. If the trust is terminated only in part, redemption at par will be made to the extent of not more than the pro rata portion of the trust so terminated and only in amounts corresponding to authorized denominations. Proof of death must be furnished and notice of intention to redeem at par before maturity must be received by the Treasury Department or a Federal Reserve Bank within four months after the date of death. Payment will ordinarily be made on the first available date: Provided, however, That payment will be postponed until the next interest payment date, upon request of the persons presenting the bond.

§ 315.19 Form and execution of requests for payment. Requests for payment of savings bonds, unless otherwise authorized in a particular case, must be executed on the form appearing on the back of the bond to be surrendered and unless otherwise specifically requested payment will be made pursuant to a duly executed request on the earliest day consistent with these regulations.

(a) Date of request. Ordinarily requests executed more than six months before the date of receipt of a bond by a Federal Reserve Bank or the Treasury Department will not be accepted.

(b) Identification and signature of owner. The registered owner in whose name the bond is inscribed, or such other person as may be entitled to payment under the provisions of these regulations, must appear before one of the officers authorized to certify requests for payment (See § 315.20 hereof), establish his identity and in the presence of such officer sign the request for payment in ink, adding in the space provided the address to which the check issued in payment is to be mailed. A signature made by mark (X) must be witnessed by at least one person in addition to the certifying officer and must be attested by endorsement in the blank space substantially as follows: "Witness to the above signature by mark", followed by the signature and address of the witness. If the name of the registered owner or other person entitled to payment, as it appears in the registration or in evidence on file at the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, has been changed by marriage or in any other legal manner, the signature to the request for payment should show both names and the manner in which the change was made, for example, "Miss Mary T. Jones, now by marriage Mrs. Mary T. Smith", or "Jung Smelt, now by court order John Smith". In case of a change of name other than by marriage the request should be supported by satisfactory proof of such change, unless already on file. No request signed in behalf of the owner or person entitled to payment by an agent or a person acting under a power of attorney will be recognized by the Treasury Department except in those cases arising under Subpart R hereof.

(c) Certification of request. After the request for payment has been signed by the owner the certifying officer should complete and sign the certificate appearing at the end of the form for request for payment, and the bond should then be presented and surrendered as provided in § 315.23 hereof.

§ 315.20 Certifying officers. The following officers are authorized to certify requests for payment:

(a) At United States post offices. Any postmaster, acting postmaster or inspector in charge, or other post office official or clerk heretofore or hereafter designated for the purpose. One or more of these officials will be found at every United States post office, classified branch or station. A post office official or clerk other than a postmaster, acting postmaster or inspector in charge, should certify in the name of the postmaster or acting postmaster, followed by his own signature and official title, for example, "John Doe, postmaster, by Richard Roe, postal cashier". Signatures of these officers should be authenticated by a legible imprint of the post office dating stamp.

(b) Banks, trust companies and branches. Any officer of any incorporated bank or trust company or branch thereof, domestic or foreign, including banks or trust companies incorporated in the United States or its organized territories, those doing business in the organized territories or insular possessions of the United States and the Commonwealth of the Philippines under Federal charter or organized under Federal law, Federal Reserve Banks, Federal Land Banks, and Federal Home Loan Banks; and Federal Reserve Agents and Assistant Federal Reserve Agents, located at the several Federal Reserve Banks. Certifications by any of these officers should be authenticated by either a legible impression of the corporate seal of the bank or trust company or, in the case of banks or trust companies and their branches which are authorized and duly qualified issuing agents for bonds of Series E, by a legible imprint of the issuing agent's dating stamp.

(c) Issuing agents not banks or trust companies. Any officers of corporations not banks or trust companies, and of all other organizations, which are duly qualified issuing agents for bonds of Series E. All certifications by such officers must be authenticated by a legible imprint of the issuing agent's dating stamp.

(d) United States officials. Judges, clerks and deputy clerks of United States courts, including United States courts for the organized territories, insular possessions and the Canal Zone; United States Commissioners; United States attorneys; United States collectors of Customs and their deputies; United States collectors of Internal Revenue and their deputies; commissioned officers of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard, but only for members of their respective services, members of their families and civilian employees at Posts or Bases or Stations (such certifying officer should indicate his rank and state that the person signing the request is one of the class whose requests he is authorized to certify); the officer in charge of any home, hospital or other facility of the Veterans' Administration, but only for patients and members of such facilities; certain officers of Federal penal institutions designated for that purpose by the Secretary of the Treasury and certain officers of the United States Public Health Service Hospitals at Lexington, Kentucky, and at Fort Worth, Texas, and of United States Marine Hospitals at Fort Stanton, New Mexico, and Carville, Louisiana, designated for that purpose by the Secretary of the Treasury (in each case, however, only for inmates or employees of the institution involved).

(e) Officers authorized in particular localities. Certain officers in the Treasury Department; the Governors and Treasurers of Hawaii, Puerto Rico and Alaska; the Governor and Commissioner of Finance of the Virgin Islands; the Governors and Administrative Naval and Marine officers of Guam and American Samoa; the Governor, paymaster or acting paymaster, and collector or acting collector of the Panama Canal; postmasters and acting postmasters in the Bureau of Posts of the Canal Zone; the United States High Commissioner to the Commonwealth of the Philippines, his Executive Assistant, and the Chief Clerk in his office, the Treasurer of the Commonwealth and the city treasurers of Manila and Baguio, and judges and clerks of courts of record of the Commonwealth whose signatures and official positions are certified by the Secretary of Justice.

(f) In foreign countries. In a foreign country requests for payment may be signed in the presence of and be certified by any United States diplomatic or consular representative, or manager or other officer of a foreign branch of a bank or trust company incorporated in the United States, whose signature is attested by an impression of the corporate seal or is certified to the Treasury Department. If such an officer is not available, requests for payment may be signed in the presence of and be certified by a notary or other officer authorized to administer oaths, but his official character and jurisdiction must be certified by a United States diplomatic or consular officer under seal of his office.

(g) Special provision. In the event none of the officers authorized to certify requests for payment of savings bonds is readily accessible, the Commissioner of the Public Debt is authorized to make special provision for any particular case.

§ 315.21 General instructions to certifying officers. Certifying officers should require positive identification of the person signing requests for payment and will be held fully responsible therefor. In all cases a certifying officer must affix to the certification his official signature, title, address and seal, or dating stamp, and the date of execution. Officers of Veterans Facilities, Public Health Service Hospitals, Marine Hospitals and Federal penal institutions, should use the seal of the particular institution or service, where such seal is available. If a certifying officer other than a post office official, officer of a bank or trust company or officer of an issuing agent, does not possess an official seal, that fact should be made known and attested.

§ 315.22 Interested person not to certify. No person authorized to certify requests for payment may certify a request for payment of a bond of which he is the owner, or in which he has an interest, either in his own right or in any representative capacity.

§ 315.23 Presentation and surrender. After the request for payment has been duly signed by the owner and certified as above provided, the bond should be presented and surrendered, if a bond of Series F or G, to a Federal Reserve Bank or Branch or to the Division of Loans and Currency, Merchandise Mart, Chicago, Illinois, or, if a bond of any other series, to a Federal Reserve Bank or Branch or to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C. Usually payment will be expedited by surrender to a Federal Reserve Bank. In all cases presentation will be at the expense and risk of the owner, and, for his protection, the bond should be forwarded by registered mail if not presented in person. Payment will be made by check drawn to the order of the registered owner or other person entitled and mailed to him at the address given in his request for payment.

§ 315.24 Partial redemption. A savings bond of any series in a denomination other than the lowest authorized for that series may be redeemed in part at current redemption value, but only in amounts corresponding to authorized denominations, upon presentation and surrender of the bond in accordance with this sub-part. In any such case, before the request for payment is signed, there should be added to the first sentence of the request the words "to the extent of $------ (maturity value), and reissue of the remainder". Upon partial redemption of a savings bond the remainder will be reissued as of the original issue date as provided in Subpart S hereof. For payment of interest on bonds of Series G in case of partial redemption see Subpart G hereof.

SUBPART I—MINORS AND PERSONS UNDER OTHER LEGAL DISABILITY

§ 315.25 Payment to legal guardians. If the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, has been properly notified, by the form of registration or otherwise, that the owner of a savings bond is a minor or a person judicially declared incompetent to manage his estate and that a guardian or similar legal representative has been appointed for the estate of such minor or incompetent by a court having jurisdiction or is otherwise legally qualified, payment will be made only to such guardian or similar legal representative. In such case the request for payment appearing on the back of the bond should be signed by the guardian or other legal representative as such, for example, "John A. Jones, guardian (committee) of the estate of Henry W. Smith, a minor (an incompetent)". Unless the form of registration gives the name of the representative, there must be submitted in support of the request a certificate or a certified copy of the letters of appointment from the court making the appointment under the seal of the court, establishing that the appointment is in full force. Such certificate or certification (except in the case of corporate fiduciaries) should be dated not more than six months prior to the date of presentation of the bond for payment. See Subpart M hereof for payment provisions applicable to bonds registered in the names of guardians and similar fiduciaries.

§ 315.26 Payment to minors. If the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, has not received proper notice that a guardian or similar representative of the estate of a minor has been appointed or is otherwise duly qualified, payment will be made direct to such minor, provided he is, at the time payment is requested, of sufficient competency and understanding to sign his name to the request and to comprehend the nature of such act. In general the fact that the request for payment has been signed by a minor and duly certified in accordance with Subpart H hereof will be accepted as sufficient proof of such competency and understanding.

§ 315.27 Payment to parents of minors. If the Treasury Department has not been properly notified that a guardian or similar legal representative of the estate of a minor owner of a savings bond has been appointed or is otherwise legally qualified, and if such minor owner is not of sufficient competency and understanding to execute the request for payment, payment will be made to either parent of the minor with whom he resides, or if the minor does not reside with either parent, then to the person who furnishes his chief support. The parent or such other person should sign the request for payment in his own name, on behalf of the minor, in the form "Mrs. Mary Jones, on behalf of John C. Jones", and should sign a certificate, in substantially the following form, which may be typed on the back of the bond:

I certify that I am the ---------- (relationship) of John C. Jones and the person with whom he resides. He is ------ years of age and is not of sufficient competency and understanding to sign this request.

If a person other than a parent signs the request on behalf of the minor he should also certify that the minor does not reside with either parent and that he furnishes his chief support. The Treasury Department may in any particular case require further proof that the minor is not of sufficient competency and understanding to execute the request for payment and of the right of the person executing the request to act on behalf of the minor.

§ 315.28 Payment to voluntary guardian of person under disability. In any case where the adult owner of a bond has been judicially declared incompetent or such incompetency, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury, is otherwise established, and no duly qualified legal representative of his estate is acting, and the entire gross value of his personal estate does not exceed $500, payment will be made to a member of his family or other person acting as voluntary guardian, upon presentation of proof satisfactory to the Secretary of the Treasury that the proceeds of the bond are necessary for the purchase of necessaries for the incompetent or for his wife or minor children or other persons dependent upon him for support. Applications for such payment should be made only on appropriate forms, which may be obtained from the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, Merchandise Mart, Chicago, Illinois, or any Federal Reserve Bank. The request for payment should not be executed, nor the bond presented, until the application has been approved and instructions have been given by the Treasury Department.

SUBPART J—SINGLE NAME; ADDITION OF COOWNER, ETC

§ 315.29 Reissue for certain purposes. A savings bond of any series registered in the name of one person in his own right, or to which one person is shown to be entitled in his own right under these regulations, may be reissued upon appropriate request for the following purposes:

(a) Addition of coowner. Reissue in the name of the owner with that of another natural person as coowner, provided that bonds reissued in accordance with this paragraph will be considered for the purposes of computation of holdings under Subpart D of these regulations as originally issued in both names and no reissue will be effective which results in any one person holding bonds in excess of the established limitation for the series to which the bonds belong. Requests for reissue under this paragraph should be made on Form PD 1762.

(b) Addition of a beneficiary. Reissue in the name of the owner with the name of another natural person as designated beneficiary. Applications for reissue under the provisions of this paragraph should be made on Form PD 1077.

§ 315.30 Reissue upon request of a minor. Reissues under the provisions of this Subpart will be made upon request of owners, notwithstanding the fact that they are minors, provided they are of sufficient competency and understanding, and are under no legal disability other than minority.

§ 315.31 Reissue only at Federal Reserve Banks and Treasury. Reissues in accordance with the provisions of this Subpart may be made only at Federal Reserve Banks or at the Treasury Department. A coowner may be added only by reissue of the bond. Federal Reserve Banks, however, may, in appropriate cases, add the name of a beneficiary to bonds already outstanding without reissue, providing such addition is properly certified by the Federal Reserve Bank.

SUBPART K—TWO NAMES; COOWNERSHIP FORM

§ 315.32 Payment or reissue. A savings bond registered in the names of two persons as coowners in the form "John A. Jones or Mrs. Mary C. Jones", will be paid or reissued as follows:

(a) During the lives of both coowners. During the lives of both coowners the bond will be paid to either coowner upon his separate request without requiring the signature of the other coowner; and upon payment to either coowner the other person shall cease to have any interest in the bond. The bond will also be paid to both coowners upon their joint request, in which case payment will be made by check drawn to the order of both coowners in the form, for example, "John A. Jones and Mrs. Mary C. Jones", and the check must be endorsed by both payees. The bond will not be reissued in any form during the lives of both coowners except as specifically provided in these regulations.

(b) After the death of one coowner. If either coowner dies without having presented and surrendered the bond for payment to a Federal Reserve Bank or the Treasury Department, the surviving coowner will be recognized as the sole and absolute owner of the bond, and payment will be made only to him: Provided, however, That if a coowner dies after he has properly executed the request for payment and after the bond has actually been received by a Federal Reserve Bank or the Treasury Department, payment of the bond, or check if one has been issued, will be made to his estate (See Subpart P hereof). Upon proof of the death of one coowner and appropriate request by the surviving coowner the bond will be reissued in the name of such survivor alone, or in his name with another individual as coowner, or in his name payable on death to a designated beneficiary.

(c) On death of both coowners in common disaster. If both coowners die in a common disaster under such conditions that it cannot be established, either by presumption of law or otherwise, which coowner died first, the bond will be considered as belonging to the estates of both coowners.

(d) After the death of a surviving coowner. If a surviving coowner who became solely entitled to the bond under the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section dies without having submitted the bond for payment or reissue, the bond will be paid or reissued as though it were registered in the name of such last deceased coowner alone. In this case proof of the death of both coowners and of the order in which they died will be required.

§ 315.33 Place of reissue. Reissues authorized in this Subpart will be made in accordance with the provisions of Subpart S hereof, but only at a Federal Reserve Bank or the Treasury Department, and applications for such reissues should be made on forms provided for that purpose.

SUBPART L—TWO NAMES; BENEFICIARY FORM

§ 315.34. Payment to registered owner. A bond registered in the name of one person payable on death to another, for example, "Henry W. Ash, payable on death to John C. Black", will be paid to the registered owner during his lifetime upon his properly executed request as though no beneficiary had been named in the registration.

§ 315.35 Reissue during the lifetime of registered owner. A bond registered in the name of one person payable on death to another may not be reissued during the latter's lifetime to eliminate his name, but may be reissued on request of the registered owner on Form PD 1762, to name the beneficiary as coowner, subject to the same restrictions and conditions contained in § 315.29 (a). If the beneficiary should predecease the registered owner, upon proof of such death and upon request of the registered owner, the bond may be reissued in his name alone, or in his name with another individual as coowner, or in his name payable on death to a designated beneficiary.

§ 315.36 Payment or reissue to beneficiary. If the registered owner dies without having presented and surrendered the bond for payment or authorized reissue to a Federal Reserve Bank or the Treasury Department, and is survived by the beneficiary, upon proof of such death and survivorship, the beneficiary will be recognized as the sole and absolute owner of the bond, and it will be paid only to him, or may be reissued in his name alone, or otherwise reissued in accordance with Subpart J as though it were registered in his name alone: Provided, however, That if the bond with a properly executed request by the registered owner for payment or authorized reissue has actually been received by a Federal Reserve Bank or the Treasury Department, payment of the bond, or check, if one has been issued, will be made to the estate of the deceased owner in accordance with § 315.49.

§ 315.37 Payment or reissue after death of the surviving beneficiary. After the death of a surviving beneficiary who became entitled under the provisions of this Subpart, the bond will be paid or reissued in accordance with Subpart J as though it were registered in the name of the surviving beneficiary alone. In this case proof of the death of both the registered owner and the beneficiary and of the order in which they died will be required.

§ 315.38 Conditions of reissue. Reissue under this Subpart will be made in accordance with Subpart S hereof, but only at a Federal Reserve Bank or the Treasury Department and applications for such reissue should be made on forms provided for that purpose.

SUBPART M—FIDUCIARIES

§ 315.39 Payment to fiduciaries. A savings bond registered in the name of, or otherwise belonging to, a fiduciary estate, will be paid to the fiduciaries of such estate upon their request. The request for payment must be signed by all acting fiduciaries, except for payment at maturity, when a request by any one or more acting fiduciaries will be accepted, but payment will be made to all. If the bond is registered in the names of individual fiduciaries of the estate who are still acting, no further evidence of authority will be required. In other cases the request for payment must be supported by evidence as specified below:

(a) Fiduciaries, by title only. If the bond is registered in the titles without the names of the fiduciaries, satisfactory proof of the incumbency of the fiduciaries must be furnished, except in the case of public officers.

(b) Succeeding fiduciaries. If the fiduciaries in whose names the bonds were registered have been succeeded by other fiduciaries, satisfactory proof of successorship must be furnished.

(c) Boards, committees, etc., as fiduciaries. If the fiduciaries consist of a board, committee, commission, or public body, or are otherwise empowered to act as a unit, a request for payment before maturity must be supported by a duly certified copy of a resolution of the board or other body authorizing such action, except that in the case of a public board or commission a request signed in its name by a duly authorized officer thereof will ordinarily be accepted without further proof of the officer's authority. In any case the request must be signed in the name of the board or other body by an authorized officer or agent thereof.

(d) Corporate fiduciaries. If a public or private corporation or a political body, such as a State or county, is acting as a fiduciary, a request for payment must be signed in the name of the corporation or other body, in the fiduciary capacity in which it is acting, by an authorized officer thereof.

(e) Registration not disclosing trust. If the form in which the bond is registered does not show that it belongs to a fiduciary estate or does not identify the estate to which it belongs, satisfactory proof of ownership must be furnished.

§ 315.40 Reissue in the name of a succeeding fiduciary. If a person in whose name a savings bond is registered as a fiduciary has been succeeded as such fiduciary by another person, the bond will be reissued in the name of the succeeding fiduciary upon appropriate request and satisfactory proof of successorship.

§ 315.41 Reissue in the name of, or payment to, the person entitled—(a) Distribution of trust estate in kind. A savings bond to which a beneficiary of a trust has become lawfully entitled, in whole or in part, under the terms of the trust, will be reissued in his name to the extent of his interest, as a distribution in kind, upon the request of the trustee or trustees and their certification that such person is entitled and has agreed to reissue in his name: Provided, That if a trustee himself is so entitled in his own right, his request for reissue in his name must be supported by an order of court or other satisfactory proof that he is so entitled, unless a cofiduciary joins in the request: Provided, further, That if the form in which the bond is registered does not show that it belongs to a trust estate, the request for reissue must be supported by satisfactory proof of ownership.

(b) After termination of trust estate. If the person who would be lawfully entitled to a savings bond upon the termination of a trust does not desire to have such distribution to him in kind, as provided in the next preceding paragraph, the trustee or trustees should redeem the bond in accordance with the provisions of § 315.39 hereof before the estate is terminated. If, however, the estate is terminated without such payment or reissue having been made, the bond will thereafter be paid to or reissued in the name of the person lawfully entitled upon his request and satisfactory proof of ownership, supplemented, if there are two or more persons having any apparent interest in the bond, by an agreement executed by all such persons.

(c) Upon termination of guardianship estate. A savings bond registered in the name of a guardian or similar legal representative of the estate of a minor or incompetent, if the estate is terminated during the ward's lifetime, will be reissued in the name of the former ward upon the representative's request and certification that the former ward is entitled and has agreed to reissue in his name, or will be paid to or reissued in the name of the former ward upon his own request, supported in either case by satisfactory proof that his disability has been removed. Certification by the representative that a former minor has attained his majority, or that the legal disability of a female ward has been removed by marriage, if the State law so provides, will ordinarily be accepted as sufficient, but if the disability is removed by court order a duly certified copy of the order will be necessary. Upon the death of the ward a bond registered in the name of his guardian or similar representative will be reissued in accordance with the provisions of Subpart P as though it were registered in the name of the ward alone.

§ 315.42 Bonds held by trustee where reissue not authorized. Savings bonds which by their terms or under the regulations in force at the time of their issue may not be registered in the name of a fiduciary may be held without change of registration by a trustee or other fiduciary under the will of a deceased owner of the bonds, but will not be reissued in the name of the fiduciary. Upon proof of the appointment and authority of the fiduciary bonds so held will be paid to the fiduciary or upon termination of the trust will be reissued in the names of the persons entitled in their own right in accordance with the provisions of this Subpart.

SUBPART N—PRIVATE CORPORATIONS, ASSOCIATIONS, PARTNERSHIPS, ETC.

§ 315.43 Payment to corporations or unincorporated associations. A savings bond registered in the name of a private corporation or an unincorporated association will be paid to such corporation or unincorporated association upon request for payment on its behalf by a duly authorized officer thereof. The signature to the request should be in the form, for example, "The Jones Coal Company, a corporation, by William A. Smith, president", or "The Lotus Club, an unincorporated association, by John Jones, treasurer". A request for payment so signed and duly certified will ordinarily be accepted without further proof of the officer's authority.

§ 315.44 Payment to partnerships. A savings bond registered in the name of a partnership will be paid upon a request for payment signed by a general partner. The signature to the request should be in the form "Smith and Jones, a partnership, by John Jones, a general partner". A request for payment so signed and duly certified will ordinarily be accepted as sufficient proof that the person signing the request is duly authorized.

§ 315.45 Reissue or payment to successors of corporations, unincorporated associations or partnerships. A savings bond registered in the name of a private corporation, an unincorporated association or partnership, which has been succeeded by another corporation, unincorporated association or partnership as the result of merger, consolidation, reincorporation, conversion, reorganization, or otherwise by operation of law or in any manner whereby the ownership of the succeeding organization is substantially identical with that of its predecessor, will be paid to, or reissued in the name of, the succeeding corporation, unincorporated association or partnership upon appropriate request on its behalf supported by satisfactory proof of lawful successorship.

§ 315.46 Reissue or payment on dissolution—(a) Corporations. A savings bond registered in the name of a private corporation which is in process of dissolution will be paid to the authorized representative of the corporation upon a duly executed request for payment supported by satisfactory evidence of the representative's authority. Upon the termination of dissolution proceedings such bonds may be reissued in the names of those persons, other than the creditors, entitled to the assets of the corporation to the extent of their respective interests upon the duly executed request of the authorized representative of the corporation and upon proof of compliance with all statutory provisions governing the voluntary dissolution of such corporation, and that the persons in whose names reissue is requested are entitled and have agreed to such reissue: Provided, That if the dissolution proceedings are had under the direction of a court, proof of the authority of the representative and of the persons entitled to distribution must consist of certified copies of orders of the court.

(b) Partnerships. A savings bond registered in the name of a partnership which has been dissolved by death or withdrawal of a partner, or in any other manner, will be paid to or reissued in the names of the persons entitled thereto as the result of such dissolution to the extent of their respective interests, upon their request supported by satisfactory evidence of their title, including proof that the debts of the partnership have been paid or properly provided for.

SUBPART O—STATES, PUBLIC CORPORATIONS, AND PUBLIC BOARDS, COMMISSIONS AND OFFICERS

§ 315.47 In names of States, public corporations, and public boards. A savings bond registered in the name of a State or of a county, city, town, village or other public corporation, or in the name of a public board or commission, will be paid upon a request signed in the name of such State, corporation, board or commission by a duly authorized officer thereof. A request for payment so signed and duly certified will ordinarily be accepted without further proof of the officer's authority.

§ 315.48 In names of public officers. A savings bond registered in the title, without the name, of an officer of a State or public corporation, such as a county, city, town or village, will be paid upon request for payment signed by the designated officer. The fact that the request for payment is signed and duly certified will ordinarily be accepted as sufficient proof that the person signing is the incumbent of the designated office.

SUBPART P—DECEASED OWNERS

§ 315.49 Payment or reissue on death of owner. Upon the death of the owner of a savings bond, who was not survived by a coowner or designated beneficiary and who had not during his lifetime presented and surrendered the bond to a Federal Reserve Bank or the Treasury Department with a duly executed and proper request for an authorized reissue, the bond will be paid or reissued as hereinafter provided. The provisions of this section shall also apply to savings bonds registered in the names of executors or administrators except that proof of their appointment and qualification may not be required. Established forms for use in such cases and for requests for payment or reissue may be obtained from any Federal Reserve Bank or from the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, Merchandise Mart, Chicago, Illinois, and should be used in every instance.

(a) In course of administration. If the estate of the decedent is being administered in a court of competent jurisdiction, the bond will be paid to the duly qualified representative of the estate or will be reissued in the names of the persons entitled to share in the estate upon the request of the duly appointed and qualified representative of the estate who should certify that the persons named are entitled to the extent specified for each and have consented to such reissue. The request for payment or reissue should be signed in the form, for example, "John A. Jones, administrator of the estate (or executor of the will) of Henry W. Jones, deceased". Reissue will be made to the persons entitled in their names alone, or with a coowner (provided no excess holdings will be created) or beneficiary upon appropriate request by such persons. A request for payment or reissue must be supported by proof of the representative's authority. Such proof may consist of a court certificate or a certified copy of the representative's letters of appointment issued by the court having jurisdiction; the certificate, or the certification to the letters, must be under the seal of the court, must contain a statement that the appointment is in full force, and should be dated within six months of the date of presentation of the bond for payment or reissue. If the representative is himself the person entitled and desires reissue in his own name, the request for reissue must be supported by an order of court, unless a co-administrator or co-executor joins in the request.

(b) After settlement through court proceedings. If the estate of the decedent has been settled in a court of competent jurisdiction, the bond will be paid to, or reissued in the name of, the persons entitled thereto as determined by the court: Provided, That if there are two or more persons having an apparent interest in the bond, an agreement should be executed by them. The request for payment or reissue, and the agreement, if necessary, must be supported by duly certified copies of the pertinent court records.

(c) Without administration. If no legal representative of the decedent's estate has been or is to be appointed, and if it is established to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury either that the gross value of the personal estate does not exceed $500, or that administration of the estate is not required in the State of the decedent's last domicile, the bond will be paid to, or reissued in the name of, the persons entitled to share in the estate, without requiring administration, pursuant to an agreement and request by them on the form prescribed by the Treasury Department and supported by the evidence called for by that form: Provided, however, That reissue will not be made in the name of a creditor of the estate. No payment or reissue will be permitted without administration if any of the persons entitled are minors or incompetents, except to them or in their names, in whole or to the extent of their interests in the decedent's entire personal estate, or upon compliance with the provisions of Subpart I hereof governing payment of savings bonds registered in the names of such persons.

§ 315.50 Forms of registration on reissue. In no case will bonds be reissued hereunder except in a form authorized upon original issue by the regulations in force at the time bonds surrendered were issued.

SUBPART Q—CREDITORS' RIGHTS AND JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS

§ 315.51 Creditors' rights. A creditor of the owner of a savings bond may secure payment thereof to the extent of the owner's interest, or to the extent of the creditor's claim, whichever is smaller, through valid judicial proceedings: Provided, however, That no such proceedings will be recognized if they would give effect to an attempted voluntary transfer inter vivos of the bond or would defeat or impair the rights of survivorship conferred by these regulations upon coowners and beneficiaries. Payment, or partial payment in an amount not in excess of that to which the creditor is entitled will be made upon presentation and surrender of the bond with the request for payment duly executed, at the redemption value current 30 days after the proceedings have become final, or current at the time the bond is presented for payment, whichever is earlier. No reissue of the bond will be made to the creditor under the provisions of this section.

§ 315.52 Determination of interest as between owner and coowner or beneficiary. Conflicting claims as to ownership of or interest in a savings bond, as between the registered owner and the coowner, or the registered owner and a designated beneficiary may be determined by valid judicial proceedings, in which case the bond may be reissued in the names of the respective coowners or the owner and the beneficiary to the extent of their respective interests as determined by such proceedings, but only in authorized denominations.

§ 315.53 Evidence necessary. To establish the validity of judicial proceedings there must be submitted a certified copy of the judgment or decree of court and of any necessary supplementary proceedings, as well as a certificate from the clerk of the court under the court seal, showing that the judgment or decree is in full force and effect and has become final under the laws of the jurisdiction. The Secretary of the Treasury may in any case require such further information, documents and security as he may deem necessary.

§ 315.54 Bankruptcy and insolvency. Payment (but not reissue) of a savings bond will be made to a duly qualified trustee in bankruptcy or receiver of the estate of the registered owner, adjudicated bankrupt or insolvent, upon request for payment duly executed by such trustee or receiver and supported by satisfactory proof of his appointment and qualifications.

SUBPART R—PLEDGE WITH SECRETARY OF TREASURY OR FEDERAL RESERVE BANKS

§ 315.55 Deposit under Department Circulars No. 154 and No. 657. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this or any other circular, a savings bond may be pledged by the registered owner in lieu of surety under the provisions of Department Circular No. 154, amended: Provided, That the bond approving officer is the Secretary of the Treasury. In such cases an irrevocable power of attorney shall be executed authorizing the Secretary to request payment, and payment of the bond will, if it becomes necessary, be made upon such request at the then appropriate redemption value. No pledge to a bond approving officer other than the Secretary of the Treasury will be permitted. A savings bond may also be deposited as security with a Federal Reserve Bank under the provisions of Department Circular No. 657 by an institution certified under that circular as an issuing agent for savings bonds of Series E. In no other cases are savings bonds suitable for use as collateral, nor will a power of attorney to request payment be recognized in any other case.

SUBPART S—REISSUE AND DENOMINATIONAL EXCHANGE

§ 315.56 General. Reissue of savings bonds in different names or in a different form of registration will be made only in the following instances and only in denominations and forms of registration authorized for the bonds surrendered:

(a) To correct an error in the original issue, upon request of the owner or coowner, supported by satisfactory proof of such error unless the error was made by the issuing agent;

(b) To show a change in the name of an owner, coowner or beneficiary upon his request, supported by satisfactory proof of the change if for any other reason than marriage;

(c) As otherwise specifically provided in these regulations.

§ 315.57 Requests for reissue. Requests for reissue should be signed by the person authorized under these regulations to make such requests, on appropriate forms which may be obtained from any Federal Reserve Bank or from the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency. If the request is by reason of a change of name the signature should show both names, and the manner in which the change took place. A request for reissue must be signed in the presence of and be certified by an officer authorized under Subpart H hereof to certify requests for payment. A request may not be signed by a person under any legal disability other than minority. It may be signed by a minor who is of sufficient competency and understanding to sign his name to the request and to comprehend the nature of such act. In general the fact that a request for reissue has been signed by a minor and duly certified will be accepted as sufficient proof of such competency and understanding.

§ 315.58 Agencies authorized to make reissue. Reissues under (b) and (c) hereof may be made only at a Federal Reserve Bank or the Treasury Department.

§ 315.59 Date of bonds on reissue. The new bonds will be of the same series, will bear the same issue date, and will have the same rights and privileges as the bonds surrendered.

§ 315.60 Effective date. In any case of authorized reissue the Treasury Department reserves the right to treat the receipt by a Federal Reserve Bank or the Treasury Department of a bond and appropriate request for reissue thereof as determining the date upon which reissue is effective.

§ 315.61 Denominational exchange. Exchange as between authorized denominations will not be permitted except in cases of partial redemption or authorized reissue.

SUBPART T—FURTHER PROVISIONS

§ 315.62 Regulations prescribed. These regulations are prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury as governing United States Savings Bonds issued under the authority of section 22 of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, and pursuant to the various Department Circulars offering such bonds for sale. The provisions of Treasury Department Circular No. 300, as amended, have no application to such savings bonds except as to cases arising under Subpart E hereof.

§ 315.63 Preservation of rights. Nothing in these regulations contained shall be construed to limit or restrict any existing rights which holders of savings bonds heretofore issued may have acquired under the circulars offering such bonds for sale, or under the regulations in force at the time of purchase.

§ 315.64 Additional proof; bond of indemnity. The Secretary of the Treasury, in any case arising under these regulations, may require such additional proof as he may consider necessary or advisable in the premises; and may require a bond of indemnity with satisfactory sureties, or an agreement of indemnity, in any case where he may consider such a bond or agreement necessary for the protection of the interests of the United States.

§ 315.65 Correspondence and forms. Correspondence in regard to any transactions in United States Savings Bonds under the provisions of these regulations should be addressed to a Federal Reserve Bank or to the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, Merchandise Mart, Chicago, Illinois. Appropriate forms for use in connection with such transactions may be secured from any Federal Reserve Bank or from the Division of Loans and Currency.

§ 315.66 Supplements, amendments or revisions. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe additional, supplemental, amendatory or revised rules and regulations governing United States Savings Bonds.

Secretary of the Treasury.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Division of Industry Operations

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

BURCH CORPORATION

The Burch Corporation, Crestline, Ohio, is a foundry making castings from pig iron for jobbing or for its own use. The Company applied for an allocation of pig iron for the month of October, 1941, on Form PD-69, certifying that it had orders bearing A-2 preference ratings to be delivered during that month which required the use of 90 gross tons of pig iron. On the basis of this representation, the Company was allocated that amount of pig iron. However, during the month of October, the Company used only a small amount of pig iron to fill orders bearing a preference rating of A-2 or higher and only 22 tons to fill orders bearing a preference rating of A-10 or higher. The balance of the pig iron allocated to the Company was used to fill orders bearing a B rating or no rating.

The Burch Corporation also requested an allocation of pig iron for the month of February, 1942, on Form PD-69, certifying that it had orders bearing a preference rating of A-10 or higher which required the use of 120 gross tons of pig iron during that month. On the basis of its representation, it was allocated 120 gross tons of pig iron. However, during the month of February, the Company used only 21.18 gross tons of pig iron to fill orders bearing a preference rating of A-10 or higher and 76.04 gross tons to fill orders extended B rating or no ratings.

The Company's misrepresentations as to its rated orders and its use of pig iron for purposes other than those for which the pig iron was allocated to it constituted violations of Priorities Regulation No. 1 and General Preference Order M-17 and have resulted in the diversion of pig iron to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing facts,

It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.67 Suspension Order S-67. (a) The Burch Corporation of Crestline, Ohio, its successors and assigns, shall not process, melt or otherwise use any pig iron except to fill orders bearing a preference rating higher than A-2 except as specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve The Burch Corporation from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect July 9, 1942, and shall expire on October 9, 1942, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 6th day of July 1942.

J. S. KNOWLSON,
Director of Industry Operations.

PART 921—ALUMINUM

[General Preference Order M-1-h]

BAUXITE AND ALUMINA

Whereas, it is found that the increasing national war requirements, including the need for adequate reserves occasioned by the uncertainty of future shipments from abroad have created a shortage in the supply of bauxite and of alumina (as hereinafter defined) for war, for private account, and for export, and it is necessary in the public interest and to promote the defense of the United States to conserve the supply and direct the distribution thereof:

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 921.10 General Preference Order M-1-h—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Bauxite" means a rock consisting of a mixture of several minerals in which the aluminum is present largely as hydrated oxides.

(2) "Restricted bauxite" means bauxite ores, concentrates, or tailings containing less than 15 per cent silica (as analyzed by tri-acid method on a dried basis at 110° C.), including all processed forms of bauxite, such as dried, calcined, sintered, or activated ore.

(3) "Alumina" means any aluminum oxide or any hydrate of aluminum.

(4) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(5) "Producer" means any person who mines or otherwise produces bauxite or who manufactures alumina.

(6) "Processor" means any person who mines or otherwise produces, concentrates, dries, activates, calcines, sinters, or otherwise processes bauxite or alumina.

(7) "Dealer" means any person regularly engaged in the business of buying, and selling bauxite or alumina for his own account or for the account of others, without changing its form.

(b) Limitation on use of "restricted bauxite" and "alumina". No person shall accept delivery of, use or consume any "restricted bauxite" or "alumina" except as specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations.

(c) Limitation on delivery of "restricted bauxite" and "alumina". No supplier including any producer, processor, or dealer shall deliver any "restricted bauxite" or "alumina" unless the person to receive such material shall have been authorized by the Director of Industry Operations to accept such delivery.

(d) Application for authorization to receive, use or consume "restricted bauxite" and "alumina". Any person who wishes to be authorized to accept a delivery of, use or consume "restricted bauxite" or "alumina" may request such authorization by filing Form PD-567 (for bauxite) or Form PD-568 (for alumina) with the Aluminum and Magnesium Branch, War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Approval upon such form by the Director of Industry Operations shall constitute authorization for shipment of "restricted bauxite" or "alumina" by the supplier and for the receipt, consumption and use of such "restricted bauxite" or "alumina" by the applicant. The supplier, upon completing delivery of the material covered by the authorization, shall indicate upon a copy of such authorization the shipments made, and return such copy to the Aluminum and Magnesium Branch, War Production Board.

(e) Limited exemption for uses of "restricted bauxite" and "alumina" in manufacture specifically authorized. Notwithstanding the provisions of (b) above, any person having "restricted bauxite" or "alumina" on hand may continue to use or consume such material until September 1, 1942: Provided, however, That the quantity used or consumed by any such person during the period from July 1, 1942 to August 31, 1942, inclusive, shall not exceed one-third of the quantity so used or consumed by that person during the last six months of 1941.

(f) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who wilfully furnishes false information to the Director of Industry Operations in connection with this order is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director of Industry Operations.

(h) Effective date. This order shall take effect August 1, 1942, and shall continue in effect until revoked by the Director of Industry Operations.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 7th day of July, 1942.

J. S. KNOWLSON,
Director of Industry Operations.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Regulation 13]

SPECIAL SALES OF IDLE OR FROZEN MATERIALS

§ 944.34 Priorities Regulation 13—(a) Purpose. The purpose of this regulation is to provide uniform rules governing special sales of idle or excess materials by persons who are not regularly engaged in the business of selling such materials, including distress and liquidation sales and sales by persons who, by reason of the effect of priority orders or for other reasons, cannot use such materials in the regular course of their business. This regulation does not authorize receipt or use of any material by any person in violation of any inventory, quota or use restrictions imposed by any order or regulation.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this regulation:

(1) "Sale" of a material includes any public or private sale, auction sale, sale upon foreclosure of any lien or mortgage, or delivery of such material in exchange for money or for any other material and the sale of any warehouse receipt, bill of lading or other document evidencing an interest in such material, but does not include the pledge or mortgage or other creation of any lien upon such material or the transfer of possession of such material without any transfer of title.

(2) "Special sale" means any sale except:

(i) A sale of any material in a form regularly sold by the seller in the course of his business; and

(ii) A sale of any tool, machinery, or other assembled commercial, industrial, production, agricultural, or household equipment; and

(iii) A sale of material in the form in which it is used by ultimate consumers thereof without being further processed or assembled with other materials or made a part of any building or structure; and

(iv) A sale of foodstuffs, medicines and other materials for internal human consumption.

"Special sale" also includes any sale made or caused to be made by any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, public official or any other person acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, and not in the course of carrying on the business of an insolvent or bankrupt person or other person whose business is in the hands of such fiduciary or representatives.

(3) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly or product of any kind.

(4) "War material" means any material consisting in whole or in substantial part of one or more materials listed in Schedule "A" attached.

(5) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(6) "Producer" means any person who produces, manufactures, fabricates, processes, constructs or assembles any material and includes any person furnishing electric, gas, water, sanitation, steam, transportation, communication or other utility services to the public.

(7) "Director" means the Director of Industry Operations of the War Production Board or the Director of Priorities of the Office of Production Management.

(c) Permitted special sales. (1) Subject to paragraph (d) of this regulation, any person may make a special sale of any material other than a war material without restriction.

(2) Subject to paragraph (d) of this regulation, any person may make a special sale of any war material if the sale falls within one of the following categories, and no person may make any special sale of any war material if such sale does not fall within one of the following categories:

(i) A sale to any of the following governmental departments or agencies or to any person buying for the account of such departments or agencies: Maritime Commission, Navy Department, War Department, Board of Economic Warfare, Commodity Credit Corporation, Defense Supplies Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, Rubber Reserve Company and any other corporation organized under Section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act as amended; or

(ii) A sale pursuant to a specific authorization of the Director naming the seller and identifying the particular sale to be made; or

(iii) A sale by a producer to another producer engaged in the same business as the seller, but only if an order of the Director applicable generally to persons engaged in such business expressly permits such a sale; or

(iv) A sale of an individual lot of war material at an aggregate price of less than $100: Provided, That this exception shall not be construed to permit the dividing of holdings of war material into lots having a value of less than $100 and disposing of such lots under this subparagraph (2) (iv); or

(v) A sale to any person falling within a class indicated on Schedule "A" attached as being a class to whom the particular war material may be sold: Provided, That when any alloy, compound, mixture, or product is not listed as such on Schedule "A" and contains a significant amount of more than one war material, the sale shall be made only to a person to whom all such contained war materials may be sold.

(d) Effect on other orders and regulations. (1) Any sale which is not a special sale shall remain subject to the provisions of all applicable orders and regulations.

(2) The provisions of this regulation shall control all special sales although inconsistent with any order or regulation of the Director heretofore issued. Notwithstanding any provision of any such order or regulation which permits such sale, no special sale shall be made if forbidden by the provisions of this regulation; and any special sale permitted by the provisions of this regulation may be made, and deliveries thereunder accepted by the buyer, despite any provision of any such order or regulation forbidding the same except that:

(i) Nothing in this regulation shall affect any provision contained in any order or regulation of the Director which imposes any quota or other limitation on the amount any buyer may purchase, receive or produce, or which imposes any limitations on the amount of inventory of any person or any restrictions upon the use of any material; and

(ii) This regulation shall not affect any provision of any applicable order or regulation of the Director requiring a buyer to make any reports or to furnish any information in connection with a purchase; and

(iii) No seller shall make any special sale if he knows or has reason to believe that the purchase or acceptance or delivery by the buyer would violate any inventory or quota restrictions imposed on the buyer by any order or regulation or that the buyer is acquiring the material for a use which would be in violation of any order or regulation.

(e) Records. Any person making any special sale must maintain at his regular place of business all documents, including purchase orders and preference rating orders and certificates, upon which he relies as entitling him to make such sale. Such records shall be kept segregated and available for inspection by representatives of the War Production Board, or filed in such manner that they can be readily segregated and made available for such inspection. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 7th day of July, 1942.

J. S. KNOWLSON,
Director of Industry Operations.

SCHEDULE "A"

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This schedule relates only to special sales made under paragraph (c) (2) (v) of this regulation. Any purchaser of material through a special sale must comply with all inventory, quota, and use restrictions imposed by all other orders and regulations.

When an alloyed material, or a physically or chemically compounded material, is shown in this table, the conditions that govern the sale of the alloyed or compounded material are those shown for the alloy or compound and not those shown for the constituent elements or parts. For example, the conditions under which stainless steel may be sold are those shown for the war material "Stainless Steel" and not those shown for "Chromium" or "Nickel" or "Steel". When any alloy, compound, mixture, or product is not listed as such on Schedule "A" and contains a significant amount of more than one war material, the sale shall be made only to a person to whom all such contained war materials may be sold.

The word "No" appearing in any column in this schedule means that a holder may not sell the particular war material to any person in the class to which that column applies unless the sale is otherwise permitted by this regulation.

The letters "PR" mean Preference Rating, and wherever they appear in any column, mean that the holder may sell the particular war material to any person in the class to which that column applies, but only provided that such person places with the holder an order for the material bearing a duly applied or extended preference rating equal to or higher than the rating shown immediately after the letters "PR". For example, "PR A-1-k", which appears opposite the war material "Nickel" in the column headed "Any producer permitted to buy for an authorized use" means that the holder may sell to any producer who places an order for a product containing nickel if that order bears a duly applied or extended preference rating of A-1-k or higher.

The letters "W. O. P." mean "Without Preference Rating" and wherever they appear in any column mean that the holder may sell the particular material to any person in the class to which that column applies without any preference rating from the buyer.

The letter "X" means "not applicable".

Wherever an asterisk (*) appears, refer to the note in the "Remarks" column.

PART 1384—HARDWOOD LUMBER PRODUCTS

[Maximum Price Regulation 176]

ROTARY CUT SOUTHERN HARDWOOD BOX LUMBER

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the prices of rotary cut southern hardwood box lumber have risen in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of rotary cut southern hardwood box lumber prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this Regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this Regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said Act. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1, [3] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 176 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1384.1 to 1384.13, inclusive, issued under Public Law 421, 77th Cong.

§ 1384.1 Maximum prices for rotary cut southern hardwood box lumber. On and after July 11, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver any rotary cut southern hardwood box lumber, and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business any rotary cut southern hardwood box lumber, at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A hereof, incorporated herein as § 1384.12; and no person subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 176 shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 176 shall not be applicable to a shipment pursuant to an order of less than 5,000 board feet of rotary cut hardwood box lumber. Further, the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 176 shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of rotary cut southern hardwood box lumber to a purchaser, if prior to July 11, 1942, such lumber has been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.

For cottonwood, add $3.00 per 1,000 board feet.

(b) The maximum f. o. b. mill price for 1,000 board feet of cut downs and cut backs of rotary cut southern hardwood box lumber in excess of the proportions of cut downs and cut backs set forth in paragraph (e) (1) of § 1384.13, Appendix B, shall be two-thirds of the maximum price established in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) The maximum f. o. b. mill price for 1,000 board feet of rotary cut southern hardwood box lumber which satisfies the accepted grade requirements for rotary cut egg case lumber, which is cut on a saw or comparable cutting device into standard egg case finished sizes (for cases with a capacity of 30 dozen eggs), and which is shipped to a purchaser direct from the producing mill, shall be the maximum prices established in paragraph (a) of this section plus $8.00. The maximum price established in this paragraph shall not be applicable to rotary cut egg case lumber where shipment to the purchaser originates from a place other than the producing mill; however, the maximum price shall apply to rotary cut egg case lumber which is shipped to the purchaser direct from the producing mill regardless of whether the seller is the mill operator or another person and regardless of whether the shipment is temporarily halted in transit in order to load the carrier with additional products.

(d) The maximum f. o. b. mill price for 1,000 board feet of rotary cut southern hardwood box lumber, other than lumber in standard egg case finished sizes (for cases with a capacity of 30 dozen eggs), which is cut into a particular box-part finished size by means of a saw or comparable cutting device shall be the price established in paragraph (a) of this section for rotary cut lumber in the length and thickness ordered by the purchaser, plus a differential consisting of the difference between the price charged by the producing mill during the period October 1 to 15, 1941 (1) for rotary cut lumber in that length and thickness not cut into box-part finished sizes by means of a saw or comparable cutting device, and (2) for rotary cut lumber of the same length and thickness cut by means of a saw or comparable cutting device into box-parts of the particular finished dimensions for which a maximum price is being computed. In case the producing mill cannot compute such a differential, the mill should determine and apply the corresponding differential recognized during October 1 to 15, 1941 by the most closely competitive seller of the same class. The maximum price established by this paragraph for rotary cut lumber cut at a particular mill to box-part finished sizes by means of a saw or comparable cutting device shall apply to such lumber produced at that mill regardless of whether the lumber is sold by the mill operator or another person.

(e) A delivered price in excess of the maximum f. o. b. mill prices established in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this section may be charged, consisting of such maximum price plus actual transportation costs paid or incurred by the seller in delivering rotary cut lumber to the purchaser; such actual transportation costs must be shown as a separate item in the invoice or billing.

(f) The maximum prices established in this section shall not be increased by any charges for the extension of credit or by any decrease in the time customarily allowed for payment, and shall be decreased for prompt payment to the same extent that the sale price would have been decreased on October 1, 1941.

(b) All stock shall be machine cut to the specified thickness ordered, standard gears as furnished by the lathe manufacturer to be used.

(c) All stock shall be cut tight, and when shipped shall not contain more than 15% moisture content. Said percentage is to be arrived at by test of an equal number of sap and heart pieces. Stock shall be sufficiently flat to straighten under machines, without splitting.

(d) A trimming allowance of ½" in width and 1" in length, shall be allowed on all lengths 30" and over, one-half inch in length, and one-half inch in width on stock less than 30" long. Cut downs, whether sized before or after drying, shall carry ½" allowance in width.

(e) (1) All cut downs in widths that accumulate in cutting out defects and rounding logs are to be accepted provided that they do not exceed the percentages in the following schedule:

Prime width ordered	Less than 62 inches in length	62 inches and over in length
	Percent of total footage in car	Percent of total footage in car
5" and under	10	15
8½" to 10"	15	20
10½" to 12"	20	25
12½" to 14"	22½	27½
14½" to 16"	25	30
16½" to 18"	27½	32½
18½" to 20"	30	35
20½" and over.[1]

[1] To be figured in proportion.

(2) All cut downs in widths shall run in multiples of 2", the narrowest width allowed to be 4"; however, no shipment shall contain more than 20% of the cut downs in 4" widths.

(3) Cut backs are allowable when cut to the following lengths, provided they are under the prime length of the order: 54", 48", 42", 36", 32" and 27".

(4) Cut backs, except half lengths of 54" and longer, by full width of order, are to be considered cut downs. It is agreed and understood that 27" is to be the official half length on stock 48" to 54" long. Cut backs which are considered as cut downs, must not exceed 5% of total footage in car.

(f) Checks or splits not longer than one-fourth the length of the piece are not considered defects provided the checks or splits are reasonably straight, do not diverge more than 1" per foot, and do not run over ¼" in width and in all widths.

(g) Specifications on all sizes, both width and length, shall not be specified in fractions of less than ½", except by special arrangement between the seller and the buyer.

(h) Each size is to be bundled separately and to be marked. Each bundle is to contain a uniform number of pieces. Twenty-five pieces of ¼" or 7/32", 30 pieces of 3/16", 35 pieces of 1/8", 40 pieces of 1/16", and 50 pieces of 1/8" are to be the standard number of pieces to each bundle.

Issued this 6th day of July, 1942.

Administrator.

§ 1389.101 Prohibition against dealing in men's and boys' tailored clothing above maximum prices. On and after July 11, 1942, regardless of any contract or other obligation:

(a) No person shall sell or deliver men's and boys' tailored clothing (defined in § 1389.119) at prices higher than the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 177.

(b) No person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive men's and boys' tailored clothing at prices higher than the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 177.

(c) No person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the acts set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b).

The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of men's and boys' tailored clothing to a purchaser if, prior to July 11, 1942, such merchandise had been received by a carrier other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.

§ 1389.102 Categories of men's and boys' tailored clothing—(a) Classifications of garments. For the purposes of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 177, garments shall be considered within the same classification if they are of the same type, are styled for the same age group, and are made of fabrics of the same weight class. For the purpose of making such determination:

(1) Types of garments shall be:
(i) Suits with short pants,
(ii) Suits with knicker or golf pants,
(iii) Suits with long pants,

(2) Styles for age groups shall be the styles commonly known as:

(i) Juvenile or junior, sizes 2 to 12, inclusive,

(3) Fabric weight classes shall be (except for top coats and overcoats):

(i) Tropical weight (defined in § 1389.119) and
(ii) Not tropical weight.

(b) Similar garments. One garment shall be considered similar to another garment if the first is in the same classification as the second, has the same use, is made with equivalent workmanship, and contains materials and trimmings which are of the same type and quality and would ordinarily sell at substantially the same price. In determining similarity, differences merely in design, and differences owing to compliance with War Production Board Conservation Order No. M 73A[3] of March 2, 1942 (§ 1055.2), shall be disregarded except that a one-pant suit shall not be considered similar to a two-pant suit.

§ 1389.103 Maximum prices for sales at retail of ready-made garments. Except as otherwise provided in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 177 the seller's maximum prices for sales at retail of men's and boys' ready-made tailored clothing shall be:

(a) For garments other than outer coats—(1) In those cases in which the seller dealt in the same or similar garments during March 1942. The highest price charged by the seller during such month—(i) for the same garment, or (ii) if no charge was made for the same garment, for the similar garment most nearly like it; or

(2) In those cases in which the seller did not deal in the same or similar garments during March 1942. The highest price charged during such month by the most closely competitive seller of the same class—(i) for the same garment, or (ii) if no charge was made for the same garment, for the similar garment most nearly like it; or

(3) In those cases in which neither the seller nor any closely competitive seller of the same class dealt in the same or similar garments during March 1942. A maximum price in line with the level of maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 177, determined by:

(i) Selecting from the same classification and price range the garment, priced under paragraph (a) (1) or (a) (2) of this section, of which the seller delivered the largest number during March 1942,

(ii) Dividing the maximum price for that garment by the replacement cost of that garment, and (iii) Multiplying the percentage so obtained by the replacement cost of the garment being priced under this subparagraph (3);

Except: That no maximum price determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall exceed the highest price charged by the seller during March 1942 for a garment of the same classification.

(b) For outer coats—(1) In those cases which the seller dealt in the same or similar garments during September, October or November 1941. The highest price charged by the seller during such months—(i) for the same garment, or (ii) if no charge was made for the same garment, for the similar garment most nearly like it, plus, in each case, the amount indicated by the table in Appendix B (§ 1389.122);

(2) In those cases in which the seller did not deal in the same or similar garments during September, October or November 1941. The highest price charged during such months by the most closely competitive seller of the same class—(i) for the same garment, or (ii) if no charge was made for the same garment, for the similar garment most nearly like it, plus, in each case, the amount indicated by the table in Appendix B (§ 1389.122);

(3) In those cases in which neither the seller nor any closely competitive seller of the same class dealt in the same or similar garments during September, October and November 1941. A maximum price in line with the level of maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 177, determined by:

(i) Selecting from the same classification and price range that garment, priced under paragraph (b) (1) or (b) (2) of this section, of which the seller delivered the largest number of units during September, October and November 1941,

(ii) Dividing the maximum price of that garment by the replacement cost of that garment, and

(iii) Multiplying the percentage so obtained by the replacement cost of the garment being priced under this subparagraph (3);

Except: That no maximum price determined pursuant to this paragraph (b), shall exceed the sum of the highest price charged by the seller during September, October and November 1941, for a garment of the same classification, plus the amount indicated by the table in Appendix B (§ 1389.122).

§ 1389.104 Maximum prices for sales of ready-made garments otherwise than at retail. Except as otherwise provided in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 177, the seller's maximum prices for sales of men's and boys' ready-made tailored clothing, otherwise than at retail, shall be:

(a) For garments other than outer coats—(1) In those cases in which the seller booked the same or similar garments during July, August, September, October and November 1941. The price at which the seller during such months booked the largest number of units of—(i) the same garment, or (ii) if the same garment was not booked, the similar garment most nearly like it; plus in each case the amount indicated by the table in Appendix A (§ 1389.121);

(2) In those cases in which the seller did not book the same or similar garments during July, August, September, October and November 1941. The current cost of the garment being priced plus the seller's normal percentage margin on garments of the same classification, calculated by:

(i) Determining the prices at which the largest number of units of each group of similar garments in the classification were booked during such months,

(ii) Computing the total dollar sales of garments sold at such prices,

(iii) Subtracting the total cost of garments so booked, and

(iv) Dividing the remainder by such total dollar sales;

Except: That no maximum price determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall exceed the sum of the highest price determined pursuant to paragraph (a) (2) (i) of this section, plus the amount indicated by the table in Appendix A (§ 1389.121);

(b) For outer coats—(1) In those cases in which the seller delivered the same or similar garments during July, August, September, October and November 1941. The price at which the seller delivered during such months the largest number of units of—(i) the same garment, or (ii) if the same garment was not delivered, the similar garment most nearly like it, plus in each case the amount indicated by the table in Appendix B (§ 1389.122);

(2) In those cases in which the seller did not deliver the same or similar garments during July, August, September, October and November 1941. The current cost of the garment being priced plus the seller's normal percentage margin on garments of the same classification, calculated by:

(i) Determining the prices at which the largest number of units of each group of similar garments in the classification were delivered during such months,

(ii) Computing the total dollar sales of garments delivered at such prices,

(iii) Subtracting the total cost of garments so delivered, and

(iv) Dividing the remainder by such total dollar sales;

Except. That no maximum price determined pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section shall exceed the sum of the highest price determined pursuant to paragraph (b) (2) (i) of this section, plus the amount indicated by the table in Appendix B (§ 1389.122).

§ 1389.105 Maximum prices for all sales of men's and boys' tailored clothing "made to measure" and "tailored to the trade." Except as otherwise provided in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 177, the seller's maximum prices for all sales of men's and boys' tailored clothing in the courses of business known as "made to measure" and "tailored to the trade" shall be:

(a) For garments other than outer coats—(1) In those cases in which the seller offered to sell the same or similar garments during January and February 1942. The highest price at which the seller during such months offered—(i) the same garment, or (ii) if the same garment was not offered, the similar garment most nearly like it; plus in each case the amount indicated by the table in Appendix C (§ 1389.123);

(2) In those cases in which the seller did not offer to sell the same or similar garments during January and February 1942. The current cost of the garment being priced plus the seller's average percentage margin on garments of the same classification, calculated by:

(i) Computing the total dollar sales of garments in the classification booked during October, November and December 1941;

(ii) Subtracting the total cost of garments so booked, and

(iii) Dividing the remainder by such total dollar sales;

Except: That no maximum price determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall exceed the highest price at which the seller during January or February 1942 first offered a garment of the same classification, plus the amount indicated by the table in Appendix C (§ 1389.123).

(b) For outer coats—(1) In those cases in which the seller offered to sell the same or similar garments during September and October 1941. The highest price for which the seller during such months offered—(i) the same garment, or (ii) if the same garment was not offered, the similar garment most nearly like it; plus in each case the amount indicated by the table in Appendix C (§ 1389.123);

(2) In those cases in which the seller did not deal in the same or similar garments during September and October 1941. The current cost of the garment being priced plus the seller's average percentage margin on garments of the same classification, determined by:

(i) Computing the total dollar sales of garments in the classification booked during October, November and December 1941,

(ii) Subtracting the total cost of garments so booked, and

(iii) Dividing the remainder by such total dollar sales;

Except: That no maximum price determined pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section shall exceed the highest price at which the seller during September and October 1941 offered a garment of the same classification, plus the amount indicated by the table in Appendix C (§ 1389.123).

§ 1389.106 Maximum prices for garments which cannot be priced under preceding sections. In those cases in which the maximum price of a garment cannot be determined by the terms of §§ 1389.103, 1389.104 and 1389.105, the maximum price shall be a price determined by the seller pursuant to specific authorization from the Office of Price Administration. A seller who seeks an authorization to determine a maximum price under the provisions of this section shall file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., an application setting forth:

(a) A description in detail of the garment for which a maximum price is sought; and

(b) A statement of the facts which differentiate such garment from garments priced under §§ 1389.103, 1389.104 and 1389.105; and shall furnish such further relevant information as may be required by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1389.107 Provisions applicable to particular models of garments—(a) Maximum prices for one-pant suits where seller dealt in two-pant suits during the base period. In those cases in which the seller during the applicable base period dealt in, booked or offered (whichever shall be the basis of the maximum price) a two-pant suit which was otherwise the same as, or similar to, a one-pant suit to be priced under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 177, the figure to be used as the price charged for, or at which the seller booked or offered, the same or a similar suit shall be:

(1) For sales at retail. (i) Eighty-five percent of the price applicable to the two-pant suit which was otherwise the same, or if no such charge was made, for the otherwise similar two-pant suit most nearly like it, or (ii) the price applicable to the same one-pant suit, or if no such charge was made, for the similar one-pant suit most nearly like it, whichever is the lower;

(2) For sales other than at retail. (i) Eighty-three percent of the price applicable to the two-pant suit which was otherwise the same, or if no such charge was made, for the otherwise similar two-pant suit most nearly like it, or (ii) the price applicable to the same one-pant suit, or if no such charge was made, for the similar one-pant suit most nearly like it, whichever is the lower.

(b) Specially manufactured garments. The seller's maximum price for a garment of unusual measurements, commonly known as a special model or special order garment, or for a garment which is manufactured with different trimmings or construction, or both, than a garment dealt in during the base period, but which is otherwise the same or similar, shall be the maximum price of a garment which is otherwise the same, or if no such price can be determined, the maximum price of a garment which is otherwise similar, plus or minus a differential which is:

(1) In line with differentials which were customarily made by the seller during the base period, or

(2) If no such differentials were made, in line with differentials which were customarily demanded or offered by the seller during the base period.

§ 1389.108 Scope and application of this regulation—(a) Relation to General Maximum Price Regulation.[1] This Maximum Price Regulation No. 177 shall apply, and the General Maximum Price Regulation shall not apply, to sales or deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 177.

(b) Relation to Maximum Price Regulation No. 142.[4] This Maximum Price Regulation No. 177 shall not apply, and Maximum Price Regulation No. 142—Retail Prices for Summer Seasonal Commodities—shall apply to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 142.

(c) Relation to Maximum Price Regulation No. 157.[5] This Maximum Price Regulation No. 177 shall not apply, and Maximum Price Regulation No. 157—Sales and Fabrication of Textiles, Apparel and Related Articles for Military Purposes—shall apply to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 157.

(d) Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export men's and boys' tailored clothing shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Maximum Export Price Regulation[6] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1389.109 Evasion. (a) The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 177 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to men's and boys' tailored clothing, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

(b) Specifically, but not exclusively, the following practices are prohibited:

(1) No seller shall use as a highest price charged for garments, or at which garments were booked, delivered or offered, during the applicable base period, a price which was applied only to sample or memorandum sales;

(2) No seller shall change the allowances, discounts, or other price differentials which he customarily made during the appropriate base period unless such change results in a lower net price.

§ 1389.110 Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade of any seller of men's and boys' tailored clothing shall be or shall have been transferred on or after April 28, 1942, and the transferee shall carry on the business, or continue to deal in such clothing, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which the transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep, make available, prepare and file records shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 177.

§ 1389.111 Federal and State taxes. Any tax upon, or incident to, the sale or delivery of men's and boys' tailored clothing, imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price for such clothing and in preparing the records of such seller with respect thereto:

(a) As to a tax in effect during the applicable base period. (1) If the seller paid such tax, or if the tax was paid by any prior vendor, irrespective of whether the amount thereof was separately stated and collected from the seller, but the seller did not customarily state and collect separately from the purchase price during the applicable base period the amount of the tax paid by him or tax reimbursement collected from him by his vendor, the seller may not collect such amount in addition to the maximum price, and in such case shall include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 177.

(2) In all other cases, if, at the time the seller determines his maximum price, the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does state it separately, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased, and in such case the seller shall not include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 177.

(b) As to a tax or increase in a tax which becomes effective after the appropriate base period. If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax or increase does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax or increase separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax or increase actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

§ 1389.112 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 177 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1389.113 Registration and licensing. The registration and licensing provisions of §§ 1499.15 and 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation[1] are applicable to every person subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 177 selling men's and boys' tailored clothing at wholesale or at retail.

§ 1389.114 Records of sellers of ready-made garments at retail—(a) Records to be kept. Every person selling men's and boys' ready-made tailored clothing at retail shall keep and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration:

(1) All his existing records relating to the prices which he charged for garments other than outer coats during March 1942;

(2) All his existing records relating to the prices which he charged for outer coats during September, October and November 1941; and

(3) Records of the kind he has customarily kept relating to the prices which he charges for men's and boys' ready-made tailored clothing on and after July 11, 1942.

(b) Prices to be marked and posted. On and after July 11, 1942 every person offering to sell men's and boys' ready-made tailored clothing at retail shall mark the maximum prices of such garments in a manner plainly visible to, and understandable by, the purchasing public. The maximum prices may be marked on the garments themselves or may be posted at the place in the establishment where the garments are offered for sale, and may be posted by price lines if the selling price of each garment is marked thereon. The maximum price shall be indicated in the form "Ceiling Price $____" or "Our Ceiling $____"

(c) Statements to be prepared. On or before August 1, 1942, every person selling men's and boys' ready-made tailored clothing at retail shall prepare, as fully as available information permits, and thereafter keep up to date and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, a statement showing:

(1) The highest prices which he charged for all garments other than outer coats during March 1942;

(2) The highest prices which he charged for outer coats during September, October and November 1941;

§ 1408.10 Maximum Export Price Regulation applicable.[2] The maximum price at which a person may sell or deliver any commodity for export shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Maximum Export Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration on April 25, 1942.

§ 1408.11 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 175 (§§ 1408.1 to 1408.13 inclusive) shall become effective July 11, 1942.

§ 1408.12 Appendix A: Maximum prices for rolled and wire glass for the Eastern area.—(a) Application. The provisions of this Appendix A apply to all sales of rolled or wire glass in which the point of destination is within the continental United States except where the point of destination is in the states of Oregon, Washington, California, Nevada, Idaho, or Arizona.

(b) Transportation practices. The maximum prices established herein are f. o. b. factory points. On shipments of less than 300 square feet the manufacturer need not absorb any of the cost of transportation from factory point to buyer's receiving point. On shipments of 300 square feet or more, however, the seller shall absorb all costs of transportation to the buyer's receiving point in excess of the charge at the lowest applicable common carrier rate for a shipment of identical quantity by the mode of transportation actually employed from the applicable factory point to the buyer's receiving point. As used in this paragraph (b), the term "applicable factory point" means the factory producing the same class of rolled and wire glass items, or similar or competitive items suitable for the same use, from which the lowest published common carrier rate for a shipment of identical quantity by the mode of transportation actually employed applies to the buyer's receiving point; and the term "buyer's receiving point" means:

(1) In the case of shipments by water, ex dock, and in the case of carload shipments by rail, f. o. b. conveyance at a siding, at or in the vicinity of the point of delivery designated by the buyer.

(2) In the case of shipments by motor vehicle and of less-carload shipments by rail, the point of delivery designated by the buyer.

(c) Maximum prices for certain standard items of rolled and wire glass.

[Maximum prices authorized under § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation [1]—Order 20]

PARAFFINE COMPANIES, INC.

By letter of May 28, 1942, the Paraffine Companies, Inc. of San Francisco, California applied to the Office of Price Administration seeking specific authorization pursuant to § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation to determine maximum prices for certain new products designated camouflage mineral surfaced roofing, camouflage mineral surfaced split sheet roofing, and camouflage Dutch lap shingles and for instructions as to the method to be used in determining such prices. Due consideration has been given to the application and an Opinion in support of this Order has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register. For the reasons set forth in the Opinion, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration, it is hereby ordered:

§ 1499.57 Authorization for Paraffine Companies, Inc. to determine maximum prices for camouflage mineral surfaced roofing, camouflage mineral surfaced split sheet roofing and camouflage Dutch lap shingles. (a) The maximum prices which may be charged for camouflage mineral surfaced roofing, camouflage mineral surfaced split sheet roofing or camouflage Dutch lap shingles shall be determined in accordance with the following formula:

Determine the unit platform cost (cost of raw materials, direct labor, accessories, factory overhead, packaging and loading,) of the new product, using as the cost of each constituent item of the platform cost the highest replacement cost for each such item during March 1942 and the highest rate charged during March 1942 for similar labor. Determine the average unit platform cost (including accessories) in March 1942, of the most comparable product manufactured by the Paraffine Companies in March. Add to the platform cost of the new product the commercial burden (general, administrative, and selling expenses) at the percentage rate prevailing in March, 1942, for the most comparable product, determining this percentage on the basis of the platform cost of the most comparable product. To this figure add the cost of freight to the f. o. b. selling point; the result is the total cost to make and sell at the f. o. b. selling point. To this total cost there may be added a margin of profit in an amount not to exceed the same prevailing percentage of profit per unit in relation to sales as was realized in March on sales of the most comparable product at the f. o. b. selling point.

The most comparable product to the camouflage mineral surfaced roofing is Paraffine Companies' 90 lb. mineral surfaced roofing; the most comparable product to camouflage mineral surfaced split sheet roofing is Paraffine Companies' mineral surfaced split sheet roofing; the most comparable product to camouflage Dutch lap shingles is Paraffine Companies' Dutch lap shingles.

A separate determination of price shall be made for each product for each f. o. b. selling point; all colors of a new product shall be considered one product.

(b) All freight equalization practices and allowances and discounts applicable to the sale of the most comparable product of Paraffine Companies, Inc. whether based on quantity, class of purchaser or any other cause shall be applicable to sales of any products whose maximum prices are established under this Order.

(c) Within ten days after a maximum price has been determined in accordance with this Order, Paraffine Companies, Inc. shall report that price to the Office of Price Administration, stating that the price was determined in accordance with the formula set forth in paragraph (a) hereof and setting forth in detail the calculations made in determining that price. This report shall be filed under oath or affirmation and shall be filed in triplicate.

(d) Any selling price determined under this Order shall be subject to adjustment at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

(e) This Order No. 20 may be revoked or amended by the Office of Price Administration at any time.

(f) This Order No. 20 (§ 1499.57) shall become effective July 7, 1942. (Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.)

DISTRICT BOARD 13

RELIEF GRANTED; NOTICE OF HEARING, ETC.

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 13 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 13.

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 13 for the revision of minimum prices for the coals of the Happy Hollow Mine (Mine Index No. 326) of J. A. Garrett and for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Cross Roads Mine (Mine Index No. 171) of Supreme Black Creek Coal Co., Inc., for all shipments except truck.

Memorandum opinion and order severing Docket No. A-1481, Part II from Docket No. A-1481; order granting temporary relief in part in Docket No. A-1481, Part II and notice of and order for hearing in Docket No. A-1481 Part II.

The original petition in the above-entitled matter which was filed with this Division requests the issuance of orders establishing temporary and permanent price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 13 and revising the minimum prices applicable for the coals of the Happy Hollow Mine (Mine Index No. 326) of J. A. Garrett for all shipments except truck.

As indicated in an Order issued today in Docket No. A-1481, a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the relief prayed by the petitioner except as to certain mines as explained therein, and except as to Mine Index No. 326, and the Cross Roads Mine (Mine Index No. 171) of Supreme Black Creek Coal Co., Inc.

The original petition prays for a decrease in the minimum prices applicable to the coals in Mine Index No. 326 in certain size groups for all shipments except truck. It also prays for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices in additional size groups for the coals of Mine Index No. 171 for all shipments except truck from Natural Bridge, Alabama, only, whereas the price classifications and minimum prices for all shipments except truck heretofore established for this mine in other size groups, by Order issued March 17, 1942, in Docket No. A-1049 Part II, are for shipments from both Natural Bridge and Eldridge, Alabama.

It appears that a hearing is necessary to determine whether the decreased minimum prices for the coals of Mine Index No. 326 proposed by the original petitioner are proper and whether both Natural Bridge and Eldridge, Alabama, are necessary as shipping points for the coals of Mine Index No. 171.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the portion of Docket No. A-1481 relating to the coals of Mine Index Nos. 326 and 171 be, and it hereby is, severed from the remainder of Docket No. A-1481 and designated as Docket No. A-1481 Part II.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in Docket No. A-1481 Part II under the applicable provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and the rules of the Division be held on August 4, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in Room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Edward J. Hayes or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit to the undersigned proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

[1] Not filed with the original document.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before July 30, 1942.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of District Board No. 13 for a decrease in the effective minimum prices for the coals of the Happy Hollow Mine (Mine Index No. 326) of J. A. Garrett for all shipments except truck as follows:

Size groups	1	2	7	13	22	23
From	295	295	275	280	270	260
To	250	250	230	230	225	220

and the determination as to whether both Natural Bridge and Eldridge, Alabama, are necessary as shipping points for the Size Groups 7, 19, 20, 21, 22, and 26 coals of the Cross Roads Mine (Mine Index No. 171) of the Supreme Black Creek Coal Co., Inc.

It is further ordered, That pending final disposition of Docket No. A-1481 Part II, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 13 for All Shipments Except Truck is supplemented to include the price classifications and minimum prices set forth in the schedule marked "Temporary Supplement R," annexed hereto and made a part hereof.

Notice is hereby given that applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief granted herein may be filed pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Dated: July 6, 1942.

[P. and S. Docket No. 1492]

FAIRBURY LIVESTOCK CO.

ORDER OF INQUIRY, ORDER OF SUSPENSION, AND NOTICE OF HEARING

In re Julius J. Williams, doing business as the Fairbury Livestock Company, respondent.

This proceeding is instituted pursuant to the provisions of Title III of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 181), and the following allegations are made:

1. The respondent is engaged in the busines of conducting or operating a stockyard at Fairbury, in the State of Nebraska, which stockyard has been ascertained by the Secretary of Agriculture to be a "stockyard" within the definition thereof as used in the act, and which has been posted as such by the Secretary of Agriculture under the act.

2. The respondent is also registered as a market agency engaged in the business of selling livestock on a commission basis at his stockyard at Fairbury, Nebraska.

3. In accordance with the requirement of the Packers and Stockyards Act, the respondent has heretofore filed and put into effect schedules of rates and charges for his services.

4. On or about June 26, 1942, the respondent made, filed and published, effective July 7, 1942, a new schedule of rates and charges designated as Supplement No. 3 to Tariff No. 1, containing rates and charges applicable to hogs at his stockyard, which are materially greater than those set forth in the schedule now on file.

5. Upon examination of the records and other information in the possession of the Department of Agriculture, there is reason to believe that the increases proposed by such new schedule are not justified, and that such increases are, in fact, unreasonable.

6. Supplement No. 3 does not state plainly the terms and conditions under which rates are to be charged.

It is concluded that a proceeding under title III of the act should be had for the purpose of determining the reasonableness and lawfulness of the rates and charges set forth in Supplement No. 3 to Tariff No. 1, and that pending a hearing and decision in such proceeding, the operation of such tariff should be suspended and its use deferred.

It is further concluded that a hearing should be had for the purpose of determining the lawfulness of all rates and charges of the respondent and of any rule, regulation, or practice affecting said rates and charges, and whether any stockyard service is rendered by the respondent without making a lawful charge therefor.

It is therefore ordered, That the operation and use of the tariff filed by the respondent on June 26, 1942, and designated as Supplement No. 3 to Tariff No. 1, shall be and it is hereby suspended and deferred until the expiration of thirty days beyond the time when such tariff would otherwise go into effect.

It is further ordered, That a hearing covering the allegations made herein shall be held before an examiner at a time and place of which the respondent will have at least ten days' notice. At such hearing, the respondent and all other interested persons will have a right to appear and present such evidence with respect to the matters and things alleged as may be relevant and material.

It is further ordered, That any and all interested persons who may wish to appear and present evidence relative to the issues in this proceeding shall give notice thereof by filing a statement to that effect with the Hearing Clerk, Office of the Solicitor, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., on or before the first day of August, 1942.

It is further ordered, That a copy hereof be served upon the respondent by registered mail.

It is further ordered, That this order shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 6th day of July, 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Assistant to the Secretary of Agriculture.[1]

therein by any foreign country or national thereof;

(e) any ship or vessel or interest therein, in which any foreign country or national thereof has an interest; and

(f) any property of any nature whatsoever which is in the process of administration by any person acting under judicial supervision or which is in partition, libel, condemnation or other similar proceedings and which is payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, a designated enemy country or national thereof.

When the Alien Property Custodian determines to exercise any power and authority conferred upon him by this section with respect to any of the foregoing property over which the Secretary of the Treasury is exercising any control and so notifies the Secretary of the Treasury in writing, the Secretary of the Treasury shall release all control of such property, except as authorized or directed by the Alien Property Custodian.

3. Subject to the provisions of this Executive Order, all powers and authority conferred upon me by sections 3 (a) and 5 (b) of the Trading with the enemy Act, as amended, are hereby delegated to the Secretary of the Treasury or any person, agency, or instrumentality designated by him; provided, however, that when any property or interest, not belonging to a foreign government or central bank, shall be vested by the Secretary of the Treasury, such property or interest shall be vested in, and dealt with by, the Alien Property Custodian upon the terms directed by the Secretary of the Treasury. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Executive Order shall not be deemed to modify or amend Executive Order No. 8389, as amended,[1] or the President's Proclamation of July 17, 1941,[2] or Executive Order No. 8839, as amended,[3] or the regulations, rulings, licenses and other action taken thereunder, or in connection therewith.

4. Without limitation as to any other powers or authority of the Secretary of the Treasury or the Alien Property Custodian under any other provision of this Executive Order, the Secretary of the Treasury and the Alien Property Custodian are authorized and empowered, either jointly or severally, to prescribe from time to time, regulations, rulings, and instructions to carry out the purposes of this Executive Order. The Secretary of the Treasury and the Alien Property Custodian each shall make available to the other all information in his files to enable the other to discharge his functions, and shall keep each other currently informed as to investigations being conducted with respect to enemy ownership or control of business enterprises within the United States.

5. The Alien Property Custodian is authorized to issue appropriate regulations governing the service of process or notice upon any person within any designated enemy country or any enemy-occupied territory in connection with any court or administrative action or proceeding within the United States. The Alien Property Custodian also is authorized to take such other and further measures in connection with representing any such person in any such action or proceeding as in his judgment and discretion is or may be in the interest of the United States. If, as a result of any such action or proceeding, any such person obtains, or is determined to have, an interest in any property (including money judgments), such property, less an amount equal to the costs and expenses incurred by the Alien Property Custodian in such action or proceeding, shall be subject to the provisions of Executive Order No. 8389, as amended, provided, however, that this shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian under section 2 of this Order; and provided further, that the Alien Property Custodian may vest an amount of such property equal to the costs and expenses incurred by the Alien Property Custodian in such action or proceeding.

6. To enable the Alien Property Custodian to carry out his functions under this Executive Order, there are hereby delegated to the Alien Property Custodian or any person, agency, or instrumentality designated by him all powers and authority conferred upon me by section 5 (b) of the Trading with the enemy Act, as amended, including, but not limited to, the power to make such investigations and require such reports as he deems necessary or appropriate to determine whether any enterprise or property should be subject to his jurisdiction and control under this Executive Order. The powers and authority conferred upon the Alien Property Custodian by Executive Order No. 9142[4] shall be administered by him in conformity with the provisions of this Executive Order.

7. In the exercise of the authority herein delegated, the Alien Property Custodian shall be subject to the provisions of Executive Order No. 8839 of July 30, 1941, and shall designate a representative to the Board of Economic Warfare in accordance with section 6 thereof.

8. All records and other property (including office equipment) of the Treasury Department which are used primarily in the administration of powers and duties to be exercised by the Alien Property Custodian, and such personnel as is used primarily in the administration of such powers and duties and which was hired by the Treasury Department after September 1, 1941 (including officers whose chief duties relate to the administration of such powers and duties), as the Secretary of the Treasury and the Alien Property Custodian shall jointly certify for transfer, shall be transferred to the Office of the Alien Property Custodian. In the event of disagreement concerning the transfer of any personnel, records, or property, the determination shall be made by the Director of the Bureau of the Budget, pursuant to the formula here prescribed. Any personnel transferred pursuant to this Executive Order shall be transferred without loss of such Civil Service status or eligibility therefor as they may have.

9. This Executive Order shall not be deemed to modify or amend Executive Order No. 8843 of August 9, 1941,[5] and the regulations, rulings, licenses and other action taken thereunder. Any and all action heretofore taken by the Secretary of the Treasury or the Alien Property Custodian, or by any person, agency, or instrumentality designated by either of them, pursuant to sections 3 (a) and 5 (b) of the Trading with the enemy Act, as amended, or pursuant to prior Executive Orders, and any and all action heretofore taken by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System pursuant to Executive Order No. 8843 of August 9, 1941, are hereby confirmed and ratified.

10. For the purpose of this Executive Order:

(a) The term "designated enemy country" shall mean any foreign country against which the United States has declared the existence of a state of war (Germany, Italy, Japan, Bulgaria, Hungary and Rumania) and any other country with which the United States is at war in the future. The term "national" shall have the meaning prescribed in section 5 of Executive Order No. 8389, as amended, provided, however, that persons not within designated enemy countries (even though they may be within enemy-occupied countries or areas) shall not be deemed to be nationals of a designated enemy country unless the Alien Property Custodian determines: (i) that such person is controlled by or acting for or on behalf of (including cloaks for) a designated enemy country or a person within such country; or (ii) that such person is a citizen or subject of a designated enemy country and within an enemy-occupied country or area; or (iii) that the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country. For the purpose of this Executive Order any determination by the Alien Property Custodian that any property or interest of any foreign country or national thereof is the property or interest of a designated enemy country or national thereof shall be final and conclusive as to the power of the Alien Property Custodian to exercise any of the power or authority conferred upon me by section 5 (b) of the Trading with the enemy Act, as amended.

(b) The term "business enterprise within the United States" shall mean any individual proprietorship, partnership, corporation or other organization primarily engaged in the conduct of a business within the United States, and any other individual proprietorship, partnership, corporation or other organization to the extent that it has an established office within the United States engaged in the conduct of business within the United States.

11. The Secretary of the Treasury or the Alien Property Custodian, as the case may be, shall, except as otherwise agreed to by the Secretary of State, consult with the Secretary of State before vesting any property or interest pursuant to this Executive Order, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall consult with the Secretary of State before issuing any Order adding any additional foreign countries to section 3 of Executive Order No. 8389, as amended.

12. Any orders, regulations, rulings, instructions, licenses or other actions issued or taken by any person, agency or instrumentality referred to in this Executive Order, shall be final and conclusive as to the power of such person, agency or instrumentality to exercise any of the power or authority conferred upon me by sections 3 (a) and 5 (b) of the Trading with the enemy Act, as amended; and to the extent necessary and appropriate to enable them to perform their duties and functions hereunder, the Secretary of the Treasury and the Alien Property Custodian shall be deemed to be authorized to exercise severally any and all authority, rights, privileges and powers conferred on the President by sections 3 (a) and 5 (b) of the Trading with the enemy Act of October 6, 1917, as amended, and by sections 301 and 302 of Title III of the First War Powers Act, 1941, approved December 18, 1941. No person affected by any order, regulation, ruling, instruction, license or other action issued or taken by either the Secretary of the Treasury or the Alien Property Custodian shall be entitled to challenge the validity thereof or otherwise excuse his actions, or failure to act, on the ground that pursuant to the provisions of this Executive Order, such order, regulation, ruling, instruction, license or other action was within the jurisdiction of the Alien Property Custodian rather than the Secretary of the Treasury or vice versa.

13. Any regulations, rulings, instructions, licenses, determinations or other actions issued, made or taken by any agency or person referred to in this Executive Order, purporting to be under the provisions of this Executive Order or any other proclamation, order or regulation, issued under sections 3 (a) or 5 (b) of the Trading with the enemy Act, as amended, shall be conclusively presumed to have been issued, made or taken after appropriate consultation as herein required and after appropriate certification in any case in which a certification is required pursuant to the provisions of this Executive Order.

Excess Funds to Home Owner

"In cases where the consideration (whether land, interest therein, enhancement in value thereof, or funds) exceeds the amount by which the value of the Corporation's security is reduced or diminished and the home owner has requested that any such excess consideration which is represented by cash or part thereof be retained by him or turned over to him for his own use, the Regional Manager may grant the request. In cases where such excess does not exist, and the amount requested does not exceed $100.00, or where there is an excess and the amount requested does not exceed the excess by more than $100.00, the Regional Manager may grant the home owner's request that such portion of the cash proceeds be retained by or turned over to him, provided the Regional Manager determines that such allowance is necessary for the completion of the transaction, and that the Corporation's interest would not be adversely affected. Where the circumstances are exceptional and the amount requested by the home owner is in excess of that which the Regional Manager is authorized to grant, and the Regional Manager recommends that the request of the home owner be allowed, he shall forward the file, together with a summary of the case and his recommendation, with the opinion of the Regional Counsel, to the General Manager for direction.

Section 402.22–2 is amended to read as follows:

§ 402.22–2 Other application of miscellaneous credits. Miscellaneous credits shall be applied in accordance with Article 800–26 of the Manual. All miscellaneous credits of $25.00 or less shall be applied as repayments, unless in individual cases the Regional Manager or the Control Supervisor specifically directs other application. All other miscellaneous credits shall be applied only upon specific direction of the Regional Manager or the Control Supervisor and should apply generally to the principal of a home owner's account in proportion to the reduction of security. However, it is recognized that the source of miscellaneous credits, the condition of the home owner's account and other circumstances of each case may warrant other application of these funds. Although it is not generally contemplated to use miscellaneous credits as prepayments of any account, such application may be warranted in unusual cases.

Reamortization. Where miscellaneous credits are so applied as to materially reduce the unmatured principal indebtedness, the home owner may request and the Regional Manager or the Control Supervisor may direct a reamortization of the loan balance within the remaining life of the loan or sales instrument, or the home owner may apply for an extension if the time required for repayment of the loan balance is greater than the remaining life of the present loan or sales instruments, subject to the provisions of § 402.10 (a) and (b).

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue

[T. D. 5160]

Subchapter A—Income and Excess-Profits Taxes

PART 19—INCOME TAX UNDER THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

AMENDMENTS PURSUANT TO PUBLIC DEBT ACTS OF 1941 AND 1942

In order to conform Part 19, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1940 Sup. [Regulations 103] to the provisions of section 4 of the Public Debt Act of 1941, as amended by section 6 of the Public Debt Act of 1942 (Public Law 510, 77th Congress), approved March 28, 1942, such regulations are amended as follows:

1. The following is inserted immediately preceding § 19.22 (b) (4)–1:[2]

PUBLIC DEBT ACT OF 1942 (APPROVED MARCH 28, 1942)

SEC. 6. Section 4 of the Public Debt Act of 1941 (Public, Numbered 7, Seventy-seventh Congress, first session), is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 4. (a) Interest upon obligations, and dividends, earnings, or other income from shares, certificates, stock, or other evidences of ownership, and gain from the sale or other disposition of such obligations and evidences of ownership issued on or after the effective date of the Public Debt Act of 1942 by the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof shall not have any exemption, as such, and loss from the sale or other disposition of such obligations or evidences of ownership shall not have any special treatment, as such, under Federal tax Acts now or hereafter enacted; except that any such obligations which the United States Maritime Commission or the Federal Housing Administration had, prior to March 1, 1941, contracted to issue at a future date, shall when issued bear such tax-exemption privileges as were, at the time of such contract, provided in the law authorizing their issuance. For the purposes of this subsection a Territory, a possession of the United States, and the District of Columbia, and any political subdivision thereof, and any agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing, shall not be considered as an agency or instrumentality of the United States.

(b) The provisions of this section shall, with respect to such obligations and evidences of ownership, be considered as amendatory of and supplementary to the respective Acts or parts of Acts authorizing the issuance of such obligations and evidences of ownership, as amended and supplemented.

(c) Nothing contained herein shall be construed to amend or repeal sections 114 and 115 of the Revenue Act of 1941.

2. Section 19.22 (b) (4)–2 is amended to read as follows:

§ 19.22 (b) (4)–2 Dividends from shares and stock of Federal agencies or instrumentalities — (a) Issued prior to March 28, 1942. Section 26 of the Federal Farm Loan Act of July 17, 1916 (39 Stat. 380, 12 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 931), provides that Federal land banks and national farm-loan associations, including the capital and reserve or surplus therein and the income derived therefrom, shall be exempt from taxation, except taxes upon real estate. Section 7 of the Federal Reserve Act of December 23, 1913 (38 Stat. 258, 12 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 531), provides that Federal reserve banks, including the capital stock and surplus therein and the income derived therefrom, shall be exempt from taxation, except taxes upon real estate. Section 5 (h) of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 (48 Stat. 133, 12 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 1464 (h)) provides that shares of Federal savings and loan associations shall, both as to their value and the income therefrom, be exempt from all taxation (except surtaxes, estate, inheritance, and gift taxes) imposed by the United States. Under the above-mentioned provisions, income consisting of dividends on stock of Federal land banks, national farm-loan associations, and Federal reserve banks is not, in the case of stock issued prior to March 28, 1942, subject to the income tax; and income consisting of dividends on share accounts of Federal savings and loan associations is not, in the case of shares issued prior to March 28, 1942, subject to the normal tax on income. For taxability of such income in the case of such stock or shares issued on or after March 28, 1942, see section 6 of the Public Debt Act of 1942 and paragraph (b) of this section. For the time at which a stock or share is issued within the meaning of this section, see paragraph (b) of this section.

Regardless of the exemption from income tax of dividends paid on the stock of Federal reserve banks, dividends paid by member banks are treated like dividends of ordinary corporations.

Dividends on the stock of the central bank for cooperatives, the production credit corporations, production credit associations, and banks for cooperatives, organized under the provisions of the Farm Credit Act of 1933, constitute income to the recipients, subject to both the normal tax and surtax (see section 63 of the Farm Credit Act of 1933 (48 Stat. 267, 12 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 1138c)).

(b) Issued on or after March 28, 1942. By virtue of the provisions of section 6 of the Public Debt Act of 1942, the tax exemption provisions set forth in paragraph (a) with respect to income consisting of dividends on stock of the Federal land banks, national farm-loan associations, and Federal reserve banks, or on share accounts of Federal savings and loan associations, are not applicable in the case of dividends on such stock or shares issued on or after March 28, 1942.

For the purposes of this section, a stock or share is deemed to be issued at the time and to the extent that payment therefor is made to the agency or instrumentality. The date of issuance of the certificate or other evidence of ownership of such stock or share is not determinative if payment is made at an earlier or later date. Where old stock is retired in exchange for new stock of a different character or preference, the new stock shall be deemed to have been issued at the time of the exchange rather than when the old stock was paid for. This paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A, the owner of an investment share account, consisting of 10 shares, in a Federal savings and loan association, has a single certificate issued prior to March 28, 1942, evidencing such ownership. In order that A may dispose of half of such shares, the association at his request issues, after March 27, 1942, two five-share certificates in substitution for the 10-share certificate. The shares evidenced by the two new certificates are deemed to have been issued prior to March 28, 1942, the shares having been paid for prior to such date.

Example (2). The X Bank, a member of a Federal reserve bank, owns 50 shares of Federal reserve bank stock, evidenced by a single stock certificate issued prior to March 28, 1942. On December 31, 1942, the X Bank reduces the amount of its capital stock as a result of which it is required to reduce the amount of its Federal reserve bank stock to 40 shares. It surrenders the 50-share certificate to the Federal reserve bank and receives a new 40-share certificate. The 40 shares evidenced by such certificate are deemed to have been issued prior to March 28, 1942. On December 31, 1943, the X Bank increases the amount of its capital stock as a result of which it is required to purchase 10 additional shares of the Federal reserve bank stock. The Federal reserve bank issues a 10-share certificate evidencing ownership of the new shares. Of the 50 shares then owned by the X Bank, 40 were issued prior to March 28, 1942, and 10 were issued after March 27, 1942.

Example (3). A, the owner of a savings share account, in the amount of $100, in a Federal savings and loan association, has a passbook containing a certificate issued prior to March 28, 1942, evidencing such ownership. Subsequent to March 27, 1942, A deposits $10,000 in the account. With respect to the $10,000 deposit, the share is deemed to have been issued after March 27, 1942.

3. Section 19.22 (b) (4)–3 is amended to read as follows:

§ 19.22 (b) (4)–3 Interest upon notes secured by mortgages executed to Federal agencies or instrumentalities. Section 26 of the Federal Farm Loan Act of July 17, 1916 (39 Stat. 380, 12 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 931), and section 210 of such Act, as added by section 2 of the Act of March 4, 1923 (42 Stat. 1459, 12 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 1111), provide that first mortgages executed to Federal land banks, joint-stock land banks, or Federal intermediate credit banks, and the income derived therefrom, shall be exempt from taxation. Accordingly, income consisting of interest on promissory notes held by such banks and secured by such first mortgages is not subject to the income tax.

4. Section 19.22 (b) (4)–4, as amended by Treasury Decision 5040, approved February 28, 1941, is amended as follows:

A. By inserting after the fifth paragraph of paragraph (a) the following new paragraph:

Section 26 of the Federal Farm Loan Act of July 17, 1916 (39 Stat. 380, 12 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 931), and section 210 of such Act, as added by section 2 of the Act of March 4, 1923 (42 Stat. 1459, 12 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 1111), provide that farm-loan bonds issued by Federal land banks and joint-stock land banks and debentures issued by Federal intermediate credit banks, with the income therefrom, shall be exempt from taxation. Accordingly, interest from such farm-loan bonds or debentures is not subject to the income tax.

B. By inserting "debentures," immediately following "bonds," in the first sentence of paragraph (b) and by inserting at the end of paragraph (b) the following new paragraph:

In the case of obligations issued as the result of a refunding operation, as, for example, where a corporation exchanges bonds for previously issued bonds, the refunding obligations are deemed, for the purposes of this section, to have been issued at the time of the exchange rather than at the time the original bonds were issued.

(Sec. 6 Public Debt Act of 1942 (Public Law 510, 77th Cong.) and sec. 3791 (a) (2) Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 467; 26 U.S.C., 3791 (a) (2)))

1. Immediately preceding § 410.1, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations [article 1], the following is inserted:

SECTION 14 OF THE ACT APPROVED APRIL 8, 1942 (PUBLIC LAW 520—77TH CONGRESS)

The first proviso in subsection (d) of section 1532 of the Internal Revenue Code, approved February 10, 1939 (53 Stat. 1), is hereby amended to read as follows: "Provided, however, That an individual shall be deemed to be in the service of an employer, other than a local lodge or division or a general committee of a railway-labor-organization employer, not conducting the principal part of its business in the United States only when he is rendering service to it in the United States; and an individual shall be deemed to be in the service of such a local lodge or division only if (1) all, or substantially all, the individuals constituting its membership are employees of an employer conducting the principal part of its business in the United States; or (2) the headquarters of such local lodge or division is located in the United States; and an individual shall be deemed to be in the service of such a general committee only if (1) he is representing a local lodge or division described in clauses (1) or (2) immediately above; or (2) all, or substantially all, the individuals represented by it are employees of an employer conducting the principal part of its business in the United States; or (3) he acts in the capacity of a general chairman or an assistant general chairman of a general committee which represents individuals rendering service in the United States to an employer, but in such case if his office or headquarters is not located in the United States and the individuals represented by such general committee are employees of an employer not conducting the principal part of its business in the United States, only such proportion of the remuneration for such service shall be regarded as compensation as the proportion which the mileage in the United States under the jurisdiction of such general committee bears to the total mileage under its jurisdiction, unless such mileage formula is inapplicable, in which case such other formula as the Railroad Retirement Board may have prescribed pursuant to subsection (c) of section 1 of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 shall be applicable".

The amendment in this section shall operate in the same manner and have the same effect as if it had been part of the Internal Revenue Code when that code was enacted on February 10, 1939, and as if it had been part of the Carriers Taxing Act of 1937 (50 Stat. 435) when that Act was enacted on June 29, 1937: Provided, however, That no interest or penalties shall accrue or be deemed to have accrued for the failure to make returns under, or pay taxes levied by, sections 1500 and 1520, respectively, of said Internal Revenue Code and sections 2 and 3, respectively, of said Carriers Taxing Act of 1937 with respect to the compensation of employees of any local lodge or division or of any general committee of a railway-labor-organization employer earned prior to the enactment of this amendment, if (1) the headquarters of such a local lodge or division was not located in the United States, or (2) all, or substantially all, the individuals constituting the membership of such a local lodge or division were employees of an employer not conducting the principal part of its business in the United States, or (3) the individuals represented by such a general committee were employees of an employer not conducting the principal part of its business in the United States, or (4) the service to such a general committee was rendered outside the United States, or (5) the office or headquarters of the individual rendering service to such a general committee was not located in the United States and if such returns are made and such taxes are paid within the time allowed for making returns and paying taxes with respect to the first calendar quarter beginning after the enactment of this amendment.

2. Section 410.3 (a), Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations [article 3 (a)] as amended by § 410.3 (a) of such Title 26, 1940 Sup., [Treasury Decision 5017], is amended by striking out the seventh and eighth paragraphs thereof and by inserting in lieu of such paragraphs the following:

If an individual performs services for an employer (other than a local lodge or division or a general committee of a railway-labor-organization employer) which does not conduct the principal part of its business within the United States, such individual shall be deemed to be in the service of such employer only to the extent that he performs services for it in the United States. Thus, with respect to services rendered for such employer outside the United States, such individual is not in the service of an employer.

If an individual performs services for an employer (other than a local lodge or division or a general committee of a railway-labor-organization employer) which conducts the principal part of its business within the United States, he is in the service of such employer whether his services are rendered within or without the United States. In the case of an individual, not a citizen or resident of the United States, rendering services in a place outside the United States to an employer which is required under the laws applicable in such place to employ, in whole or in part, citizens or residents thereof, such individual shall not be deemed to be in the service of an employer with respect to services so rendered.

3. Section 410.3 (b), Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, [article 3 (b)] as amended by § 410.3 (b) of such Title 26, 1940 Sup., [Treasury Decision 5017], is stricken out and the following inserted in lieu thereof:

(b) Employees of local lodges or divisions of railway labor organizations. (1) An individual is in the service of a local lodge or division of a railway-labor-organization employer (see § 410.2 (f), Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations [article 2 (f)] only if:

(i) All, or substantially all, the individuals constituting the membership of such local lodge or division are employees of an employer conducting the principal part of its business in the United States; or

(ii) The headquarters of such local lodge or division is located in the United States. (See section 14 of the Act approved April 8, 1942 (Public Law 520—77th Congress), set forth preceding § 410.1 of such Title 26, 1942 Sup. [article 1].)

(2) An individual in the service of a local lodge or division is not an employee within the meaning of the law and these regulations unless, on or after August 29, 1935, he was either:

(i) In the service of a carrier; that is, on or after August 29, 1935, the individual must have been subject to the continuing authority of a carrier to supervise and direct the manner of the performance of services being rendered by such individual for compensation (see § 410.3 (a) of such Title 26 and 1940 Sup. and 1942 Sup. [paragraph (a) of this article]; or

(ii) In the "employment relation" to a carrier; that is, the individual on or after August 29, 1935, in accordance with established rules and practices in effect on the carrier, was on furlough subject to call for service within or without the United States and ready and willing to serve, or on leave of absence, or absent on account of sickness or disability. However, an individual shall not be deemed to be in the "employment relation" to a carrier unless during the last pay-roll period in which he rendered service to it, he was with respect to that service "in the service of an employer" (see § 410.3 (a) of such Title 26 and 1940 Sup. and 1942 Sup. [paragraph (a) of this article]).

(For definition of "carrier," see § 410.2 (a) of such Title 26 [article 2 (a)].)

(c) Employees of general committees of railway labor organizations. An individual is in the service of a general committee of a railway-labor-organization employer (see § 410.2 (f), Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations [article 2 (f)]) only if:

(1) He is representing a local lodge or division described in § 410.3 (b) (1) of such Title 26, 1942 Sup. [paragraph (b) (1) of this article]; or

(2) All, or substantially all, the individuals represented by such general committee are employees of an employer conducting the principal part of its business in the United States; or

(3) He acts in the capacity of a general chairman or an assistant general chairman of a general committee which represents individuals rendering service in the United States to an employer. In such case, if his office or headquarters is not located in the United States and the individuals represented by such general committee are employees of an employer not conducting the principal part of its business in the United States, only a part of his remuneration for such service shall be regarded as compensation (see § 410.5 of such Title 26 and 1940 Sup. and 1942 Sup. [article 5]). The part of his remuneration regarded as compensation shall be in the same proportion to his total remuneration as the mileage in the United States under the jurisdiction of such general committee bears to the total mileage under its jurisdiction, unless such mileage formula is inapplicable, in which case such other formula as the Railroad Retirement Board may have prescribed pursuant to section 1 (c) of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, as amended, shall be applicable. (See section 14 of the Act approved April 8, 1942 (Public Law 520—77th Congress), set forth preceding § 410.1 of such Title 26, 1942 Sup. [article 1].)

4. Section 410.5 Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations [article 5], as amended by § 410.5 of such Title 26, 1940 Sup. [Treasury Decision 5029], is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

(See section 14 of the Act approved April 8, 1942 (Public Law 520—77th Congress), set forth preceding § 410.1, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1942 Sup. [article 1] and see also § 410.3 (c) of such Title 26, 1942 Sup. [article 3 (c)] for special provisions relating to the compensation of certain general chairmen or assistant general chairmen of a general committee of a railway-labor-organization employer.)

5. Sections 410.803, 410.804, and 410.805 (a), Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations [articles 803, 804, and 805 (a)] are amended by adding at the end of each such article the following new paragraph:

(See, however, section 14 of the Act approved April 8, 1942 (Public Law 520—77th Congress), set forth preceding § 410.1, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1942 Sup. [article 1] for special provisions relating to interest and penalties in the case of certain local lodges and divisions and general committees of railway-labor-organization employers.)

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

PART 321—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 1

[Docket No. A-1454]

ORDER PROVIDING FOR FINAL RELIEF

Order amending order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 1 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1.

On May 29, 1942, 7 F.R. 4377, an Order Granting Temporary and Conditionally Final Relief having been issued in Docket No. A-1454 in which, inter alia, the shipping point of Brockway, Pennsylvania on the Pennsylvania Railroad was assigned to the Bona #2 Mine, Mine Index No. 745, of John Bona, for rail shipments, as requested by petitioner;

On June 23, 1942, petitioner having filed with the Bituminous Coal Division a document designated "Motion to Amend the Above Entitled Petition," in which it was stated that John Bona was unable to obtain a loading facility at Brockway, Pennsylvania for his mine, and which requested a shipping point at Hyde, Pennsylvania, on the Pittsburg, Shawmut and Northern Railroad for the Bona #2 Mine for rail shipments;

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the matter as hereinafter set forth, and for a consideration of the "Motion to Amend the Above Entitled Petition" as a Motion to Amend the Order of May 29, 1942, in this matter;

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division to the "Motion to Amend the Above Entitled Petition;"

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That § 321.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) in the Order Granting Temporary Relief and Conditionally Providing for Final Relief in Docket No. A–1454, dated May 29, 1942, be amended to assign the shipping point of Hyde, Pennsylvania, on the Pittsburg, Shawmut and Northern Railroad to the Bona #2 Mine (Mine Index No. 745) of John Bona instead of Brockway, Pennsylvania, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and to assign this mine to Freight Origin Group No. 118 instead of 120.

Dated: July 7, 1942.

Acting Director.

PART 333—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 13

[Docket No. A–1330, Part II]

Findings of fact, conclusions of law, memorandum opinion and order in the matter of petition of District Board No. 13 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 13.

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division (the "Division") on February 23, 1942, by District Board No. 13, pursuant to Section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the "Act"). The petitioner requested the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 13 which had not heretofore been established.

The petitioner proposed prices for all shipments except truck and for truck shipments, for the coals of the Brewer No. 2 Mine (Mine Index No. 1473) in the Gholson Seam, in which seam prices had not been established for any other mines. The petitioner also proposed a price of $2.43 per ton for coals of the three Lee Powell mines (Hillcrest Coal Company) (Mine Index Nos. 331, 755, and 1454), for railroad fuel use when sold to the A B & C Railroad. By Order dated March 25, 1942, 7 F.R. 2520, temporary relief was given as requested.[1] In that Order a price of $2.43 per ton was established for coal sold to the A B & C Railroad for railroad fuel use.

Pursuant to appropriate orders and after notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on May 6, 1942, before W. A. Cuff, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C.[2]

All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. District Board No. 13 appeared. The preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner was waived and the record was thereupon submitted to the undersigned.

At the hearing, a motion was made by the petitioner that that portion of Docket No. A–1330, Part II, relating to the Brewer No. 2 Mine (Mine Index No. 1473) be withdrawn therefrom, without prejudice, for the reason that the Brewer No. 2 Mine had closed and was unlikely to reopen. Uncontroverted evidence clearly indicated that this was so. In agreement with the position taken by the petitioner, I find, therefore, that the motion should be granted and the temporary price classifications and minimum prices established for the Brewer No. 2 Mine (Mine Index No. 1473) for all shipments except truck, and for truck shipments, should be terminated.

The general railroad fuel price in District 13 is $2.20 per ton. This price applies to the vast majority of mines in the district for sale to all railroads, including the A B & C Railroad. Petitioner attempts to justify a $2.43 price here on the basis of past sales and of generally increased costs. The record does show that Hillcrest Coal Company has sold a few cars of railroad fuel to the A B & C Railroad at a price of $2.43. However, whether or not this sale was one merely for test purposes—which it appears to be—it is not the function of the Act of underwrite—as a minimum price—a price which is obtainable in a strong market. The standards for establishing minimum prices are set forth in the Act and they are to be followed. And the upward revision of the minima because of increased costs is a matter to be resolved in General Docket No. 21 on a price area and not an individual mine basis.

Upon the basis of the evidence, I find and conclude, therefore, that the request for the establishment of a minimum price of $2.43 for the coals of the Mary Frances Mine (Mine Index No. 331), the Big Four Mine (Mine Index No. 755), and the Mary Ann Mine (Mine Index No. 1454) for railroad locomotive fuel use for the A B & C Railroad should not be granted.

On the basis of the foregoing Findings of Fact, I conclude that the established $2.20 price effectuates the purposes of section 4 II (a) and (b) of the Act.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the price classifications and minimum prices established for the coals of the Brewer No. 2 Mine of the Paul Isbell Company (Mine Index No. 1473) for all shipments except truck, and for truck shipments be, and the same are hereby, terminated.

It is further ordered, That the request of the petitioner, District Board No. 13, for the establishment of a minimum price of $2.43 for the coals of the Mary Frances Mine (Mine Index No. 331), the Big Four Mine (Mine Index No. 755), and the Mary Ann Mine (Mine Index No. 1454) of Lee Powell (Hillcrest Coal Company), for railroad locomotive fuel use, for the A B & C Railroad, be, and the same hereby is, denied.

It is further ordered, That the temporary price of $2.43 established by an Order, dated March 25, 1942, for the coals of the Mary Frances Mine (Mine Index No. 331), the Big Four Mine (Mine Index No. 755, and the Mary Ann Mine (Mine Index No. 1454), for locomotive fuel use, for the A B & C Railroad be, and the same is hereby, terminated; and a price of $2.20 be, and the same is hereby, established as follows:

Commencing forthwith § 333.7 (Special prices—(a) Prices for shipment to all railroads and for exclusive use of railroads) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, which supplement is hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

Dated: July 2, 1942.

Acting Director.

[1] These four mines were included in a group of mines in District No. 13, for which prices were originally proposed in Docket No. A–1330. Severance of that portion of that Docket which affected these four mines was ordered so as to enable a separate consideration thereof.

[2] A hearing originally set for April 28, 1942, before Examiner E. J. Hayes was postponed by Orders of the Acting Director and set for May 6, 1942, Examiner W. A. Cuff being designated Examiner vice E. J. Hayes.

PART 1364—FRESH, CURED AND CANNED MEAT AND FISH

[Amendment 1 to Maximum Price Regulation 169[1]]

BEEF AND VEAL CARCASSES AND WHOLESALE CUTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Added: §§ 1364.52 (a) (3) (iii), (a) (4), 1364.57 (b), 1364.60 (a), 1364.62 (a) (9), (a) (10), 1364.63 (a).

Amended: §§ 1364.51 and headnote, 1364.52 (a) (2) (ii), (a) (3), (b), 1364.53 text preceding (a), (c) (1), 1364.55, 1364.60 headnote, 1364.62 (a) (2), (a) (4), (a) (6).

Redesignated: Text of § 1364.57 designated (a), text of § 1364.60 designated (b), all as set forth below:

§ 1364.51 Prohibition against selling or delivering beef or veal carcasses or wholesale cuts in violation of the provisions of this regulation. On and after July 13, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver any beef or veal carcass or wholesale cut, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any beef or veal carcass or wholesale cut at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by § 1364.52 or contrary to the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1364.57; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of beef or veal carcasses or wholesale cuts to a purchaser if, prior to July 13, 1942, such carcasses or wholesale cuts have been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.

(2) * * *

(ii) In the event that fores and hinds of each grade when sold separately at the prices computed pursuant to subparagraph (2) (i), would yield a greater total sales realization than the total sales realization obtainable from the sales of the same fores and hinds of each grade in carcass form, at the seller's maximum price for a carcass of such grade, the seller shall adjust downward the prices of such fores and hinds to remove such excess. In making such adjustment, the seller shall not change the price differential in cents per pound between hinds and fores as established pursuant to subparagraph (2) (i). No such adjustment need be made if the seller sold no carcass of such grade during the period March 16 to March 28, 1942. The price so fixed and adjusted shall be the seller's maximum price for such quarter or saddle, and he may not thereafter charge any higher price.

(3) The maximum price for each grade of each fresh or frozen wholesale cut, other than boned and kosher cuts, shall be determined as follows:

* * * * *

(iii) In the event that the seller sold no quarter of a particular grade during the period March 16 to March 28, 1942, the maximum price for each wholesale cut derived from a quarter of such grade shall be the highest price actually charged by the seller during the period March 16 to March 28, 1942, at or above which at least 30% of the total weight volume of his sales of such cut was made during such period.

(4) The maximum price for each grade and brand of each other wholesale cut (i. e., wholesale cuts which are boned, canned, ground or processed, and kosher wholesale cuts) shall be the highest price actually charged by the seller during the period March 16 to March 28, 1942, at or above which at least 30% of the total weight volume of the seller's sales of such wholesale cut were made during such period.

(b) * * *

(1) The seller shall ascertain zones for all car routes operated from the same shipping point, upon the basis of 25¢ per cwt. differences in transportation and icing charges. If the car route is operated by truck such transportation and icing charges shall be determined by reference to the tariff of any common carrier trucker who has filed such tariff with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

(2) As used in this paragraph (b) of § 1364.52, the term "average transportation charge" means the transportation charge in any zone determined by adding to the lowest transportation and icing charge in such zone the highest transportation and icing charge in such zone and dividing the resulting sum by two.

(3) The seller shall deduct from the prices charged by him for products delivered in each zone during the period March 16 to March 28, 1942 the average transportation and icing charge in such zone.

(4) Using the prices computed under paragraph (b) (3) of this section, the seller shall determine f. o. b. shipping point prices for each grade of each carcass, side, quarter and saddle and for each grade of each wholesale cut in the manner provided for in subparagraphs (1), (2), (3) and (4) of paragraph (a) of this section.

(5) Maximum prices in each car route zone shall be determined by adding to the f. o. b. shipping point price determined under subparagraph (b) (5) of this section the average transportation charge in such zone.

* * * * *

§ 1364.53 Duty to maintain and identify grades. No person shall sell or offer for sale, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any beef or veal carcass or wholesale cut unless each such carcass or cut has been identified by grade in accordance with the provisions of this section. No custom slaughterer shall ship or deliver any beef or veal carcass or wholesale cut unless each such carcass or cut has been identified by grade in accordance with the provisions of this section. Each person shall maintain uniform grades, as specified in paragraph (a) of this section; shall compute his maximum prices upon the basis of such uniform grades rather than upon the basis of his own grades, as provided in paragraph (b) of this section; and shall identify his products by grade letters, as provided by paragraph (c) of this section.

* * * * *

(c) (1) No person shall sell, deliver, or break any beef or veal carcass unless a stamp has been placed thereon with harmless marking fluid conforming to the formula for violet branding fluid approved by the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Animal Industry, set forth in Appendix C hereof, and incorporated herein as § 1364.66, marking the appropriate grade letter, as hereinafter designated, in such manner as to identify by such letter the uniform grade of each wholesale cut which may be derived from such carcass, except that in the case of a calf or veal carcass sold with the skin on, the grade letter shall be stamped only on the shanks and briskets. He shall similarly stamp upon all bull and stag carcasses their sex identification. The grade identification of each beef or veal carcass and wholesale cut must appear on the seller's invoice.

* * * * *

§ 1364.55 Exempt sales. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 shall not apply to sales at retail; nor to sales to the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation or to any purchasing agency of the armed forces of the United States of (a) products the maximum prices of which are fixed by Maximum Price Regulation No. 156, and (b) any products sold under contracts entered into prior to July 13, 1942.

§ 1364.57 Evasion. (a) The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of, or relating to beef or veal carcasses or wholesale cuts, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or by changing the selection or grading or the style in effect during the base period, March 16 to March 28, 1942, of cutting, trimming, curing, smoking, cooking, drying, or otherwise processing, or the canning, wrapping or packaging of wholesale cuts.

(b) Any person who slaughters cattle or calves as a service for the purchaser of such cattle or calves shall remit to such purchaser an amount sufficient to make the cost of the dressed carcass, or of the wholesale cuts derived therefrom, to such purchaser equal to or less than the costs which would be incurred by the purchaser if he purchased such carcass or cuts from the slaughterer at the slaughterer's maximum prices therefor: Provided, That this requirement shall not apply in cases where the purchaser does not acquire such carcasses or cuts for resale in any form. If the slaughterer sold no carcass or cut of the relevant grade during the base period March 16 to March 28, 1942, his maximum prices, within the meaning of this paragraph, for a carcass or wholesale cuts of such grade shall be the maximum prices of the most nearly competitive seller who sold a carcass or wholesale cuts of such grade during the base period. To enable the slaughterer to determine the amount to be remitted to the purchaser, it shall be the duty of such purchaser to advise the slaughterer of the amount paid for the cattle or calves slaughtered.

§ 1364.60 Petitions for amendment or adjustment. (a) The Office of Price Administration may by order adjust any maximum price established under § 1364.52 for any seller who petitions for such adjustment in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, in any case in which such seller shows:

(1) That such maximum price causes him hardship and is abnormally low in relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers;

(2) That establishing for him a maximum price bearing a normal relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers will not cause or threaten to cause an increase in the level of retail prices.

(b) Persons seeking modification of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 or an adjustment or exception not provided for therein may file petitions for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

Each type of canned and packaged meat, made entirely from beef or veal, shall be considered a separate wholesale cut.

(6) "Carload" means: (i) a shipment by rail of fresh, frozen or cured meat cuts or carcasses, to a single delivery point, of at least the minimum weight as set forth in the tariffs of railroad carriers, upon which shipment the railroad carload rate from the point of shipment to the point of destination is based: Provided, That where a smaller quantity is shipped which could move at a railroad carload rate rather than at a railroad less-than-carload rate because a lower transportation charge is produced thereby, such smaller quantity shall be considered a carload lot;

(ii) A shipment by motor truck or trucks, to a single delivery point, of 15,000 pounds or more of fresh, frozen,

(c) No person participating in the administration of Ration Order No. 5A shall act officially in connection with any matter arising thereunder as to which he has any interest, by reason of business connection or relationship by blood, marriage or adoption.

§ 1394.302 Jurisdiction of Boards over issuance of rations. For purposes of Ration Order No. 5A a Board shall have jurisdiction over:

(c) A Board, after passing upon an application for a ration for use with a motor vehicle, made before it pursuant to paragraph (d) of § 1394.302 shall forward such application through the State Director to the Board having jurisdiction under paragraph (b) of that section.

Basic Rations

§ 1394.401 Persons entitled to basic rations. The owner or the person entitled to the use of a registered passenger automobile or a registered motorcycle may obtain a Basic ration, for use with such automobile or motorcycle during the period from July 22, 1942, to July 21, 1943, inclusive, except that no Basic ration shall be issued for use with a passenger automobile or motorcycle which is:

(a) Owned or leased by a Federal, State, local or foreign government, or government agency; or

(b) Specially built (or rebuilt) as an ambulance or hearse; or

(c) A vehicle available for public rental; or principally used as a taxi or jitney; or

(d) Part of a fleet of passenger automobiles or motorcycles; or

(e) Held by a motor vehicle dealer for sale or resale.

§ 1394.402 Basic ration books. Class A coupon books, and Class D coupon books marked "Basic", shall be issued as basic rations. Class A books shall be issued for passenger automobiles and Class D books for motorcycles. Each basic ration book shall contain forty-eight (48) coupons, each having a value of one unit. Coupons contained in Class A books shall be valid for the transfer of gasoline to a consumer only during the periods indicated below:

Coupons numbered	Valid period
1	July 22, 1942, to Sept. 21, 1942, inc.
2	Sept. 22, 1942, to Nov. 21, 1942, inc.
3	Nov. 22, 1942, to Jan. 21, 1943, inc.
4	Jan. 22, 1943, to Mar. 21, 1943, inc.
5	Mar. 22, 1943, to May 21, 1943, inc.
6	May 22, 1943, to July 21, 1943, inc.

Coupons in Basic Class D books shall be valid for transfer of gasoline to a consumer at any time during the period from July 22, 1942, to July 21, 1943, inclusive.

§ 1394.403 Application for and issuance of basic rations. (a) Application for a basic ration book shall be made, on Form OPA R–534, by the owner or the person entitled to the use of the vehicle or by the authorized agent of either. During the period from July 9, 1942, through July 11, 1942, inclusive, application shall be made at any application site designated as such by the Office of Price Administration. Thereafter application shall be made to a Board: Provided, That, except for good cause shown for failure to apply at an application site, application may not be made to a Board prior to July 24, 1942. A separate application shall be made for each passenger automobile or motorcycle for which a basic ration is sought.

(b) Pursuant to such application, a basic ration shall be issued during the period from July 9, 1942 to July 11, 1942, inclusive, by any registrar appointed under paragraph (a) or (b) of § 1394.301. After July 11, 1942, a basic ration shall be issued by a Board. The Board shall remove from any Class A book issued subsequent to July 22, 1942, all expired coupons and one currently valid coupon for each full eight days which have elapsed in the valid period during which such book is issued. In the case of a Class D book, the Board shall remove one coupon for each full eight days which have elapsed since July 22, 1942.

(c) No more than one basic ration may be issued for a vehicle, except as provided in § 1394.1403, and no person may obtain more than one basic ration for the same vehicle, during the period from July 22, 1942 to July 21, 1943.

Supplemental Rations

§ 1394.501 Supplemental rations. (a) The following coupon books may be issued by a Board as supplemental rations to an owner or person entitled to the use of a registered passenger automobile or registered motorcycle (other than those specified in § 1394.502), to provide for occupational mileage driven in such vehicle by anyone, to the extent that such mileage is allowed by the Board pursuant to § 1394.504:

(1) Class B or Class C coupon books for use with passenger automobiles.

(2) Class D coupon books marked "Supplemental" for use with motorcycles.

(b) When issued as a supplemental ration, Class B books shall contain sixteen (16) coupons, and Class C and D books shall contain the number of coupons, specified in the tables set forth in § 1394.505, necessary to provide the mileage allowed by the Board. Each coupon in a Class B, Class C or Supplemental Class D book shall have a value of one unit. Coupons contained in such books shall authorize the transfer of gasoline to consumers only during the valid period of such books noted thereon by the Board. Class B rations and books shall be valid only for the period ascertained pursuant to § 1394.505. Class C and Supplemental Class D rations and books shall be valid for a period of three months commencing on July 22, 1942, or on the date of issuance, whichever is later.

(c) Applicants for supplemental rations are deemed to have available 150 miles per month of occupational driving by using the Basic ration to which they are entitled; and supplemental rations may be issued to provide only occupational mileage allowed by a Board in excess of 150 miles per month. However, no deduction for such 150 miles shall be made by the applicant in stating his required occupational mileage or by the Board in allowing occupational mileage, since a deduction of 150 miles from the total mileage allowed by the Board is automatically made when the Board applies the tables set forth in § 1394.505 pursuant to which supplemental rations are to be issued.

§ 1394.502 Passenger automobiles or motorcycles for which supplemental rations may not be issued. No supplemental rations may be obtained or shall be issued for use with a passenger automobile or motorcycle which is:

(a) Owned or leased by and operated by a Federal, State, local or foreign government or government agency; or

(b) Specially built (or rebuilt) as an ambulance or hearse; or

(c) A vehicle available for public rental; or a vehicle principally used as a taxi or jitney; or

(d) Part of a fleet of passenger automobiles or motorcycles; or

(e) Held by a motor vehicle dealer for sale or resale.

§ 1394.503 Application for supplemental ration. (a) Application for a Supplemental ration may be made to a Board on or after July 9, 1942, on Form OPA R–535, by the owner of or a person entitled to the use of a registered passenger automobile or registered motorcycle. A separate application shall be made for each vehicle. Application on behalf of an individual may not be made by an agent. In the event that two or more passenger automobiles for which supplemental rations are desired, are owned by persons living in the same household and related to each other by blood, marriage, or adoption, all applications for supplemental rations for such vehicles shall, except for good cause shown, be submitted at the same time.

(b) An applicant shall establish the average monthly occupational mileage in the limitation area required for each of the following purposes, for the three-month period beginning with the date on which such ration is required:

(1) Driving between home and a fixed place of work in connection with the principal occupation of the applicant or principal user of the vehicle;

(2) Driving in the course of such principal occupation;

(3) Driving to and from or in the course of any other occupation or occupations for which the vehicle is used.

(c) In establishing the average monthly occupational mileage required for any of the purposes specified in paragraph (b) of this section, for a vehicle registered in a state all or part of which lies within the limitation area, the applicant may include:

(1) If the vehicle is registered in a state which lies wholly within the limitation area, any mileage driven outside of the limitation area within fifty (50) miles, by shortest route, of the boundary of such state; or

(2) If the vehicle is registered in a state which lies partly within the limitation area, any mileage driven outside of the limitation area within fifty (50) miles, by shortest route, of the border of the limitation area within or on the boundary of such state.

(d) Where two or more vehicles are used in a ride-sharing arrangement of the type described in paragraph (a) of § 1394.504, a separate application for a supplemental ration shall be made for each such vehicle, but all such applications must, except for good cause shown, be submitted at the same time. Each such application shall include only the mileage driven in the vehicle for which it is made.

§ 1394.504 Allowance of mileage. (a) No occupational mileage shall be allowed by a Board for any purpose specified in paragraph (b) of § 1394.503 unless the applicant establishes, in connection with the use of the vehicle for that purpose, either:

(1) That a bona fide ride-sharing arrangement has been made pursuant to which at least four persons (including the operator) will regularly be carried in the vehicle for the purpose of going to and from or carrying on their occupations: Provided, That each such person must certify to his participation in the ride-sharing arrangement by signing the application; or

(2) That no such ride-sharing arrangement could reasonably be made but that the vehicle carries as many persons as could reasonably be expected in the light of the circumstances in which and the purpose for which it is used; that transportation is needed for such purpose; and that no alternative means of transportation are available which would be reasonably adequate for such purpose.

(i) An applicant may establish that four or more persons cannot regularly be carried in the vehicle for which application is made by showing: the limited capacity of the vehicle; the absence of a fixed place of work; the necessity of traveling at unusual or irregular hours; the necessity of traveling over routes not feasible for other persons who might be carried; or such other reasons as the Board may find sufficient.

(ii) An applicant may establish the lack of reasonably adequate alternative means of transportation by showing the unavailability of other public or private means of transportation; or by showing that such alternative means, if available, are inadequate by reason of location, schedules or overcrowded condition, by reason of physical disability of the person needing transportation, by reason of the nature of the work for which transportation is needed, or for such other reasons as the Board may find sufficient.

(iii) In the event application is made for a supplemental ration to be used in transporting the applicant or principal user of the vehicle to or from his place of employment where an organized transportation plan (as defined in Ration Order No. 1 (revised) as amended) is in effect and four or more persons are not regularly carried in connection with their occupation in the vehicle for which such application is made, the application must be certified as indicated thereon, by an official in charge of such organized transportation plan.

(iv) In the event application is made for a supplemental ration in order to permit the use of the vehicle for which application is made in the pursuit of an occupation other than a gainful occupation, and four or more persons are not regularly carried in such vehicle in connection with their occupations, the application must be certified as indicated thereon, by a responsible official of the organization for or under the direction of which the work is performed.

(b) Upon the basis of the application and such other facts as the Board may require, the Board shall allow mileage for any of the purposes listed in paragraph (b) of § 1394.503 for which applicant has applied, with respect to which the applicant has established the facts required by paragraph (a) hereof. The Board shall allow only that portion of the claimed mileage (in the absence of a ride-sharing arrangement) with respect to which the applicant has established the inadequacy of alternative means of transportation (in accordance with paragraph (a) (2) (ii) of this section). The Board shall then determine the total average occupational mileage per month required by the applicant and allowed by it for the three-months' period specified in paragraph (b) of § 1394.503 and shall issue a supplemental ration, in accordance with the provisions of § 1394.505, to provide such mileage: Provided, That the Board may not allow an average of more than 470 miles per month for any occupational mileage other than preferred mileage as defined in § 1394.506. The Board may allow an average mileage in excess of 470 miles per month only if such excess consists of such preferred mileage.

(c) The Board shall deduct from the mileage it allows for a passenger automobile in accordance with paragraph (b), above, 150 miles per month for each additional passenger automobile (other than a fleet passenger automobile) owned by the applicant or by any person living in his household and related to him by blood, marriage or adoption, if the Board finds that such automobile is available to and adequate for the use of the applicant for the purpose for which the supplemental ration is sought. No such automobile shall be deemed available to the applicant if it is used, to a substantial extent, for an occupational purpose of another person; nor shall such automobile be deemed available to the applicant during the effective period of a supplemental ration issued to another person whose mileage allowance was reduced on account of such automobile.

§1394.505 Issuance of supplemental Rations. (a) Supplemental rations shall be issued to provide the total mileage allowed by the Board in accordance with § 1394.504.

(1) In the case of a passenger automobile, the Board shall issue:

(i) In the event that the mileage allowed by the Board is 470 miles per month or less: one Class B book having the valid period specified in Table I for the mileage allowed;

(ii) In the event that the mileage allowed by the Board pursuant to paragraph (b) of § 1394.504 exceeds 470 miles per month: one or more Class C books bearing expiration dates three months from July 22, 1942, or from the date of issuance, whichever is later, and containing the number of coupons specified in Table II for the mileage allowed.

(2) In the case of a motorcycle: one or more Class D books (to be marked "Supplemental"), bearing expiration dates three months from July 22, 1942, or from the date of issuance, whichever is later, and containing the number of coupons specified in Table I, if the mileage allowed is 470 miles per month or less, or specified in Table II, if the mileage allowed is in excess of 470 miles per month.

§ 1394.801 Application for special ration. (a) The owner or person entitled to the use of a motor vehicle, or of a boat or outboard motor used in the limitation area, who finds that transportation in such vehicle, or boat, is necessary for one or more of the purposes specified in paragraph (b) of this section, and who finds that a ration issued for such vehicle or boat is not sufficient to permit its necessary use for such purpose, may apply to a Board for a special ration. Application for a special ration on behalf of an individual may not be made by an agent. A special ration may be issued for any period up to six months from the date of application.

(b) Special rations may be issued in order to permit acquisition of gasoline for use in a motor vehicle, boat, or outboard motor for one or more of the following purposes:

(1) To obtain necessary medical attention or therapeutic treatment or to procure necessary food and supplies;

(2) To return a motor vehicle or boat, which was on May 15, 1942 away from the regular place of residence of the owner or person entitled to the use thereof, to such regular place of residence; or to move such vehicle or boat in connection with a bona fide change in such regular place of residence.

(3) To operate a motor vehicle or boat held by a motor vehicle or boat dealer for sale or resale, solely for the purpose of demonstrating such vehicle or boat to prospective purchasers or for delivery after sale, or to remove a purchased or repossessed motor vehicle or boat, or a vehicle or boat seized by a government authority, to a place of storage: Provided, That no ration in excess of five (5) gallons per month per vehicle shall be granted for any such purpose.

(3) The facts supporting the claim that transportation is necessary for the purpose;

(4) The alternative means of transportation which are available and the reasons, if any, why such alternative means are not reasonably adequate for the purpose: Provided, That applicants for a special ration under subparagraphs (2), (3) and (6) of paragraph (b) of this section shall not be required to establish the inadequacy of alternative means of transportation, unless the ration is sought for delivery of a motor vehicle after sale thereof.

(5) The number of miles of driving, or, in the case of a boat or outboard motor, the amount of gasoline, in the limitation area claimed to be essential to the accomplishment of the purpose or purposes stated during the period for which the special ration is needed.

§ 1394.802 Form and issuance of special rations. (a) The Board may grant a special ration only if it finds:

(1) That such special ration is needed by the applicant for the purpose claimed;

(2) That a ration (if any) previously issued for such vehicle, boat or outboard motor, is not reasonably adequate or cannot be used for such purpose;

(3) That transportation is necessary to the accomplishment of such purpose;

(4) That no reasonably adequate alternative means of transportation are available (except as provided with respect to special rations sought under subparagraphs (2), (3) and (6) of paragraph (b) of § 1394.801 unless the ration is sought for delivery of a motor vehicle after sale thereof).

(b) If the Board grants the application, it shall determine the quantity of gasoline which is essential to the applicant for accomplishment of the purpose or purposes stated from the date of its decision to the end of the period (not exceeding six months) for which such ration is sought, and shall issue to the applicant a coupon book or books of any appropriate class, containing coupons in sufficient number to allow to the applicant the quantity of gasoline determined by it to be essential on the basis of the current gallonage value of a unit in such book. It shall mark "Special" any book which it so issues. It shall remove from the book and destroy any coupons in excess of the number representing the gallonage which it determines should be granted in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

Non-highway Rations

§ 1394.901 Persons entitled to non-highway rations. Any person who requires gasoline for a non-highway purpose may obtain a Non-Highway ration authorizing the acquisition of the amount of gasoline required for such purpose, except as provided in paragraph (b) of § 1394.904. Non-highway rations shall be issued for six-month periods.

(b) The applicant shall state the amount of gasoline needed for use in, or which he finds it necessary to acquire in, the limitation area for the six-month period following the date on which such ration is required, and the non-highway purpose or purposes for which such gasoline is needed.

§ 1394.904 Issuance of non-highway rations. (a) The Board shall determine the amount of gasoline required for the six-month period referred to in paragraph (b) of § 1394.903, and, subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section, shall issue to the applicant one or more Class E or Class R books, or any combination of them, containing a sufficient number of coupons to enable the applicant to acquire the amount of gasoline so determined to be necessary for such period. The Board shall remove from the book and destroy any coupons in excess of the number allotted.

(b) If application is made for a non-highway ration for use with a motorboat or outboard motor operated wholly or in part for a non-occupational purpose within the limitation area, the Board shall not allow for the non-occupational purpose an amount of gasoline in excess of the number of gallons determined by the following formulae:

(1) In the case of an inboard motorboat, the number of gallons equal to four times the manufacturer's rated horsepower of the motor or motors but in any event not more than two hundred and fifty (250) gallons;

(2) In the case of an outboard motor, the number of gallons equal to five times the manufacturer's rated horsepower of such motor, but not in excess of forty (40) gallons.

The Board shall, in such case, issue a separate book for such non-occupational purpose, containing coupons in sufficient number to allow the quantity of gasoline so determined, and shall note on such book that it is issued for a non-occupational purpose.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (a) of § 1394.1403, no more than one non-occupational ration may be issued for an inboard motorboat or an outboard motor during any six-month period.

Issuance of Coupon Books and Acknowledgments of Delivery by the Office of Price Administration

§ 1394.1001 Issuance of ration books by Office of Price Administration. (a) Coupon books of all types designated in Ration Order No. 5A may be issued by the Office of Price Administration, in its discretion, to the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard and the law enforcement agencies of the United States, solely for the use of such agencies and for distribution to and use by their officers, agents or employees in the performance of official duties which depend upon secrecy.

(b) Any agency enumerated in paragraph (a) of this section which requires coupon books for use by such officers, agents, or employees, shall make written application therefor to the Office of Price Administration and shall state the number and type of books required, and the use for which such books are intended.

(c) If it grants the application, the Office of Price Administration, will issue such books in blank.

(d) The Office of Price Administration will also issue Service rations pursuant to paragraph (d) of § 1394.705.

§ 1394.1002 Acknowledgments of delivery. (a) The Office of Price Administration will issue forms, on Form OPA R–544, for acknowledgment of delivery, to be used for the acquisition of gasoline by or on behalf of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard and Maritime Commission of the United States. Any such form bearing the signature of an authorized officer, agent or employee of any of such agencies shall be valid as an authorization of transfer of gasoline by any person to whom it is presented, to the extent of the gallonage thereon stated. In the event that an Acknowledgment form should not be available, gasoline may be acquired by or on behalf of any such agencies in exchange for a temporary receipt, in any form, if such temporary receipt supplies the information required by Form OPA R–544 and is signed by an authorized officer, agent, or employee of such agency; such temporary receipt shall show the address of the agency on behalf of which such receipt was issued. No person who transfers gasoline in return for such temporary receipt may use such receipt as an evidence for purpose of replenishment but shall either transmit such receipt to the agency on behalf of which the transfer was accepted, in exchange for an Acknowledgment of Delivery on Form OPA R–544, or to a Board in exchange for inventory coupons. Any Board to which such temporary receipt is so presented shall issue, in exchange for such receipt, inventory coupons having a gallonage value equal to the amount of gasoline found by it to have been transferred in good faith on the basis of such receipt. The Board, after issuing inventory coupons, shall submit such temporary receipt to the agency named thereon, for verification and return.

(b) Application for books of Acknowledgment forms shall be made in writing to the Office of Price Administration, from time to time, as such books are needed.

Restrictions on Use of Rations and Gasoline

§ 1394.1101 Restrictions as to purpose. No person to whom a special ration has been issued may use or permit the use of such ration for any purpose other than the one for which it was issued. No person to whom a Supplemental, Service, Fleet ration pursuant to § 1394.605, or Non-Highway ration has been issued may use or permit the use of such ration for a purpose other than one for which such ration may be obtained.

§ 1394.1102 Rations not transferable. No ration may be transferred or assigned; such ration may, however, subject to the provisions of § 1394.1104, be used by any one entitled to use the vehicle, boat or equipment for which it was issued, if such use is for a purpose for which such ration may be obtained and so long as there is no change in ownership of such vehicle, boat, or equipment.

§ 1394.1103 Change of occupation of holder of Class C ration. The holder of a Class C ration (or of a Class D ration based on allowed mileage in excess of 470 miles per month) shall report to the issuing Board any change in the principal occupation for the pursuit of which such ration was issued. Such report shall be transmitted to the Board within five (5) days after such change and shall describe fully the nature of the new occupation, the exact type of work performed, the business or industry in which such work is performed, and the purpose, if any, for which the motor vehicle will be used in such new occupation. If, on the basis of such report, the Board finds reason to believe that such motor vehicle will no longer be used for a preferred purpose listed in § 1394.506, it shall notify such holder, in writing, that his right to such ration is to be re-examined. Such notice shall be mailed to such holder at the address shown on his application (or at the address shown on his report), and shall require him to file a new application for a ration within ten (10) days after the mailing date shown on such notice. If no new application is filed within such time, the Board shall revoke such ration and shall recall all Class C books or coupons (or Class D books or coupons based on an allowed mileage in excess of 470 miles per month) issued in connection therewith. If a new application is filed, and if the Board determines that the motor vehicle will be used for a preferred purpose listed in § 1394.506, it shall take no further action. If the Board finds that the vehicle will no longer be used for a preferred purpose listed in § 1394.506, it shall revoke the ration and recall the coupons or coupon book originally issued and shall issue, in lieu thereof, such ration (if any) as it determines that the holder is entitled to receive on the basis of his new application and in accordance with the provisions of § 1394.505 or § 1394.605, as the case may be.

§ 1394.1104 Use of rations issued for vehicles or boats available for public rental. (a) A motor vehicle rental agency may permit a lessee to use a service ration issued to such agency for a vehicle leased by him, during the period of a bona fide lease for one week or less. In the case of any lease other than a bona fide lease for one week or less, the lessee may not use or be permitted to use the service ration issued to such agency for such vehicle, but shall apply for a ration on his own behalf, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) A lessee of a vehicle available for public rental who leases such vehicle for a period of more than one week shall be deemed to be a person entitled to the use of such vehicle, within the meaning of §§ 1394.503 and 1394.602 of Ration Order No. 5A. Such lessee may apply for a ration for use in such vehicle on his own behalf, pursuant to the provisions of §§ 1394.503, 1394.603, or 1394.705, as the case may be, and his right to such ration shall be determined solely by the nature and extent of his use of the vehicle. Application by such lessee for a ration pursuant to §§ 1394.503 or 1394.603 shall be made on Form OPA R–551, and the allowed mileage for the vehicle shall be computed in the manner established by §§ 1394.604 and 1394.605 for fleet vehicles. Upon termination of the lease, any ration issued to such lessee shall expire and all coupons or coupon books issued to him shall be returned by him to the issuing Board.

(c) Each motor vehicle rental agency shall keep a record showing the name and address of each lessee, the date and duration of the lease, the mileage driven by the lessee and the number of gallons, if any, supplied to the lessee and the number of coupons (if any) in its ration books, used by the lessee during the period of the lease. The lessee shall be required to sign such record and his signature shall constitute a certification as to the truth thereof.

(d) A boat rental agency may permit a lessee to use a Non-Highway ration issued for an inboard motorboat or outboard motor leased to him, only during the period of a bona fide lease for one week or less. A lessee of such boat or motor who leases it for a period of more than one week may apply for a Non-Highway ration on his own behalf pursuant to the provisions of § 1394.903.

§ 1394.1105 Restrictions on consumption of gasoline. (a) Except as provided in § 1394.1102, paragraph (a) of § 1394.1104 and § 1394.1507, no person shall consume gasoline unless such gasoline was acquired by him or on his behalf in exchange for valid coupons: Provided, That:

(1) Any consumer may use for non-highway purposes (other than non-occupational boat operations in the limitation area) gasoline owned by him and in his possession prior to July 22, 1942;

(2) Any consumer may use gasoline owned by him and in his possession prior to July 22, 1942, for the operation of a registered motor vehicle, or for non-occupational boat operation if, at the time of transfer of such gasoline into the fuel tank of such vehicle or boat, he destroys currently valid coupons issued therefor equal in value to the number of gallons of gasoline so transferred: Provided, That gasoline placed in the fuel supply tank of such vehicle or boat prior to July 22, 1942, may be used therein without restriction.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to the consumption of gasoline by the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard or Maritime Commission of the United States, or to the consumption by any one of gasoline brought into the limitation area in the fuel supply tank of a vehicle, boat or equipment.

§ 1394.1106 Restrictions on blending of gasoline. No person other than a licensed distributor or a consumer shall blend, dilute, or otherwise mix gasoline with any other liquid or combustible, and no person shall knowingly transfer or accept a transfer of gasoline blended, diluted or mixed in violation of this section.

§ 1394.1107 Rations for racing or exhibition purposes. No gasoline ration shall be issued, or may be used, under the provisions of Ration Order No. 5A, for the operation of any motor vehicle, or of any boat in the limitation area, in exhibitions or races for public entertainment or prizes.

§ 1394.1108 Display of stickers. No person may use a class A, B, C, or S ration issued for a registered motor vehicle unless a sticker identifying the class of ration issued, in such form as may be prescribed by the Office of Price Administration, is affixed to and conspicuously displayed on such vehicle. Such sticker shall be displayed on such vehicle at all times, whether such vehicle is driven within or without the limitation area, but the display of such sticker shall be in accordance with the laws of the State in which such vehicle is operated. A person to whom any ration in addition to a Class A ration has been issued shall display only the sticker identifying such additional ration.

§ 1394.1109 Restriction on use of gasoline in vehicle without ration. On and after July 31, 1942, no gasoline may be used in a motor vehicle registered in a state lying wholly or in part within the limitation area, which is customarily garaged or stationed within the limitation area, unless a valid ration has been issued and is outstanding for use with such vehicle, and a sticker, indicating that a gasoline ration has been issued, is displayed on such vehicle in accordance with § 1394.1108.

Renewal of Rations and Issuance of Further Rations

§ 1394.1201 Renewal of rations. (a) Rations shall expire as provided in §§ 1394.1204 (b), 1394.1402, and 1394.1403. At any time within thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of any ration, or at any time thereafter, application for a further ration may be made. Such application shall be made in the same manner as the original application, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) If there have been no substantial changes since the date of the original application, in the applicant's gasoline needs, or in the nature, amount and conditions of use of the motor vehicle for which the original ration was issued, and if such original application accurately calculated the applicant's requirements, application for a further ration (other than a basic or special ration) may be made by executing the renewal certificate on such original application. The applicant shall, in such case, note on such renewal certificate any changes in the nature or amount of his use since the date of the original application.

(c) When issuing a further ration prior to the expiration date of a current ration of the same class, the Board shall note on the application and on the front cover of the coupon book (if any) representing such further ration the date on which such further ration shall become valid. Such date shall be the day following the expiration date of the current ration.

(d) Except as provided in §§ 1394.1202 and 1394.1203, no further ration of any class may be issued for use prior to (or may be used prior to) the expiration of the current ration of such class.

§ 1394.1202 Issuance of further ration for use prior to expiration date of current ration. (a) Any person who finds that, due to a change in occupation or in the location of place of business or residence, or other change in circumstances, or due to seasonal variation in the amount of occupational mileage needed, or miscalculation of needs, a ration of any class (other than a basic ration) issued to him fails to meet his requirements, may apply for a further ration of such class for use prior to the expiration date of his current ration. Such application shall be made in the same manner as the application for the current ration.

(b) The applicant shall append to the application a statement showing:

(1) That the current ration is insufficient to meet his needs for more than thirty (30) days from the date of the application;

(2) The reason or reasons why a further ration will be needed for use prior to the expiration date of the current ration.

(c) If the Board determines that, for one or more of the reasons specified in paragraph (a) of this section, more mileage is needed or, in the case of a non-highway ration, more gasoline is required, than that stated in the application on the basis of which the current ration was issued, it may grant a further ration in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1394.1204.

(d) No further supplemental ration under § 1394.505, or fleet ration under § 1394.605, shall be granted, pursuant to this section, which would permit the applicant to exceed the maximum mileage to which he would be entitled under the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1394.504, or paragraph (b) of § 1394.604, as the case may be.

§ 1394.1203 Special cases. (a) Any person to whom a ration of a class specified in paragraph (b) of this section has been issued, who finds that the vehicle or vehicles for which such ration was granted cannot be operated for fifteen (15) miles (or, in the case of a motorcycle, for forty (40) miles) or more on a gallon of gasoline, may apply for a further ration for use prior to the expiration of such current ration.

(b) Such application shall be made in the same manner as the application for the current ration and may be granted only if such current ration is in one of the following categories:

(1) A Class C ration;

(2) A Supplemental Class D ration based on an allowed mileage in excess of 470 miles per month;

(3) A Class B or D ration, for fleet vehicles, issued pursuant to § 1394.605.

(c) The applicant shall append to the application a statement showing:

(1) That the current ration is insufficient to meet his needs for more than thirty (30) days from the date of the application;

(2) The nature of the use of the vehicle or vehicles for which the further ration is sought and the driving conditions under which such vehicle or vehicles are operated;

(3) The reason or reasons why a further ration is sought for use prior to the expiration of the current ration;

(4) That the vehicle or vehicles for which the application is made are in sound mechanical condition and are being operated in such manner as to secure maximum economy of gasoline.

(d) If the Board determines that the vehicle or vehicles for which application is made are being operated in such fashion as to obtain the maximum mileage per gallon of gasoline reasonably possible, it may grant a further ration in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1394.1204.

(e) No further supplemental ration under § 1394.505, or Fleet ration under § 1394.605, shall be granted, pursuant to this section, which would permit the applicant to exceed the maximum mileage to which he would be entitled under the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1394.504, or paragraph (b) of § 1394.604, as the case may be.

§ 1394.1204 General provisions. (a) All of the provisions of Ration Order No. 5A applicable to the issuance of an original ration shall apply to the issuance of a further ration pursuant to §§ 1394.1201, 1394.1202 and 1394.1203, except as otherwise expressly provided in those sections.

(b) When granting a further ration for use prior to the original expiration date of a current ration, pursuant to the provisions of § 1394.1202 or § 1394.1203, the Board shall redetermine the expiration date of such current ration. Such redetermination shall be based on the Board's estimate of the date on which such current ration will be exhausted. The Board shall thereupon note such redetermined expiration date on the application for such current ration and on the coupon books issued therefor. The redetermined date shall be deemed the expiration date of such current ration for all the purposes of Ration Order No. 5A. The further ration shall then be issued in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c) of § 1394.1201.

General Provisions With Respect to Issuance of Gasoline Rations

§ 1394.1301 Appearances before Boards. The Board may require any applicant for a ration to appear before it for examination and to produce such witnesses or evidence as it may deem material.

§ 1394.1302 Presentation of registration card. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, no gasoline ration (other than a ration pursuant to subparagraph (3) of paragraph (b) of § 1394.801), shall be issued for any motor vehicle other than a fleet vehicle unless a registration card or registration certificate authorizing the operation of such vehicle during all or part of the period for which such ration is to be issued, is presented to the registrar or the Board, as the case may be: Provided, however, That no registration card or registration certificate need be submitted in connection with an application made pursuant to paragraph (d) of § 1394.705.

(b) If no registration card or registration certificate has been issued or is outstanding for such motor vehicle, but such motor vehicle is currently registered for operation on public highways under the laws of the Federal government or of any State, territorial or foreign government, the applicant may sign and submit a certification, on such form as may be designated by the Office of Price Administration stating the reasons why no registration card or registration certificate is outstanding. If the Board (or the registrar) is satisfied that such motor vehicle is currently registered but that no registration card or registration certificate therefor has been issued or is outstanding, it may issue a gasoline ration for such vehicle. Such certification shall be filed with the application for such ration.

§ 1394.1303 Notation on registration cards. At the time of issuing a gasoline ration for a registered motor vehicle other than a fleet vehicle, except in the case of a ration issued pursuant to paragraph (d) of § 1394.705, or subparagraph (3) of paragraph (b) of § 1394.801, the person issuing such ration shall make a clear notation in ink, indelible pencil, or by typewriter, on the back of the motor vehicle registration card or registration certificate presented by the applicant, showing the date of issuance, the class of ration and the serial number of the ration book (if any) issued. If a ration has been issued on the basis of a temporary registration card or registration certificate, the applicant shall submit the permanent card or certificate, when issued, to a Board, for such notation. If the ration is issued without presentation of a registration card, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1394.1302, no notation need be made at the time of issuance, but the applicant shall submit such card, if and when issued, to a Board for such notation.

§ 1394.1304 Notation on ration books and applications. (a) At the time of issuance of any ration book for a registered motor vehicle, the person issuing such book shall, unless a fleet identification is used as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, make a clear notation on the cover thereof, in ink, indelible pencil, or by typewriter, of the registration number of the vehicle for which it is issued and of the name and address of the registered owner of such vehicle. The Board shall also make a notation on the cover of such book (other than a basic book) and on the application therefor, of the date on which it becomes valid and of its expiration date. The person to whom a ration book is issued (other than an interchangeable book issued for a fleet vehicle pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section) shall note on such book, in the space provided therefor, the serial number of the use tax stamp issued for such vehicle.

(b) An applicant for a gasoline ration for fleet vehicles may request the Board to note on the ration books issued, the name or other identification of the fleet, in lieu of the registration number of a particular vehicle. The Board may grant such request with respect to any vehicles in the fleet which are used interchangeably and which bear a clearly discernible fleet name, identification or designation. Any book on which a fleet identification is noted may be used, interchangeably, for all vehicles if the fleet bearing such identification.

(c) At the time of issuance of a non-highway ration book, the Board shall make a clear notation on such book in ink, indelible pencil, or by typewriter, of the name and address of the applicant and of the period during which such book shall be valid. Such period shall also be noted on the application.

§ 1394.1305 Change in motor vehicle registration number. (a) The holder of a ration book issued for a registered motor vehicle (other than a ration book bearing a fleet identification) shall, upon any change in the registration number of such vehicle, submit such ration book either to an appropriate State motor vehicle registration official or to a Board for the purpose of having the notation thereon changed to correspond to the new registration number. The book shall be submitted to such official at the time of issuance of the new registration number, or to such Board within five (5) days thereafter; if such submission is made to a Board, the registration card or registration certificate (or in lieu thereof, an appropriate certification in such form as may be designated by the Office of Price Administration) evidencing the new registration number shall be presented with the book. A State official to whom such book is presented may, and a Board to which such book is presented shall, obliterate the registration number appearing thereon and note thereon, in ink, indelible pencil, or by typewriter, the new registration number issued for such vehicle. Notation on such new registration card shall also be made, as prescribed in § 1394.1303. Such notation shall be countersigned or initialed by the person making the change.

(b) The holder of any book bearing a fleet identification shall, upon any change in the name, identification or designation of such fleet, submit such book to the Board which issued it for appropriate modification. Upon ascertaining the new name, identification or designation of such fleet, the Board shall change the designation on such book to correspond thereto.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the continued use of a ration book after a change in ownership of the vehicle for which it was issued.

(d) Any alteration on the face or cover of any ration book, unless made and countersigned by a person authorized to do so under Ration Order No. 5A, shall render such book, and the coupons therein, invalid.

§ 1394.1306 Authorization of bulk purchase. (a) Any person who establishes to the satisfaction of a Board that he maintains a storage tank for supplying gasoline to one or more motor vehicles operated by him or for non-highway use, and that he has maintained such tank for such purposes prior to July 1, 1942, or that it is now necessary for supplying gasoline to such vehicles or for such use to maintain a storage tank or to acquire gasoline in a tank, tank truck, drum, or other container, may, when applying for a gasoline ration, request the Board to issue such ration in the form of bulk coupons, or partly in bulk coupons and partly in coupon books. Such person may also request the Board to make a notation on any coupon books issued to him indicating that coupons in such books may be used for a bulk transfer of gasoline.

(b) If applicant establishes the facts required by paragraph (a) hereof, the Board shall issue bulk coupons to the extent of the gallonage allowed by it for which bulk coupons are requested: Provided, That, with respect to applications for Supplemental rations, or for Fleet rations for passenger automobiles or motorcycles, as provided in § 1394.502 or § 1394.602, the Board shall first determine the type, number and expiration date of the coupon books to which the applicant is entitled; it shall then issue bulk coupons, to the extent requested by the applicant, having a gallonage value equal to the value in units of the coupons in the coupon books to which the applicant is entitled and in lieu of which such bulk coupons are issued; such bulk coupons shall expire on, and may not be used for the transfer of gasoline to a consumer after, the date on which such coupon books would expire: Provided further, That bulk coupons shall not be issued unless the applicant establishes the necessity for acquiring two hundred and fifty (250) gallons or more per month by bulk transfer.

§ 1394.1307 Lost or destroyed coupons, or coupon books. (a) In the event of the accidental loss, destruction or mutilation of any coupon books or bulk coupons, the holder thereof may apply to the Board having jurisdiction under § 1394.302, for replacement thereof.

(b) Such application shall be made in writing, under oath or affirmation, and shall set forth:

(1) The name and address of the applicant;

(2) The class, date and place of issuance and expiration date of such book or coupons;

(3) A description of the motor vehicle, boat, equipment or process for which the book or coupons were issued;

(4) A statement of the number and type of unused coupons so lost, destroyed or mutilated;

(5) A description of the manner and circumstances of the loss, destruction or mutilation.

(c) If the Board is satisfied that such book or coupons have been lost or destroyed, or so damaged or mutilated as to be rendered unfit for use, it may, in its discretion, issue a duplicate book or duplicate bulk coupons of the same class and in the same quantity as those sought to be replaced; it shall clearly note on the cover of any duplicate book issued the same expiration date, if any, that appeared on the original book.

(d) No person receiving a duplicate book or coupons under paragraph (c) hereof shall use, attempt to use, or permit the use of the original book or coupons, but shall surrender such original book or coupons, if damaged or mutilated, to the Board at the time of issuance of the duplicate book; in the event that a lost book or lost coupons are found after duplicates have been issued, such original book or coupons shall be surrendered to the Board forthwith.

§ 1394.1308 Signature on coupon book. No coupon book shall be valid until the person to whom such book is issued has signed the certification provided for therein.

Expiration and Revocation of Rations

§ 1394.1401 Surrender of expired coupons. (a) No ration may be used and no coupon book shall be valid for the transfer of gasoline to a consumer after the expiration thereof.

(b) The person to whom a ration has been issued shall, within five (5) days after the expiration thereof, surrender to the issuing Board all expired coupon books and all unused coupons representing such ration.

§ 1394.1402 Expiration of rations. All Basic rations shall expire at midnight, July 21, 1943. All other rations shall expire at midnight of the date noted on the application therefor or on the coupon books issued therefor.

§ 1394.1403 Expiration of rations upon cessation of use or change in ownership. (a) Upon cessation of use or change of ownership of any vehicle, boat or equipment, any ration issued for such vehicle, boat or equipment shall expire and all unused coupons and books issued therefor shall, within five (5) days after such cessation or change, be surrendered to the issuing Board, by the person to whom such ration was issued. The transferee of such vehicle, boat or equipment shall be required to apply for a gasoline ration therefor on his own behalf, in accordance with the applicable provisions of Ration Order No. 5A: Provided, That such transferee may not obtain a ration unless a bona fide transfer is involved.

(b) Upon cessation of use of a ration (other than a Basic ration) for a purpose for which such ration may be obtained, such ration shall expire and all unused coupons and books issued therefore shall, within five (5) days after such cessation, be surrendered to the issuing Board by the person to whom such ration was issued.

§ 1394.1404 Denial of gasoline rations. No person whose name has been recorded by a Board, in accordance with the provisions of § 1394.46 of Ration Order No. 5 or § 1394.1406 of this Ration Order No. 5A for refusal to surrender a gasoline ration card or ration book upon direction of the Board, or for failure or refusal, without good cause shown, to appear before such Board for examination, shall be entitled to obtain a ration of any type under Ration Order No. 5A, while his name remains thus recorded.

§ 1394.1405 Suspension and revocation of rations. (a) All coupon books, bulk coupons and inventory coupons issued shall remain the property of the Office of Price Administration. The Office of Price Administration may refuse to issue, and may suspend, cancel, revoke, or recall any ration and may require the surrender and return of any coupon book, bulk coupon or inventory coupons during suspension or pursuant to cancellation, whenever it deems it to be in the public interest to do so.

(b) Upon certification by the Office of Defense Transportation that any person to whom a gasoline ration has been issued has been found by it to have violated an order of such Office, and upon recommendation by such Office that a gasoline ration issued to such person, or any part thereof, be revoked, the Office of Price Administration will revoke such ration, or such part thereof, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 1394.1406 Review by local boards of applications for gasoline ration. (a) Any Board may review an application for a gasoline ration of any class, made in the area over which it has jurisdiction, or referred to it by another Board, and may, in its discretion, require a holder of a gasoline ration who resides or does business within the area over which the Board has jurisdiction to appear before it for examination in order to determine whether such holder was entitled to receive such ration. The Board may also require the holder of a supplemental or service ration, or of a Fleet ration issued pursuant to § 1394.605, or of a nonhighway or special ration, to appear before it for examination in order to determine whether such ration is being used in accordance with the provisions of § 1394.1101. The Board shall give written notice to the holder of the time and place fixed for such appearance. The notice shall be deemed sufficient if mailed to the address shown on the application at least five (5) days prior to such time. The Board may designate one or more of its members to perform the functions prescribed in this section.

(b) If the Board finds that the ration holder was not entitled to receive the ration issued, or, if it finds that a ration issued is being used for a purpose other than one for which such ration may be obtained, it shall revoke such ration and shall direct that any coupons or coupon books issued therefor be surrendered to it. If it finds that the holder is entitled to a ration of a different class or quantity than that issued, it may issue such ration as it finds the holder entitled to receive pursuant to the provisions of Ration Order No. 5A, in place of the ration revoked.

(c) The Board shall record the name of any ration holder who refuses to comply with a direction of the Board pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section or who fails or refuses to appear for examination in accordance with a notice sent by the Board pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section: Provided, That if a person whose name has been recorded for failure or refusal to appear for examination shows good cause to the Board for such failure or refusal his name shall be stricken from such record, upon compliance with the Board's direction with respect to the disposition of his ration. The Board shall notify the State Director immediately after recording any name, and immediately after striking any name from the record; and, upon receipt of such notification, the State Director shall notify the Regional Administrator. Any person whose name remains recorded shall be prohibited from securing any ration under the provisions of Ration Order No. 5A or of any Gasoline Ration Order hereafter promulgated by the Office of Price Administration.

Restrictions on Transfers

§ 1394.1501 Restriction on transfer to consumers. On and after July 22, 1942, and notwithstanding the terms of any contract, agreement or commitment, regardless of when made, no person other than a dealer or distributor shall (except as provided in §§ 1394.1507 and 1394.1508) transfer or offer to transfer gasoline to a consumer.

§ 1394.1502 Transfers to consumers. On and after July 22, 1942, and notwithstanding the terms of any contract, agreement, or commitment, regardless of when made, a dealer or distributor may transfer gasoline from within or without the limitation area, to a consumer within the limitation area, and such consumer may accept such transfer of gasoline, only in exchange for valid coupons, except as provided in §§ 1394.1504, 1394.1505, and 1394.1506.

§ 1394.1503 Transfers to consumers in exchange for coupons—(a) Coupons in books issued for registered motor vehicles. Transfer may be made in exchange for coupons contained in Class A, B, C, D, S–1 or S–2 books, under the following conditions:

(1) At the time of transfer, the transferor must require presentation of the coupon book and must detach therefrom coupons having an aggregate unit value equal to the amount of gasoline transferred: Provided, That if the transferee is able to accept only a portion of the amount of gasoline represented by the unit value of a coupon, the transferor shall nevertheless detach an entire coupon. No transfer may be made pursuant to this paragraph in exchange for a coupon detached prior to the presentation of the coupon book to the transferor.

(2) Transfer may be made only into the fuel tank of a motor vehicle identified on the coupon book presented: Provided, That if such book bears a notation by a Board indicating that bulk transfer is authorized, a bulk transfer may be made in exchange for coupons in such book: Provided further, That bulk transfer may also be made, of an amount of gasoline not in excess of one unit, to enable a vehicle stranded for lack of fuel to reach a source of supply; in such case the transferor shall retain the ration book presented until the vehicle is brought to the place of transfer, for identification.

(3) Transfer may be made only during the valid period noted on the cover of the book presented or, in the case of a Class A book, only during the period of validity of the coupon in exchange for which the transfer is to be made.

(b) Coupons in non-highway books. Bulk transfer may be made in exchange for coupons contained in Class E and R books, under the following conditions:

(1) At the time of transfer, the transferor must require presentation of the coupon book and must detach therefrom coupons having an aggregate unit value equal to the number of gallons of gasoline transferred. No transfer may be made pursuant to this paragraph in exchange for a coupon detached prior to the presentation of the coupon book to the transferor.

(2) No transfer in exchange for coupons in a Class E or R book may be made into the fuel tank of, or knowingly made for use in, a registered motor vehicle, or a motor vehicle held by a motor vehicle dealer for sale or resale.

(c) Bulk coupons. Transfer may be made in exchange for bulk coupons. The transferor must require surrender, at the time of transfer, of bulk coupons having a value in gallons equal to the number of gallons of gasoline transferred: Provided, That in the case of any delivery made in the absence of the transferor or his agent, by barge, pipe line, tank car, or other carrier, or in the absence of the transferee or his agent, coupons need not be surrendered simultaneously with delivery, but must be forwarded by the transferee to the transferor within twenty-four (24) hours after delivery.

§ 1394.1504 Transfers in exchange for acknowledgment of delivery. Transfer may be made in exchange for an Acknowledgment of Delivery, on Form OPA R–544, or in exchange for a temporary receipt issued in lieu thereof, in accordance with the provisions of § 1394.1002.

§ 1394.1505 Transfers for export. (a) Any person (other than a licensed distributor) who desires to obtain gasoline for export to any insular or territorial possession of the United States, or to any foreign country, may execute and submit Part A of an Export Certificate on Form OPA R–560, in duplicate, to any Board. Such certificate shall state the amount of gasoline required for export, the proposed date and port of exportation and the name and address of the person desiring to export the gasoline. The Board shall retain the duplicate copy of the certificate and shall endorse and return the original copy to such person. The original copy, bearing the endorsement of the Board, shall constitute an evidence to authorize the transfer of the amount of gasoline stated thereon: Provided, That such certificate bearing the endorsement of an authorized official of the Federal government or any agency thereof shall be valid without endorsement by a Board, as an evidence to authorize the transfer to such government or agency for the purpose of export, or for retransfer by such government or agency for such purpose.

(b) Within thirty (30) days after submission to and endorsement of such certificate by a Board, the person who has acquired gasoline pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section shall submit to the Board which endorsed the certificate, a copy of a Shippers' Export Declaration (Commerce Form 7525) bearing the notation of an authorized customs official that to the best of his knowledge and belief the amount of gasoline thereon stated has been exported. The Board shall attach the copy of the declaration submitted to the copy of the certificate on file. If the Board is not satisfied with the authenticity of the copy of the declaration, or in the event none has been presented to the Board within thirty (30) days after endorsement of the certificate, the Board shall send the file of the case to the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., for investigation.

(c) Any dealer or intermediate distributor who has exported gasoline to an insular or territorial possession of the United States or to a foreign country and who has not acquired such gasoline pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, may obtain replenishment for the amount of gasoline exported by executing and presenting to a Board Part B of an export certificate on Form OPA R–560 submitting therewith a copy of a Shipper's Export Declaration (Commerce Form 7525) bearing the notation of an authorized customs official that to the best of his knowledge and belief the amount of gasoline thereon stated was so exported. The Board, if it is satisfied with the authenticity of the copy of such declaration, shall endorse such certificate and return it to such person, and shall retain the copy of the declaration for its files. Such certificate bearing the endorsement of a Board shall be valid to authorize a transfer of the amount of gasoline thereon stated, and may be used by the transferor of such gasoline as evidence for purposes of replenishment.

(d) No person acquiring gasoline pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section may use such gasoline for any purpose other than for export to an insular or territorial possession of the United States or to a foreign country.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the export of gasoline other than in accordance with the laws of the United States and the rules and regulations of the Board of Economic Warfare or of any other department or agency of the United States.

§ 1394.1506 Emergency transfers. (a) Transfer may be made in exchange for an Emergency Receipt on Form OPA R–555, of the amount of gasoline stated thereon, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) Any person requiring gasoline in order to meet an emergency involving serious threat to life, health or valuable property, may obtain such gasoline by signing an Emergency Receipt on Form OPA R–555, in duplicate, and stating thereon the emergency purpose for which such gasoline is required and the reason why he is unable to present coupons in exchange for such gasoline. If such gasoline is required for use in a registered motor vehicle, he shall also state the license number of the vehicle in which such gasoline is to be used.

(c) Any dealer or distributor who has transferred gasoline in exchange for an Emergency Receipt, shall transmit such Emergency Receipt, in duplicate, to the Board having jurisdiction over the area in which his place of business is located. The Board, if it is satisfied that such dealer or distributor made a transfer, in good faith, of the amount of gasoline specified in such Emergency Receipt, shall issue to him, in exchange therefor, inventory coupons equal in gallonage value to the amount of gasoline so transferred. The Board shall retain one copy of such Receipt in its own files and shall transmit the second copy to the Board having jurisdiction over the area in which the transferee resides, as stated on the Receipt.

§ 1394.1507 Transfer of vehicle, boat or equipment. Nothing in Ration Order No. 5A shall be deemed to forbid the transfer of gasoline actually in the fuel supply tank of a vehicle, boat or equipment, in conjunction with a lawful and bona fide transfer of such vehicle, boat or equipment itself; or the consumption by the transferee in such vehicle, boat or equipment of gasoline actually in the fuel supply tank thereof at the time of transfer.

§ 1394.1508 Transfer of consumer establishments. (a) Nothing in Ration Order No. 5A shall be deemed to forbid the transfer of gasoline actually in a storage tank or other container maintained by a consumer as part of an enterprise or establishment, in conjunction with a lawful and bona fide transfer of such enterprise or establishment itself, or a transfer of gasoline by legal process or operation of law.

(b) Any person to whom a transfer of the character described in paragraph (a) is made, shall forthwith report such transfer and the amount of gasoline involved, to the Board having jurisdiction over the area in which such gasoline is located. Such person, if a dealer or distributor, shall surrender to the Board, together with such report, coupons or other evidences having a value equal to the number of gallons of gasoline transferred. Such person, if not a dealer or distributor, may either:

(1) Transfer all or any part of such gasoline in exchange for coupons or other evidences having a value equal to the number of gallons of gasoline so transferred: Provided, That such coupons or other evidences shall forthwith be surrendered by him to the Board for cancellation; or

(2) Consume such gasoline to the extent of any gasoline ration issued to him: Provided, That he may consume such gasoline only for the purposes for which such ration may be issued and shall surrender to the Board, for cancellation, coupons equal in value to the amount of gasoline consumed or to be consumed.

§ 1394.1509 Transfers from fuel tank to fuel tank of vehicles and boats forbidden. No gasoline contained in the fuel tank of any registered motor vehicle, inboard motorboat, outboard motor or non-highway equipment shall be transferred therefrom to the fuel tank of any registered motor vehicle, or of any inboard motorboat or outboard motor operated in the limitation area for nonoccupational purposes.

§ 1394.1510 Discrimination by dealers and distributors. (a) On and after July 22, 1942, no distributor shall discriminate in the transfer of gasoline among distributors or dealers lawfully entitled to acquire gasoline under Ration Order 5A. Any refusal on the part of a distributor to transfer gasoline to a distributor or dealer to whom he has made a transfer on or subsequent to May 15, 1942, shall be prima facie evidence of a discrimination: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to require a transfer of gasoline which would result in a violation of any statute enacted or contract made to protect a trade-mark or trade name; nor a transfer to any dealer or distributor of an amount of gasoline in excess of that permitted by any regulation or order of any Department or agency of the United States.

(b) On an after July 22, 1942, no dealer or distributor shall discriminate, in the transfer of gasoline, among any consumers lawfully entitled to acquire gasoline under the provisions of Ration Order No. 5A.

§ 1394.1511 Rights of parties to contracts for transfer of gasoline. If the performance of any contract or agreement for the transfer of gasoline is prevented by Ration Order No. 5A, no party thereto shall be liable for failure to perform such contract or agreement: Provided, That any person who has received or has had the benefit of any deposit or other consideration on account of such contract, shall be liable upon demand to return such deposit or other consideration or to pay the fair value thereof, in the event the consideration has been materially altered in condition or cannot be returned.

§ 1394.1512 Transfer for racing or exhibition use. On and after July 22, 1942, no person shall knowingly transfer or offer to transfer gasoline, or use gasoline, for the operation of any motor vehicle, inboard motorboat or outboard motor in exhibitions or races for public entertainment or prizes.

§ 1394.1513 Transfers to consumers outside of the limitation area. On and after July 22, 1942, and notwithstanding the terms of any contract, agreement or commitment, regardless of when made, no person shall, outside of the limitation area, transfer or offer to transfer gasoline to a consumer for use in a motor vehicle bearing a sticker indicating that a gasoline ration has been issued for such vehicle, under either of the following circumstances:

(a) If the motor vehicle is registered in a state which lies wholly within the limitation area, and the border of such state is within fifty (50) miles, by shortest route, of the place of transfer; or

(b) If the motor vehicle is registered in a state which lies partly within the limitation area, and the place of transfer is within fifty (50) miles, by shortest route, of the border of the limitation area within or on the boundary of such state.

Replenishment and Audit

Registration of Place of Business

§ 1394.1601 Registration of inventory and capacity. Every dealer and intermediate distributor having a place of business within the limitation area shall take an actual physical inventory of his total gasoline supplies on hand as of his first opening of business on or after July 22, 1942 (or if there is no interruption of business, as of 12:01 A. M. of that date) and shall, on July 22 or 23, 1942, register (on Form OPA R–545 in duplicate) with the Board having jurisdiction of the area in which he has such place of business, at the hours provided by the Board, the following matters, together with such other information as may be required:

(a) His total inventory of gasoline on hand as of his first opening of business on or after (or midnight beginning) July 22, 1942.

(b) His total gasoline storage capacity.

(c) His name, firm name, business address, and type of business.

(d) A certification as to the correctness of each of the foregoing items of information.

Separate registration shall be made by such dealer or intermediate distributor for each place of business within the limitation area where gasoline is transferred, and shall be made at each respective Board having jurisdiction of the area in which each such place of business is located: Provided, however, That any person a part of whose operations in any one state falls within the definition of a licensed distributor and a part within the definition of an intermediate distributor shall be treated as a licensed distributor and shall not be authorized to register..

§ 1394.1602 What constitutes gasoline on hand. The registrant shall register all gasoline on hand, whether in storage tanks, tank trucks, tank cars delivered to railroad sidings, drums, or other containers, except gasoline in the fuel tank of a motor vehicle. The registrant shall not register gasoline in transit which did not arrive at his place of business prior to his first opening of business on or after (or midnight beginning) July 22, 1942. Gasoline shipped to a dealer or intermediate distributor prior to July 22, 1942, but received by him at any time after July 21, 1942, shall be deemed to be gasoline transferred to him subsequent to July 21, 1942, and shall require an exchange therefor of coupons or other evidences in the manner provided in §§ 1394.1607 and 1394.1609.

§ 1394.1603 What constitutes storage capacity. The registrant shall register the total capacity of all immobile gasoline storage facilities, but not the capacity of tank trucks, tank wagons, drums, or other movable containers: Provided, however, That a dealer who maintains no stationary gasoline storage tank shall register the total capacity of all his delivery facilities.

§ 1394.1604 Issuance of registration certificates. The Board, on determining that the information and certification submitted by the registrant are in good order, shall by authorized signature approve the same, file the duplicate, and return the original to the registrant, who shall retain it as a certificate of registration at the place of business to which it applies and shall present it as an identification at the time of transacting business with any Board.

§ 1394.1605 Issuance of inventory coupons. The Board shall, at the time of its approval of any registration certificate, issue to the registrant inventory coupons in the amount of the difference between the total gasoline storage capacity for each place of business and the total inventory of gasoline on hand as certified by the registrant. A one-hundred gallon inventory coupon or a quantity of Class A coupons may at any time subsequent to registration be exchanged at any Board in the limitation area by a dealer or intermediate distributor for an equivalent amount of one-gallon inventory coupons.

§ 1394.1606 Restriction on use of inventory coupons. Every dealer and intermediate distributor shall retain all inventory coupons issued to him at the place of business for which they were issued, and shall not exchange his inventory coupons except to the extent that any delivery exceeds the amount of consumer coupons or other evidences available for exchange: Provided, however, That one-gallon inventory coupons may be used to make up the difference between the number of gallons in any delivery and the number of gallons represented by the nearest composable sum of the values of consumer coupons or other evidences.

Restrictions on Transfers

§ 1394.1607 Restriction on transfers. Except as provided in § 1394.1609, no dealer or distributor, whether within or without the limitation area, shall transfer or offer to transfer gasoline to any other dealer or distributor within the limitation area, and no dealer or distributor within the limitation area shall receive a transfer of gasoline, except in exchange for a quantity of coupons or other evidences, at the time of the actual delivery of the gasoline or in advance thereof, equal in gallonage value to the amount of the gasoline so transferred: Provided, however, That coupons or other evidences need not be exchanged for a transfer of gasoline between licensed distributors.

§ 1394.1608 Same; other applicable provisions. Nothing in Ration Order No. 5A shall be construed to authorize any transfer of gasoline which would be in contravention of any regulation or order of any Department or agency of the United States.

§ 1394.1609 Night deliveries; third party deliveries. Where a distributor elects to make delivery of gasoline during hours when the purchaser is not open for business, or where actual delivery of gasoline to a dealer or intermediate distributor is made by common or contract carrier or by pipe line, the purchaser shall, where the exact amount of the delivery is known in advance, mail or deliver in advance to his distributor coupons or other evidences in an equal gallonage value, or may, at the discretion of the distributor, within twenty-four (24) hours of delivery forward to his distributor an amount of coupons or other evidences equal in gallonage value to the number of gallons so delivered.

§ 1394.1610 Upstream transfers. Any distributor who receives a transfer or return of gasoline from a dealer or intermediate distributor within the limitation area, other than in connection with a transfer to him of the place of business of such dealer or intermediate distributor, shall deliver to such dealer or intermediate distributor a quantity of his accumulated coupons or other evidences equal in gallonage value to the amount of gasoline so transferred or returned.

Use of Coupons

§ 1394.1611 Preservation of coupons; coupon sheets. Each dealer and distributor shall affix the coupons received by him directly from consumers to a Coupon Sheet (Form OPA R–542) in the manner directed thereon. Separate coupon sheets shall be maintained for coupons of each separate type, only coupons of the same class being attached to any one such sheet.

§ 1394.1612 Preservation of acknowledgments; summaries of acknowledgments. Each dealer and distributor shall attach the acknowledgments delivered to him by authorized purchasers to a Summary of Acknowledgments (Form OPA R–541), on which he shall enter in order for each such acknowledgment the date of purchase, name of purchaser, and number of gallons sold.

§ 1394.1613 Summary of coupons. Each dealer and distributor shall, prior to every delivery by him of coupons or other evidences, except exchange certificates, prepare in duplicate on Form OPA R–541 a Summary of Coupons and Acknowledgments in the manner directed thereon, certifying the number of each type of coupon and the number of acknowledgments to be delivered. The original of this summary shall be delivered by him attached to his coupons and other evidences. The copy shall be retained by him at his place of business for a period of not less than one year. All such summaries received by a distributor upon his delivery of gasoline to a dealer or intermediate distributor shall be recapitulated in his own summary; such summaries need not be included with coupons and other evidences forwarded by him, one such summary equalling the total gallonage represented by all coupons and other evidences (less the gallonage represented by exchange certificates) forwarded by him.

§ 1394.1614 Exchange of coupons for certificates. A distributor may at any time deliver to any Board in the limitation area coupons or other evidences (except exchange certificates) and obtain in return a certificate or certificates equal to the gallonage value of the coupons or other evidences remitted. The remitter shall attach to such coupons or other evidences a summary of coupons and acknowledgments on Form OPA R–541. The Board shall furnish him in return an Exchange Certificate (Form OPA R–548, of which a duplicate shall be retained for the files of the board) equal in gallonage value to the total gallonage value of the coupons or other evidences remitted by him: Provided, however, That every licensed distributor shall segregate all coupons or other evidences remitted by him according to the States to which are due the State motor fuel taxes on his own sales which such coupons or other evidences represent, shall prepare a separate summary of coupons and acknowledgments (Form OPA R–541) for each such State, and shall receive from the Board a separate exchange certificate for each such State. The Board shall on request furnish more than one such certificate for sales within any given State, each representing any fraction of the total gallonage value remitted for such State, so long as the sum of all such certificates equals the total gallonage value of the coupons or other evidences remitted.

§ 1394.1615 Invalidity of Class A coupons after expiration of two-month period. No dealer shall accept any coupon the period of validity of which, as shown on the face thereof, has expired; and no such coupon shall be an evidence of any gallonage value, except on coupon sheets to which it has been attached prior to the expiration of its period of validity.

Shortages

§ 1394.1616 Certification of shortage. Dealers and intermediate distributors shall be permitted from time to time to apply by certification (on Form OPA R–549, obtainable at the office of the Board) for compensation for losses of gasoline through evaporation, handling, accident, or other extraordinary circumstance; and dealers and distributors shall be permitted so to account for unavoidable loss of coupons. The certification of shortage shall be submitted to the Board having jurisdiction of the area in which such dealer or intermediate distributor has the place of business to which the shortage is to be attributed, and shall show the nature and quantity of such shortage with a full explanation of the reasons therefor. If, on consideration of the certification presented and of such other facts as it may require of the applicant, the Board is satisfied that he has established the fact and reasonableness of such shortage, the Board shall file the certification and issue to the applicant a quantity of inventory coupons equal to the amount of the proven loss.

Records and Audits

§ 1394.1617 Records to be kept by dealers and intermediate distributors. At the time of making any delivery of gasoline to any dealer or intermediate distributor in the limitation area or in a State any part of which lies within the limitation area, every distributor shall furnish to such dealer or intermediate distributor an invoice, delivery ticket, or other customary evidence of transfer, showing the name and address of the purchaser and the date and quantity of the purchase; and every such purchaser shall retain at his place of business for a period of at least one year from the date of his purchase of gasoline the invoice, delivery ticket, or other evidence so furnished him.

§ 1394.1618 Reports of transfers into the limitation area. Every dealer or intermediate distributor making any transfers of gasoline into the limitation area from an unrationed portion of a State within the limitation area shall maintain a record of all transfers made by him, whether outside or into the limitation area, showing the name and address and signature of receipt of the purchaser and the date and amount of the purchase or, in the case of deliveries by a third party, shall retain a bill of lading or other evidence of delivery. He shall preserve such record for a period of at least one year from the time of the transfer. Not later than the fifteenth day of each month he shall report and certify to the State office of the Office of Price Administration for the State in which he has his place of business the sum of all his transfers into the limitation area from each of his places of business without the limitation area during the previous calendar month. He shall accompany such report with (1) the signed summary of coupons and acknowledgments (Form OPA R–541) furnished him by each purchaser for each delivery into the limitation area, (2) a quantity of coupons or other evidences equal in gallonage value to the total sales indicated by all such summaries, and (3) a summary on Form OPA R–541 of such coupons and acknowledgments as may be attached by him.

§ 1394.1619 Reports of transfers from the limitation area. Every dealer or intermediate distributor within the limitation area making any transfers of gasoline to an unrationed portion of a State within the limitation area, or to a State outside the limitation area, shall within (7) days of the date of such transfer deliver to the Board having jurisdiction of the area in which is located the place of business from which such transfer was made a copy of an invoice, delivery ticket, or other customary evidence of transfer, showing the name and address and signature of receipt of the purchaser, and the date and quantity of the purchase; or, in the case of delivery by a third party, a bill of lading or other evidence of delivery. The Board shall file the copy so delivered to it, together with a certification by the applicant to its correctness, and, if satisfied that the receipt and representation are in good order, shall issue to the applicant a quantity of inventory coupons exactly equal in gallonage value to the amount of the transfer.

§ 1394.1620 Reports by licensed distributors. Every licensed distributor shall prepare an additional copy of each of his monthly State motor fuel tax reports (and supporting schedules), which he shall submit to the State motor fuel tax administration at the time and in the manner required by such administration for the usual monthly report, attaching to such copy exchange certificates or other evidences in an amount equal to the total amount of gasoline transferred by him within or into the limitation area during the period for which such return is made. Gasoline which has been shipped and billed in exact amount to a purchaser during a calendar month, and which is included within the State motor fuel tax report for such month, shall be treated as gasoline transferred during such month, even though actual receipt of such gasoline by the purchaser may take place during the following calendar month. The licensed distributor shall also prepare in triplicate a Reconciliation Form (Form OPA R-550), reconciling the difference between all certificates or other evidences of gallonage value so submitted and the total gasoline gallonage disposed of as reported by the tax return, shall attach the original and one copy of the reconciliation form to the additional copy of his tax report, and shall retain the other copy of the reconciliation form at his place of business for a period of not less than one year: Provided, however, That, where special hardship results from the necessity of submitting the reconciliation form at the time that the State motor fuel tax report is due, application may be made, showing all relevant facts, to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for leave to defer, for a period of not more than ten (10) days, the submission of the additional copy of his motor fuel tax report, the attached certificates or other evidences, and the reconciliation form.

§ 1394.1621 Audit by State motor fuel tax administration. On completion of its usual office audit of a licensed distributor's monthly motor fuel tax report, each State motor fuel tax administration will by authorized signature either verify or note errors on the additional copy of the report received by it, will inspect the reconciliation form and certificates or other evidences in order to determine whether there are any apparent irregularities, and will retain the copy of the reconciliation form for its own files. It will within fifteen (15) days forward the additional copy of the tax return, the attached certificates or other evidences, and the original of the reconciliation form to the Control and Audit Unit, Fuel Rationing Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. In the event of its discovering any error, discrepancy, misrepresentation or other irregularity in the monthly report by later inspection or audits, the motor fuel tax administration will notify the Control and Audit Unit of the Office of Price Administration of all the facts relating to any such irregularity.

New Registrations

§ 1394.1622 Registration of new or reopened place of business. Any dealer or intermediate distributor who opens or reopens within the limitation area a place of business not previously registered by such dealer or intermediate distributor under the provisions of §§ 1394.1601 to 1394.1605, inclusive, shall, prior to receipt or transfer of any gasoline, register such place of business in the manner provided in § 1394.1601, and shall be issued inventory coupons equal in gallonage value to the total capacity of his unfilled gasoline storage facilities as of the time of registration.

§ 1394.1623 Cessation of business. Any dealer or intermediate distributor who ceases to operate as such, disposes of his stocks of gasoline, and closes his place of business within the limitation area without transferring it to another for continued operation, shall, at the time of final closing, deliver to the Board having jurisdiction of the area in which his place of business is located the original certificate of registration of such place of business and a quantity of coupons or other evidences equal in gallonage value to the total capacity of the gasoline storage facilities of such place of business.

§ 1394.1624 Sale of place of business. Any person acquiring from a dealer, and any person other than a licensed distributor acquiring from an intermediate distributor, a place of business already registered in accordance with the provisions of § 1394.1601, shall, prior to receipt or transfer of any gasoline, register such place of business in the manner provided in §§ 1394.1601 to 1394.1605, inclusive; except that he shall be issued inventory coupons equal in gallonage value to the total capacity of the entire gasoline storage facilities of such place of business. He shall then deliver to the transferor of such place of business a quantity of inventory coupons equal in gallonage value to the total amount of gasoline on hand as of the time of transfer. The transferor shall deliver, to the Board having jurisdiction of the area in which the place of business transferred by him is located, the certificate of registration of such place of business, together with a quantity of coupons or other evidences equal in gallonage value to the total capacity of the entire gasoline storage facilities of such place of business.

§ 1394.1625 Sale of place of business by licensed distributor. Any person acquiring a place of business within the limitation area from a licensed distributor for the sale of gasoline as an intermediate distributor shall register in the manner provided in §§ 1394.1601 to 1394.1604, inclusive, at the Board having jurisdiction of the area in which such place of business is located, prior to making purchases or transfers of any gasoline. The Board shall furnish the registrant with inventory coupons equal to the total capacity of the gasoline storage facilities of the place of business registered. It shall be the duty of the registrant to forward forthwith to the licensed distributor from whom he acquires such place of business a quantity of inventory coupons exactly equal in gallonage value to the gasoline stocks on hand at the time of his acquisition of such place of business.

§ 1394.1626 Purchase of intermediate distributor's business by licensed distributor. Any licensed distributor who acquires from an intermediate distributor a place of business within the limitation area for management by his own employees as a unit of his own operations, shall at the time of acquisition deliver to such intermediate distributor, from coupons or other evidences accumulated by the licensed distributor in the course of his business, an amount of coupons or other evidences equal in gallonage value to the amount of gasoline on hand as of the time of transfer. The intermediate distributor shall immediately after the transfer deliver, to the Board having jurisdiction of the area in which the place of business transferred by him is located, his certificate of registration, together with a quantity of coupons or other evidences equal in gallonage value to the gasoline storage capacity, as of the date of transfer, of the place of business transferred.

§ 1394.1627 Surrender or revocation of license of licensed distributor. Any licensed distributor who ceases to do business as such, although continuing in the business of distributing gasoline, shall on the date of his ceasing to do business as a licensed distributor register as a dealer or intermediate distributor, as the case may be, in the manner provided by §§ 1394.1601 to 1394.1605, inclusive, each of his places of business within the limitation area which has not already been registered, certifying to the Board the total gasoline storage capacity and total gasoline inventory of each such place of business as of the date of his ceasing to do business as a licensed distributor.

§ 1394.1628 Newly licensed distributor. Any dealer or intermediate distributor who becomes a licensed distributor at any place of business within the limitation area shall deliver to the Board having jurisdiction of the area in which such place of business is located the certificate of registration of such place of business and coupons or other evidences equal in gallonage value to the total unfilled capacity of the gasoline storage facilities of such place of business as of the date of his commencing operations as a licensed distributor.

§ 1394.1629 Change of storage capacity. Any dealer or intermediate distributor in any manner altering the total capacity of the gasoline storage facilities of a place of business within the limitation area shall deliver for cancellation to the Board having jurisdiction of the area in which such place of business is located, his original certificate of registration, and shall obtain a new certificate of registration in the manner provided by §§ 1394.1601 to 1394.1604, inclusive. The Board shall attach to its copy of the new certificate the original and copy of the cancelled certificate. Where the capacity of the gasoline storage facilities is decreased, the dealer or intermediate distributor shall furnish to the Board a quantity of coupons or other evidences equal in gallonage value to the amount of the decrease. Where the capacity of his gasoline storage facilities is increased, the Board shall issue to the dealer or intermediate distributor in the manner described in § 1394.1605 a quantity of inventory coupons equal in gallonage value to the amount of the increase.

PART 1400—TEXTILE FABRICS: COTTON, WOOL, SILK, SYNTHETICS AND ADMIXTURES

[Maximum Price Regulation 39]

WOVEN DECORATIVE FABRICS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Maximum Price Regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

The title, preamble and §§ 1325.51 to 1325.60, inclusive, of Revised Price Schedule No. 39[1]—Upholstery Furniture Fabrics—are amended, renumbered, and reissued as Maximum Price Regulation No. 39—Woven Decorative Fabrics.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the prices of woven decorative fabrics have risen to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of these fabrics prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant changes as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the woven decorative fabric industry, which will be affected by this Regulation. In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are, and will be, generally fair and equitable, and will effectuate the purposes of said Act.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1 [1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 39 is hereby issued.

(c) This Maximum Price Regulation No. 39 shall apply and the General Maximum Price Regulation [2a] shall not apply to sales of woven decorative fabrics for which maximum prices are established by this Regulation.

§ 1400.152 Less than the maximum prices. Prices lower than the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 39, may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1400.154 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may sell or deliver woven decorative fabrics for export shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Maximum Export Price Regulation [3] issued by the Office of Price Administration on April 25, 1942.

§ 1400.155 Exempt sales. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 39 shall not apply to:

(a) Sales at retail.

(b) Printed woven decorative fabrics which are subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 127.[4]

§ 1400.156 Limitation of new constructions sold, transferred or delivered by manufacturers. (a) During the year commencing July 13, 1942, and during each succeeding year, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale, or purchase, or other commitment, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, no manufacturer shall sell, transfer or deliver more than his quota of new constructions of woven decorative fabrics (exclusive of altered constructions described in paragraph (b) below. This quota shall be 10% of the total number of constructions of woven decorative fabrics sold or delivered by the manufacturer during the period from January 1, 1941 to December 31, 1941, inclusive, but in no event shall be less than five constructions. No manufacturer shall transfer or deliver any such new construction of a woven decorative fabric after August 27, 1942, until (1) he has filed a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., in accordance with paragraph (a) (3) of § 1400.157 containing his interpretation of his new construction quota and (2) the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., an application containing his interpretation supported by sufficient evidence under the standards set forth in this paragraph (b) and that the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., approves his interpretation in writing. These standards are (1) that the construction to be replaced was within the six months immediately prior to the date on which the application is filed an active number in the manufacturer's line, (2) material previously used in its manufacture is unavailable or is so restricted by a government regulation as to make production of the original fabric impractical and (3) that the proposed altered construction will closely resemble the construction it will replace with no substantial change in quality or appearance.

(c) Any manufacturer who can show that his new construction quota is so low as to cause or appear likely to cause serious financial hardship may file a petition for adjustment of his quota in accordance with §§ 1300.38 to 1300.41, inclusive, of Procedural Regulation No. 1.[5] In such a case the petitioner should submit (1) a complete statement of the facts upon which he relies and (2) the new construction quota for which he seeks approval.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the number of patterns of any specific construction of a woven decorative fabric which may be sold, offered for sale, transferred, or delivered.

§ 1400.157 Reports and records—(a) Reports by manufacturers. (1) On or before August 13, 1942, each manufacturer shall submit to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a report in the detail required by Revised Form No. 139:1 for each pattern sold, offered for sale, transferred or delivered during the period from July 11, 1941 to July 13, 1942, inclusive.

(2) For each pattern not covered by paragraph (a) (1) of this section, each manufacturer shall submit to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a report on Revised Form No. 139:1 which shall contain in addition to the other data required therein the maximum price proposed by the manufacturer in accordance with paragraph (b) (3) of § 1400.163.

(3) On or before August 13, 1942, each manufacturer shall submit to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a report containing (i) the total number of constructions which he sold or delivered during the period from January 1 to December 31, 1941, inclusive, (ii) the specifications of each in the manner required by section IV of Revised Form No. 139:1, and (iii) his interpretation of his proper new construction quota determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of § 1400.156.

(b) Reports by sellers other than manufacturers. On or before August 13, 1942, every seller of woven decorative fabrics other than a manufacturer shall submit to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a complete list of all of the woven decorative fabric patterns which he sold, offered for sale, transferred or delivered during the period from September 11, 1941, to July 13, 1942, inclusive, showing with respect to each (1) the quality or style number, (2) the date on which it was first offered for sale, (3) the maximum price therefor and the manner in which it was determined. This list shall be supplemented as soon as possible thereafter by reports containing the data indicated above for each pattern first offered for sale after July 13, 1942.

(b) The Office of Price Administration may by order adjust the maximum price established under this Regulation for any seller of a woven decorative fabric in any case in which such seller shows:

(1) That such maximum price causes him hardship and is abnormally low in relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of the same or similar commodities, and

(2) That establishing for him a maximum price bearing a normal relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of the same or similar commodities will not cause or threaten to cause an increase in retail prices.

On and after July 13, 1942, all applications for adjustments under this paragraph (b) shall be filed in accordance with §§ 1300.38 to 1300.41, inclusive, of Procedural Regulation No. 1.[7]

1. This bill of lading shall have effect subject to the provisions of the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of the United States of America, approved April 16, 1936, which shall be deemed to be incorporated herein, and nothing herein contained shall be deemed a surrender by the Carrier or any of its rights or immunities or an increase of any of its responsibilities or liabilities under said Act. The provisions stated in said Act (except as may be otherwise specifically provided herein) shall govern before the goods are loaded on and after they are discharged from the ship and throughout the entire time the goods are in the custody of the Carrier. The Carrier shall not be liable in any capacity whatsoever for any delay, nondelivery or misdelivery, or loss of or damage to the goods occurring while the goods are not in the actual custody of the Carrier. If this bill of lading is issued in a locality where there is in force a Carriage of Goods by Sea Act or Ordinance or Statute of a similar nature to the International Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules Relating to Bills of Lading at Brussels of August 25, 1924, it is subject to the provisions stated in such Act, Ordinance and rules thereto annexed which may be in effect where this bill of lading is issued.

(a) The Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of, and right to, all limitations of, or exemptions from, liability authorized by any provisions of Sections 4281 to 4286 of the Revised Statutes of the United States and amendments thereto and of any other provisions of the laws of the United States or of any other country whose laws shall apply. If the ship is not owned by or chartered by demise to the War Shipping Administration or the Company designated herein (as may be the case notwithstanding anything that appears to the contrary) this bill of lading shall take effect only as a contract with the owner or demise charterer, as the case may be, as principal, made through the agency of the War Shipping Administration or the Company designated herein which acts as agent only and shall be under no personal liability whatsoever in respect thereof. If, however, it shall be adjudged that any other than the owner or demise charterer is carrier and/or bailee of the goods all limitations of and exonerations from liability provided by law or by the terms hereof shall be available to such other.

2. In this bill of lading the word "ship" shall include any substituted vessel, and any craft, lighter or other means of conveyance owned, chartered or operated by the Carrier used in the performance of this contract; the word "Carrier" shall include the ship, her owner, master, operator, demise charterer, and if bound hereby the time charterer, and any substituted carrier, whether the owner, operator, charterer, or master shall be acting as carrier or bailee; the word "shipper" shall include the person named as such in this bill of lading and the person for whose account the goods are shipped; the word "consignee" shall include the holder of the bill of lading, properly endorsed, and the receiver and the owner of the goods; the word "charges" shall include freight and all expenses and money obligations incurred and payable by the goods, shipper, consignee, or any of them.

3. The scope of voyage herein contracted for shall include usual or customary or advertised ports of call whether named in this contract or not, also ports in or out of the advertised, geographical, usual or ordinary route or order, even though in proceeding thereto the ship may sail beyond the port of discharge or in a direction contrary thereto or return to the original port, or depart from the direct or customary route, and includes all canals, straits and other waters. The ship may call at any port for the purposes of the current voyage or of a prior or subsequent voyage. The ship may omit calling at any port or ports whether scheduled or not, and may call at the same port more than once; may for matters occurring before loading the goods, known or unknown at the time of such loading and matters occurring after such loading, either with or without the goods or passengers on board, and before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, adjust compasses, dry dock, with or without cargo aboard go on ways or to repair yards, shift berths, make trial trips or tests, take fuel or stores, remain in port, sail with or without pilots, tow and be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property; and all of the foregoing are included in the contract voyage.

4. In any situation whatsoever and wheresoever occurring and whether existing or anticipated before commencement of or during the voyage, which in the judgment of the Carrier or the Master is likely to give rise to risk of capture, seizure, detention, damage, delay or disadvantage to or loss of the ship or any part of her cargo, to make it unsafe, imprudent, or unlawful for any reason to commence or proceed on or continue the voyage or to enter or discharge the goods at the port of discharge, or to give rise to delay or difficulty in arriving, discharging at or leaving the port of discharge or the usual or agreed place of discharge in such port, the Carrier may before loading or before the commencement of the voyage, require the shipper or other person entitled thereto to take delivery of the goods at port of shipment and upon failure to do so, may warehouse the goods at the risk and expense of the goods; or the Carrier or the Master, whether or not proceeding toward or entering or attempting to enter the port of discharge or reaching or attempting to reach the usual place of discharge therein or attempting to discharge the goods there, may discharge the goods into depot, lazaretto, craft, or other place; or the ship may proceed or return, directly or indirectly, to or stop at any port or place whatsoever as the Master or the Carrier may consider safe or advisable under the circumstances, and discharge the goods, or any part thereof, at any such port or place; or the Carrier or the Master may retain the cargo on board until the return trip or until such time as the Carrier or the Master thinks advisable and discharge the goods at any place whatsoever as herein provided; or the Carrier or the Master may discharge and forward the goods by any means, rail, water, land, or air at the risk and expense of the goods. The Carrier or the Master is not required to give notice of discharge of the goods or the forwarding thereof as herein provided. When the goods are discharged from the ship, as herein provided, they shall be at their own risk and expense; such discharge shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. For any services rendered to the goods as hereinabove provided, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation.

5. The Carrier, Master and ship shall have liberty to comply with any orders or directions as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by the government of any nation or department thereof or any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of such government or of any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, under the terms of the war risk insurance on the ship, the right to give such orders or directions. Delivery or other disposition of the goods in accordance with such orders or directions shall be a fulfillment of the contract voyage. The ship may carry contraband, explosives, munitions, warlike stores, hazardous cargo, and may sail armed of unarmed and with or without convoy.

In addition to all other liberties herein the Carrier shall have the right to withhold delivery of, reship to, deposit or discharge the goods at any place whatsoever, surrender or dispose of the goods in accordance with any direction, condition or agreement imposed upon or exacted from the carrier by any government or department thereof or any person purporting to act with the authority of either of them. In any of the above circumstances the goods shall be solely at their risk and expense and all expenses and charges so incurred shall be payable by the owner or consignee thereof and shall be a lien on the goods.

6. Unless otherwise stated herein, the description of the goods and the particulars of the packages mentioned herein are those furnished in writing by the shipper and the Carrier shall not be concluded as to the correctness of marks, number, quantity, weight, gauge, measurement, contents, nature, quality or value. Single pieces or packages exceeding 4480 lbs. in weight shall be liable to pay extra charges in accordance with tariff rates in effect at time of shipment for loading, handling, transshipping or discharging and the weight of each such piece or package shall be declared in writing by the shipper on shipment and clearly and durably marked on the outside of the piece or package. The shipper and the goods shall also be liable for, and shall indemnify the Carrier in respect of any injury, loss or damage arising from shipper's failure to declare and mark the weight of any such piece or package or from inadequate or improper description of the goods or from the incorrect weight of any such piece or package having been declared or marked thereon, or from failure fully to disclose the nature and character of the goods.

7. Goods may be stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space or any other covered in space commonly used in the trade and suitable for the carriage of goods, and when so stowed shall be deemed for all purposes to be stowed under deck. In respect of goods carried on deck all risks of loss or damage by perils inherent in such carriage shall be borne by the shipper or the consignee but in all other respects the custody and carriage of such goods shall be governed by the terms of this bill of lading and the provisions stated in said Carriage of Goods by Sea Act notwithstanding Sec. 1 (c) thereof, or the corresponding provisions of any Carriage of Goods by Sea Act that may be applicable. Specially heated or specially cooled stowage is not to be furnished unless contracted for at an increased freight rate. Goods or articles carried in any such compartment are at the sole risk of the owner thereof and subject to all the conditions, exceptions and limitations as to the Carrier's liability and other provisions of this bill of lading; and further the Carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage occasioned by the temperature, risks of refrigeration, defects or insufficiency in or accidents to or explosion, breakage, derangement or failure of any refrigerator plant or part thereof, or by or in any material or the supply or use thereof used in the process of refrigeration unless shown to have been caused by negligence of the Carrier from liability for which the Carrier is not by law entitled to exemption.

8. Live animals, birds, reptiles and fish are received and carried at shipper's risk of accident or mortality, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage thereto arising or resulting from any matters mentioned in Section 4, Subsection 2, a to p inclusive of said Carriage of Goods by Sea Act or similar sections of any Carriage of Goods by Sea Act that may be applicable, or from any other cause whatsoever not due to the fault of the Carrier, any warranty of seaworthiness in the premises being hereby waived by the shipper. Except as provided above such shipments shall be deemed goods, and shall be subject to all terms and provisions in this bill of lading relating to goods.

9. If the ship comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect or default of the Master, mariner, pilot or the servants of the Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the ship, the owners of the goods carried hereunder will indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability to the other or noncarrying ship or her owners in so far as such loss or liability represents loss of, or damage to, or any claim whatsoever of the owners of said goods, paid or payable by the other or non-carrying ship or her owners to the owners of said goods and set-off, recouped or recovered by the other or non-carrying ship or her owners as part of their claim against the carrying ship or Carrier.

The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators or those in charge of any ship or ships or objects other than, or in addition to, the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision or contact.

10. General average shall be adjusted, stated and settled, according to Rules 1 to 15, inclusive, 17 to 22, inclusive, and Rule F of York-Antwerp Rules 1924, at such port or place in the United States as may be selected by the Carrier, and as to matters not provided for by these Rules, according to the laws and usages at the port of New York. In such adjustment disbursements in foreign currencies shall be exchanged into United States money at the rate prevailing on the dates made and allowances for damage to cargo claimed in foreign currency shall be converted at the rate prevailing on the last day of discharge at the port or place of final discharge of such damaged cargo from the ship. Average agreement or bond and such additional security, as may be required by the Carrier, must be furnished before delivery of the goods. Such cash deposit as the Carrier or his agents may deem sufficient as additional security for the contribution of the goods and for any salvage and special charges thereon, shall, if required, be made by the goods, shippers, consignees or owners of the goods to the Carrier before delivery. Such deposit shall, at the option of the Carrier, be payable in United States money and be remitted to the adjuster. When so remitted the deposit shall be held in a special account at the place of adjustment in the name of the adjuster pending settlement of the General Average and refunds or credit balances, if any, shall be paid in United States money.

In the event of accident, danger, damage, or disaster, before or after commencement of the voyage resulting from any cause whatsoever, whether due to negligence or not, for which, or for the consequence of which, the Carrier is not responsible, by statute, contract, or otherwise, the goods, the shipper and the consignee, jointly and severally, shall contribute with the Carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, losses, or expenses of a general average nature that may be made or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the goods. If a salving ship is owned or operated by the Carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully and in the same manner as if such salving ship or ships belonged to strangers.

11. Whenever the Carrier or the Master may deem it advisable or in any case where the goods are consigned to a point where the ship does not expect to discharge, the Carrier or Master may, without notice, forward the whole or any part of the goods before or after loading at the original port of shipment, or any other place or places even though outside the scope of the voyage or the route to or beyond the port of discharge or the destination of the goods, by any vessel, vessels or other means of transportation by water or by land or by air or by any such means, whether operated by the Carrier or by others and whether departing or arriving or scheduled to depart or arrive before or after the ship expected to be used for the transportation of the goods. This Carrier, in making arrangements for any transshipping or forwarding vessel or means of transportation not operated by this Carrier shall be considered solely the forwarding agent of the shipper and without any other responsibility whatsoever.

The carriage by any transshipping or forwarding carrier and all transshipment or forwarding shall be subject to all the terms whatsoever in the regular form of bill of lading, freight note, contract or other shipping document used at the time by such carrier, whether issued for the goods or not, and even though such terms may be less favorable to the shipper or consignee than the terms of this bill of lading and may contain more stringent requirements as to notice of claim or commencement of suit and may exempt the on-carrier from liability for negligence. The shipper expressly authorizes the Carrier to arrange with any such transshipping or forwarding carrier that the lowest valuation of the goods or limitation of liability contained in the bill of lading or shipping document of such carrier shall apply even though lower than the valuation or limitation herein, provided that the shipper shall not be compelled to pay a rate higher than that applicable to the valuation contained in such bill of lading. Pending or during transshipment the goods may be stored ashore or afloat at their risk and expense and the Carrier shall not be liable for detention.

12. The port authorities are hereby authorized to grant a general order for discharging immediately upon arrival of the ship and the Carrier without giving notice either of arrival or discharge, may discharge the goods directly they come to hand, at or onto any wharf, craft or place that the Carrier may select, and continuously Sundays and holidays included, at all such hours by day or by night as the Carrier may determine no matter what the state of the weather or custom of the port may be. The Carrier shall not be liable in any respect whatsoever if heat or refrigeration or special cooling facilities shall not be furnished during loading or discharge or any part of the time that the goods are upon the wharf, craft, or other loading or discharging place. All lighterage and use of craft in discharing shall be at the risk and expense of the goods. Landing and delivery charges and pier dues shall be at the expense of the goods unless included in the freight herein provided for. If the goods are not taken away by the consignee by the expiration of the next working day after the goods are at his disposal, the goods may at Carrier's option and subject to Carrier's lien, be sent to store or warehouse or be permitted to lie where landed, but always at the expense and risk of the goods.

The responsibility of the Carrier in any capacity shall altogether cease and the goods shall be considered to be delivered and at their own risk and expense in every respect when taken into the custody of customs or other authorities. The Carrier shall not be required to give any notification of disposition of the goods.

13. The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks shall have been clearly and durably stamped or marked by the shipper before shipment upon the goods or packages, in letters and numbers not less than two inches high, together with name of the port of discharge. Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue and any unclaimed goods not otherwise accounted for shall be allocated for completing delivery to the various consignees of goods of like character, in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight or damage. Loss or damage to goods in bulk stowed without separation from other goods in bulk of like quality, shipped by either the same or another shipper, shall be divided in proportion among the several shipments.

14. The goods shall be liable for all expense of mending, cooperage, baling or reconditioning of the goods or packages and gathering of loose contents of packages; also for any payment, expense, fine, dues, duty, tax, impost, loss, damage or detention sustained or incurred by or levied upon the Carrier or the ship in connection with the goods, howsoever caused, including any action or requirement of any government or governmental authority or person purporting to act under the authority thereof, seizure under legal process or attempted seizure, incorrect or insufficient marking, numbering or addressing of packages or description of the contents, failure of the shipper to procure consular, Board of Health or other certificates to accompany the goods or to comply with laws or regulations of any kind imposed with respect to the goods by the authorities at any port or place or any act or omission of the shipper or consignee.

15. Freight shall be payable on actual gross intake weight or measurement or, at Carrier's option, on actual gross discharged weight or measurement. Freight may be calculated on the basis of the particulars of the goods furnished by the shipper herein but the Carrier may at any time open the packages and examine, weigh, measure and value the goods. In case shipper's particulars are found to be erroneous and additional freight is payable, the goods shall be liable for any expense incurred for examining, weighing, measuring and valuing the goods. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound goods. Full freight hereunder to port of discharge named herein shall be considered completely earned on shipment whether the freight be stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination; and the Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain them irrevocably under all circumstances whatsoever ship and/or cargo lost or not lost or the voyage broken up or abandoned. If there shall be a forced interruption or abandonment of the voyage at the port of shipment or elsewhere any forwarding of the goods or any part thereof shall be at the risk and expense of the goods. All unpaid charges shall be paid in full and without any offset, counterclaim or deduction in the currency of the port of shipment, or, at Carrier's option, in the currency of the port of discharge at the demand rate of New York exchange as quoted on the day of the ship's entry at the Custom House of her port of discharge. The Carrier shall have a lien on the goods, which shall survive delivery, for all charges due hereunder and may enforce this lien by public or private sale and without notice. The shipper and the consignee shall be jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all charges and for the performance of the obligation of each of them hereunder.

16. Neither the Carrier nor any corporation owned by, subsidiary to or associated or affiliated with the Carrier shall be liable to answer for or make good any loss or damage to the goods occurring at any time and even though before loading on or after discharge from the ship, by reason or by means of any fire whatsoever, unless such fire shall be caused by its design or neglect.

17. In case of any loss or damage to or in connection with goods exceeding in actual value $500 lawful money of the United States, per package, or, in case of goods not shipped in packages, per customary freight unit, the value of the goods shall be deemed to be $500 per package or per unit, on which basis the freight is adjusted and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall be determined on the basis of a value of $500 per package or per customary freight unit or pro rata in case of partial loss or damage unless the nature of the goods and a valuation higher than $500 shall have been declared in writing by the shipper upon delivery to the Carrier and inserted in this bill of lading and extra freight paid if required and in such case if the actual value of the goods per package or per customary freight unit shall exceed such declared value, the value shall nevertheless be deemed to be the declared value and any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.

Whenever the value of the goods is less than $500 per package or other freight unit, their value in the calculation and adjustment of claims for which the Carrier may be liable shall for the purpose of avoiding uncertainties and difficulties in fixing value be deemed to be the invoice value, plus freight and insurance if paid, irrespective of whether any other value is greater or less.

18. Unless notice of loss or damage and the general nature of such loss or damage be given in writing to the Carrier or his agent at the port of discharge before or at the time of the removal of the goods into the custody of the person entitled to delivery thereof under the contract of carriage, such removal shall be prima facie evidence of the delivery by the Carrier of the goods as described in the bill of lading. If the loss or damage is not apparent the notice must be given within three days of the delivery. The Carrier shall not be liable upon any claim for loss or damage unless written particulars of such claim shall be received by the Carrier within thirty days after receipt of the notice herein provided for.

19. In any event the Carrier and the ship shall be discharged from all liability in respect of loss or damage unless suit is brought within one year after the delivery of the goods or the date when the goods should have been delivered. Suit shall not be deemed brought until jurisdiction shall have been obtained over the Carrier and/or the ship by service of process or by an agreement to appear.

20. To avoid or alleviate preventions or delays in prosecution or completion of the voyage incident to the existence of hostilities, the Carrier has liberty and is authorized by the shipper and the owner of the goods to agree with the representatives of any government to submit the goods to examination at any place or places whatsoever and to delay delivery of the same until any restriction asserted by any governmental authority shall have been removed. The Carrier may put the goods in store ashore or afloat at the risk and expense of the owner of the same pending examination; and thereupon the Carrier's responsibility shall end. Any damage or deterioration occasioned by such examination or by delay and other risks of whatsoever nature shall be solely for account of the owner of the goods. All expenses incurred by the Carrier in relation to such detention of the goods shall be paid by the shipper or consignee or owner of the goods.

21. This Bill of Lading shall be construed and the rights of the parties thereunder determined according to the law of the United States.

22. Cargo skids and labor on quay are to be provided by ship's agent for account of consignee at current rates, and any cargo which may be ordered for delivery into fiscal deposits, must be taken by an official cartman appointed by the agent of the ship, at current rates for account and risk of consignee.

23. If any bagged or baled goods are landed slack or torn, receiver and/or consignee shall accept its proportion of the sweepings. Ship not responsible for loss of weight in bags or bales torn, mended or with sample holes.

24. Cotton: Description of the condition of the cotton does not relate to the insufficiency of or torn condition of the covering, nor to any damage resulting therefrom and Carrier shall not be responsible for damage of such nature.

25. Specie: Specie will not be shipped or landed by the Carrier; it must be put on board by the shipper, and will only be delivered on board on presentation of the bills of lading properly endorsed; it may be carried on at consignee's risk if delivery is not taken during the ship's stay in port, and in every case the liability of the Carrier shall cease when the specie leaves the ship's deck.

26. SPECIFIED DOCK DISCHARGE. If the carrier makes a special agreement, whether by stamp hereon or otherwise, to deliver the goods hereby receipted for at a specified dock or wharf at the port of discharge, it is mutually agreed that such agreement shall be construed to mean that the Carrier is to make such delivery only if, in the sole judgment of the Master, the ship can safely under her own power, proceed to, lie at, and return from said dock or wharf, always afloat at any time of tide, and only if such dock or wharf is available to the ship immediately the ship is ready to discharge the goods and, that otherwise, the ship shall discharge the goods in accordance with Clause 12 of this bill of lading, whereupon Carrier's responsibility shall cease.

27. FREIGHT COLLECT. Carrier to place insurance on collect freight for account of carrier, shipper and consignee with losses, if any, payable to carrier. Consignee to pay premium for same; but if premium is higher than shipper or consignee would pay for marine and war risk on cargo difference to be absorbed by the owners.

28. All agreements or freight engagements for the shipment of the goods are superseded by this bill of lading, and all its terms, whether written, typed, stamped, or printed, are accepted and agreed by the shipper to be binding as fully as if signed by the shipper, any local customs or privileges to the contrary notwithstanding. Nothing in this bill of lading shall operate to limit or deprive the Carrier of any statutory protection or exemption from or limitation of liability. If required by the Carrier, one signed bill of lading duly endorsed must be surrendered to the agent of the ship at the port of discharge in exchange for delivery order.

2. Said bill of lading when printed shall be of a uniform size 10" x 17", to be printed in type no smaller than 7 point, the back thereof to be printed in two columns. All operators shall at their own expense, under agency agreements now or hereafter in effect, cause said bill of lading to be printed as aforesaid, and any such operator shall indicate its name and may also print appropriate and customary house flags, office addresses, etc., on the face thereof.

3. Prior to the issuance of said bills of lading for the carriage of goods on any vessel the operator or agent thereof shall obtain the written consent of the Master of said vessel to the execution of said bills of lading, acting for and on behalf of said Master.

4. The following special terms and conditions, in addition to the terms and conditions set forth in said uniform bill of lading, shall respectively be incorporated in all bills of lading in all trades and on all routes to which they are severally appropriate, and the said special terms and conditions shall follow the general terms and conditions set forth in said uniform bill of lading:

(B) Grain for overside delivery is to be applied for within twenty-four hours of ship's arrival (or thereafter immediately it becomes clear) at any dock, quay, river wharf or other wharf or landing place selected by the ship owners or agents. In the absence of sufficient consignee's craft, with responsible persons in charge, to receive as fast as ship can discharge overside into lighters during usual working hours, the Master or agent may land or discharge into lighters at the risk and expense of the consignee. The Carrier or agent may land or discharge continuously day and/or night, any grain landed or discharged for ship's convenience during usual working hours (consignee's craft being duly in attendance) and any grain that may be landed or discharged before or after usual working hours (whether craft are then in attendance or not) is to be given up free to consignee's craft applying for same within seventy-two hours from its landing or discharge; otherwise it will be subject to the usual dock, quay, river wharf or other wharf or landing place charges.

An extra freight of 7d. per ton shall be paid to the Carrier or agent on each consignment of grain whether any portion be landed or not. The grain is to be weighed at time of discharge, either on deck and/or dock, quay, river wharf or other wharf or landing place and/or craft at ship's option. Working out charges (including weighing) as fixed by the Port of London Authority for grain in bulk and/or ship's bags are to be paid by the consignee with the freight to the ship's agent or to the authorized representative of the dock, quay, river wharf or other wharf or landing place if so directed by the ship's agent in exchange for release. Neither party shall be liable for any interference with the performance of the contract herein contained, which is caused by strikes, or lock-out of seamen, lightermen, stevedores, or shore laborers, or railway or transport or other disturbances of any kind or in furtherance thereof, whether partial or otherwise, nor for any consequences thereof, and in such case the Carrier or agent shall be entitled to land or put into craft at the risk and expense of consignee. In case the grain shipped under this bill of lading forms part of a larger bulk, each bill of lading is to bear its proportion of shortage and damage, if any.

(C) Acetone, asphalt, carbon black, celluloid, cotton, cotton waste, hay, hemp, hydrolene, istle, jute, lampblack, illuminating and oil of all kinds, whether animal, vegetable, or mineral, and the liquid products of them or any of them, pitch, rags, rosin, straw, tar, turpentine, varnish, wood spirits, also any other goods of a more or less hazardous nature. Consignees to have craft in attendance immediately by ship's arrival at any discharging berth selected by the Carrier, to take delivery from ship or otherwise (at ship's option), of any of the above-mentioned commodities, the Carrier having the option of working continuously by day and/or night, and consignees to pay 1/3d. per ton weight or measurement at ship's option. If consignee's craft is not in attendance, the goods may be put into Captain's entry craft at risk and expense of consignees.

(D) Refrigerator cargo. Goods may be discharged immediately on arrival at dock, quay, river wharf or other wharf or landing place selected by the Carrier, who shall have the option of working continuously day and/or night and are to be removed by consignees within 24 hours after ship shall have been reported at the Custom House. Consignee is to pay 1/9d. per ton weight or measurement at ship's option, otherwise the Carrier has the right of removing or of calling upon the dock, quay or wharf authorities to receive or remove all or any part thereof for storage or realization at consignee's risk and expense.

(E) In the case of heavy timber of rafting size delivered into the water in one of the docks in the river Thames, each consignee of such timber shall pay two-thirds of the ship's dock dues payable in respect of the space occupied by his portion of such cargo so delivered into the water.

Craft which are in attendance for delivery under above clauses and stipulations shall wait free of demurrage their regular turn to receive goods or grain as required by Carrier, either from ship or quay or Captain's entry craft.

All Port of London Authority charges are to be paid by consignee of the goods, and the Carrier shall have the same lien, rights, and remedies on goods or grain referred to in the above clauses or under any other clauses of the bill of lading, as they have by law in respect to freight.

This London Clause is, in respect of goods destined to that port, to form part of this bill of lading, and any words at variance with them are hereby cancelled.

XII

On all shipments forwarded to Lourence Marques, Mombasa, and ports for transshipment, the landing, lighterage, and delivery charges, and pier dues at destination are to be paid by consignee.

5. The operator shall, upon previous advice to War Shipping Administration, incorporate in bills of lading any special arrangements on the face thereof and any other special clauses respectively appropriate to the trade and route undertaken.

6. If or when a short form of bill of lading shall have been approved incorporating by reference the aforesaid terms and conditions of carriage it shall be used with the same force and effect as though the said terms and conditions had been set forth in full therein.

7. Property of the United States of America required to be shipped pursuant to the Government Form of Bill of Lading (Standard Form No. 1058) shall continue to be so shipped and the carrier's bill of lading therein referred to shall be deemed to mean the bill of lading herein approved.

8. The bill of lading herein approved need not be employed for bulk cargoes (without count or mark) customarily carried pursuant to receipt forms of bills of lading issued under charters or other contracts of affreightment.

9. The right is reserved to approve other forms of bills of lading or clauses as the Administrator may deem appropriate in special circumstances.

By order of the War Shipping Administration.

W. C. PEET, Jr.,
Secretary.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

MEMORANDUM OPINION

In the Matter of Policy and Procedure for Handling Applications Relating to Stations in the Emergency, Aviation, Miscellaneous and Experimental Services.

It has become increasingly apparent that the public interest requires a curtailment in the use of materials for the construction or change of the transmitting facilities of certain stations operating in the Emergency, Aviation, Miscellaneous and Experimental Radio Services.

On June 12, 1942, the Board of War Communications made the following two recommendations to the War Production Board and to this Commission:

1. No future authorizations involving the use of any materials shall be issued by the Federal Communications Commission nor shall further materials be allocated by the War Production Board, to construct or to change the transmitting facilities of any amateur or Class 3 experimental station.

2. No future authorizations involving the use of any materials shall be issued by the Federal Communications Commission nor shall further materials be allocated by the War Production Board, to construct or to change the transmitting facilities of any Aeronautical Fixed (domestic) Station, Itinerant Aircraft Station, Flying School Station, or station operating in the Emergency and Miscellaneous Radio Services: Provided, however, That upon a proper showing that any such station serves an essential military need or a vital public need, which cannot otherwise be met, the Commission and the War Production Board will take action commensurate with the importance of the particular facility in question.

The Commission has adopted the recommendation numbered one, and hereafter as a matter of policy, until further notice, will grant no application for an authorization involving the use of any materials to construct or change the transmitting facilities of any Class 3 Experimental Station. With respect to amateur stations, the Commission will continue to follow its policy, adopted soon after December 7, 1941, of not granting any new station licenses.

In accordance with the recommendation numbered two, the Commission has adopted the policy, until further notice, of not granting any application for an authorization which involves the use of any materials to construct or change the transmitting facilities of any Aeronautical Fixed (domestic) Station, Itinerant Aircraft Station, Flying School Station, or station operating in the Emergency and Miscellaneous Radio Services;[1] except where it appears that the facilities to be constructed or changed will serve either (1) an essential military need, or (2) a vital public need which cannot otherwise be met.

Any application hereafter filed involving the use of any materials to construct or to change the transmitting facilities of any class of station set forth under recommendation (2) will be considered defective and returned to the applicant unless it is accompanied by a verified statement showing all the facts and circumstances which the applicant believes to demonstrate that the facilities to be constructed or changed will serve either (1) an essential military need, or (2) a vital public need which cannot otherwise be met.

In the case of any application now pending[2] before the Commission, or postmarked prior to the date hereof, a verified statement need not be submitted unless the Commission specifically requests such statement. Failure to file the required statement within the time designated by the Commission shall be deemed an abandonment of the pending application and such application will be retired to the closed files of the Commission and dismissed without prejudice.

In the event that the Commission is unable to determine that the proposed facilities will serve either an essential military need or a vital public need which cannot otherwise be met, the application will be designated for hearing.

Dated: July 7, 1942.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

Others than banking institutions will not be permitted to enter subscriptions except for their own account. Subscriptions from banks and trust companies for their own account will be received without deposit. Subscriptions from all others must be accompanied by payment of 10 percent of the amount of bonds applied for.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of bonds applied for, and to close the books as to any or all subscriptions at any time without notice; and any action he may take in these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, subscriptions for amounts up to and including $25,000 will be allotted in full. Any qualified depositary will be permitted to make payment by credit for bonds allotted to it for itself and its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits, when so notified by the Federal Reserve Bank of its district.

As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments on the basis and up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve Banks of the respective districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for bonds allotted, to make delivery of bonds on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive bonds.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve Banks.

10. For personnel of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, or National Guard (when in the active military service of the United States and when participating in exercises or performing duties provided for by sections 94, 97, and 99 of the National Defense Act, as amended), who are required by competent authority to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights, the following requirements are prescribed: Provided, That any officer, warrant officer, member of the Army Nurse Corps or Navy Nurse Corps (female), or enlisted man who has been required to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights by orders of competent authority and who as a result of such orders has participated regularly and frequently in aerial flights, as defined in this Executive Order, and who subsequently becomes incapacitated for flying by reason of an aviation accident shall not be required to perform such aerial flights during such incapacity for a period not to exceed three months following the date of said accident:

(a) During one calendar month.	10 or more flights totaling at least three hours, or in lieu thereof to be in the air a total of at least four hours.
(b) During two consecutive calendar months, when the requirements of subparagraph (a) above have not been met.	20 or more flights totaling at least six hours, or in lieu thereof to be in the air a total of at least eight hours.
(c) During three consecutive calendar months, when the requirements of subparagraph (b) above have not been met.	30 or more flights totaling at least nine hours, or in lieu thereof to be in the air a total of at least twelve hours.

(d) For fractions of a calendar month the number of aerial flights and the time in the air required shall bear the same ratio to the number of flights and the time in the air required for a full calendar month as the period in question bears to a full calendar month.

(e) For fractions of two consecutive calendar months the period in question shall be considered as a unit and the number of aerial flights and time in the air required shall bear the same ratio to the number of aerial flights and time in the air required for a full calendar month as the period in question bears to a full calendar month.

(f) Where the commanding officer of any officer, warrant officer or enlisted man who has been required by orders of competent authority to participate in regular and frequent aerial flights certifies that due to military operations of the particular command under combat conditions, such officer, warrant officer or enlisted man was unable to perform the aerial flights required by subparagraph (c) hereof, such officer, warrant officer or enlisted man may comply with the requirements herein prescribed by performing sixty or more flights totaling at least eighteen hours, or, in lieu thereof, being in the air a total of at least twenty-four hours over a period of six consecutive calendar months.

NOTE: The above requirements for any particular period may be met at any time during such period.

(g) Each officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man who is required by competent authority to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights and who is a qualified aircraft pilot, and who is fit for duty as such, shall make the flights above required as a pilot, except that an officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man who is both a qualified pilot of lighter-than-air aircraft and a qualified aircraft observer shall make the flights above required either as pilot or as observer as may be directed by competent authority.

(h) Each officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man who is required by competent authority to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights, and who is a qualified aircraft observer but is not a qualified aircraft pilot shall make the flights above required as observer.

(i) Each officer, warrant officer, member of the Army Nurse Corps or Navy Nurse Corps (female), or enlisted man other than a qualified aircraft pilot or a qualified aircraft observer who is required by competent authority to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights shall make the flights above required in the capacity directed by the authority issuing the order requiring the flights.

11. For each officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man of the National Guard not in the active military service of the United States who is in an armory drill pay status and who is required to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights the following requirements are prescribed:

(a) During one calendar month of any quarterly period.	4 or more flights totaling at least 72 minutes, or in lieu thereof to be in the air a total of at least 96 minutes.
(b) During two consecutive calendar months of any quarterly period, when the requirements of subparagraph (a) above have not been met.	8 or more flights totaling at least 144 minutes, or in lieu thereof to be in the air a total of at least 192 minutes.
(c) During three consecutive calendar months of any quarterly period when the requirements of subparagraph (b) above have not been met.	12 or more flights totaling at least 216 minutes, or in lieu thereof to be in the air a total of at least 288 minutes.

(d) Such required flights may be made at ordered drills of the Army Air Forces organization to which such officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man belongs or is attached, or at other times when so authorized by the senior Army Air Forces commanding officer of the State.

(e) For fractions of a calendar month, the number of aerial flights and the time in the air required shall bear the same ratio to the number of flights and the time in the air required for a full calendar month as the period in question bears to the entire month.

(f) The duties prescribed above shall be in addition to any other duty or duties which may be required of such officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men while in attendance at assemblies for drill and instruction, and while participating in exercises or performing duties provided for by sections 94, 97, and 99 of the National Defense Act, as amended.

12. A commanding officer shall suspend from flying any officer, warrant officer, member of the Army Nurse Corps or Navy Nurse Corps (female), or enlisted man under his command who, in his opinion, is unfit for flying, except as a result of an aviation accident. When the suspension is for a minor illness or injury not the result of an aviation accident, the suspension and subsequent revocation thereof may be ordered by the commanding officer of the person concerned without reference to higher authority. In all other cases such action shall be reported with the reasons therefor, for confirmation to the Commanding General of the Army Air Forces or to such officer or officers as he may designate for personnel commissioned in the Army Air Corps or on duty with the Army Air Forces, the Secretary of War or such officer or officers as he may designate for other branches of the Army or to the officer who issued the order requiring the person concerned to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights for the Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard. The confirmation of such action shall have the effect of suspending the order to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights as to the person concerned from the date such suspension from flying was made. When any officer, warrant officer, member of the Army Nurse Corps or Navy Nurse Corps (female), or enlisted man so suspended from flying becomes, in the opinion of his commanding officer, again fit for flying, the commanding officer shall revoke such suspension from flying, and such action shall be reported with reasons therefor, for confirmation to the authority who confirmed the suspension from flying. The confirmation of such revocation shall have the effect of terminating the suspension of the person concerned from the date of such revocation by his commanding officer: Provided, That in the case of suspension from flying by reason of sickness or injury incurred in line of duty and subsequent removal thereof, such suspension shall be considered as nullified from its beginning, and the person concerned shall be entitled to increased pay for flying provided the requirements of paragraph 10 above are complied with.

13. Authorized leaves of absence of personnel required by orders of competent authority to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights shall not suspend such orders for pay purposes.

14. Compliance with the foregoing requirements constitutes participation in regular and frequent aerial flights within the meaning of the act approved July 2, 1926 (44 Stat. 780), and the act approved June 16, 1942 (Public Law 607, 77th Congress, 2nd Session), and no flight pay shall accrue to any person during any period in which the provisions of this order are not complied with: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall affect the flying pay of non-flying officers who perform the number of aerial flights required by any applicable act of Congress.

Except for the provisions of section 10 (f) hereof, which shall be effective from and after December 7, 1941, the provisions of this order shall be effective as of June 1, 1942, and shall supersede Executive Order No. 5865 of June 27, 1932, as amended by Executive Order No. 8706 of March 6, 1941.[1]

FARM MARKETING QUOTAS

§ 727.426 Amount of farm marketing quota. The marketing quota for a farm shall be the actual production of tobacco on the farm acreage allotment, as established for the farm in accordance with Part I of the "Marketing Quota Regulations—Flue-cured Tobacco—1942–43 Marketing Year" (Tobacco 603 Part I). The actual production of the farm acreage allotment shall be the average yield per acre of the entire acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in 1942 times the farm acreage allotment. The excess tobacco on any farm shall be that quantity of tobacco which is equal to the average yield per acre of the entire acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in 1942 times the number of acres harvested in excess of the farm acreage allotment.

§ 727.427 Issuance of marketing card. A marketing card shall be issued for every farm having tobacco available for marketing. The card shall be issued after information required for its preparation (including measurements of the harvested acreage of tobacco and an estimate of the actual production of tobacco) has been furnished to or obtained by the county office. If the farm operator refuses to furnish or prevents the county office from obtaining such information, the card shall show that all of the tobacco available for marketing from the farm is subject to penalty.

(a) Within Quota Marketing Card (MQ–656 Flue-cured). A "Within Quota Marketing Card" authorizing the marketing without penalty of the actual production of tobacco on the farm in the 1942 calendar year and any tobacco carried over from a prior marketing year shall be issued for a farm unless an excess marketing card is required to be issued for the farm in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Excess Marketing Card (MQ–657 Flue-cured). An "Excess Marketing Card" showing the extent to which marketings of tobacco from a farm are subject to penalty shall be issued for a farm under the following conditions:

(1) If the harvested acreage of tobacco in 1942 is in excess of the farm acreage allotment and such excess tobacco is not disposed of in accordance with § 727.428 hereof, or if the operator of the farm also operates another farm on which the harvested acreage of tobacco in 1942 exceeds the farm acreage allotment and such excess is not disposed of in accordance with § 727.428 hereof.

(2) If a within quota marketing card could be issued for the farm but the county committee determines that a zero percent excess marketing card is necessary to protect the interest of the government and to insure proper identification of and accounting for the disposition of tobacco produced on the farm and the proper use of the marketing card issued for the farm.

(3) If there is tobacco available for marketing from the farm but no tobacco acreage allotment was established and such tobacco is not disposed of as provided in § 727.428 hereof.

(4) If information required for preparation of the marketing card is not furnished or the county office is prevented from obtaining the necessary information.

(5) If there is tobacco available for marketing from the farm carried over from a prior marketing year and the harvested acreage in 1942 is not less than the 1942 acreage allotment by an amount equivalent to the acreage of carry-over excess determined as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

(6) If a farm operated by a publicly owned experiment station produces tobacco for other than experimental purposes and such tobacco is not disposed of as provided in § 727.428 hereof.

(c) Extent to which marketings from a farm are subject to penalty. The extent to which marketings of tobacco from any farm having no carry-over tobacco are subject to penalty shall be that percentage of the tobacco available for marketing from the farm which the acreage of tobacco harvested in excess of the farm acreage allotment for the farm and not disposed of as provided in § 727.428 of these regulations, is of the acreage of tobacco harvested from the farm. Each marketing card showing a percentage excess of zero also shall show the maximum number of pounds of tobacco which may be marketed thereunder, which shall be the quantity of tobacco estimated by the county committee to be available for marketing from the 1942 crop produced on the farm. For any excess marketing card which shows a percentage of excess of more than zero, the county committee, if it has reason to believe it to be necessary in order to prevent marketing thereunder of tobacco produced on another farm, also shall have shown on the card the maximum number of pounds which may be marketed thereunder, such number of pounds to be determined in the same manner as for a card showing zero percent excess. The maximum number of pounds shown on any excess marketing card shall be increased by the county committee if the committee determines that the quantity of tobacco available for marketing from the 1942 crop produced on the farm is greater than the number of pounds previously estimated by the committee to be available for marketing.

The extent to which marketings of tobacco from any farm having tobacco available for marketing which has been carried over from a prior marketing year are subject to penalty shall be the percentage determined as follows:

(1) Determine the number of "carry-over acres" by dividing the number of pounds of tobacco carried over from the prior year by the normal yield for the farm for that year.

(2) Determine the number of "within quota carry-over acres" by multiplying the "carry-over acres" ((1) above) by the "percent within quota" (i. e., 100 percent minus the percent excess) for the year in which the carry-over tobacco was produced.

(3) Determine the "total acres" of tobacco by adding the "carry-over acres" ((1) above) and the acreage of tobacco harvested in the current year.

(4) Determine the excess acreage by subtracting from the "total acres" ((3) above) the sum of the 1942 allotment and the "within quota carry-over acres" ((2) above).

(5) Determine the percent excess to be shown on the marketing card by dividing the "total acres" into the excess acreage (4 above).

(d) Number of marketing cards and entries and signatures thereon. One or more marketing cards may be issued for any farm as approved by the county committee. All entries on each marketing card shall be made in accordance with the instructions for issuing the marketing card and the operator's agreement on each marketing card shall be signed by the farm operator or on his behalf by his authorized representative.

§ 727.428 Disposition of excess tobacco. The farm operator may elect to give satisfactory proof of disposition of excess tobacco prior to the marketing of any tobacco from the farm by any of the following methods:

(a) By executing a "Tobacco Carry-over Agreement," (Tobacco 628) and delivering, either to the county committee prior to the issuance of the marketing card or to a field assistant at the auction warehouse out of the first proceeds from the marketing of tobacco from the farm, a certified check, cashier's check or post office money order, or by a check drawn by the warehouseman, payable to Commodity Credit Corporation in an amount equal to the estimated actual yield of tobacco from the excess acreage times 85 percent of the parity price of flue-cured tobacco as of the beginning of the 1942–43 marketing year.

(b) By storage of the excess tobacco, the tobacco so stored to be representative of the entire 1942 crop produced on the farm, and posting of a bond or making of other arrangements approved by the county committee and an authorized representative of the Secretary which will guarantee payment of the amount of penalty which will become due upon the marketing of excess tobacco.

§ 727.429. Report on marketing card. The operator of each farm on which tobacco is produced in 1942 shall return to the county office each marketing card issued for the farm whenever marketings from the farm are completed and in no event later than thirty days after the close of the tobacco auction markets for the area in which the farm is located. Failure to return the marketing card to the county office within the time specified (after formal notification) shall constitute failure to give proof of disposition of tobacco marketed from the farm in the event that satisfactory proof of such disposition is not furnished otherwise.

§ 727.430 Additional reports by producers and identification of tobacco. In addition to any other reports which may be required under these regulations, the operator of each farm or any other person having an interest in the tobacco grown on the farm (even though the harvested acreage does not exceed the acreage allotment and even though no allotment was established for the farm) shall, upon written request by the Chairman of the State Committee and within ten days after the deposit of such request in the United States mails addressed to such person at his last known address, furnish the Secretary of Agriculture, by sending the same to the Chairman of the State Committee, a written report showing, as to the farm at the time of filing said report (a) the number of acres of tobacco harvested, (b) the total production of tobacco, (c) the amount of tobacco on hand and its location, and (d) as to each lot of tobacco marketed, the name and address of the warehouseman, dealer, or other person to or through whom such tobacco was marketed and the number of pounds marketed, the gross price, and the date of marketing.

§ 727.431 Rights of producers in marketing card. Each producer having a share in the tobacco available for marketing from the farm shall be entitled to the use of the marketing card for marketing his proportionate share of the total amount of tobacco available for marketing from the farm: Provided, That the burden of any penalty with respect to carryover tobacco shall be borne by those persons having an interest in such tobacco.

§ 727.432 Successors in interest. Any person who succeeds in whole or in part to the share of a producer in the tobacco available for marketing from the farm shall, to the extent of such succession, have the same rights as the producer to the use of the marketing card for the farm.

§ 727.433 Person authorized to issue cards. The county committee shall designate one person to sign marketing cards for farms in the county as issuing officer. No marketing card shall be signed by the issuing officer until all other entries required to be made thereon have been made, except that the Operator's Agreement therein may be signed after the issuing officer has signed the card, but prior to the issuance of a memorandum of sale from the card. Only one person shall be designated as issuing officer but such person may, subject to the approval of the county committee, designate not more than three persons to sign his name in issuing marketing cards: Provided, That each such person shall place his initials immediately beneath the name of the issuing officer as written by him on the card.

§ 727.434 Invalid cards. A marketing card shall be invalid under any of the following conditions:

(a) If it is not issued or delivered in the form and manner prescribed;

(b) If entries are not made thereon as required;

(c) If it is lost, destroyed, stolen, or becomes illegible;

(d) If any erasure has been made;

(e) If any alteration has been made and not properly initialed; or

(f) If the amount due Commodity Credit Corporation with respect to a "Tobacco Carry-over Agreement" is not paid prior to the issuance of any memorandum of sale.

In the event any marketing card becomes invalid (other than by loss, destruction, theft, omission, alteration, or incorrect entry which can be corrected by a field assistant) the farm operator (or the person having the card in his possession) shall return it to the county office at which it was issued.

If any marketing card is lost, destroyed, stolen, or altered, the person having knowledge of such loss, destruction, theft, or alteration shall notify the county office to that effect, and the county office shall immediately notify the applicable field office.

If any marketing card which was reported as lost, destroyed, stolen, or altered is later received by the county office, the county office shall immediately notify the applicable field office of the receipt of such card.

After receipt of notice of loss, destruction or theft of any marketing card the county office may issue a duplicate marketing card to replace the lost, destroyed, or stolen card in accordance with instructions issued pursuant to these regulations.

In the event any marketing card was improperly issued, has been altered, or becomes illegible, upon the return of the card to the county office a new marketing card shall be issued immediately, or as soon thereafter as the necessary information is available.

If any entry is not made on a marketing card as required (either through omission or incorrect entry) and the proper entry is made by a field assistant then such card shall become valid. If the field assistant is unable to make the proper entry, he shall return the card to the county office where it shall be retained until such entry is made, or a new marketing card is issued, as provided above.

§ 727.435 Additional cards and disposition of used cards. Upon the return to the county office of the marketing card after all the memoranda of sale have been issued therefrom and before the marketing of tobacco from the farm has been completed, a new marketing card of the same kind, bearing the same name, information and identification as the used card shall be issued for the farm. Any marketing card issued to replace another card shall have entered thereon the total sales as shown on the marketing card which is replaced.

§ 727.436 Report of probable misuse of marketing card. Any information which causes any field assistant, a member of any local committee, or an employee of the county office to believe that any tobacco which actually was produced on one farm has been or is being marketed under the marketing card issued for another farm shall be reported immediately by such person to the applicable field office and to the State office.

§ 727.437 No transfers. There shall be no transfer of marketing quotas (except as provided in Part I of these regulations) and the tobacco marketed under the marketing card issued for a farm shall consist only of tobacco produced on the farm.

MARKETING OF TOBACCO AND PENALTIES

§ 727.438 Memorandum of sale to identify every marketing. (a) Each marketing of tobacco from a farm shall be identified by a memorandum of sale issued from the marketing card (MQ–656 Flue-cured or MQ–657 Flue-cured) for the farm but if a memorandum of sale cannot be obtained within four weeks after the date of the marketing of any tobacco at a warehouse sale, such marketing of tobacco shall be subject to penalty and the amount of penalty shall be shown on the memorandum of sale cleared without marketing card (Tobacco 618). The memorandum of sale shall be issued only by a field assistant, with the following exceptions:

(1) A warehouseman, or his authorized representative, who has been authorized on form Tobacco 625, may issue a within quota memorandum of sale to identify a warehouse sale, if a field assistant is not available at the warehouse when the card is presented by the farmer and if no payment to Commodity Credit Corporation under a "Tobacco Carry-over Agreement" is due with respect to the tobacco to be covered by the memorandum. Each memorandum of sale issued by a warehouseman shall be presented promptly by him to the field assistant for verification with the warehouse records.

(2) A dealer operating a receiving point for scrap tobacco at a redrying plant (and other regular receiving points operated by such dealer or his agents or employees) or at an auction warehouse, and who keeps records showing the information specified in § 727.448 (f), who has been authorized on form Tobacco 625, may issue a within quota memorandum of sale covering a sale of scrap tobacco if the farm operator has signed the "Authorization" on the back of the memorandum of sale and a Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale (Tobacco 614) has been executed to cover such tobacco.

(b) The authorization to issue within quota memoranda of sale under paragraph (a) (1) or (2) above may be withdrawn from any warehouseman or dealer upon written notice by an authorized representative of the Secretary.

(c) Each excess memorandum of sale, after issuance by a field assistant, shall be checked by the warehouseman or dealer (or his representative) to determine whether the amount of penalty shown thereon to be due has been correctly computed, and the warehouseman or dealer shall be responsible for the correctness of such computations.

(d) If the quantity of tobacco previously identified by memoranda of sale issued from any within quota marketing card is in excess of the number of pounds assigned to the card, the person issuing the memorandum shall require the farm operator to sign the "Operator's Certificate" on the back of the memorandum and if he is satisfied that such signature is the same as the signature of the farm operator on the marketing card, he may issue the memorandum. If any person other than the operator presents the marketing card, the memorandum of sale shall not be issued unless the "Authorization" on the back of such memorandum has been properly executed and signed by the operator. The person who presents the marketing card may sign on behalf of the farm operator except when such memorandum is to be used to cover a sale of "scrap" tobacco, provided that such person places his address immediately beneath his signature. Any person authorized to issue a memorandum of sale under either of the above described circumstances who has reason to believe that the tobacco to be covered by the memorandum was not produced on the farm for which the marketing card containing the memorandum was issued, may or may not issue the memorandum as he considers advisable, but in either event he shall immediately make a written report of the circumstances in the case to the applicable field office for the belt in which the tobacco is sold.

§ 727.439 Bill of nonwarehouse sale. Each marketing of tobacco, except a warehouse sale, shall be identified by a Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale (Tobacco 614) completely executed by the buyer and the farm operator, except for the entry of the serial number of the memorandum of sale. If the Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale is issued to cover scrap tobacco the word "scrap" shall be written thereon immediately above the words "Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale." The post card copy (Tobacco 614a) shall be mailed by the farm operator not later than the day following the day on which executed. The original of each Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale covering any marketing except scrap tobacco shall be presented to a field assistant for issuance of a memorandum of sale (or a memorandum of sale cleared without marketing card) and for recording in the Dealer's Record Book in case of a purchase by a dealer other than a warehouseman. The original of each such Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale shall be forwarded with the applicable Dealer's Record (Tobacco 615).

The original of each Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale covering scrap tobacco shall be delivered to a person at a receiving point who has been authorized to issue memoranda of sale. Such person may issue the memorandum of sale and enter the serial number of such memorandum on the original of the Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale and forward all such bills with the Record of Scrap Tobacco (Tobacco 613) to the applicable field office.

§ 727.440 Marketings free of penalty. Any tobacco marketed from a farm which is identified by a valid memorandum of sale from the marketing card issued for the farm shall be free of penalty to the extent shown by the memorandum of sale.

§ 727.441 Marketings subject to penalty and collection of penalties—(a) Farm tobacco. With respect to tobacco marketed from farms having excess tobacco available for marketing, the penalty shall be paid upon that proportion of each lot of tobacco which the tobacco available for marketing in excess of the farm quota (at the time of issuance of the marketing card) is of the total amount of tobacco available for marketing from the farm. The memorandum of sale issued to identify such marketing of tobacco shall show that portion of such marketing which is subject to penalty, and any portion of such marketing of tobacco which is not shown by the memorandum as being subject to penalty shall be free of penalty.

(b) Dealer's tobacco. Any marketing of tobacco by a dealer which such dealer represents to be a resale, but all or any part of which, when added to prior resales by such dealer as shown on the Dealer's Record, is in excess of the total amount of purchases as shown on such Dealer's Record shall be a marketing of tobacco subject to penalty unless and until the dealer furnishes proof acceptable to the Secretary showing that such tobacco is not subject to penalty. Any marketing of tobacco by a dealer which such dealer represents to be a resale of tobacco previously purchased by him but which, because of the difference in the price at which such tobacco is resold as compared with the price at which he had purchased the tobacco, cannot reasonably be regarded as tobacco previously purchased by him shall be taken to be a marketing of tobacco subject to penalty.

(c) Tobacco not identified by a valid memorandum. Any marketing of tobacco which is not identified by a valid memorandum of sale shall be subject to penalty.

(d) Liability in case of error on memorandum. The person liable for the payment of the penalty upon any marketing of tobacco shall not be relieved of such liability because of any error which may occur on the memorandum of sale.

§ 727.442 Persons to pay penalty. The person to pay the penalty due on any marketing of excess tobacco shall be one of the following as applicable:

(a) Warehouseman. If the tobacco is marketed by the producer through a warehouseman the penalty shall be paid by the warehouseman, who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the producer.

(b) Dealer. If the tobacco is acquired from the producer by a dealer, the penalty shall be paid by the dealer who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the producer.

(c) Agent. If the tobacco is marketed by the producer through an agent who is not a warehouseman, the penalty shall be paid by the agent, who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the producer.

(d) Warehouseman and dealer on dealer's tobacco. Any penalty due upon tobacco subject to penalty under paragraph (b) of § 727.441 shall be paid by the warehouseman, who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the dealer, but the dealer shall not be relieved of responsibility for payment of such penalty.

(e) Producer marketing outside United States. If the tobacco is marketed by the producer directly to any person outside the United States, the penalty shall be paid by the producer.

§ 727.443 Rate of penalty. The penalty shall be ten cents per pound upon the marketing of any tobacco in excess of the marketing quota for the farm on which the tobacco is produced and on the marketing of any other tobacco not identified under these regulations as being free from penalty.

§ 727.444 Penalty for false identification or failure to account for disposition of tobacco. If any producer falsely identifies or fails to account for disposition of any tobacco, an amount of tobacco equal to the normal yield of the number of acres harvested in 1942 in excess of the farm acreage allotment shall be deemed to have been marketed in excess of the marketing quota for the farm and the penalty in respect thereof shall be paid and remitted by the producer.

§ 727.445 Payment of penalty. Penalties upon the marketing of tobacco shall become due at the time of the marketing and shall be paid by remitting the amount thereof to the applicable field or State office as shown in the Marketing Quota Instructions, Tobacco 622, not later than the end of the calendar week following the week in which the memorandum of sale was issued, or, in the event a memorandum is not issued, not later than four weeks after the date upon which the tobacco was sold. A draft, money order, or check, payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States may be used to pay any penalty, but any such draft, or check shall be received subject to payment at par.

§ 727.446 Application for return of penalty. Any producer of tobacco and any other person who bore the burden of the payment of any penalty collected may file an application for return of the amount of such penalty which is in excess of that amount equal to ten cents per pound upon the number of pounds marketed in excess of the farm marketing quota. Any application for return of any penalty shall be filed on form Tobacco 624, "Application for Return of Penalty."

An application for the return of penalty filed by any producer of tobacco on a farm on which the tobacco available for marketing is in excess of the farm marketing quota shall not be approved unless (1) the marketing of tobacco from the farm has been completed and (2) disposition of all unmarketed excess tobacco has been made under the supervision of the county committee (or its representative) and has been approved by the county committee.

Return of penalty collected upon marketings of tobacco from any farm on which the tobacco available for marketing is in excess of the farm marketing quota shall be made only upon the basis of tobacco produced on the farm and, if the county committee has good cause to believe that any of the unmarketed excess tobacco as reported for the farm by the farm operator was not actually produced thereon, the application for such farm shall not be approved with respect to that tobacco which the committee has good cause to believe was not produced on the farm. The county committee shall approve an Application for Return of Penalty only for that number of pounds of unmarketed excess tobacco which the committee determines is representative of the entire amount of tobacco available for marketing from the farm in the 1942–43 marketing year, taking into account the value of the unmarketed excess tobacco (which is disposed of) as appraised by the county committee (or its representative) and the value of tobacco marketed from the farm.

RECORDS AND REPORTS

§ 727.447 Warehouseman's records and reports—(a) Record of marketings. Each warehouseman shall keep such records as will enable him to furnish to the Secretary of Agriculture a report of the following information with respect to each sale or resale of tobacco made at his warehouse; (1) the name of the seller (and, in the case of a sale for a producer, the name of the operator of the farm on which the tobacco was produced), (2) the name of the purchaser, (3) the date of sale, (4) the number of pounds sold, (5) the sale price (6) the amount of any penalty and the amount of any deduction on account of penalty from the price paid the producer (or a dealer). All purchases and resales for the warehouse leaf account shall be so identified in the records and a separate account shall be maintained with respect to the amount of floor sweepings picked up and the disposition of such floor sweepings. The quantity of floor sweepings, including bundles, leaves and scrap, picked up by the warehouse after each sale shall be reported in the space provided on the Auction Warehouse Report (Tobacco 616). Any warehouseman who grades tobacco for farmers shall maintain a separate account showing the approximate amount of grading house scrap obtained from the tobacco graded from each farm. In the case of resales for dealers the name of the dealer making each resale shall be shown on the warehouse records so that the individual lots of tobacco sold by the dealer can be identified.

(b) Identification of sale on check register. The serial number of the memorandum of sale issued to identify each marketing of tobacco from the farm or the number of the warehouse bill(s) covering each such marketing shall be recorded on the check register or check stub for the check written with respect to such sale of tobacco.

(c) Memorandum of sale record and bill of nonwarehouse sale record. A record in the form of a valid memorandum of sale (or a memorandum of sale cleared without marketing card) shall be obtained by every warehouseman to cover each marketing of tobacco from a farm through the warehouse, and if a warehouseman buys tobacco directly from a farmer (other than at a warehouse auction sale as defined in these regulations) such warehouseman shall obtain a valid memorandum of sale to cover each such purchase of tobacco, together with a properly executed Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale (Tobacco 614). Any warehouseman who obtains possession of any grading house scrap in the course of grading tobacco from any farm shall obtain a memorandum of sale to cover the amount of such scrap tobacco from such farm.

(d) Suspended sale record. Any warehouse bills for which memoranda of sale have not been issued at the end of the sale day shall be presented to a field assistant who shall stamp such bills "suspended", write thereon the serial number of the suspended sale, and record the bills on the Register of Suspended Sales (Tobacco 612); provided that if a field assistant is not available, the warehouseman may stamp such bills "suspended" and deliver them to a field assistant as soon as one is available.

(e) Warehouse entries on dealers' records. Each warehouseman shall enter on each Dealer's Record (Tobacco 615) the total of purchases and resales made by such dealer during each sale day at the warehouse. If any tobacco resold by the dealer is tobacco bought by him from a crop produced prior to 1942 the entry on the Dealer's Record shall clearly show such fact.

(f) Daily report of warehouse business and report of penalties. Each warehouseman shall make reports on form Tobacco 616, Auction Warehouse Report, and on form Tobacco 617, Report of Penalties, showing the information required on the respective reports. Form Tobacco 616 shall be prepared for each sale day and all reports for the sale days occurring during any week shall be forwarded to the applicable field office at or before the end of the next following calendar week. Form Tobacco 617 shall be prepared for each week and the report for each week shall be forwarded, together with remittances of the penalties due, as shown thereon, to the applicable field office or State office not later than the end of the next following calendar week.

(g) Summary of warehouse accounts. Each warehouseman shall assist field assistants to prepare summaries of the warehouse account by making available all records kept and reports made by the warehouse as required by these regulations.

(h) Additional records and reports. In addition to the records and reports provided above, each warehouseman shall keep such additional records and make such additional reports to the Secretary of Agriculture as an authorized representative of the Secretary may find necessary in order to enforce these regulations.

§ 727.448 Dealer's records and reports. Each dealer, except as provided in § 727.449 below, shall keep the records and make the reports as provided by this section.

(a) Report of dealer's name, address and registration number. Each dealer shall properly execute and the field assistant shall detach and forward to the applicable field office the page "Receipt for Dealer's Record" contained in form Tobacco 615, "Dealer's Record" which is issued to the dealer.

(b) Record and report of purchases and resales. Each dealer shall keep a record and make reports on form Tobacco 615, "Dealer's Record", showing all purchases and resales of tobacco made by the dealer and, in the event of resale of tobacco bought from a crop produced prior to 1942, the fact that such tobacco was bought by him and carried over from a crop produced prior to 1942.

(c) Report of penalties. Each dealer shall make a report on form Tobacco 617 showing the information with respect to all purchases subject to penalty made by him during each calendar week. The penalties listed on each such report shall be remitted with the report.

(d) Memorandum of sale record and bill of nonwarehouse sale record. For each lot of tobacco purchased from a farmer each dealer shall obtain a record in the form of a valid memorandum of sale issued by a field assistant or by an authorized representative of a scrap tobacco receiving point in the case of scrap tobacco sold and delivered to such receiving point. No memorandum of sale shall be issued unless: (1) the farm operator or his authorized agent has signed the "Authorization" on the back of the memorandum and (2) unless a properly executed Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale (Tobacco 614) is presented covering such sale.

(e) Record and report of scrap tobacco. Each scrap tobacco receiving point which has been authorized to issue memoranda of sale on form Tobacco 625 shall keep a record and make reports on form Tobacco 613 (or form 41–Tob–63) "Record of Scrap Tobacco", showing all tobacco received. Such report shall be accompanied by Bills of Nonwarehouse Sale, form Tobacco 614, with respect to all tobacco covered by the report.

(f) Additional records. Each dealer shall keep such records, in addition to the foregoing, as may be necessary to enable him to furnish the following information with respect to each lot of tobacco purchased or sold by him: (1) the name of the seller (and in the case of a purchase from a producer, the name of the operator of the farm on which the tobacco was produced), (2) the name of the purchaser, (3) the date of the transaction, (4) the number of pounds and the gross sale price, and (5) in the event of resale of tobacco bought by him and carried over from a crop produced prior to 1942, the fact that such tobacco was so bought and carried over.

All reports shall be forwarded to the applicable field office as shown in the Marketing Quota Instructions, form Tobacco 622, not later than the end of the week following the calendar week covered by the reports.

§ 727.449 Dealers exempt from regular records and reports. Any dealer who does not purchase or otherwise acquire tobacco except at a warehouse sale and who does not resell, in the form in which tobacco ordinarily is sold by farmers, more than ten percent of the tobacco purchased by him, shall not be subject to the provisions of § 727.448 of these regulations; but each such dealer shall make such reports to the Secretary of Agriculture as an authorized representative of the Secretary may find necessary to enforce these regulations.

§ 727.450 Records and reports of truckers, redryers, etc. Every person engaged in the business of trucking tobacco for producers shall keep such records as will enable him to furnish the Secretary of Agriculture a report with respect to each lot of tobacco received by him showing the name and address of the farm operator, the date of the receipt of the tobacco, the number of pounds received and the place to which it was delivered. Every person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing or stemming tobacco for producers shall keep such records as will enable him to furnish the Secretary of Agriculture a report showing the information provided above for truckers and in addition the purpose for which the tobacco was received, the amount of advance made by him on the tobacco, and the disposition of the tobacco. Each such person shall make such reports to the Secretary of Agriculture as an authorized representative of the Secretary may find necessary to enforce these regulations.

§ 727.451 Separate records and reports from persons engaged in more than one business. Any person who is required to keep any record or make any report as a warehouseman, dealer, processor, or as a person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing, or stemming tobacco for producers, and who is engaged in more than one such business, shall keep such records as will enable him to make separate reports for each such business in which he is engaged, to the same extent for each such business as if he were engaged in no other business, except that a warehousman shall not be required to keep a record and make reports on form Tobacco 615, "Dealer's Record," if the transactions which would be recorded and reported on such forms are recorded on the records kept by the warehouse in its regular course of business and reported as required on form Tobacco 616.

§ 727.452 Failure to keep record or make report. Any warehouseman, processor, or common carrier of tobacco, or person engaged in the business of purchasing tobacco from producers, or person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing or stemming tobacco for producers, who fails to make any report or keep any record as required under these regulations, or who makes any false report or record, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not more than $500; and any tobacco warehouseman or dealer who fails to remedy such violation by making a complete and accurate report or keeping a complete and accurate record as required under these regulations within fifteen days after notice to him of such violation shall be subject to an additional fine of $100 for each ten thousand pounds of tobacco, or fraction thereof, bought or sold by him after the date of such violation: Provided, That such fine shall not exceed $5,000; and notice of such violation shall be served upon the tobacco warehouseman or dealer by mailing the same to him by registered mail or by posting the same at an established place of business operated by him, or both. Notice of any violation by a tobacco warehouseman or dealer shall be given by an authorized representative of the Secretary.

§ 727.453 Examination of records and reports. For the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made or record kept, or of obtaining information required to be furnished in any report, but not so furnished, any warehouseman, dealer, processor, common carrier or person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing, or stemming tobacco for producers shall make available for examination, upon written request by an authorized representative of the Secretary, such books, papers, records, accounts, correspondence, contracts, documents and memoranda as he has reason to believe are relevant and are within the control of such person.

§ 727.454 Length of time records and reports to be kept. Records required to be kept and copies of the reports required to be made by any person under these regulations for the 1942–43 marketing year shall be kept by him until June 30, 1944, and for such longer period of time as may be requested in writing by an authorized representative of the Secretary.

§ 727.455 Information confidential. All data reported to or acquired by the Secretary of Agriculture pursuant to the provisions of these regulations shall be kept confidential by all officers and employees of the Department of Agriculture and only such data so reported or acquired as the Secretary of Agriculture deems relevant shall be disclosed by them and then only in a suit or administrative hearing under Title III of the Act.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 9th day of July 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

PART 1171—ELEVATORS

[General Conservation Order L-89]

The fulfillment of the requirements of the War Program of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain materials, used in the production of elevators, for the War Program, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the War Program:

§ 1171.1 General Conservation Order L-89—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Elevator" means a hoisting and lowering mechanism equipped with a car or platform which moves in guides in a substantially vertical direction (except hydraulic elevators or elevators to be used aboard ship).

(3) "Operation" means the method of actuating the controller.

(4) "Control" means the system of regulation by which the starting, stopping, direction of motion, acceleration, speed, and retardation of an elevator are governed.

(5) "Rheostatic control" means a system in which control is accomplished primarily by varying resistance and/or reactance in the armature and/or field circuit of the hoisting motor.

(6) "Single speed alternating-current control" means a system of control for a single speed induction elevator motor which is arranged to run at one practically constant speed.

(7) "Manufacture" means the production or construction of an elevator, or the production of any parts, equipment or accessories to be attached to or incorporated in any elevator; or the assembly of any parts, equipment or accessories for the purpose of producing or constructing an elevator or any portion thereof; but does not include assembly or installation of the finished sections or portions of an elevator at the site of ultimate use of the elevator, or the production of parts, equipment or accessories by any person who is not engaged in the business of producing, constructing or installing elevators.

(8) "Restricted order" means any order (i) for an elevator equipped with other than single speed alternating current or direct current rheostatic control, or equipped with other than manually operated doors or gates; or (ii) for changing the method of operation or control of any elevator; or (iii) for parts, equipment or accessories (including hatchway or car doors, gates, cabs, car slings, and platforms) to be incorporated in or installed on any elevator.

(b) Restrictions on acceptance of orders for and manufacture and delivery of elevators. (1) No person shall hereafter accept any Restricted Order, or manufacture or deliver any elevator, parts, equipment or accessories in fulfillment of any Restricted Order, unless the Order is accompanied by an authorization by the Director of Industry Operations permitting the placing and acceptance of such Order, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c) (1) below.

(2) Regardless of the terms of any order, contract of sale or purchase, or other commitment, or of any preference rating certificate or blanket preference rating order, no person shall

(i) Commence the manufacture of, or deliver any elevator, parts, equipment or accessories in fulfillment of any Restricted Order heretofore received and now on the books but not yet in the process of manufacture, except pursuant to the authorization of the Director of Industry Operations provided for in paragraph (c) (1) below; or

(ii) Continue for more than thirty days from the date of this Order, the manufacture of any elevator, parts, equipment or accessories now in the process of manufacture in the fulfillment of any Restricted Order, except pursuant to the authorization of the Director of Industry Operations provided for in paragraph (c) (2) below.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph (b) delivery of an elevator or of elevator equipment or accessories shall be deemed to take place when the elevator, equipment, or accessories, or any part or portion thereof, are placed in the hands of a common or contract carrier or other means of transportation for shipment to the purchaser.

(c) Procedure for securing authorization for restricted orders. (1) The authorization from the Director of Industry Operations required by the provisions of paragraph (b) with respect to future Restricted Orders and Restricted Orders now on the books but not yet in the process of manufacture, may be obtained only by the purchaser, who may make application therefor to War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Branch, on Form PD-411 marked Ref. L-89. The Director of Industry Operations will grant the authorization only if he finds that the failure of the purchaser to receive the elevator, parts, equipment or accessories in question will result in serious detriment to the War Program.

(2) Applications for the authorization of the Director of Industry Operations required by the provisions of paragraph (b) with respect to Restricted Orders now in the process of manufacture, shall be made by the manufacturer as soon as possible after the issuance of this Order. The application shall be accompanied by a report on Form PD-562 showing the manufacturer's unfilled orders of all kinds (except for repair and maintenance) scheduled for delivery during the current and succeeding months, together with information showing the extent of completion of each such order. Such application will be granted by the Director of Industry Operations only if and to the extent that he finds that fabrication or assembly of materials for such order has been accomplished to a substantial degree, that such materials will have no substantial value for any other use, except scrap, and that fulfillment of the order will not be detrimental to the promotion of the War Program.

(d) Restrictions of use of materials. No non-ferrous metals, or stainless or alloy steel may be used in the construction of the car enclosure, hoistway doors, car or landing thresholds, face plates of operating or signal fixtures, or for other than functional parts of the lighting fixtures. No cork or cork products, or rubber tile (reclaimed or otherwise) may be installed on the platform, or as a wainscot in the elevator car.

(e) 90-day exemption of Army, Navy and Maritime Commission. Until 90 days after the date of issuance of this order, the provisions of this order shall not apply to orders for any elevators or equipment or accessories by, and for the use of, the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration to the extent that any applicable specifications of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration require construction, design or materials not in accordance with the provisions of this order. As used in this paragraph, the terms "Army", "Navy", "Maritime Commission" and "War Shipping Administration" shall not include any privately operated plant or shipyard, financed by or controlled by any of those organizations, or operated on a cost-plus-fixed-fee basis.

(f) Non-applicability to maintenance and repair. The prohibitions and restrictions of paragraph (b) hereof shall not apply to the manufacture of repair or maintenance parts; or to deliveries (1) to fill any order of less than $500.00 for parts to be used for repair or maintenance of a single elevator, or (2) to fill any order for $500.00 or more for repair or maintenance parts for a single elevator when and only when there has been an actual breakdown or suspension of the operation of the elevator because of the necessity of repair or maintenance, and the essential repair or maintenance parts therefor are not otherwise available. As used in this paragraph "maintenance" shall mean the upkeep of an elevator or elevator structure in sound working condition; and "repair" shall mean the restoration, without change of design, of any portion of an elevator or elevator structure to sound working condition, when such portion has been rendered inoperative or unsafe or unfit for service by wear and tear, damage, destruction or failure of parts, or other similar causes.

(g) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944) as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(2) Records and reports. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the Division of Industry Operations, War Production Board, such reports and questionnaires as said Division shall from time to time request.

Each manufacturer shall file, not later than the 10th day of each month following the month of issuance of this order, a report on Form PD-562 showing his elevator and equipment deliveries (except for repair or maintenance) during the preceding month, and his unfilled orders (except orders for repair or maintenance) scheduled for delivery during the current and succeeding months.

(3) Other limitation orders. Nothing in this order shall be construed to permit any person to sell, deliver, or otherwise transfer, or any manufacturer to purchase, receive delivery of, or otherwise acquire any raw materials, semi-processed parts, or finished products in contravention of the terms of any L or M Order, or amendments or supplements thereto, or other regulation of the War Production Board effective at the date of any such sale, delivery, or other transfer. Where the limitations imposed by any other L or M Order are applicable to the subject matter of this order, the most restrictive limitation shall apply, unless otherwise specifically provided herein.

(4) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order, or who wilfully furnishes false information to the Director of Industry Operations in connection with this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director of Industry Operations.

(5) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the Director of Industry Operations setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(6) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this Order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Branch, Washington, D. PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Amendment 10 to General Maximum Price Regulation [1]]

APPLICATIONS FOR ADJUSTMENT

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Section 1499.18 is amended to read as set forth below:

§ 1499.18 Applications for Adjustment. (a) The Office of Price Administration, or any duly authorized officer thereof, may by order adjust the maximum price established under this General Maximum Price Regulation for any seller at retail in any case in which such seller shows:

(1) That such maximum price is abnormally low in relation to the maximum prices of the same or similar commodities established for other sellers at retail; and

(2) That this abnormality subjects him to substantial hardship.

Applications for adjustment under this paragraph (a) shall be filed in accordance with Temporary Procedural Regulation No. 2.[2]

(b) The Office of Price Administration, or any duly authorized officer thereof, may by order adjust the maximum price established under this General Maximum Price Regulation for any seller other than a seller at retail in any case in which such seller shows:

(1) That such maximum price causes him substantial hardship and is abnormally low in relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of the same or similar commodities; and

(2) That establishing for him a maximum price, bearing a normal relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of the same or similar commodities, will not cause or threaten to cause an increase in the level of retail prices.

Applications for adjustment under this paragraph (b) shall be filed in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1.[3]

(c) Any person seeking relief, for which no provision is made in the foregoing paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, from a maximum price established under this General Maximum Price Regulation may present the special circumstances of his case in an application for an order of adjustment. Such an application shall be filed in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1 and shall set forth the facts relating to the hardship to which such maximum price subjects the applicant together with a statement of the reasons why he believes that the granting of relief in his case and in all like cases will not defeat or impair the policy of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and of this General Maximum Price Regulation to eliminate the danger of inflation.

This section shall apply to all maximum price regulations which have incorporated § 1499.18 in their provisions.

§ 1499.23a Effective dates of amendments. • • •

(j) Amendment No. 10 (§ 1499.18) to General Maximum Price Regulation shall become effective July 14, 1942.

PART 1389—APPAREL

[Maximum Price Regulation 178]

WOMEN'S FUR GARMENTS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for sales of women's fur garments. Such action is required as the General Maximum Price Regulation [1] does not provide a satisfactory method for the pricing of women's fur garments based on deliveries made in March 1942. So far as practical, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with members of the industry which will be affected by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 178.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 178 are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Act.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 178 has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1 [2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 178 is hereby issued.

(a) As to a tax in effect during the applicable base period. (1) If the seller paid such tax, or if the tax was paid by any prior vendor, irrespective of whether the amount thereof was separately stated and collected from the seller, but the seller did not customarily state and collect separately from the purchase price during the applicable base period the amount of the tax paid by him or tax reimbursement collected from him by his vendor, the seller may not collect such amount in addition to the maximum price, and in such case shall include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 178.

§ 1389.157 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 178 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

Bituminous Coal Division.

HARRY NICKLOW

CEASE AND DESIST ORDER, ETC.

Order approving and adopting the proposed findings of fact, proposed conclusions of law of the Examiner, and cease and desist order.

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint duly filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on February 10, 1942, by District Board No. 1. The complaint alleged that code member had wilfully violated the Bituminous Coal Code or the rules and regulations thereunder, and prayed that the Division either cancel and revoke the code membership, or, in its discretion, direct the code member to cease and desist from violation of the Code and rules and regulations thereunder.

A hearing was held on March 25, 1942, before Joseph A. Huston, a duly designated Examiner of the Division at the hearing room thereof at Altoona, Pennsylvania. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. District Board 1 appeared. Code member appeared without counsel.

The Examiner made and entered his Report, Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusion of Law and Recommendation in this matter, dated May 28, 1942, in which he found that code member wilfully violated the provisions of section 4 II (e) of the Act by selling during the period of October 1, 1940, to April 1, 1941, 146 tons of mine run coal produced at the Nicklow Mine, Mine Index No. 1844, located in Somerset County, Pennsylvania, at a price of $1.75 per ton, whereas the effective minimum price for that particular coal was $2.10 per ton f. o. b. the mine. He recommended that an order be entered cancelling and revoking the code membership of said Harry Nicklow, and providing that prior to the reinstatement to membership in the Code, said Harry Nicklow shall pay to the United States a tax in the sum of $119.58 in accordance with the provisions of section 5 (c) of the Act.

An opportunity was afforded to all parties to file exceptions and supporting briefs to the said Examiner's Report and no such exceptions or supporting briefs have been filed.

The undersigned has considered the record in this matter and has determined that the proposed findings of fact and proposed conclusion of law of the Examiner should be approved and adopted as his findings of fact and conclusion of law. The undersigned feels, however, that the effectuation of the purposes of the Act will be accomplished in this matter by the entry of a cease and desist order, and hence does not adopt the recommendation of the Examiner that an order be entered revoking and cancelling the code membership of Harry Nicklow.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the proposed findings of fact and proposed conclusion of law of the Examiner be, and the same hereby are approved and adopted as the findings of fact and conclusion of law of the undersigned.

It is further ordered, That the code member, Harry Nicklow, his representatives, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors or assigns, cease and desist and they are hereby permanently enjoined and restrained from selling or offering to sell coal below the effective minimum price therefor, or from otherwise violating the Bituminous Coal Act, the Code, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for Truck Shipments, the Marketing Rules and Regulations, and all appropriate orders of the Division.

It is further ordered, That the Division may, upon failure of code member herein to comply with this order, forthwith apply to the Circuit Court of Appeals of the United States within any circuit wherein the code member resides or carries on business for the enforcement hereof or take any other appropriate action.

Dated: July 8, 1942.

[Docket No. 1791-FD]

A. C. (CLYDE) ROUNSAVILL

CEASE AND DESIST ORDER, ETC.

Order approving and adopting proposed findings of fact, proposed conclusions of law and recommendation of the Examiner, and order to cease and desist.

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint filed on July 25, 1941 by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 13 with the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. The complaint alleges that A. C. (Clyde) Rounsavill, a code member in District No. 13, wilfully violated the Bituminous Coal Code and the rules and regulations thereunder, and prays that the Division either cancel and revoke the code membership of A. C. (Clyde) Rounsavill, or, in its discretion, direct him to cease and desist from violations of the Code and rules and regulations thereunder. After due notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on February 18, 1942, before Scott A. Dahlquist, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Chattanooga, Tennessee.[1] All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. Appearances were entered by complainant and by code member.

Examiner Dahlquist submitted, on June 4, 1942, his Report, Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law and Recommendation. The Examiner found that acceptance of the Bituminous Coal Code by A. C. (Clyde) Rounsavill, Jasper, Tennessee, was received by the Bituminous Coal Division on July 8, 1940. At that time code member was operating the Rounsavill Mine, Mine Index No. 895. This mine, which was assigned minimum prices for truck coal in Docket No. A-205 (November 25, 1940), was located on one side of Big Ridge, Marion County, Tennessee, on a strip of ground rented by code member.

The Examiner stated that this strip of ground was about 300 feet in width and extended a half mile through the hill to the other side of Big Ridge. Around March 1941 code member ran into a squeeze; and at the end of that month, or during the early part of April 1941, according to Examiner Dahlquist, code member began prospecting on the other side of the hill in order indirectly to get around, rather than drive directly through the squeeze pinching the original entry. The Examiner found that code member drove the second entry on the same 300 foot strip of ground and that, without pulling up the tracks at the first opening but no longer mining there, code member worked the new opening from about May 14, 1941, through August 1, 1941. The utmost depth to which code member drove the new mine was 35 feet; the coal so produced was soft and stained, described by Rounsavill as "outcrop coal."

The Examiner found that during the month of May 1941, as charged by complainant, Rounsavill sold about 174.06 tons of mine run coal produced at the second opening to H. A. Griffith, a registered distributor, Registration No. 3730. It was further found by the Examiner that code member did not report to the Division the termination or suspension of operations on the other side of Big Ridge, nor the commencement of operations at the new opening.

Code member asserted that the driving of the second entry did not constitute the opening of a new mine but was simply a continuation or part of his operation of Mine Index No. 895. In reply to this contention, Examiner Dahlquist referred to the fact that there was no evidence in the record to show that the coal which code member had been obtaining from the second opening was of the same quality and texture as that obtained from the original mine. The Examiner furthermore was of the opinion that the "distinct independence of the two mines" was confirmed by the establishment by the Division in October 1941 of separate price classifications and minimum prices for the second opening, which was designated Mine Index No. 1264.

Examiner Dahlquist pointed out that code member's position was not strengthened by his claim that the second opening was still part of the original mine. Run of mine coal produced at Mine Index No. 895 bore a minimum price of $2.35 per ton f. o. b. the mine, as provided in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 13 for Truck Shipments. To this, as required by Price Instruction No. 7, was to be added to the actual cost of transportation in the event that the producer provided transportation of the coal to the consumer. The Examiner found that Rounsavill had sold the May output of the second mine to H. A. Griffith at a price of $2.10 per ton as delivered by code member to a purchaser from Griffith and that code member allowed Griffith a distributor's discount of 10 cents per ton. Code member thus had been selling coal far below the minimum price established for Mine Index No. 895 even if such price was applicable to coal produced at Mine Index No. 1264. The Examiner said "I am not persuaded that code member establishes his innocence of the charge of selling unpriced coal by asserting instead that he is guilty of selling coal below the established minimum."

The Examiner concluded that code member had violated the Order in General Docket No. 19 and Order No. 288 by selling, during May 1941, 174.06 tons of mine run coal produced at a mine for which price classifications and minimum prices had not yet been established, and by failing to report to the Division the change in operations at his Rounsavill Mine No. 1 that occurred in May 1941. The Examiner recommended that an order be entered requiring code member to cease and desist from further violations of the Code and rules and regulations thereunder.

An opportunity was offered to all parties to file exceptions to the Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law and Recommendation of the Examiner, and supporting briefs. No exceptions or supporting briefs have been filed.

The undersigned has determined that the proposed findings of fact and proposed conclusions of law of the Examiner in this matter should be approved and adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the undersigned.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the said proposed findings of fact and proposed conclusions of law of the Examiner be, and they hereby are, approved and adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the undersigned.

[1] A petition to intervene, dated September 11, 1941, filed by the Truck Coal Mines Association of Chattanooga, Tennessee, was denied by the Division on October 6, 1941, since petitioner was not a proper party intervener.

It is further ordered, That A. C. (Clyde) Rounsavill, code member, his representatives, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, successors or assigns, and all other persons acting or claiming to act in his behalf, cease and desist and they are hereby enjoined and restrained from violations of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the Bituminous Coal Code and rules and regulations made thereunder and, in particular, the Order in General Docket No. 19 and Order No. 288.

It is further ordered, That upon failure or neglect of code member to comply with this Order, the Division may forthwith apply to the Circuit Court of Appeals of the United States where said code member resides or carries on business for the enforcement thereof, or may take any other appropriate action.

Dated: July 8, 1942.

MILLER, HENRY AND HENRY

CEASE AND DESIST ORDER, ETC.

Order approving and adopting the proposed findings of fact, proposed conclusions of law of the Examiner, and cease and desist order.

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on February 10, 1942, by District Board No. 1. The complaint alleged that code member had wilfully violated the Bituminous Coal Code or the rules and regulations thereunder, and prayed that the Division either cancel and revoke the code membership, or, in its discretion, direct the code member to cease and desist from violation of the Code and rules and regulations thereunder.

A hearing was held in this matter on March 26, 1942 before Joseph A. Huston, a duly designated Examiner of the Division at the hearing room thereof at Altoona, Pennsylvania. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. District Board 1 appeared and code member appeared without counsel.

The Examiner made and entered his Report, Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusion of Law and Recommendation in this matter, dated May 29, 1942, and found that code member violated Section 4 II (e) of the Act by selling during the period of November 28, 1940 to July 31, 1941, 648 tons of run of mine coal produced at the code member's mine, Mine Index No. 2618, located in Somerset County, Pennsylvania, in District No. 1, at a price of $1.75 per ton, whereas the effective minimum price for said coal was $2.25 per ton f. o. b. the mine. The Examiner recommended that an order be entered cancelling and revoking the code membership of Earl Miller, Clyde Henry and Harry Henry individually and as co-partners doing business under the name and style of Miller, Henry and Henry, and providing that prior to any reinstatement to membership in the Code of this code member there shall be paid to the United States a tax in the sum of $568.62 in accordance with the provision of section 5 (c) of the Act.

An opportunity was afforded to all parties to file exceptions and supporting briefs to the said Examiner's Report and no such exceptions or supporting briefs have been filed.

The undersigned has considered the records in this matter and has determined that the proposed findings of fact and proposed conclusion of law of the Examiner should be approved and adopted as his findings of fact and conclusion of law. The undersigned feels, however, that the purposes of the Act will be served by the entry in this matter of a cease and desist order, and hence does not adopt the recommendation of the Examiner that an order be entered revoking and cancelling the code membership of the code members here involved.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the proposed findings of fact and proposed conclusion of law of the Examiner be, and the same hereby are approved and adopted as the findings of fact and conclusion of law of the undersigned; and

It is further ordered, That Earl Miller, Clyde Henry and Harry Henry individually and as co-partners doing business under the name and style of Miller, Henry and Henry, code member, its representatives, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors or assigns, cease and desist and hereby are permanently enjoined and restrained from selling or offering to sell coal below the effective minimum price therefor, or from otherwise violating the Bituminous Coal Act, the Code, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 For Truck Shipments, the Marketing Rules and Regulations, and all appropriate orders of the Division.

It is further ordered, That the Division may, upon failure of the code members herein to comply with this order, forthwith apply to the Circuit Court of Appeals of the United States within any circuit where they reside or carry on business for the enforcement hereof or take any other appropriate action.

[Docket No. A-341]

WHEELING VALLEY COAL CORPORATION, ET AL.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER REOPENING CAUSE

In the matter of the petition of Wheeling Valley Corporation, Cove Hill Coal Company, and the Buffalo Coal and Coke Company, code members in District No. 6, for a reduction in the effective minimum prices for ex-river shipments into market areas 11, 12 and 13, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation, the Cove Hill Coal Company, and Buffalo Coal and Coke Company, code member producers in District 6, requesting reductions in the effective minimum prices for coals shipped ex-river into Market Areas 11, 12, and 13. District Boards 1, 2, 4 and 6 filed petitions of intervention. The Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel filed a notice of appearance.

Pursuant to Orders of the Director and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held before Charles O. Fowler, a duly designated Examiner of the Division at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine winesses and otherwise be heard. The preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner was waived.

On September 29, 1941, the Director issued his Findings of Facts, Conclusions of Law and Opinion and an Order denying the prayers for relief contained in the petition.

On November 27, 1941, petitioners filed a petition with the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit asking that the Director's Order of September 29, 1941 be reviewed and that upon review it be reversed.

Prior to the cause being argued upon the petition for review, petitioners filed a motion for leave to apply to the Division to reopen the cause and for other relief and stating that if the cause were reopened before the Division, the petitioners would take steps to dismiss their appeal. A memorandum in opposition to the unrestricted approval of this motion was filed by District Boards 2, 3, and 4. The restricted approval contended for by these district boards was opposed by the Division at the argument before the court on June 15, 1942. On June 16, 1942, the court issued an order granting the motion of petitioners without restriction and authorizing petitioners to apply to the Division to reopen the cause.

On June 24, 1942, petitioners filed a motion requesting that the cause be reopened and permission be granted petitioners to amend their petition of November 8, 1940 so as to include therein an additional and alternative request for relief.

Upon consideration of the motion, I find and conclude that the motion to reopen the cause and amend the petition of November 8, 1940, should be granted.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the motion to reopen the cause in Docket No. A-341 be, and it is hereby, granted and leave is granted petitioner to file an amended petition.

Dated: July 8, 1942.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.

Division of Public Contracts.

Prevailing Minimum Wages in the Knitting, Knitwear, and Woven Underwear Industry

Notice of Opportunity to Show Cause

Whereas, the Secretary of Labor on February 3, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of section 1 (b) of the Act of June 30, 1936, (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. Supp. III, sec. 35), otherwise known as the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act, determined the prevailing minimum wage for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government subject to said Act in the Knitted and Men's Woven Underwear and Commercial Knitting Industry to be 40 cents per hour or $16.00 per week of 40 hours arrived at either upon a time or piece rate basis; and

Whereas, it appears desirable to extend the aforementioned determination to certain related products such as knitted outerwear, and to change the title of the determination to conform to the new definition; and

Whereas, it appears that substantially every article included in the Knitting, Knitwear, and Woven Underwear Industry, as defined herein, is covered by a wage order of the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division for one of the following industries or divisions of industries:

1. Sportswear and Other Odd Outerwear Division of the Apparel Industry,
2. Cloaks, Suits, and Separate Skirts Division of the Apparel Industry,
3. Caps and Cloth Hats Division of the Apparel Industry,
4. Belts Division of the Apparel Industry,
5. Knitted Outerwear Industry,
6. Women's Apparel Industry,
7. Single Pants, Shirts, and Allied Garments Industry,
8. Woolen Industry,
9. Knitted and Men's Woven Underwear and Commercial Knitting Industry,
10. Miscellaneous Apparel Industry; and

Whereas, all of the aforementioned wage orders established 40 cents per hour as the minimum wage required to be paid to those employees in said industries who are subject to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938; and

Whereas, it appears that substantially all employees subject to the proposed wage determination for the Knitting, Knitwear, and Woven Underwear Industry are engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce, as that term is defined in the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, and that, consequently, said wage orders have the effect of establishing a prevailing minimum wage of not less than 40 cents per hour in the Knitting, Knitwear, and Woven Underwear Industry as defined herein;

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given to all interested parties of the opportunity to show cause, on or before July 29, 1942, why the Secretary of Labor should not make a determination pursuant to the provisions of section 1 (b) of the Act of June 30, 1936, Pub. no. 846, 74th Congress (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. Supp. III, sec. 35), entitled "An Act to provide conditions for the purchase of supplies and the making of contracts by the United States, and for other purposes," otherwise known as the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act, that the prevailing minimum wage for persons employed in the Knitting, Knitwear, and Woven Underwear Industry is 40 cents per hour or $16.00 per week of 40 hours, provided that learners and handicapped workers may be employed in accordance with the applicable regulations under the Fair Labor Standards Act, this determination to be effective and the minimum wage thereby established to apply to all contracts awarded by agencies of the United States on and after the date specified therein, subject to the provisions of the aforementioned Act of June 30, 1936, contemplating any of the following:

(a) The manufacturing, dyeing, or other finishing of any knitted fabric made from any yarn or mixture of yarns, and the manufacturing of knitted towels and cloths;

(b) The knitting from yarn or manufacturing from purchased knitted fabric of all knitted garments, sections of garments, or garment accessories, except gloves, mittens, hosiery, and men's and boys' suits, overcoats, topcoats, tailored uniforms and men's summer wash suits;

(c) The manufacturing of underwear from any woven fabric.

All objections, protests, or any statements in opposition to or in support of the proposed amendments should be addressed to the Administrator, Division of Public Contracts, Department of Labor, Washington, D. C., and should be filed with the Administrator not later than July 29, 1942. An original and four copies should be filed.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.

Condition of the Apportionment at Close of Business Tuesday, June 30, 1942

Important. The apportioned classified Civil Service includes central offices physically located in Washington, D. C., or elsewhere. Positions in local post offices, customs districts and other field services outside of the District of Columbia which are subject to the Civil Service Act are filled almost wholly by persons who are local residents of the general community in which the vacancies exist. It should be noted and understood that so long as a person occupies, by original appointment, a position in the apportioned service, the charge for his appointment continues to run against his state of original residence. Certifications of eligibles are first made from states which are in arrears.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

DOUBLE AND TRIPLE LOADING OF CARLOAD SHIPMENTS IN SINGLE CARS

NOTICE OF CONFERENCE

JULY 8, 1942.

Various parties have brought to the attention of the Commission the fact that no general tariff or tariffs specifying the services and charges therefor to govern the handling of two or more carload shipments in one car have been filed. Among those who have corresponded with the Commission on the matter are the Shippers' Conference of Greater New York, the Rubber Manufacturers Association, Inc., the Commerce and Industry Association of New York, Inc., the Merchants Association of New York, and St. Joseph Lead Company. The subject has been a matter of correspondence with officials of the Association of American Railroads, but the Commission has not been definitely advised of the arrangements that have been made for double and triple loading of equipment, and uncertainty exists as to the extent that such arrangements are available, the method of handling such cars, and the charges therefor. It appears that in some instances the charges assessed are not in accordance with the applicable tariffs, because the latter were designed for the handling of single cars, and it is not possible in all cases to observe the provisions of such tariffs when two or more shipments are loaded in the same car, particularly if different shippers and different consignees are involved. It has been suggested that a national tariff should be filed covering the entire situation.

In order to develop the situation and determine what, if anything, the Commission should do in the premises, a conference will be held between Division 2 and its staff and carriers and any interested shippers, at the office of the Commission, Washington, on Friday, July 17, 1942, at 10 A. M. The Commission will appreciate the courtesy of being given advance notice of intention to attend the conference.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File Nos. 70–326, 59–22]

NORTH AMERICAN GAS AND ELECTRIC CO., ET AL.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER TO RECONVENE HEARING AND TO CONSIDER AMENDMENT

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 7th day of July, A. D. 1942.

In the Matter of North American Gas and Electric Company, Washington Gas and Electric Company, and Southern Utah Power Company, Applicants;

North American Gas and Electric Company, Washington Gas and Electric Company, Nathan A. Smyth and Leo Loeb, Trustees of the Estate of Washington Gas and Electric Company, Southern Utah Power Company, Dominion Electric Power, Limited, Oregon Gas and Electric Company, Columbia Electric Development Company, Dominion Electric Power Company, Colonial Ice Company, Loeb & Eames, Inc., Pleasant Hill Gas Company, Respondents.

North American Gas and Electric Company, Washington Gas and Electric Company and Southern Utah Power Company having filed an application and amendments thereto, pursuant to sections 7, 10 and 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, concerning a plan for simplification of the capital structure of the said Washington Gas and Electric Company and the acquisition of certain utility properties by the said Washington Gas and Electric Company, which plan provided for the surrender by North American Gas and Electric Company of the common stock owned by it in said Washington Gas and Electric Company; and

The Commission having thereupon instituted a proceeding against the North American Gas and Electric Company holding company system pursuant to sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) of the Act; and the above matters having been more particularly described in a Notice of and Order for Hearing entered on June 6, 1941 herein, which among other things consolidated these matters for purposes of hearing; and hearings on such matters having been held on July 7, 1941 and subsequent dates, and said hearings having been continued on August 21, 1941, subject to the call of the trial examiner; and

It appearing that on September 29, 1941 said Washington Gas and Electric Company filed a Petition for Reorganization under the provisions of Chapter I of the Bankruptcy Act in the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York pursuant to which Nathan A. Smyth and Leo Loeb were appointed Trustees of the Estate of the Debtor therein on October 10, 1941; and

North American Gas and Electric Company having filed on January 22, 1942 Amendment No. 15 to the aforesaid application wherein the said applicant proposes that the Commission:

1. Declare the common stock of Washington Gas and Electric Company to be worthless and without value whatsoever,

2. Order North American Gas and Electric Company to surrender said stock to the Trustees in Bankruptcy of Washington Gas and Electric Company without consideration therefor, and

3. Declare by order that North American Gas and Electric Company has ceased to be a holding company pursuant to the provisions of section 5 (d) of the Act.

The Commission having re-examined the corporate structure of North American Gas and Electric Company and its system, and having examined the exhibits A, B, C, D, E and F attached hereto, particularly in the light of the events above described which have occurred subsequent to the hearings held herein; and

It appearing to the Commission on the basis of said examination that there is evidence tending to show that:

1. North American Gas and Electric Company has lost through foreclosure or surrender its principal investments which were pledged as collateral for bank loans outstanding at the time of its reorganization in 1937 pursuant to section 77B of the Bankruptcy Act (2 S. E. C., 207).

2. The companies whose securities are presently listed as investments in subsidiaries or other companies by North American Gas and Electric Company are engaged in business as follows:

(a) Washington Gas and Electric Company, a registered holding company and public utility company is presently being reorganized under the provisions of Chapter X of the Bankruptcy Act in the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York;

(b) Southern Utah Power Company, a public utility company, is a direct subsidiary of Washington Gas and Electric Company, and indirectly a subsidiary of North American Gas and Electric through the ownership of the common stock of Washington Gas and Electric Company;

(c) Loeb & Eames, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of North American Gas and Electric Company, is a firm engaged in furnishing consulting, engineering and management service;

(d) Colonial Ice Company is engaged in the ice, fuel and cold storage business, and its total capitalization consists of 15,000 shares of common stock outstanding of which North American Gas and Electric Company owns 28.33%;

(e) Long Bell Lumber Company is engaged in production and manufacture of lumber and wood products and has approximately 197,683 shares of common stock outstanding, of which North American Gas and Electric Company owns .5%.

3. North American Gas and Electric Company is shortly about to lose its investment in Washington Gas and Electric Company by reason of pending proceeding under Chapter I of the Federal Bankruptcy Act against Washington Gas and Electric Company.

4. Its remaining assets are such that the continued existence of North American Gas and Electric Company as a holding company appears to be unwarranted.

5. The above described plan of reorganization filed pursuant to sections 7, 10, and 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 appears to have been rendered moot by the events happening subsequent to the hearings previously held herein, particularly with respect to Washington Gas and Electric Company.

6. The capital structure and the financial condition of North American Gas and Electric Company is such that it is unable to render financial assistance to its subsidiaries and cannot otherwise perform any of the functions for which it was originally organized.

7. The protection of investors in the North American Gas and Electric Company holding company system requires that said company be ordered to liquidate and dissolve in order to comply with section 11 (b) of the Act, and that its assets or the proceeds from the sale or other disposition thereof be distributed to the holders of securities of North American Gas and Electric Company who may be found to be entitled to participate in such distribution, pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Act.

8. The holders of the common stock of North American Gas and Electric Company have no equity in the assets of such company either on an asset or earnings basis and it appears inequitable for the holders of the common stock to control the management and affairs of the company.

It therefore appearing appropriate to the Commission that the hearings herein should be reconvened for the purpose of considering the above described amendment filed by North American Gas and Electric Company and the allegations as set forth above and to consider what other action may be appropriate to be ordered by the Commission under section 11 (b) of the Act in view of the changes which have occurred within the holding company system subsequent to the hearings previously held;

It is ordered, That the hearings be reconvened at the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, at 10:00 A. M., E. W. T., on the 3d day of August 1942, at which time said North American Gas and Electric Company shall be given an opportunity to be heard as to the proposals set forth in Amendment No. 15;

It is further ordered, That at such hearing, without limiting the issues to be considered herein, particular attention will be given to the following matters:

1. Whether the application for a plan of reorganization pursuant to sections 7, 10 and 11 (e) of the Act should be dismissed on the ground that such plan is moot.

2. Whether, in the event that the Commission deems it appropriate to issue an order pursuant to section 5 (d) of the Act, such order should be subject to terms and conditions for protection of investors in the securities of North American Gas and Electric Company, and what terms and conditions would be appropriate under such circumstances.

3. Whether an order should be entered pursuant to section 11 (b) of the Act requiring the immediate liquidation and dissolution of said North American Gas and Electric Company.

4. Whether the book value of the assets of North American Gas and Electric Company as shown by the balance sheet of December 31, 1941 fairly reflect the liquidating values of such assets.

5. Whether the assets of North American Gas and Electric Company should be sold, exchanged or otherwise disposed of, and the proceeds therefrom distributed to the bondholders.

It is further ordered, That Willis E. Monty, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all the powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice; and

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of reconvening the hearing aforesaid by mailing a copy of this order, by registered mail, to North American Gas and Electric Company, Nathan A. Smyth and Leo Loeb, Trustees of the Estate of Washington Gas and Electric Company, and all other respondents herein, not less than 15 days prior to the date hereinbefore fixed as the date of reconvening the hearing; and that notice of reconvening of said hearing is hereby given to all security holders of North American Gas and Electric Company by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER; and

It is further ordered, That North American Gas and Electric Company give notice hereof to each holder of record of income debentures and shares of common stock of North American Gas and Electric Company by mailing to each of said persons a copy of this notice at their last known place of address at least 10 days prior to the date of this hearing; and

It is further ordered, That any person proposing to intervene in these proceedings who has not heretofore done so shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before the 29th day of July, 1942, his application therefor as provided by Rule XVII of the Rules of Practice; and

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and is hereby reserved to separate, either for hearing, in whole or in part, or for disposition, in whole or in part, the proceedings herein under sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) and the application for approval of said plan filed under sections 7, 10 and 11 (e).

By the Commission.

[General Limitation Order L–112]

The fulfillment of the requirements of the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain critical materials for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 1210.1 General Limitation Order L–112—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Industrial power truck" means any self-power-propelled industrial truck or wheel tractor designed primarily for handling material (either by carrying or towing) on floors or paved surfaces in and around industrial plants, warehouses, docks, airports or depots. The term shall not include automotive tractors, trucks, or wheeltype industrial tractors designed for use on tax-built highways, or in such operations as construction, earth-moving, mining, logging, industrial yard work, or petroleum development.

(3) "Manufacturer" means any person who manufactures or assembles industrial power trucks.

(4) "Parts producer" means any person, other than a manufacturer, who manufactures parts to be incorporated in industrial power trucks.

(5) "Standard model" as applied to a manufacturer, means one model only of each type and capacity of industrial power truck listed in List A attached hereto, described in such manufacturer's catalogue or bulletin on the date of issuance of this order.

(6) "Approved standard model" means a standard model listed hereafter and from time to time by supplementary order or orders, as provided in paragraph (d) (2).

(b) Restriction on placing of orders and deliveries. No manufacturer shall hereafter accept any order for an industrial power truck except an order rated A–9 or better on Preference Rating Certificate PD–1A or PD–3A. No manufacturer shall deliver, and no person shall accept delivery of, any industrial power truck except to fill an order (1) placed prior to the date of issuance of this order, rated A–1–K or better, or (2) placed on or after the date of issuance of this order, rated A–9 or better on PD–1A or PD–3A: Provided, however, That the terms of this order shall not apply to any industrial power truck placed in the hands of a common or contract carrier, before the date of this order, for shipment to a purchaser.

(c) Conservation of material—(1) Restrictions upon use of copper. Parts producers and manufacturers shall be governed by the provisions of paragraph (b) of Limitation Order L–106, (§ 933.9) as amended, in their use of copper products or copper base alloy products (as defined in that order) in the production of parts for industrial power trucks.

(2) No manufacturer shall begin the manufacture of any industrial power truck if such truck contains any of the following materials, or accept delivery of any of the following materials for use in the manufacture of any industrial power truck:

(i) Rubber in any form, except in tires, storage batteries, radiator hose or wire or cable insulation.

(ii) Protective plating in any form, except when necessary to the operation of functional parts.

(iii) Steel plate, where substitution of a less critical material is practicable.

(iv) Lead for counter weights, except that reclaimed lead may be used when required by space limitations.

(v) Steel battery trays, where steel battery boxes are provided.

Provided, however, That the restrictions of this subparagraph (2) shall not apply to parts in the manufacturer's stock which, as of the date of issue of this order, were completed, or processed to the point where other use is impracticable: And provided further, That the restrictions of this subparagraph (2) shall not apply to the manufacture or delivery of repair and maintenance parts.

(3) Other regulations. Nothing in this paragraph (c) shall be construed to permit any manufacturer to sell, deliver or otherwise transfer, or any person to purchase, receive delivery of, or otherwise acquire any raw materials, semi-processed parts or finished parts or products in contravention of the terms of any regulation or order of the War Production Board.

(d) Standardization of models. (1) No manufacturer shall hereafter begin the manufacture of any industrial power truck which is not a standard model. The design and structure of any standard model shall be only as specified or described in such manufacturer's catalogue or bulletin; except that electric fork trucks with capacities from 2,000 pounds to 6,000 pounds may be built in both center and end control types; and that alterations may be made in counter weights, die pullers (power winch), height of lift, voltage, battery capacity, explosion or fire prevention features, and the length or width or type of fork or ram: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall be construed to prevent any change required by the limitations of paragraphs (c) (1) and (c) (2) hereof, or any change which results in further conservation of critical materials.

(2) On and after August 15, 1942, no manufacturer shall begin the manufacture of any standard model which is not an approved standard model. Approved standard models for each manufacturer shall be only those industrial power trucks listed hereafter and from time to time by order or orders supplementary to this order. The provisions of subparagraph (d) (1) hereof relative to changes in design and structure shall be applicable to approved standard models.

(3) On or before August 31, 1942 and on or before the 15th day of each month thereafter, each manufacturer shall submit to the Director of Industry Operations, on Form PD–385, his proposed production schedule for the third month after the month in which such Form PD–385 is filed. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon approve such production schedule or may make modifications therein. Unless authorized by the Director of Industry Operations, no manufacturer shall alter such production schedule after approval by the Director of Industry Operations.

(e) Ninety-day exemption of Army, Navy and Maritime Commission. Until ninety days after the date of issuance of this order, this order shall not apply to deliveries to and for the use of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration to the extent that industrial power trucks of a design or structure prohibited by the terms of this order are required by any applicable specifications of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration. As used in this paragraph, the terms "Army," "Navy," "Maritime Commission," and "War Shipping Administration" shall not include any privately operated plant or shipyard, financed or controlled by any of those agencies, or operated on a cost-plus-fixed-fee basis.

(f) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(2) Existing contracts. Fulfillment of contracts in violation of this order is prohibited regardless of whether such contracts are entered into before or after the effective date of this order. No person shall be held liable for damages or penalties for default, under any contract or order, which shall result directly or indirectly from his compliances with the terms of this order.

(3) Records and reports. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as the War Production Board shall from time to time request.

(4) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(5) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order, or who willfully furnishes false information to the Director of Industry Operations in connection with this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director of Industry Operations.

(6) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the Director of Industry Operations, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(7) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Branch, Washington, D. PART 1272—MACHINE TOOL ELECTRICAL SPECIFICATIONS

[Limitation Order L–147]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of machine tools for defense, for private account and for export; customers' requests for special electrical equipment and for special methods of application of electrical equipment to machine tools prevent producers of machine tools from obtaining maximum production; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1272.1 Limitation Order L–147—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Producer" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not, engaged in producing machine tools.

(2) "Machine tool" means any power driven machine for the cutting, abrading, grinding, shaping or forming of metals, excluding machines which are portable by hand.

(3) "Special electrical specifications" means:

(i) Any electrical control, motor, wiring, or other electrical device or feature used in the electrification of machine tools not customarily or usually supplied by a producer on machine tools produced by him and not required by the American War Standard—Machine Tool Electrical Standards—C74–1942, approved by the American Standards Association June 8, 1942; or

(ii) Any method of application to a machine tool of any electrical control, motor, wiring, or other electrical device or feature not customarily or usually employed by a producer and not required by the American War Standard—Machine Tool Electrical Standards—C74–1942, approved by the American Standards Association June 8, 1942.

(b) Electrical specifications for machine tools ordered after July 15, 1942. After July 15, 1942, no person shall place and no producer shall accept any purchase order for any machine tool calling for special electrical specifications unless permission to place and accept such order has been granted by the Director of Industry Operations or his duly authorized representative.

Application for such permission will be entertained only upon receipt of a letter from the person desiring to place a purchase order with special electrical specifications, in triplicate, addressed to the Tools Branch, Ref.: L–147, War Production Board; such letter must set forth the specific circumstances and reasons why special electrical specifications are necessary.

(c) Electrical specifications in orders for machine tools placed prior to July 15, 1942. No machine tool ordered prior to July 15, 1942 shall be made up according to special electrical specifications notwithstanding the purchase order therefor contained special electrical specifications except in the following cases:

(1) In any case where the special electrical specifications have been approved for production by the producer's engineering department prior to the date of this order.

(2) In any case where the motor, control, wiring, or other electrical device called for by the special electrical specifications for a specific machine tool:

(i) Has been received by the producer of the machine tool prior to the date of this order, or

(ii) Is received within thirty days after the date of this order, and the machine tool has not already been transferred to another purchaser pursuant to paragraph (d) of this order.

(d) Machine tools awaiting delivery of motors and controls. Whenever any machine tool ordered prior to July 15, 1942 has been completed except for the application of any motor, control or other electrical device or feature called for by special electrical specifications permitted by paragraph (c) of this order and its completion is delayed only because of nondelivery to the producer of such motor, control or other electrical device, the producer shall request the purchaser of such machine tool to accept delivery with such motor, control or other electrical device as is available to the producer, provided this meets the American War Standard—Machine Tool Electrical Standards—C74–1942 referred to in paragraph (a) (3) of this order.

In the event that the purchaser refuses to accept the machine tool under such terms, the producer shall nevertheless complete such tool with the available motor, control or other electrical device and deliver the same in fulfillment of the next order scheduled under General Preference Order No. E–1–b for a purchaser in the same group which such machine tool is suitable to fill: Provided, however, Where good and sufficient reason is furnished to the Director of Industry Operations or his duly authorized representative, he may authorize the holding of such machine tool for the original purchaser until receipt of the motor, control or other electrical device called for in the special electrical specifications.

(e) Governmental orders containing special electrical specifications. The limitations contained in this order shall not apply to machine tools ordered by the Army, Navy, or Maritime Commission for their own use.

(f) Other limitation and conservation orders. Nothing in this order shall excuse any producer from complying with such further orders conserving and limiting the use of specific materials which the War Production Board may have heretofore issued or may hereafter issue.

(g) Reports. Each person to whom this order applies shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time require.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(i) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of material conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may appeal to the Director of Industry Operations by addressing a letter to the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref: L-147, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(j) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Tools Branch, Washington, D.C. Ref.: L-147.

(k) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944) as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provisions hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 10th day of July 1942.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Maximum Prices Authorized Under § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation [1]—Order No. 23]

FILTROS, INC.

AUTHORIZATION TO DETERMINE PRICES FOR UNFINISHED PLATE

On May 14, 1942, Filtros, Inc. of East Rochester, New York filed application with the Office of Price Administration seeking specific authorization pursuant to § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation to determine maximum prices for unfinished Filtros plates and for instructions as to the method to be used in determining such prices. Due consideration has been given to the application and an Opinion in support of this Order has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register. For the reasons set forth in the Opinion, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration, it is hereby ordered:

§ 1499.60 Authorization for Filtros Inc. to determine maximum prices for unfinished Filtros plate. (a) The maximum prices which may be charged for unfinished Filtros plates by Filtros Inc. shall be prices determined in accordance with the following formula: From the average platform cost (cost of raw materials, direct labor, factory overhead, packing and loading) of a finished Filtros plate in March 1942 deduct the total cost of the machining and packing involved in the production of a finished plate which cost does not enter into the production of an unfinished plate. To the figure thus derived, add the commercial burden (general, administrative, and selling expenses) on a percentage basis at the same rate as that used in March, 1942 in arriving at the total cost of finished plates. To this figure there may be added a margin of profit in an amount not to exceed the average percentage of profit in relation to sales realized during March 1942 on finished plates.

(b) Any discounts applicable to the sale of finished Filtros plates whether based on quantity, class of purchaser or any other cause shall be applicable to sales of unfinished Filtros plates.

(c) Within ten days after a maximum price has been determined in accordance with this order, Filtros Inc. shall report that price to the Office of Price Administration, stating that the price was determined in accordance with the formula set forth in paragraph (a) hereof and setting forth in detail the calculations made in determining that price. This report shall be filed under oath or affirmation and shall be filed in triplicate.

(d) Any selling price determined under this order shall be subject to adjustment at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

(e) This Order No. 23 may be revoked or amended by the Office of Price Administration at any time.

(f) This Order No. 23 (§ 1499.60) shall become effective July 11, 1942. (Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 10th day of July, 1942.

Administrator.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

JURISDICTION

§ 2.1003 Jurisdiction of Adjudication Division. The adjudication division in each regional office or facility, under the direction of an adjudication officer, will be responsible for the preparation and adjudication of claims for disability and death compensation or pension and burial allowance within the jurisdiction of field adjudication activities. (July 10, 1942)

§ 2.1005 Jurisdiction of rating board. * * *

(b) The rating boards will have original jurisdiction to rate claims involving disability and death compensation or pension under the jurisdiction of the field office, and will have authority to make recommendatory ratings under section 31, Title III, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, as amended. (July 10, 1942)

§ 2.1009 Revision of rating board decisions. (a) No rating board will reverse or amend, except upon new and material evidence, a decision rendered by the same or any other rating board, or by any appellate authority, except where such reversal or amendment is clearly warranted by a change in law or by a specific change in interpretation thereof specifically provided for in a Veterans' Administration issue: Provided, That a rating board may reverse or amend a decision by the same or any other rating board where such reversal or amendment is obviously warranted by a clear and unmistakable error shown by the evidence in file at the time the prior decision was rendered, but in each such case there shall be attached to each copy of the rating a signed statement by the rating board definitely fixing the responsibility for the erroneous decision. (See also § 3.1201.) Provided, further, That where the severance of service connection is considered warranted on the facts of record the case file will be forwarded without rating to the director of the service concerned in central office, for review, accompanied by a full and clear statement of the underlying reasons and facts. Where the submission with recommendation for severance of service connection is based upon a change of diagnosis it is essential that the requisite medical certificate accepted as showing that the previous diagnosis was not correct be of record in the case file.

(b) Whenever a rating board may be of the opinion that a revision or an amendment of a previous decision is warranted on the facts of record in the case at the time the decision in question was rendered, a severance of service connection not being involved, the complete file will be forwarded to the director of the service concerned in central office, accompanied by a complete and comprehensive statement of the facts in the case and a detailed explanation of the matters supporting the conclusion that a revision or amendment of the prior decision is in order. A rating decision will not be effected in any such case pending the return of the case file following central office consideration. The effective date of the rating authorizing benefits in such cases will be the date of administrative determination, except where otherwise provided. (See currently effective adjudication procedure)

(c) Determinations in effect on March 19, 1933 will not be reversed in those cases comprehended within the provisions of sections 27 and 28, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, except as provided in these sections. These cases, therefore, will not be referred to central office under paragraph (b) above upon a difference of opinion. In the event clear and unmistakable error is discovered the rating board will take action as provided in paragraph (a) of this section.

(d) In those instances wherein the severance of service connection is involved (the burden of proof being on the Government), and the case file upon submission to the central office under paragraph (a) hereof has been returned for appropriate action hereunder, the claimant will be immediately notified in writing of the contemplated action and the detailed reasons therefor and will be given a reasonable period, not to exceed 60 days, from the date on which such notice is mailed to his last address of record, for the presentation of additional evidence pertinent to the question. This procedure is for application except (1) in case of fraud; (2) in case of a change in law; (3) in case of a change of interpretation of law specifically provided in a Veterans Administration issue; or (4) where the evidence establishes the service connection to be clearly illegal.

(e) When a reduction of an award for a service-connected disability is considered warranted by reason of a change in the physical condition, the claimant will be notified in writing of the proposed action and the detailed reasons therefor and will be informed that sixty days from the date on which such notice is mailed to him his case will be reviewed upon the basis of any evidence that he may desire to submit in the meantime

[1] Revision of §§ 2.1003, 2.1005, 2.1009, 2.1013, 2.1023, 2.1027, 2.1041, 2.1045, 2.1057, 2.1069, 2.1094, 2.1130, 2.1137–38, 2.1141–43, 2.1148–49, 2.1166, 2.1170, 2.1185 and new sections 2.1110, 2.1150, 2.1171–72.

as to why such reduction should not be effectuated. The claimant will also be given the opportunity to appear before the rating agency which reviews his case at the expiration of the sixty day period. The rating agency, after consideration of the representations made by the veteran at the hearing or of any additional evidence submitted, will take such action as may be indicated to develop the evidence further, if necessary, but if it is considered that the available evidence warrants a reduction, an appropriate rating will be rendered, and the provisions of § 35.021 (c) (2) will be applied as to the effective date of reduction upon the basis of such rating. (July 10, 1942)

§ 2.1013 Adjudication of applications of veterans residing in Washington, D. C. Applications for disability compensation or pension submitted by veterans residing in Washington, D. C., will be adjudicated in the claims division, veterans claims service, central office, functioning as a field office within the meaning of the term as used in Regulations and Procedure. (July 10, 1942)

§ 2.1023 Jurisdiction in death claims. (a) Applications for death compensation or pension, accrued disability and death compensation or pension (except when all or a part thereof has been deposited to the credit of the veteran in funds due incompetent beneficiaries), and burial allowance, will be adjudicated by the appropriate field station, regardless of the date of death of the veteran, when all service rendered by the deceased veteran in the military or naval forces was subsequent to July 15, 1903, and prior to October 8, 1940, except when:

(1) The veteran at time of death was, or the claimant for death benefits is, a Veterans Administration employee.

(2) Any claimant for death benefits resides without the continental limits of the United States. (Alaska cases are under jurisdiction of Seattle office.)

(3) The veteran's (or dependent's) burial expenses were paid, or are payable, in foreign currency, or when rates of foreign exchange would be involved in payment.

(4) A widow, child or parent claimant for death compensation or pension is already receiving, or has previously applied for such benefit on account of the death of another person.

(5) A widow claimant for death compensation or pension had a former husband who is or was also a veteran.

(6) A child claimant for death compensation or pension has or had more than one parent (natural, adoptive or step-parent) who is or was a veteran.

(7) Rights have been forfeited under any act.

(8) There is entitlement pursuant to special acts.

(9) Insurance or Adjusted Compensation is involved. (Insurance will not be considered to be involved in any case where all allowable insurance benefits have been paid.)

(10) Jurisdiction is otherwise vested in or assumed by central office. (July 10, 1942.)

FILING OF CLAIMS AND SUPPORTING EVIDENCE

§ 2.1027 Informal claims. Any communication from or action by a claimant or his duly authorized representative, which clearly indicates an intent to apply for benefits under Public No. 2, No. 141, No. 484, 73d Congress, as amended, or Public No. 196, 76th Congress, as amended by sections 7 and 8, Public No. 866, 76th Congress, may be considered an informal claim for compensation or pension, or an informal claim under section 31, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, as amended by section 12, Public No. 866, 76th Congress. When an informal claim is received and a formal application is forwarded for execution by the claimant, such application shall be considered as evidence necessary to complete the initial application, and unless a formal application is received within one year from the date it was transmitted for execution by the claimant, no award shall be made by virtue of such informal claim. If received within one year in such instances it will be considered filed as of the date of receipt of the informal claim by the Veterans Administration. However, a communication received from a service organization, pension attorney, or pension agent may not be accepted as an informal claim, if a power of attorney was not executed at the time the communication was written. In cases not covered by this rule, where the probability of an informal claim appears to be indicated, but the facts are too obscure or complicated for determination, the file will be referred to the director of the service concerned for decision upon the facts in the particular case. (July 10, 1942) (54 Stat. 1196, 1197; 38 U.S.C. 501a, 703b)

PROOF OF RELATIONSHIP AND DEPENDENCY

§ 2.1041 Definition of natural mother or father under Public No. 2, 73d Congress. These terms mean a natural mother or father of a veteran, or mother or father of a veteran through legal adoption. The phrase "natural mother" means the biological female parent, whether the veteran was legitimate or illegitimate. In establishing relationship where the dependency of a mother is for consideration the submission of evidence of birth will suffice, as evidence of the mother's marriage in establishing relationship under these circumstances would serve no useful purpose. Where the dependency of a father, as defined in § 35.10 (g) (A. D. 284) is involved, evidence establishing the parentage, through marriage or otherwise, will be required. (July 10, 1942)

§ 2.1045 Illegitimate children; parents of. (a) For the purposes of Public No. 141, 73d Congress, as amended, the mother of an illegitimate child will be considered to be within the meaning of the word "mother" and "parent" as used in the War Risk Insurance Act, or World War Veterans Act, 1924, as amended.

(b) The father of an illegitimate child will be considered to be within the meaning of the word "father" as used in the foregoing acts upon proof of the existence of the family relationship usual between parent and child at the time the latter entered the service. (July 10, 1942)

§ 2.1057 Conditions which determine dependency. • • •

(b) In determining the amount of income in a given case, account will be taken of the net income from property of every character owned by the mother or father or other members of the family under legal age, and of the earnings received by such father or mother or such other members of the family under legal age. Account will not be taken of the incomes of other members of the family of legal age, but only of the actual contributions made by such members of the family. Amounts received under State and Federal laws in the form of old age assistance are to be considered as income for the purpose of determining the dependency of parents. If it is considered that the parent is dependent, notwithstanding the income from this or other source, an appropriate determination may be made to that effect. The entire corpus of the estate of the claimant as well as income will be considered in determining dependency. (July 10, 1942)

DETERMINATIONS AS TO BASIC ENTITLEMENT

§ 2.1069 Forfeiture—(a) Public No. 2, 73d Congress. Section 15 of this Act, and section 9, Public 304, 75th Congress, provide for the forfeiture of pension or compensation to a person who knowingly makes false statements in connection with a claim.

(b) Prior forfeiture bars payment under Public No. 2, 73d Congress, as amended. By reason of section 11, Public No. 2, 73d Congress, and paragraph 2, section 14 of the Act of August 9, 1921, a claimant whose rights were forfeited under section 504, World War Veterans Act, is not entitled to benefits under Public No. 2, 73d Congress, as amended. However, when disability compensation or pension based upon service connected disability has been forfeited by a veteran because of submission of false or fraudulent evidence, compensation or pension payable except for the forfeiture, from and after the date of suspension of payments to the veteran, shall be paid to his wife, child or children, and/or dependent parents, such payments not to exceed the amount payable in case such veteran had died from such service connected disability. Payment in such case may not be made for any period prior to October 17, 1940, as provided in section 9 of Public No. 866, 76th Congress. No compensation or pension shall be paid to any dependent who has participated in the fraud for which the forfeiture was imposed. Where payments were suspended prior to October 17, 1940, because of forfeiture, a claim, which may be informal, for benefits under section 9, Public No. 866, 76th Congress, will be necessary. In those cases where payments are suspended on or subsequent to October 17, 1940, because of forfeiture of rights by a veteran because of submission of false or fraudulent evidence, action to determine the rights of the veteran's dependents of record will be taken without the requirement of an application by the veteran's wife, child or children, and/or dependent parents.

(c) No forfeiture of pensions for violation of hospital rules. Pension benefits, including those termed "compensation" by section 33, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, are not subject to deductions because of violations of hospital rules. (A. D. 258) (July 10, 1942) 54 Stat. 1196; 38 U.S.C. 555a, 715a)

(See § 2.1139 in considerations under Publics No. 196 and No. 866, 76th Congress)

(f) The epilepsies. (July 10, 1942)

SERVICE CONNECTION FOR DENTAL DISABILITIES

§ 2.1110 Protection of service connection in dental cases. When service connection for a dental condition, compensable or non-compensable under present rating schedules, which was granted under Veterans Bureau Regulation No. 17, effective February 23, 1922, or subsequent regulations, is considered clearly and unmistakably erroneous, the procedure provided in § 2.1009 (a) will be for application as in any other case wherein severance of service connection is involved. However, service connection for a dental condition, non-compensable under present rating schedules, granted prior to February 23, 1922, the date of promulgation of Veterans Bureau Regulation No. 17, is subject to reconsideration under the provisions of existing laws and regulations and may be severed, when warranted by the facts, without submission to central office. (July 10, 1942)

NOTE: See § 2.1104 for provisions formerly contained in Veterans Bureau Regulation No. 17.

PRINCIPLES GOVERNING STATUTORY RATINGS

§ 2.1130 Statutory award for loss of use of creative organ, or one or more feet or hands. Under the last paragraph of section 202 (3) of the World War Veterans Act, as amended July 3, 1930, as reenacted by Public No. 141, 73d Congress, any veteran shown to have suffered the loss or the use of a creative organ or one or more feet or hands as the result of an injury received in the active service in line of duty between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, shall be entitled to a statutory award of $25.00 per month, independently of any other compensation which may be payable under said Act: Provided, however, That if such disability was incurred while the veteran was serving with the United States military forces in Russia, the dates herein stated shall extend from April 6, 1917 to April 1, 1920. This statutory award shall be payable from the date the loss of the use of the creative organ or one or more feet or hands is shown to exist, subject to the provisions of § 35.021 and when payable shall be added to any other compensation payable to the veteran. Section 6 of Public No. 866, 76th Congress, amended the last paragraph of section 202 (3), World War Veterans Act, 1924, as amended, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, by increasing to $35.00 monthly the compensation payable for the loss of the use of one or more feet or hands. The effective date of the award in such case, if otherwise in order, will be October 17, 1940, the date of the enactment of Public No. 866, 76th Congress. (July 10, 1942) (54 Stat. 1196; 38 U.S.C. 473a)

§ 2.1137 Rating of reactivation in cases of arrested tuberculosis. In rating tuberculous disabilities to which the statutory award is not applicable, as when the diagnosis for the period of the disability upon which the rating is based is expressed in terms reflecting activity, the rating of the disability for such period shall be made in accordance with the Schedule of Disability Ratings, 1925, and Extensions thereto and/or the Schedule for Rating Disabilities, 1933, and Extensions. If a period of complete arrest is interrupted by activity, the payment for arrested tuberculosis will cover only the period of arrest and will be terminated as of the date of determined reactivation, from which a rating will be made consistent with the physical findings pending reattainment of complete arrest. (July 10, 1942)

RESTORATION OR GRANT OF BENEFITS FOR CLAIMANTS SUFFERING FROM PARALYSIS, PARESIS, OR BLINDNESS, OR WHO ARE HELPLESS OR BEDRIDDEN DUE TO MISCONDUCT

§ 2.1138 Application of Publics No. 196 and 866, 76th Congress. (a) On and after July 19, 1939, the date of enactment of Public No. 196, 76th Congress, any World War veteran suffering from paralysis, paresis, or blindness, or who is helpless or bedridden, as the result of any disability, and who was in receipt of compensation therefor on March 19, 1933, and on or after October 17, 1940, the date of enactment of Public No. 866, 76th Congress, any World War veteran suffering from paralysis, paresis, or blindness, or who is helpless or bedridden as the result of any disability may be awarded compensation under the Laws and interpretations governing this class of cases prior to the enactment of Public No. 2, 73d Congress, subject to the limitations, except as to misconduct or wilful misconduct, contained in sections 27 and 28 of Public No. 141, 73d Congress, as amended: Provided, That compensation authorized under section 26 of Public No. 141, 73d Congress, will not be reduced or discontinued as a result of the application of the enactment: And provided further, That no payment of disability compensation under Public No. 866, 76th Congress, will be made for any period prior to the date of application therefor, which may be informal where there is of record a formal application, Form 526.

(b) In the application of the limitations contained in sections 27 and 28 of Public No. 141, 73d Congress, except as to misconduct or wilful misconduct, it will be borne in mind that all reasonable doubts will be resolved in favor of the veteran. The delimiting dates of the World War under existing legislation will be applied; for the purposes of Publics No. 196 and 866, 76th Congress, the ending date of the World War will, therefore, be April 1, 1920, for those who served with the United States military forces in Russia.

(c) The compensation award or disability rating in the case of any World War veteran restored to the rolls or determinable under Public No. 196, 76th Congress, or granted disability benefits under section 7 of Public No. 866, 76th Congress, will be adjusted at any time upon the happening of a change in any of the contingencies upon which the current status is predicated, such as a change in family relationship, a change in physical condition, etc., as disclosed by competent evidence or a report of physical examination, and the effective date of the adjustment will be in accordance with the applicable regulations. (July 10, 1942) [54 Stat. 1196; 38 U.S.C. 703b]

APPLICATION OF RATING SCHEDULE

§ 2.1141 Use of 1925 and 1933 schedules. (a) Disability ratings will conform to the 1925 schedule in effect March 19, 1933, known as the Schedule of Disability Ratings, 1925, and Extensions thereto, continued under section 28, Title III, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, and/or the current edition of the 1933 schedule authorized by § 35.03, pursuant to Public No. 2, 73d Congress, known as the Schedule for Rating Disabilities, 1933, and Extensions, according to the facts in each case. (July 10, 1942)

• • • • • •

considered inadequate or excessive. Exceptional cases to which the application of either schedule is not understood, or with regard to which the 1933 schedule evaluation is considered inadequate or excessive, may be submitted for advisory opinion or for reevaluation to the director, veterans claims service, central office. Severe disabilities considered total, but for which current procedure does not authorize a total rating, questionable special monthly pension cases, and questionable double total and permanent disability cases, will be similarly submitted. Where total disability is claimed and a submission hereunder is contemplated a Form 527, Employment Affidavit, will be obtained and other indicated development of the evidence accomplished prior to the release of the records by the custodial office. The submission in any case comprehended by this section will include the case file, a recent medical examination, and definite recommendation from the submitting agency concerning service connection and evaluation of every disability, under the applicable schedule or schedules as interpreted by the submitting agency, and concerning schedular changes deemed advisable by reason of the particular situation encountered. (§ 35.03) (July 10, 1942)

§ 2.1143 Protected ratings, 1925 schedule. Evaluations under the 1925 rating schedule, including the percentage rating, the occupational determination and variant thereunder, and the occupational analogy, are to be continued without reduction in the absence of clear and unmistakable error, or as regards percentage ratings, in the absence of subsequent medical examinations adequately covering the specified disabilities and showing a material change in the physical condition. When the record shows that an extension to the 1925 rating schedule has not been applied, the rating will be brought under the extensions, but a reduction will not be effected in the absence of an examination fully adequate for the purpose of the extension. Differences of opinion as to classification between adjacent severity grades, or as to the rating applicable within a prescribed flexible range, or as to the analysis of disabilities into several factors, the ratings for which have been in the past combined, or mere differences in description or diagnosis of substantially the same degree of disability, will not warrant correction of the evaluation on the ground of clear and unmistakable error unless the rating exceeds a prescribed limit, or is grossly disproportionate to the degree of disability sustained. The protective provisions of section 28, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, are for application in all appropriate instances within the purview of section 5, Public No. 304, 75th Congress, wherein the disease or injury was incurred prior to July 2, 1921, in a reenlistment entered into subsequent to November 11, 1918, where there was prior service between April 6, 1917 and November 11, 1918. (July 10, 1942)

§ 2.1148 Effective dates of evaluations, 1925 and 1933 schedules in original ratings. (a) Evaluations under the 1933 schedule will be effective as of the date of receipt of the application by the Veterans Administration under Title I, Public No. 2, 73d Congress, and regulations issued pursuant thereto, or the date the evidence shows a compensable or pensionable degree of disability to have existed, whichever is the later, but in no event prior to March 20, 1933; except that changed evaluations due to amendment of the rating schedule will be effective from the date of the receipt of the claim (original, reopening or increase), or the date the evidence shows entitlement, whichever is the later, but in no event prior to the effective date of the amendment to the schedule: Provided, however, That where the claim was in a pending or appellate status as of that date the evaluation will be made effective as of the date of administrative determination (date rating or decision is signed) by the original or appellate rating agency. The effective date of the evaluation will not, however, necessarily control award action.

(b) Evaluations under the 1925 schedule and extensions thereto will be effective as of the date of receipt of the application by the Veterans Administration under Title III, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, or the date the evidence shows entitlement, whichever is the later, but in no event prior to March 28, 1934. (July 10, 1942)

§ 2.1149 Effective dates of evaluations, 1925 and 1933 schedules, in claims for increase. Evaluations under the 1933 schedule and extensions and the 1925 schedule and extensions thereto, in claims for increase, will be effective from the date of the receipt of the evidence, i. e., affidavits of physicians or other evidence submitted by the veteran showing an additional disability, or an increase in the condition for which he is receiving compensation or pension; or the date of the official report of physical examination made in a Veterans Administration facility, or by a designated examiner in connection with compensation, pension, or treatment pursuant to proper authority. The effective date of the evaluation will not, however, necessarily control award action (See § 3.1216). (July 10, 1942)

§ 2.1150 General principles as to effective disability evaluations under governing schedules. Within the limits mentioned in the preceding §§ 2.1148 and 2.1149, the question of evaluating disabilities based on applications for monetary benefits must be determined on the facts in the individual case for consideration. If the disability is static in nature and the information in connection therewith furnished in the Form 526 is substantiated by a subsequent examination, the percentage evaluations in accordance with the terms of the rating schedules will be applicable from the date of claim. Where the disease or injury is not static in nature but is disclosed on examination within such a reasonable time after the filing of the claim that the exercise of sound medical judgment would permit a determination that the condition was existent at the time the claim was filed, the effective date of the evaluations assigned in accordance with the terms of the rating schedules will be the date of claim. Accordingly, when in the exercise of sound medical judgment the evidence is considered sufficient to establish an evaluation of the disability from the date of application, original or for increase, an appropriate rating will be made and payments authorized effective from the date of application, if otherwise in order. (July 10, 1942)

PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY RATINGS UNDER THE WORLD WAR VETERANS ACT, 1924, AS AMENDED, AND THE SCHEDULE OF DISABILITY RATINGS, 1925, AS REINSTATED BY SECTION 28, PUBLIC NO. 141, 73D CONGRESS

§ 2.1166 Total disability ratings under Public No. 2, 73d Congress, and the 1933 Schedule. * * *

(f) See Extension No. 4 to the 1933 Rating Schedule for changes in the requirements and procedure relating to total disability generally. (July 10, 1942)

§ 2.1170 Continuance of total disability ratings. Total disability ratings made pursuant to the criteria established under the prior general and service pension laws, the War Risk Insurance Act, as amended, or the World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended, for pension, disability allowance, or disability compensation purposes, when warranted by the severity of the condition, and not granted purely because of hospitalization or home-treatment, and total ratings made pursuant to existing legislation will not be reduced, in the absence of clear error, without physical examination showing material improvement in physical condition. Examination reports showing material improvement must be evaluated in conjunction with all the facts of record and consideration must be given particularly to whether the veteran attained improvement under the ordinary conditions of life, i. e., while actually at work, or whether the symptoms have been brought under control by prolonged rest, or generally, by following a regimen which precludes work, and if the latter, reduction from total disability rating will not be considered pending reexamination after a period of employment (three to six months). (July 10, 1942)

§ 2.1171 Continuance of total disability ratings in tuberculosis cases. Total ratings of long standing for active tuberculosis will not be reduced pending attainment of definite arrest, or at least the subsidence of any marked symptoms under the ordinary conditions of life, i.e., while employed. The fact of attaining inactivity or arrest following prolonged total disability on account of active tuberculosis will not in itself be taken as establishing that the improvement can be maintained under the ordinary conditions of life. (July 10, 1942.)

§ 2.1172 Stabilization of disability evaluations. (a) The approved policy of the Veterans Administration requires that all rating agencies handle cases affected by change of medical findings or diagnosis, wherein service connection or entitlement is in effect, including claims under § 35.013, so as to produce the greatest degree of stability of disability evaluations consistent with the laws and regulations governing disability compensation and pension. In pursuance of this vital policy it is essential that the entire record of examinations and the medical-industrial history be reviewed to ascertain whether the recent examination is full and complete, including all special examinations indicated as a result of general examination and the entire case history. This applies especially to hospital examinations incident to treatment of intercurrent diseases and exacerbations, including bedside examinations, examinations by designated physicians, and examinations in the absence of, or without taking full advantage of, laboratory facilities and the cooperation of specialists in related lines. Examinations less full and complete than those on which payments were authorized or continued, will not be used as the basis of reduction. The type of disease, and the relationship between the former diagnosis and findings and the new diagnosis and findings must be closely examined. Ratings on account of diseases subject to temporary or episodic improvement, e. g., manic-depressive or other psychosis, epilepsy, psychoneurosis, coronary sclerosis (coronary occlusion or the anginal syndrome), bronchial asthma, gastric or duodenal ulcer, many skin diseases, etc., will not be reduced on any one examination except in those instances where all the evidence of record clearly warrants the conclusion that permanent improvement of physical or mental condition has been demonstrated. Ratings on account of diseases which become comparatively symptom free (findings absent) after prolonged rest, e. g., phlebitis, myocardial or coronary insufficiency, active pulmonary tuberculosis, etc., will not be reduced on examinations reflecting the results of bed rest. When the new diagnosis reflects mental deficiency or psychopathic inferiority only, the possibility of only temporary remission of the psychosis, psychoneurosis, or other superimposed disease will be borne in mind. When syphilis of the central nervous system or alcoholic deterioration are diagnosed following a long prior history of psychosis, psychoneurosis, epilepsy, or the like it is rarely possible to exclude persistence, in masked form, of the preceding innocently acquired manifestations. With new diagnosis or findings reflecting change from organic etiology to functional etiology, as organic disease of the heart, to neurocirculatory asthenia, vaso-motor instability, or psychoneurosis, or as arthritis to psychoneurosis under similar circumstances, substantially the same degree of disability may persist under the new diagnosis as under the old one. Even though material improvement in the physical or mental condition is clearly reflected, the rating agency will consider whether the evidence makes it reasonably certain that the improvement will be permanent and can be maintained under the ordinary conditions of life, i. e., while employed, or, if unemployed, while actively seeking employment. This instruction does not alter the long established policy of the Veterans Administration of placing disability ratings on a permanent basis whenever existing conditions will permit.

(b) If, after according due consideration to all the evidence developed by the several items discussed in the preceding paragraph, doubt remains, the rating agency will continue the rating in effect, citing the former diagnosis with the new diagnosis in parenthesis and following the appropriate code there will be added the reference "rating continued pending reexamination _____ months from this date, § 2.1172." The rating board will determine upon the basis of the facts in each individual case whether 18, 24 or 30 months will be allowed to elapse before the reexamination is made. (July 10, 1942)

§ 2.1185 Reexaminations to be requested when necessary. * * *

(c) In nonservice-connected cases under § 35.013, wherein a permanent total rating may be in effect, or be hereafter granted, based on other than obviously static disabilities, reexamination will be conducted within thirty months of the date the permanent total rating was first granted. Further examination will not be requested routinely and will only be accomplished if considered necessary based upon the particular facts of the individual case. In cases in which the permanent total disability is confirmed by reexamination or by the history of the case, or with obviously static disabilities, future reexaminations will not be requested. (July 10, 1942)

PART 3—ADJUDICATION: VETERANS' CLAIMS

DISALLOWANCE AND AWARDS

§ 3.1214 Effective dates of awards of increased disability compensation or pension by reason of amendments to the rating schedule. * * *

(b) By reason of increased disability. (1) The effective date of an award based upon an increased disability rating under an amendment to the rating schedule or governing regulation, as the case may require, will be the date of receipt of the claim (original, reopening or increased) by the Veterans Administration, or the date the evidence establishes the existence of the increased disability, whichever is the later, but in no event prior to the date of the amendment or regulation involved, Provided, however, That where the claim was in a pending or appellate status as of that date the effective date of the award will be the date of administrative determination by the original or appellate rating agency. (July 10, 1942)

* * * * * *

§ 3.1218 Award where identical amounts are involved. In order to avoid unnecessary awards action where the monetary benefits under existing legislation are the same in the amounts payable the monetary benefit previously awarded will be continued. (July 10, 1942)

§ 3.1235 Statutory awards, section 202, World War Veterans Act, 1924, as amended, as reenacted by Public No. 141, 73d Congress. The statutory awards provided in section 202 of the World War Veterans Act, 1924, as amended, are payable under sections 27 or 28, Title III, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, as follows:

(a) Under section 202 (2), compensation under a rating of temporary total disability for a period of six months following discharge from a hospital after treatment therein for a period of one year for tubercular disease of a compensable degree and after a condition of complete arrest thereof has been reached.

(b) Under section 202 (3):

(1) First paragraph, the statutory rates for specified conditions as provided therein.

(2) Second paragraph, compensation under a temporary total rating for a period of three years following discharge from a hospital after treatment therein for a tuberculous disease of a compensable degree for a period of one year and after it has been determined that a condition of arrest will not be reached by further hospitalization.

(3) Third paragraph, the additional compensation of $25.00 monthly independent of any other compensation, for the loss of the use of a creative organ or one or more feet or hands. Effective October 17, 1940, the additional compensation for loss of use of one or more feet or hands is $35.00 monthly (Public No. 866, 76th Congress). (July 10, 1942) (54 Stat. 1196; 38 U.S.C. 473a)

* * * * * * 473a)

§ 3.1236 Special monthly pension or compensation under Public No. 2, 73d Congress. The special monthly pension or compensation provided by paragraphs (k), §§ 35.011 and 35.012 is applicable but once in any one case. In other words, if the veteran has suffered the anatomical loss of one eye and one hand his monthly pension or compensation under Public No. 2, 73d Congress, will be increased by $25 and not by $50. Effective July 19, 1939, the amount of increased compensation for the anatomical loss or loss of use of an eye, one or more feet or hands, is $35 monthly (Public No. 198, 76th Congress.) (July 10, 1942) (53 Stat. 1070; 38 U.S.C. Ch. 12a)

§ 3.1237 Additional allowance for nurse or attendant. If and while a veteran is so helpless on account of a service connected compensable condition as to be in need of a nurse or attendant, (see §§ 2.1176, 2.1177, and 2.1178), there will be allowed in addition to the compensation payable under Title III, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, the sum of $50.00 per month on and after March 28, 1934: Provided, however, Where a veteran in receipt of additional compensation or pension based upon the need for a nurse or attendant, regular aid or attendance, or frequent and periodical aid or attendance is being furnished hospital treatment, institutional or domiciliary care by the United States or a political subdivision thereof and is being furnished with nursing or attendant's service, the award of compensation or pension will be the amount authorized by the rating decision exclusive of any additional amount on account of the need for a nurse or attendant, regular aid and attendance, or frequent and periodical aid and attendance. The reduced rate of compensation or pension in such instances will be effective as of the beginning of the maintenance of the disabled veteran in an institution by the United States or a political subdivision thereof. The compensation or pension in all cases contemplated herein is subject to the limitations contained in § 35.06. In every case where a beneficiary who is receiving an allowance for a nurse or attendant enters the hospital a report will be forwarded to the rating board, field office, or the central disability board, claims division, veterans claims service, showing the inclusive dates of hospital treatment. (A. D. 201.) Where the additional allowance for a nurse or attendant has been properly authorized to patients with amputations, or in those cases wherein the basic condition requiring a nurse or attendant is essentially permanent as defined in currently effective adjudication procedure, or in terminal cases, a redetermination by the rating board following dehospitalization is not required for reinstatement of this benefit. Upon receipt of the necessary notice that such veteran is no longer being maintained in an institution by the United States or a political subdivision thereof appropriate awards action for the purpose stated above will be accomplished at once and in such instances it will not be necessary to await receipt of the hospital report prior to resuming the additional allowance. In other cases not involving amputations or conditions essentially permanent the additional allowance for a nurse or attendant may be reawarded only upon a determination by the rating board that the veteran concerned is in further need of such services. The additional allowance for nurse or attendant is not to be reinstated for the purpose of applying the provisions of § 2.1009, paragraph (e), which are applicable only to the proper running award. Where the veteran is not hospitalized and evidence is received indicating there is no further need for nurse or attendant, the provisions of § 2.1009, paragraph (e) are for application. (July 10, 1942)

§ 3.1248 Continuance of award to child pursuing a course of instruction after it reaches the age of eighteen years. When an unmarried child of a veteran entitled to disability compensation, pension, or emergency officers retired pay under Public No. 2 or Public No. 78, 73d Congress, as amended, is or may hereafter be pursuing a course of instruction within the purview of § 35.10 (a), payment of an apportioned share of compensation, pension, or emergency officers retired pay may be continued or made to, for, or on behalf of the child after it has reached the age of eighteen years, but not after it reaches the age of twenty-one years. (July 10, 1942)

§ 3.1299 Action where veteran returns to active duty status. Compensation or pension may not be paid concurrently with the receipt of active service pay, and where any person in receipt of compensation or pension returns to active duty status with any of the armed forces of the United States, or active service in the United States Coast Guard, benefits will be suspended effective the day preceding reentrance. Payments may be resumed the day following release from active duty, provided the person is otherwise entitled. The period of active service must be verified by Form 3101 series. (July 10, 1942)

§ 3.1302 Naval pension allowance. The naval pension allowance (sections 4756–4757, Revised Statutes) may not be paid concurrently with disability compensation awarded under section 28, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, as section 28 thereof does not grant to veterans of the World War rights to benefits which did not exist under the World War Veterans Act, 1924, as amended, as interpreted by the Comptroller General (7 Comp. Decision 556) and the Attorney General (February 28, 1933). However, all persons in receipt of compensation or pension under Public No. 2, 73d Congress, as amended, will be entitled to receive a naval pension allowance in addition to and concurrently with such compensation or pension payable thereunder, provided entitlement thereto is otherwise established. (A. D. 81–B) (July 10, 1942)

§ 3.1303 Right of election between disability compensation or pension and emergency officers retirement pay. A veteran who elected to receive emergency officers retirement pay in lieu of disability compensation is not estopped from exercising the right of election between compensation or pension and emergency officers retirement pay under Public No. 2, 73d Congress, or Public No. 141, 73d Congress, as amended. However, when a claimant elects to receive compensation or pension under Public No. 2, 73d Congress, or Public No. 141, 73d Congress, as amended, rather than emergency officers retirement pay, or emergency officers retirement pay in lieu of compensation or pension under Public No. 2, 73d Congress, or Public No. 141, 73d Congress, as amended, he has not thereafter, without further changes in the law which would authorize such action, any right to reverse his election and accept the other benefit. (A. D. 226) (July 10, 1942)

TITLE 41—PUBLIC CONTRACTS

Chapter II—Division of Public Contracts

CONTRACTS FOR CERTAIN CANNED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

EXCEPTION FROM THE PROVISIONS OF THE WALSH-HEALEY PUBLIC CONTRACTS ACT

Whereas the Secretary of War on June 19, 1942, made written findings that the inclusion of the representations and stipulations of section 1 of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. 35) in contracts awarded on or before December 31, 1942; for canned fruits and vegetables of the varieties hereinafter named will seriously impair the conduct of Government business; and

Whereas the Secretary of War has requested that an exception be granted under section 6 of the Act to permit the award of contracts during the period up to and including December 31, 1942, for canned fruits and vegetables of the varieties hereinafter named without the inclusion of the representations and stipulations of section 1 of the Act; and

Whereas a Notice of Opportunity to Show Cause why such an exception should not be granted has been sent to trade unions, publications, and labor unions, and has been duly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (7 F.R. 5069); and

Whereas no objection or protest, pursuant to the Notice of Opportunity to Show Cause, has been received; and

Whereas it appears that justice and public interest will be served by the granting of the exception on the basis of the findings of the Secretary of War,

Now, therefore, I do hereby grant an exception, pursuant to the powers vested in me by section 6 of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. 35), permitting the award of contracts during the period from this date up to and including December 31, 1942, without the inclusion of the representations and stipulations of section 1 of the Act, for the following varieties of canned fruits and vegetables:

Apple butter, canned.
Berries (all varieties), canned.
Cabbage, canned.
Cucumbers, canned.
Fruit juices (all varieties), canned
Kraut, canned.
Onions, canned.
Tomato paste, canned.
Sweet potatoes, canned.

Nothing in this exception shall excuse non-compliance with the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 or of any rules or regulations issued thereunder.

Dated: July 9, 1942.

PART 91—ALASKA GAME REGULATIONS

MARTEN; CONTINUOUS CLOSE SEASON AREAS

Regulations Respecting Game Animals, Land Fur-Bearing Animals, Game Birds, Nongame Birds, and Nests and Eggs of Birds in Alaska

Pursuant to the authority and direction contained in section 10 of the Alaska Game Law of January 13, 1925 (43 Stat. 739), as amended by acts of February 14, 1931, 46 Stat. 1111; June 25, 1938, 52 Stat. 1169, and October 10, 1940, 54 Stat. 1103, (48 U.S.C. 198); I, Harold L. Bituminous Coal Division.

[Docket No. B-204]

HERMAN J. MORRISON, CODE MEMBER

CEASE AND DESIST ORDER, ETC.

Order approving and adopting proposed findings of fact, proposed conclusions of law of the Examiner and cease and desist order.

A complaint having been filed with the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by District Board No. 1, alleging that Herman J. Morrison, a code member in District No. 1, has wilfully violated the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the Code, and the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for Truck Shipments as follows:

By selling and delivering (in his own trucks) to the Brockway Clay Products Company, Brockway, Pennsylvania, between October 1940 and July 1941, approximately 8,547 tons of run of mine coal (Size Group 3) produced at the code member's Morrison Mine (Mine Index No. 1803) at $2.15 per net ton delivered to the purchaser's plant at Brockway, whereas the effective minimum price set forth for such coal in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for Truck Shipments is $2.15 per net ton f. o. b. the mine, thus failing to add to the f. o. b. mine price an amount at least equal, as nearly as may be, to the actual transportation charges from the mine to the purchaser;

By failing to comply with the provisions of Orders Nos. 296, 297, 307, 308, and 312 during the period of their applicability, in that code member failed to maintain and file with the Division the various records, sales slips, memoranda and reports as prescribed in said orders;

Pursuant to Orders of the Acting Director and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing in this matter having been held on March 27, 1942, before Joseph A. Huston, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Altoona, Pennsylvania, at which all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard;

On May 29, 1942, the Examiner having filed his Report, Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law and Recommendations in which he found that the code member between October 1940 and July 1941 had violated the provisions of sections 4 II (e) and 4 II (g) of the Act and Price Instruction No. 6 of the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for Truck Shipments by selling and delivering to the Brockway Clay Products Company 8,547 tons of run of mine coal produced at his Morrison Mine at prices below the minimum established for coal so sold and delivered, and in addition had violated Orders Nos. 296, 297, 307, 308 and 312; and the Examiner having further found that upon being informed of the illegality of his conduct, code member immediately rectified it by demanding and receiving from Brockway Clay Products Company $1,282.26 representing transportation charges on the coal sold thereto, has made arrangements to comply in the future with the orders referred to;

The Examiner having recommended that the code member be ordered to cease and desist from further violations;

An opportunity having been afforded to all parties to file exceptions thereto and supporting briefs, and no such exceptions or supporting briefs having been filed;

The undersigned having determined after consideration of the record that the proposed findings of fact and proposed conclusions of law of the Examiner be and the same are hereby approved and adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the undersigned;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the proposed findings of fact and proposed conclusions of law of the Examiner be and the same are hereby approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned;

It is further ordered, That code member Herman J. Morrison, his representatives, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, successors, or assigns, and all persons acting or claiming to act in his behalf or interest, cease and desist, and they hereby are permanently enjoined and restrained from selling or offering to sell coal produced by them at prices below the applicable effective minimum prices established therefor in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for Truck Shipments, or otherwise violating the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the Code, and rules and regulations thereunder.

It is further ordered, That if code member fails or refuses to comply with this order, the Division may forthwith apply to a Circuit Court of Appeals of the United States, within the circuit wherein code member resides or carries on business, for the enforcement thereof, or take other appropriate action for the enforcement of this Order.

Dated: July 9, 1942.

Order approving and adopting the proposed findings of fact, proposed conclusions of law, and recommendation of the Examiner and revoking and cancelling code membership.

Herman Sanders wilfully violated sections 4 II (e) and 4 II (g) of the Act and of the Code by selling and delivering during the period January 1, 1941, to June 30, 1941, a total of 637.83 tons of coal produced at his Sanders Mine (Mine Index No. 1070) at a price below the minimum established therefor in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District 13 for Truck Shipments, plus the cost of transporting such coal from the transportation facilities at the mine to the point from which all such charges were assumed and directly paid by the purchaser;

An opportunity having been afforded to all parties to file exceptions thereto and supporting briefs and no such exceptions or briefs having been filed;

The undersigned having determined after consideration of the record that the Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law, and Recommendation of the Examiner should be approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned;

§ 228.1 Definitions. For the purpose of these instructions and the notes and loan agreements or mortgages relating thereto, the following terms shall be construed, respectively, to mean:

(a) Producer eligibility. (1) A producer will be eligible for a wheat loan at full loan rate if: (i) The 1942 acreage of wheat on the farm does not exceed the wheat acreage allotment or permitted acreage established for the farm under the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program; (ii) his aggregate share of the 1942 acreage of wheat on all farms in the county does not exceed his aggregate share of the wheat allotment or permitted acreage for such farms; and (iii) the sum of the 1942 acreages of wheat, cotton, corn, and tobacco on the farm does not exceed the sum of the allotments or permitted acreages of such crops on the farm.

(2) A producer on any farm on which the wheat acreage allotment is exceeded solely because of volunteer wheat reaching maturity, and the farm marketing excess wheat is stored on the farm, and who is otherwise eligible to receive a wheat loan, will be eligible for a loan; (i) at full loan rate on all wheat not included in the farm marketing excess and (ii) at 50 percent of the full loan rate on the farm marketing excess wheat.

(3) A producer on a farm on which the wheat acreage allotment or permitted acreage is exceeded, except as provided in (2) above, will be eligible for a loan at 60 percent of the full loan rate on the farm marketing excess wheat as established under the wheat marketing program for the 1942–43 marketing year.

(4) A producer otherwise eligible to receive a wheat loan (other than the 60 percent loan in (3) above) will not be eligible if the State committee determines that such person's aggregate share of the 1942 wheat acreage on all farms in the State exceeds his aggregate share of the allotment or permitted acreage for such farms to such an extent as to offset substantially the performance on the farm or farms on which he might otherwise be eligible for loan.

(b) Eligible wheat. Wheat of acceptable quality as defined below which was produced in 1942, the beneficial interest to which is and always has been in an eligible producer as defined under paragraph (a) of this section; or wheat represented by a "Certificate of Indemnity," Form FCI–274, issued by the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation to an eligible producer.

(1) Wheat of any class grading No. 3 or better or wheat grading No. 4 or 5 solely on the factor of test weight, but otherwise grading No. 3 or better when stored on the farm or in approved warehouses. (To be acceptable, however, warehouse-stored wheat grading No. 4 or 5 must be evidenced by a statement of the warehouseman on the warehouse receipt, the inspection certificate, or the warehouseman's supplemental certificate substantially as follows: "This wheat grades No. _____ solely on account of test weight.") Wheat of the classes hard red spring or durum shall contain not more than 14½ percent moisture and wheat of other classes shall contain not more than 14 percent moisture, except that:

(i) When stored in warehouses wheat containing not more than 15½ percent moisture in States west of the Mississippi River and 17 percent moisture in States east of the Mississippi River, grading tough or because of carrying notation as to weevil or other insects injurious to stored grain, but otherwise eligible, may be processed at the producer's expense and such wheat will thereafter be considered eligible for loan purposes provided the original warehouse receipt and warehouseman's supplemental certificate, in addition to other original documents, are accompanied by a certificate of the approved warehouseman issuing said receipts as follows:

The wheat represented by attached warehouse receipt No. _____, dated _____, covering loan wheat has been processed at the request of the eligible producer and redelivery will be made of the same country-run quality, quantity, grade, and protein as shown on the said warehouse receipt and accompanying original inbound inspection, weight, and other required documents free of "tough" and "weevily" notation. Lien for processing charges will not be claimed by warehouseman from Commodity Credit Corporation or any subsequent holder of said warehouse receipt.

_____ (Signed) _____
(Address) (Warehouseman)
Date _____, 19__

(ii) When stored on the farm in all counties in the States of Michigan, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware, and Virginia, and in all counties in the States of Indiana and Ohio north of or intersected by the fortieth parallel meridian, wheat of the classes hard red winter, soft red winter, white, and mixed wheat of the above classes grading tough but containing not more than 14½ percent moisture, if otherwise meeting the requirements of Commodity Credit Corporation, and in good sound condition, will be eligible for a loan at a discount of 2 cents per bushel from the rate for such wheat testing 14 percent or less in moisture content.

(2) Wheat of the class mixed wheat, consisting only of mixtures of those eligible classes of wheat on which loan rates are established, provided such mixtures are the natural product of the field.

(c) Eligible storage. Eligible storage shall include public grain warehouses and farm storage meeting the following respective requirements:

(1) Public grain warehouses must meet the requirements of Commodity Credit Corporation, and must have executed the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement. Such warehouses may be situated either at terminal, subterminal, or country points.

(2) Farm storage shall consist of farm bins and granaries which are of such substantial and permanent construction as to afford safe storage of the wheat for a period of 2 years and permit effective fumigation for the destruction of insects and afford protection against rodents, other animals, thieves, and weather, as determined by the county agricultural conservation committees.

(d) Lending agency. Any bank, cooperative marketing association, or other corporation, partnership, or person making loans in accordance with these instructions, which has executed the Contract to Purchase on 1940 C. C. C. Form E.

(e) Eligible paper. For the purpose of the Contract to Purchase, eligible paper shall consist of producers' notes secured by chattel mortgages for wheat stored on the farm, or warehouse receipts representing wheat stored in approved warehouses. Notes must be dated on or subsequent to June 1, 1942, and prior to January 1, 1943, and executed in accordance with these instructions with state documentary revenue stamps affixed thereto where required by law. Notes executed by an administrator, executor, or trustee will be acceptable only where valid in law.

§ 228.2 Areas in which loans are available. Loans are available on eligible wheat stored in approved public grain warehouses.

Loans are available on eligible wheat stored on farms in the following areas:

All counties in California, Colorado, Delaware, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New York, New Jersey, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Utah, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming; and in the following counties of the following States:

Oklahoma: Alfalfa, Beaver, Bookham, Blaine, Caddo, Canadian, Cimarron, Cleveland, Comanche, Cotton, Craig, Creek, Custer, Dewey, Ellis, Garfield, Grady, Grant, Greer, Harmon, Harper, Jackson, Kay, Kingfisher, Kiowa, Lincoln, Logan, McClain, Major, Mayes, Noble, Nowata, Okfuskee, Oklahoma, Okmulgee, Osage, Ottawa, Pawnee, Payne, Pottawatomie, Roger Mills, Rogers, Texas, Tillman, Tulsa, Wagoner, Washington, Washita, Woods, and Woodward.

Texas: Archer, Armstrong, Bailey, Baylor, Briscoe, Carson, Castro, Childress, Clay, Cochran, Collingsworth, Cottle, Crosby, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Dickens, Donley, Floyd, Foard, Garza, Gray, Hale, Hall, Hansford, Hartley, Hardeman Haskell, Hemphill, Hockley, Hutchinson, Kent, King, Knox, Lamb, Lipscomb, Lubbock, Lynn, Moore, Motley, Ochiltree, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Roberts, Sherman, Stonewall, Swisher, Terry, Throckmorton, Wheeler, Wichita, Wilbarger, Yoakum, and Young.

§ 228.3 Loan rates. Loan rates on wheat of the designated grades and subclasses stored in approved public grain warehouses or stored on farms in counties where farm storage is permitted are set out in 1942 C. C. C. Wheat Form 1—Supplement 1 and State supplements thereto (1942 C. C. C. Wheat Form 1—Supplement 2—Kansas, etc.).

§ 228.6 Protein premium. A premium shall be added to the loan rate of the subclasses of hard red spring and hard red winter, and of the subclass hard white wheat. Mixed wheat, regardless of the classes of wheat contained in the mixture, will not be eligible for protein premium. Protein premium will be added to the loan rate of farm-stored wheat only where the producer presents a protein certificate issued by a laboratory satisfactory to Commodity Credit Corporation. If the wheat is stored in approved warehouses, the producer must present a protein certificate attached to the warehouse receipt, or present a warehouse receipt or warehouseman's supplemental certificate with protein content indicated thereon. Schedule of protein premiums will be found in 1942 C. C. C. Wheat Form 1—Supplement 1.

§ 228.8 Variation for grades. Loan rates for eligible grades and subclasses shall be in accordance with schedule of premiums and discounts shown in 1942 C. C. C. Wheat Form 1—Supplement 1.

§ 228.10 Determination of dockage, smut, and garlic. The percentage of dockage shall be determined in accordance with the Official Grain Standards of the United States and the weight of said dockage shall be deducted from the gross weight of the wheat in determining the net quantity available for loan.

In the States of California, Idaho, Oregon, Utah, and Washington, the quantity of smut shall be stated in percentage in accordance with the method set out in paragraph (a) under "Smutty wheat" in the handbook of Official Grain Standards of the United States, Revised, 1941, and shall be stated in terms of half percent, whole percent, or whole and half percent, and the quantity of smut so determined in pounds shall be deducted from the weight of clean wheat after deduction of other dockage. Elsewhere the smut condition of the wheat shall be determined on a degree basis in accordance with paragraph (b) under "Smutty wheat," Official Grain Standards of the United States. Where applicable, the words "Light smutty" or "Smutty" shall be added to, and made a part of, the grade designation.

The garlic condition of wheat shall be determined in accordance with the Official Grain Standards of the United States, and such condition shall be made a part of the grade designation by adding the words "Light garlicky" or the word "Garlicky," as determined under such standards. Discounts for smut and garlic are shown in 1942 C. C. C. Wheat Form 1—Supplement 1.

§ 228.11 Determination of quantity of wheat. Loans shall be made at values expressed in cents per bushel. A bushel will be 60 pounds of clean wheat free of dockage, when determined by weight, or 1.25 cubic feet of wheat testing 60 pounds per bushel when determined by measurement. A deduction of three-quarters of a pound for each sack will be made in determining the net quantity of the collateral when stored as sacked grain. In determining the quantity of wheat in farm storage by measurement, fractional pounds of the test weight per bushel will be disregarded, and the quantity determined as above will be the following percentages of the quantity determined for 60-pound wheat:

For wheat testing:	Percent
65 pounds or over	108
64 pounds or over, but less than 65 pounds	107
63 pounds or over, but less than 64 pounds	105
62 pounds or over, but less than 63 pounds	103
61 pounds or over, but less than 62 pounds	102
60 pounds or over, but less than 61 pounds	100
59 pounds or over, but less than 60 pounds	98
58 pounds or over, but less than 59 pounds	97
57 pounds or over, but less than 58 pounds	95
56 pounds or over, but less than 57 pounds	93
55 pounds or over, but less than 56 pounds	92
54 pounds or over, but less than 55 pounds	90
53 pounds or over, but less than 54 pounds	88
52 pounds or over, but less than 53 pounds	87
51 pounds or over, but less than 52 pounds	85
50 pounds or over, but less than 51 pounds	83

§ 228.12 Maturity and interest rate. Notes secured by wheat stored in public warehouses shall mature on demand but not later than April 30, 1943, and notes secured by wheat stored on farms shall mature on demand but not later than April 30, 1944. All loans will bear interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum.

§ 228.13 Public warehouses. Commodity Credit Corporation will accept only insured negotiable warehouse receipts representing eligible wheat issued by any public grain warehouse which has executed the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement and has been approved by the Commodity Credit Corporation. Warehousemen desiring approval are advised to communicate with the regional director of the Commodity Credit Corporation serving the area in which the warehouse is located. A list of approved warehouses will be furnished State or county agricultural conservation committees by regional directors. Uniform storage and handling charges and terms of the storage agreement are outlined in the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement. Warehousemen shall not have outstanding at any time warehouse receipts in excess of the normal working or licensed capacity of the warehouse. All wheat pledged as security for a loan on C. C. C. Grain Form B must be stored in the same warehouse. Producers should arrange for cleaning of wheat containing in excess of 2 percent dockage in order to avoid excessive transportation, conditioning, and storage charges. Wheat containing smut or garlic should not be commingled with wheat free of smut or garlic.

§ 228.14 Warehouse receipts. Warehouse receipts must be issued in the name of the producer and dated on or prior to the date of the related note and properly endorsed in blank so as to vest title in the holder, and must be issued by approved warehousemen.

(a) Warehouse receipts issued for wheat delivered by wagon or truck should contain substantially the following:

(1) The warehouse receipt should set forth in its written terms that the wheat is insured for not less than market value against the hazards of fire, lightning, inherent explosion and windstorm, cyclone, and tornado, or in lieu of this statement it must have stamped or printed thereon the word "Insured."

(2) The warehouse receipt must be free of all liens for charges prior to unloading in or delivery to the warehouse. Liens for storage charges will be recognized by Commodity Credit Corporation only from May 15, 1942, or the dates of the warehouse receipts, whichever is later.

(3) The warehouse receipt must set forth in the written or printed terms the gross weight or bushels, grade and sub-class, test weight, protein content (if any), degree or percentage of smut or garlic and dockage, and such other information as is required by the Uniform Warehouse Receipts Act.

(4) The warehouse receipt must show the moisture content except in the States of California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming. (In those areas where moisture content is required, but it is not customary for country warehousemen to determine the exact moisture percentage, a warehouse receipt representing wheat stored in a country warehouse will be accepted if the moisture content is not shown, provided the grade of wheat does not show the word "tough." In such cases, the warehouseman will be responsible to deliver wheat not grading "tough" or "sample" due to moisture content.)

Any warehouse receipt which does not contain all the required information as outlined above must be accompanied by a warehouseman's supplemental certificate. Such supplemental certificate must be in duplicate, properly identified to the warehouse receipt, and must contain the information required above.

(b) Warehouse receipts properly executed and issued for wheat delivered by rail or barge must be accompanied by a warehouseman's supplemental certificate in duplicate which should contain the information required in paragraph (a) of this section and which will be used in lieu of the following certificates:

(1) Inbound weight and inspection certificates, and protein certificates properly identified to the wheat covered thereby. In the States of California, Idaho, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington, and in other areas where licensed inspectors are not available at terminal and subterminal warehouses, Commodity Credit Corporation will accept inspection certificates based on representative samples which have been forwarded to and graded by licensed grain inspectors. The official inbound weight and inspection certificates must represent wheat unloaded in the warehouse issuing said receipt.

(2) The protein content, as determined by a recognized protein testing laboratory, must be shown on each supplemental certificate accompanying warehouse receipt representing wheat of the subclasses of hard red spring and hard red winter and of the subclass hard white wheat, except that protein content need not be shown for the subclasses hard winter and yellow hard winter produced in States or areas tributary to markets where protein content is not customarily required.

§ 228.15 Farm storage. Wheat stored on the farm must have been stored in the granary at least 30 days prior to its inspection for measurement, sampling, and sealing, unless otherwise approved by State committees and regional directors of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency. In accordance with regulations issued by the Secretary of Agriculture, the State and county agricultural conservation committees will inspect and approve storage facilities and will arrange for measuring, sampling, grading, and sealing the wheat collateral in approved structures. Chattel mortgages covering farm-stored wheat must be executed and filed in accordance with the applicable State law. Where the borrower is a tenant, and the wheat collateral is stored on the farm, the expiration date of the lease shall be given in section 1 (e) of the chattel mortgage. If the expiration date of the lease is prior to June 30, 1944, the borrower must secure from the owner and other interested parties, consent that the collateral may remain in the described storage structure until June 30, 1944, without any charge to the Commodity Credit Corporation other than that agreed to be paid to the borrower for storing the collateral. The consent agreement is set forth in the chattel mortgage. Each producer must designate in section 1 (b) of the chattel mortgage a shipping point reasonably convenient for the delivery of the wheat as determined by the county committee. A separate note and chattel mortgage must be submitted for wheat stored on each quarter section of land.

The Commodity Credit Corporation will accept delivery of all the producer's wheat in the bin or bins in which all or a portion of the grain therein is under loan. Such delivery will be limited to the number of bushels that was in the bin at the time the loan was made, less any amount which has been previously removed. The producer will be given credit for the number of bushels so delivered at the loan rate applicable to the grade and class of wheat delivered. If no loan rate has been established for the grade of wheat delivered, the actual delivery value will be furnished by the regional director of Commodity Credit Corporation serving the area.

A storage allowance of 7 cents per bushel will be advanced at the time the loan is made only on the number of bushels placed under loan, except that no storage allowance shall be advanced or earned on loans made on "volunteer" wheat at 50 percent of the full loan value. A storage payment of 7 cents per bushel shall be earned by the producer (1) if the wheat is delivered to the Commodity Credit Corporation on or after April 30, 1943, or (2), if pursuant to demand by the Corporation for the repayment of the loan, the wheat is delivered to the Commodity Credit Corporation prior to April 30, 1943, provided such demand for repayment was not due to any fraudulent representation on the part of the producer or the wheat was damaged, threatened with damage, abandoned, or otherwise impaired. If delivery is made prior to April 30, 1943, with the consent or approval of the Commodity Credit Corporation, a storage payment will be earned in accordance with the terms of the mortgage supplement. Earned storage shall be computed after delivery has been completed and any storage advance not earned shall be repaid to the Corporation. A storage payment cannot be earned on a greater number of bushels than is specified in the chattel mortgage. Any deficiencies due the Corporation will be deducted from any credits which may be due the producer from the Corporation.

In the event the producer's loan is not previously called and the producer has not elected to deliver his wheat in satisfaction of his loan between April 30, 1943, and June 30, 1943, a storage payment of ½ cent per bushel per month for each complete month after June 30, 1943, will be earned, not to exceed 5 cents per bushel through June 30, 1944. The full payment of 5 cents per bushel shall be earned by the producer (1) if the wheat is delivered to Commodity Credit Corporation on or after April 30, 1944, or (2) if, pursuant to demand by the Commodity Credit Corporation between July 1, 1943, and April 30, 1944, for the repayment of the loan, the wheat is delivered to the Commodity Credit Corporation prior to April 30, 1944, provided such demand for payment was not due to any fraudulent representation on the part of the producer, or because the wheat was damaged, threatened with damage, abandoned, or otherwise impaired.

§ 228.16 Liens. The wheat collateral must be free and clear of all liens, or if liens exist on the collateral, proper waivers must be secured from each lienholder. The names of the holders of all existing liens on the pledged or mortgaged wheat, such as landlord, laborers, threshers, or mortgagees, must be listed in the space provided in the chattel mortgage or note and loan agreement. The waiver and consent to pledge or mortgage the wheat and the payment of the proceeds of the loan and the proceeds of the sale of the wheat solely to the producer as contained in the mortgage or note and loan agreement must be signed personally by all lien holders listed or by their duly authorized agents; or, if corporation, by an officer authorized to execute such instruments. Lien holders may sign C. C. C. Form AB, completely identifying the related note, in lieu of signing the appropriate section of the chattel mortgage or note and loan agreement. The proceeds of the loan may be made payable to the producer and/or such other person or concern as the producer may direct in the space provided on the note. Producers should be sure that wheat offered as collateral for a loan is not covered by previous real estate or other mortgages. The producer shall be held personally liable for the amount of the loan and subject to the provisions of the United States Criminal Code for any fraudulent representation of fact made in the execution of the note and mortgage or loan agreement.

§ 228.17 Insurance—(a) Wheat stored on farms. Commodity Credit Corporation will not require producers to insure their 1942 farm-stored wheat placed under loan. In case of a total loss of collateral resulting from an external cause, with the exception of a loss caused by conversion, negligence, or vermin, the Commodity Credit Corporation will mark the note "paid" and return it to the borrower. In case of a partial loss of collateral resulting from an external cause, with the exception of a loss caused by conversion, negligence, or vermin, the note will be credited at the loan value, plus interest for the number of bushels on which the loss occurred. Where either total or partial loss occurs and such loss is assumed by Commodity Credit Corporation, no repayment of any storage advance will be required of the borrower even though the loss took place prior to April 30, 1943. No loss will be assumed if it is determined that there is fraudulent representation on the part of the borrower in connection with the loan.

(b) Wheat stored in approved warehouses. The warehousemen shall provide insurance against the perils of fire, lightning, inherent explosion, and windstorm, cyclone, and tornado for the full market value of wheat stored in their warehouses as long as receipts are outstanding.

§ 228.18 Approval of 1942 wheat loans by a member of the county committee. C. C. C. Grain Form A (Revised) and C. C. C. Grain Form B must be approved by a member of the county agricultural conservation committee. The date of approval must not be prior to the date of the note or note and loan agreement.

(a) Farm storage note. A member of the county committee signing in the space provided on the Grain Producer's Note (C. C. C. Grain Form A (Revised)) certifies for and on behalf of the committee that to its best knowledge and belief the wheat securing said note and the storage structure(s) in which said wheat is stored have been inspected and sealed and the quantity, quality, and loan value determined in accordance with regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture; that the representations set forth in the chattel mortgage are true and correct; that the chattel mortgage covering said wheat has been properly executed and will be filed for record in accordance with the requirements of Commodity Credit Corporation; that satisfactory evidence of authority of all parties executing note, chattel mortgage, lienwaiver(s), and consent for storage has been received, and any documentary evidence of authority will be held by the committee; that the original or a duplicate copy of said mortgage bearing receipt of the county recording official is held by the committee; that all lienholders have waived the priority of their liens and consents granted for storage if necessary, and that the storage advance has been included in the amount of the note in accordance with the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency instructions.

(b) Warehouse storage note and loan agreement. A member of the county committee signing in the space provided on the Grain Producer's Note and Loan Agreement (C. C. C. Grain Form B) certifies for and on behalf of the committee that to its best knowledge and belief the representations set forth by the producer are true and correct; that the amount of the loan on the described wheat has been correctly determined on the basis of the warehouse receipts or certificates of indemnity in accordance with these instructions and supplements thereto; and that all existing liens on the pledged wheat are listed in section 7.

§ 228.19 Source and preparation of documents. Forms will be furnished county agricultural conservation committees in the areas designated in § 228.2 and copies for the purpose of information may be obtained from such committees or from the office of the regional director serving the area, listed in § 228.22. All loan documents shall be prepared in the office of the county agricultural conservation committee. All blanks in C. C. C. Grain Forms A (Revised), AA (Revised), and B must be filled in with ink, typewriter, or indelible pencil, and such documents containing additions, alterations, or erasures will be accepted by Commodity Credit Corporation only when such corrections are properly initialed by the producer. The county agricultural conservation associations will collect a service fee for all loans.

§ 228.20 Source of loans. Loans may be obtained from Commodity Credit Corporation or any approved lending agency. Notes representing loans made direct with Commodity Credit Corporation should indicate Commodity Credit Corporation as payee and should be mailed to the regional director serving the area. Notes representing loans made with other agencies should bear the name and address of the lending agency as payee.

§ 228.21 Purchase of loan. Commodity Credit Corporation will purchase, without recourse, eligible paper only from approved lending agencies in accordance with the terms of the Contract to Purchase (1940 C. C. C. Form E). Paper held by lending agencies must be submitted to the regional director serving the area in which the wheat is stored. Lending agencies should report weekly on 1940 C. C. C. Form F all payments or collections on producers' notes. An amount equivalent to 1½ percent interest per annum on the principal amount collected must be submitted with such weekly reports.

§ 228.23 Release of collateral held by Commodity Credit Corporation. A producer may obtain release of the collateral by paying to the lending agency or the Commodity Credit Corporation, whichever holds the note, the principal amount of the note, plus interest. If the note is held by an out-of-town lending agency or the Commodity Credit Corporation, the producer may request the note be forwarded to a local bank for collection. In such case, the local bank should be instructed to return the note to the sender if payment is not effected within 15 days. All charges in connection with the collection of the note shall be paid by the producer. Upon payment of a farm storage wheat loan, the county agricultural conservation committee should be requested to release the mortgage by filing an instrument of release or by a margin release on the county records.

§ 228.24 Partial releases of collateral will be made as follows: (a) In the case of farm-stored wheat, producers may obtain release of all or part of the collateral in a bin by paying to the holder of the note the loan value, plus storage advances and accrued interest, for the wheat released. (b) In the case of warehouse-stored wheat, each partial release must cover all the wheat under one warehouse receipt number. Producers may obtain release of one or more warehouse receipts by paying to the holder of the note the amount of the loan, plus interest for the wheat represented by the warehouse receipt. If the notes are held by an out-of-town lending agency or Commodity Credit Corporation, or if the wheat is stored in a terminal warehouse, the warehouse receipt(s) may be forwarded to an approved lending agency as directed by the producer for collection.

(c) Commodity Credit Corporation will purchase notes on which partial releases have been made by lending agencies provided the note is credited by the lending agencies for the full amount of the loan on the wheat released, plus interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum, and 1½ percent interest per annum on such principal amount collected has been submitted to the regional director serving the area.

Mixed wheat rates listed above will not apply if mixed wheat contains 10 percent or more of a class other than those listed for such terminal market.

All wheat eligible for loan at the foregoing loan rates must have been shipped on a domestic freight rate basis. The loan rate at the designated terminal market will be reduced by the difference between the freight paid and the domestic rate on any wheat shipped at other than the domestic rate.

The foregoing schedule of loan rates applies to wheat delivered to any designated terminal market in carload lots which has been shipped by rail from a country shipping point to one of the designated terminal markets, as evidenced by paid freight bills duly registered for transit privileges and other documents as required under the Instructions (C. C. C. Wheat Form 1): Provided, In the event the amount of paid in freight is insufficient to guarantee minimum proportional rate from the terminal market, there shall be deducted from the applicable terminal loan rate the difference between the amount of freight actually paid in and the amount required to be paid in to guarantee minimum proportional basis on the outbound movement: Provided further, That Commodity Credit Corporation will accept in lieu of such bills, warehouse receipts for which a legend, signed by the warehouseman, has been typewritten in the following form or certificate of such warehouseman containing such an undertaking or such forms as may hereafter be approved by Commodity Credit Corporation:

Otherwise a deduction of six cents (6¢) per bushel shall be made.

§ 228.5 Amount of loan at country points. (a) Except for the States and counties hereinafter set forth, Commodity Credit Corporation will determine the loan rate on wheat in storage on the farm or in country warehouses by deducting from the designated terminal market value an amount equal to 3 cents more than the all-rail interstate freight rate (in effect on May 1, 1942) from the country warehouse points, or the shipping point designated by the producer, to such terminal market; except that in the appropriate counties of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Texas, and Wisconsin such rates shall be computed on the basis of the average freight rate from all shipping points other than subterminal markets in each county to the appropriate terminal market.

Each approved warehouse will be advised as to the loan rate applicable to wheat stored in such warehouse. Producers may obtain from the county committee the loan rates applicable to wheat stored on each farm and in the public warehouses. Loan rates will be published in C. C. C. Wheat Form 1—Supplement 2, for each State.

The loan rate of eligible wheat stored in approved warehouses (other than those situated in the designated terminal markets) which was shipped by rail may be determined by deducting from the appropriate designated terminal market loan value an amount equal to the transit balance of the through freight rate from point of origin for counties hereinafter set forth, Commodity Credit Corporation will determine the loan rate on wheat in storage on the farm or in country warehouses by deducting from the designated terminal market value an amount equal to 3 cents more than the all-rail interstate freight rate (in effect on May 1, 1942) from the country warehouse points, or the shipping point designated by the producer, to such terminal market; except that in the appropriate counties of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Texas, and Wisconsin such rates shall be computed on the basis of the average freight rate from all shipping points other than subterminal markets in each county to the appropriate terminal market.

Producers may obtain from the county committee the loan rates applicable to wheat stored on each farm and in the public warehouses. Loan rates will be published in C. C. C. Wheat Form 1—Supplement 2, for each State.

The loan rate of eligible wheat stored in approved warehouses (other than those situated in the designated terminal markets) which was shipped by rail may be determined by deducting from the appropriate designated terminal market loan value an amount equal to the transit balance of the through freight rate from point of origin for such wheat to such terminal market: Provided, In the case of wheat stored at any railroad transit point, taking a penalty by reason of out-of-line movement, or for any other reason, to the appropriate designated market, there shall be added to such transit balance an amount equal to any out-of-line or other costs incurred in storing loan wheat in such position as determined by Commodity Credit Corporation. Arrangements have been made for the railroads to indicate transit balance of the through rate on the inbound paid freight bills on a basis of 100 pounds. To obtain the loan rate as determined above, the warehouse receipts, in addition to other required documents, must be accompanied by the original paid freight bills duly registered for transit privileges: Provided, That Commodity Credit Corporation will accept in lieu of such bills, warehouse receipts for which a legend, signed by the warehouseman, has been typewritten in the following form or a warehouseman's suplemental certificate containing such information:

The loan rate of eligible wheat stored in approved warehouses in the foregoing area which was shipped by rail in the movement of natural market direction as approved by Commodity Credit Corporation, shall be determined by adding 3 cents per bushel to the country loan rate for the county from which the wheat is shipped and an amount equal to the transit value of the freight paid from point of origin to markets designated by Commodity Credit Corporation, except that eligible wheat originating in Delaware, Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, or West Virginia and stored in Cairo, Illinois; Evansville, Indiana; Louisville, Kentucky; Cincinnati, Ohio; Baltimore, Maryland; or Philadelphia, Pennsylvania shall receive the loan rate shown in these instructions. Lending agencies and county committees are advised that in each instance such transit value must be verified by the regional director of the Commodity Credit Corporation serving the area. In such cases, the loan documents must be accompanied by the original paid freight bills or certificates of the warehouseman and other required documents as set forth in § 228.5 (a) above. If eligible loan wheat is stored in approved warehouses located at transit points, taking a penalty by reason of back haul, or out-of-line of natural market movement, such penalty or other costs by reason of such movement, as determined by Commodity Credit Corporation, shall be deducted from loan rates as determined above. In such cases, the warehouse receipts in addition to the required documents as set forth in C. C. C. A deduction of six cents (6¢) per bushel shall be made if evidence is not submitted that paid rail freight bills have been registered for transit privileges.

(b) The loan value for No. 1 and No. 2 flaxseed stored on farms and in approved country warehouses shall be determined by deducting from the applicable basic terminal loan value an amount equal to 4 cents per bushel more than the all-rail interstate freight rate in effect May 1, 1942, to the appropriate terminal market. A county average of freight rates from all shipping points in each county to the appropriate terminal market shall be determined in order that county loan rates may be established. Loan values applicable to each county will be contained in C. C. C. Flaxseed Form 1—Supplement No. 1, for each State.

(c) Loan values for flaxseed stored in approved warehouses other than those situated in the terminal markets designated in paragraph (a) of this section which was shipped by rail shall be determined by the regional director of Commodity Credit Corporation. Values at such storage points shall be determined on the basis of terminal values listed in paragraph (a) of this section with appropriate adjustment for freight.

(d) As evidence that storage charges have been prepaid through June 30, 1943, entitling the borrower to the above loan rates, the warehouse receipt must have stamped or typed thereon, or attached thereto, the following legend:

Storage charges for the period ending June 30, 1943, on the flaxseed represented by this warehouse receipt have been paid or otherwise provided for and lien for such charges will not be claimed by the warehouseman from Commodity Credit Corporation or any subsequent holder of this warehouse receipt.

_____ Signed _____
Date Warehouseman

In the absence of evidence of prepaid storage a deduction of 7 cents per bushel will be made from the loan value otherwise applicable.

§ 229.4 Maturity and interest rate. Notes secured by farm-stored flaxseed or by warehouse receipts representing flaxseed shall mature on demand, or June 30, 1943. All loans will bear interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum. Notes evidencing such loans must be dated on or before January 31, 1943.

§ 229.5 Determination of quantity of flaxseed. A bushel shall be 56 pounds of clean flaxseed free of dockage, when determined by weight, or 1.25 cubic feet of flaxseed testing 56 pounds per bushel when determined by measurement. A deduction of three-quarters of a pound for each sack will be made in determining the quantity of the collateral when stored as sacked grain. In determining the quantity of flaxseed in farm storage by measurement, fractional pounds of the bushel test weight for flaxseed testing less than 56 pounds per bushel will be disregarded, and the quantity determined as above will be the following percentages of the quantity determined for 56-pound flaxseed:

	Percent
For flaxseed testing 56 pounds or over	100
For flaxseed testing 55 pounds or over but less than 56 pounds	98
For flaxseed testing 54 pounds or over, but less than 55 pounds	96
For flaxseed testing 53 pounds or over, but less than 54 pounds	94
For flaxseed testing 52 pounds or over, but less than 53 pounds	92
For flaxseed testing 51 pounds or over, but less than 52 pounds	90
For flaxseed testing 50 pounds or over, but less than 51 pounds	88
For flaxseed testing 49 pounds or over, but less than 50 pounds	85
For flaxseed testing 48 pounds or over, but less than 49 pounds	83
For flaxseed testing 47 pounds or over, but less than 48 pounds	81

§ 229.6 Farm storage. Flaxseed stored on the farm must have been stored in the granary for a reasonable period, determined by the county agricultural conservation committee, prior to its inspections for measurement, sampling and sealing. In accordance with regulations issued by the Secretary of Agriculture, the State and county agricultural conservation committees will inspect and approve storage facilities and will arrange for measuring, sampling, grading and sealing the flaxseed collateral in approved structures. Chattel mortgages covering farm-stored flaxseed must be executed and filed in accordance with the applicable State law. Producers should obtain information and assistance from the county agricultural conservation committees in regard to the execution and filling of such chattel mortgages. Where the borrower is a tenant farmer and the flaxseed collateral is stored on the farm, the expiration date of the lease shall be given in the chattel mortgage. If the expiration date of the lease is prior to August 31, 1943, the landlord shall execute the Consent for Storage in the chattel mortgage. The consent agreement shall also be signed by any other party or parties entitled to possession. Each producer must designate in the chattel mortgage a shipping point reasonably convenient for the delivery of the flaxseed as determined by the county committee. Notes and mortgages will not be acceptable which provide a shipping point other than the normal shipping point customarily used by the producers in the locality in which the flaxseed was produced. A separate note and chattel mortgage must be submitted for flaxseed stored on each quarter section of land.

§ 229.8 Public warehouses. Commodity Credit Corporation will accept only negotiable insured warehouse receipts covering flaxseed pledged as collateral to notes on C. C. C. Grain Form B issued by any public grain warehouse which has executed the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement, amended to cover flaxseed. Warehousemen desiring approval should communicate with the Commodity Credit Corporation office serving the area, at which office a list of approved warehouses and their locations is available. A list of approved warehouses for the area may also be obtained at any State or county agricultural conservation office. Approved warehousemen shall not issue and have outstanding at any time warehouse receipts in excess of the normal working capacity or licensed capacity of the warehouse. Warehousemen shall be required to deliver either the identical flaxseed or country-run flaxseed equal to that described in the warehouse receipts and accompanying certificates or documents.

§ 229.9 Warehouse receipts. Warehouse receipts must be dated on or prior to the date of the related note and properly assigned by an endorsement in blank so as to vest title in the holder, or issued to bearer, and must be issued by approved warehousemen. Unless the warehouse receipts are stamped or printed "insured" there must be attached or included in the certificate of the warehouseman the statement that the flaxseed is insured for not less than the market value, against the hazards of fire, lightning, inherent explosion, windstorm, cyclone, and tornado. Commodity Credit Corporation will not accept warehouse receipts indicating any lien for charges prior to unloading in or delivery to the warehouse issuing such receipts. Lien for storage charges will be recognized by Commodity Credit Corporation only from May 15, 1942, or the dates of the warehouse receipts, whichever is later: Provided, storage charges have not been prepaid through June 30, 1943, in which event lien for storage charges will be recognized only from July 1, 1943. Such receipts must set out in their written or printed terms the gross weight or bushels, the grade, the percentage of sound flaxseed, test weight, and all other facts and statements required to be stated in the written or printed terms of the negotiable warehouse receipts under the provisions of section 2 of the Uniform Warehouse Receipts Act or to be accompanied by a certificate of the warehouseman, identified to such warehouse receipts, setting out such information and shall be based on the inbound movement or delivery of the grain to an approved warehouse.

§ 229.10 Liens. The flaxseed collateral must be free and clear of all liens except in favor of the lienholders listed in the space provided therefor in the chattel mortgage or note and loan agreement. The names of the holders of all existing liens on the pledged or mortgaged flaxseed, such as landlord, laborers, threshers, or mortgagees, must be listed in the space provided therefor in the mortgage or loan agreement. The waiver and consent to the pledge or mortgage of the flaxseed and the payment of the proceeds of the loan and the proceeds of the sale of the flaxseed solely to the producer as contained in the mortgage or loan agreement must be signed personally by all lienholders listed or by their duly authorized agents; or, if corporation, by the designated officer thereof customarily authorized to execute such instruments. (In lieu of signing the section of the chattel mortgage or loan agreement entitled "List of Lienholders and Their Waivers and Consent to Pledge," lienholders may sign a separate form which must completely identify the related note.) The producer will direct in the notes that the proceeds of the loan be made payable to him and/or such other person or concern as he may direct thereon. Producers should read carefully all real estate or other mortgages previously given by them in order to determine whether or not crops are covered thereby. Any fraudulent misrepresentation of fact made in the execution of the note and related forms shall render the producer personally liable for the amount of the loan and subject to the provisions of the United States Criminal Code.

§ 229.11 County agricultural conservation committee. Forms will be obtained from county agricultural conservation committees or from the office of Commodity Credit Corporation. The producers' notes contain approvals which should not bear a date prior to the date of the note or loan agreement and which must be signed in each instance by a member of the county agricultural conservation committee of the county in which the flaxseed was produced, for warehoused flaxseed, and the county in which the flaxseed is stored, for farm-stored flaxseed. Pursuant to instructions issued by the Secretary of Agriculture, the State and county committees will determine or cause to be determined the quantity and grade of the flaxseed collateral and the amount of the loan. All loan documents will be completed and approved by the county committee, who will retain all documents except the producer's note. In order to meet the cost of the local expenses, county agricultural associations will collect a service fee for all loans.

§ 229.12 Source of loans. Loans may be obtained from banks and other local lending agencies, which in turn may sell the paper evidencing such loans to Commodity Credit Corporation. Producers may also obtain loans direct from the Corporation on notes made payable to the Corporation, which shall be delivered to the office serving the area in which the flaxseed is stored, delivered, or postmarked prior to February 1, 1943. Upon approval of the loan by Commodity Credit Corporation, payment will be made pursuant to the directions of the producer as set forth in the note.

§ 229.13 Purchase of loans. Commodity Credit Corporation will purchase without recourse, eligible paper, as defined above, only from lending agencies which have executed and delivered to the office of Commodity Credit Corporation to which notes are submitted Contract to Purchase, 1940 C. C. C. Form E, obtainable only from such offices.

Notes held by lending agencies must be tendered to Commodity Credit Corporation for immediate or deferred purchase within 10 days of written request or at least 10 days prior to maturity in the absence of written demand. The purchase price to be paid by Commodity Credit Corporation for notes accepted will be the face amount of such notes, plus accrued interest from the respective dates to the date of payment of the purchase price at the rate of 1½ percent per annum. Under the terms of the Contract to Purchase, lending agencies are required to report weekly on 1940 C. C. C. Form F all payments or collections on producers' notes held by them, and to remit with such report to Commodity Credit Corporation, an amount equivalent to 1½ percent interest per annum on the principal amount collected from the date of the note to the date of payment.

Address	Area

225 Southwest Broadway Artisan's Building, Portland, Oreg.	Arizona, California, Idaho, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, and Washington.

§ 229.15 Release of collateral. The producer may obtain the return of notes secured by flaxseed at any time prior to maturity, upon the payment of the principal amount due thereon, plus accrued interest and charges. No allowance will be made for storage by Commodity Credit Corporation. The loan paper may be sent to an approved bank for collection or the producer may ascertain the amount due and remit directly to the officer of Commodity Credit Corporation holding the paper. Partial releases of collateral will be made as follows:

(a) In the case of farm-stored flaxseed, the producer must identify to Commodity Credit Corporation the seal number of the bin to be released. Such release must cover all the flaxseed in any one bin. Such release will be made upon payment of the amount loaned on the particular bin of flaxseed, plus interest.

(b) In the case of elevator-stored flaxseed, producers desiring to obtain partial release should notify the office of Commodity Credit Corporation serving the area in which the flaxseed is stored, describing the flaxseed to be released, by warehouse receipt numbers. Each partial release must cover all the flaxseed under one warehouse receipt. VIRGIN ISLANDS

SUGAR COMMERCIALLY RECOVERABLE FROM SUGARCANE

Pursuant to the provisions of section 302 (a) of the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended, the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 802.52 Sugar commercially recoverable from sugarcane in the Virgin Islands. The amount of sugar commercially recoverable from the sugarcane grown on a farm in the Virgin Islands and marketed (or processed by the producer) for the extraction of sugar shall be the amount obtained by multiplying the number of short tons of such sugarcane by the average number of hundredweights of sugar, raw value, recovered per short ton of sugarcane at the mill where such sugarcane is ground. Such average number of hundredweights of sugar recovered per short ton of sugarcane shall be established by dividing the total number of hundredweights of sugar produced (in terms of the average polarization of such sugar) at the mill where the sugarcane is ground by the total number of short tons of sugarcane ground during the applicable grinding season, and by converting the resulting quotient to raw value basis in accordance with the provisions of Title I of the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended. PART 94—PRIORITIES FOR AIR TRANSPORTATION

Sections 94.1 to 94.8, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER June 18, 1942,[1] are superseded by §§ 94.1 to 94.5, as follows:

Sec.
94.1 Priority classifications.
94.2 By whom priorities may be granted.
94.3 Priority transportation on scheduled air carriers.
94.4 Special instructions for passengers and priority requesting agencies.
94.5 Priority air cargo stamp and passenger air priority certificate.

AUTHORITY: §§ 94.1 to 94.5, inclusive, issued under sec. 1, 39 Stat. 645; 10 U.S.C. 1361.
SOURCE: Priorities for Air Transportation Directive No. 4, June 4, 1942.

[1] 7 F.R. 4525.

§ 94.1 Priority classifications—(a) Priority for air transportation. (1) Priority for air transportation will be extended to and only to:

(i) Personnel engaged upon essential war work, including members of the armed forces, other employees of the government, representatives of allied governments, and civilian personnel.

(ii) Essential war materials.

(2) These priorities will only be authorized for urgent passenger travel or shipments vital to the war effort; they will not include usual inspection trips except for highest officials engaged in the war effort. Merely because an individual is a member of the armed forces or is engaged in war work will not in itself entitle him to priority in the use of air transport. Priorities will not be granted where the mission of the individual can be satisfactorily accomplished if travel is performed by train.

(3) Priority for air trips requiring less than two hours and where destination can be reached by rail within six hours of desired departure time from originating point will be granted only upon specific approval by the Chief of Transportation Service or his air priority control offices, and this approval will be given only in cases of emergency.

(4) Air Transport priority establishes, in order of time, the precedence of movements of air passengers and air cargo on scheduled air carriers. The purpose is to assure that space on air carriers is made available when required for the national war effort.

(b) Priority classifications and identifications. General classification for priority are shown below and will normally take precedence in the order listed. However, the Chief of Transportation Service, Services of Supply, War Department, shall have authority to change the priority classification assigned any individual or cargo movement when such re-classification appears to be to the best interest of the national war effort and his decision shall be final. In such cases, the importance and urgency of the mission to be accomplished in connection with the war effort shall determine the priority assigned the individual or shipment for air transportation.

(1) Class 1—(i) Personnel. Personnel of the White House or others for whom priority air transportation is directed for accomplishment of a particular mission by the President, the Secretary of War, or the Secretary of the Navy.

(ii) Identification. Priority certificate (See § 94.5 (b)) giving Classification No. 1; or direct instructions from the Chief of Transportation Service, Services of Supply, by letter, telegram, or telephone (no certificate required).

(2) Class 2—(i) Personnel. Airplane Pilots of the Ferrying Commands of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps traveling under orders issued by these Commands or their subordinate Unit Commanders, their Adjutants or Operations Officers, when such orders specifically direct travel by military or fastest available commercial aircraft. This priority shall authorize one hundred (100) pounds of baggage per passenger, including both free and excess baggage.

(ii) Identification. Orders which identify the passengers as Ferrying Command Pilots and which direct travel by "Military or fastest available commercial aircraft". If traveling under secret orders the pilots will present a priority certificate (See § 94.5 (b)) giving Classification No. 2, and duly authenticated by Unit Commanders, Adjutants or Operations Officers of the Ferrying Commands.

(3) Class 3—(i) Personnel. Military personnel (Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard and Allied Military Personnel) or other persons whose air travel is specifically ordered by the Military authorities and civilians for whom emergency air travel is essential to expedite war production, construction or other activities in connection with the war program.

(ii) Identification. Military Special Orders (not merely an air transportation request or authorization) which include the phrase "TD by Air" (Travel directed by air); or priority certificate (See § 94.5 (b)) marked priority Class 3; or direct instructions from the Chief of Transportation Service by letter, telegram or telephone (no certificate required).

(4) Class 4—(i) War materials. Army and Navy equipment, ammunition, supplies, and materials essential to the war effort specifically ordered moved by priority air transportation by the War Department, (Chief of Transportation Service, Services of Supply) or a branch office of the Chief of Transportation Service.

(ii) Identification. Direct instructions by letter, telegram, or telephone from the Chief of Transportation Service, Services of Supply, or a branch office of the Chief of Transportation Service; or identified en route by a priority label or stamp which will be affixed to the shipment by the airline at point of origin of air shipment. [Sec. I]

§ 94.2 By whom priorities may be granted—(a) Class 1 Priority. President of the United States; Secretary of War; Secretary of the Navy; Chief of Transportation Service, Services of Supply, or officers in charge of Air Priority Control offices of the Chief of Transportation Service.

(b) Class 2 priority. Commanders of Airplane Pilots Ferrying Commands, their subordinate unit commanders, their adjutants and operations officers, Chief of Transportation Service, Services of Supply, or officers in charge of Air Priority Control offices of the Chief of Transportation Service.

(c) Class 3 priority. Commanding officers of the armed forces who are authorized to issue travel orders; the Chief of Transportation Service, Services of Supply; officers in charge of Air Priority Control offices established by the Chief of Transportation Service; and others who may be specifically authorized by the Chief of Transportation, Services of Supply.

(d) Class 4 priority. Chief of Transportation Service, Services of Supply, and officers in charge of Air Priority Control offices established by the Chief of Transportation Service.

(e) General. Only persons authorized to grant priorities may issue certificates. Priorities may be directed by letter, telegram or telephone, giving the same general information as called for in a certificate, as well as by certificate. [Sec. I]

§ 94.3 Priority transportation on scheduled air carriers—(a) Priority for air travel. A priority for air travel is a demand upon an air carrier for a space reservation between points in accordance with the priority classifications issued to facilitate the prompt execution of a mission essential to the war effort. With the exception noted in priority class 2, it shall include movement of the normal allowance (40 pounds) of free baggage.

(b) Directives—(1) Issuance. Directives governing priority will be issued by the Office of the Military Director of Civil Aviation in accordance with priorities established by the Chief of Transportation Service, Services of Supply, as the necessity becomes apparent, governing the transportation of persons and cargo by air necessary to the successful prosecution of the war effort.

(2) Obligation of air carriers. Compliance with directives is mandatory upon the air carriers to whom they are issued.

(c) Origin of request for air priority. (1) Requests for priority air transportation will be made upon the Air Priority Division, Office of the Chief of Transportation Service, Washington, D. C., Room 5317, Department of Commerce Building (Telephone Executive 2460, Branch 1240) or upon Air Priority Control Offices established by the Chief of Transportation Service, Services of Supply, by:

(i) Government Departments or Agencies having knowledge of the necessity for air transportation requested.

(ii) Army or Navy officers assigned as plant resident inspectors, engineers, or representatives at production plants, or on construction projects.

(iii) In the case of individuals and plants engaged in the War program, at which no Army or Navy representative is assigned, requests for priority will normally be made through the Government Department or Agency in whose interest the travel or transportation is required but in emergency may be made direct to the Air Priorities Division, Office of the Chief of Transportation Service, Services of Supply, or to the Air Priority Control Office.

(2) The Army or Navy officer or the Government Department or Agency representative upon whom the request for priority air transportation is made, will make such investigation as is necessary to assure himself that the transportation requested is necessary to the successful prosecution of the war effort, and submit the request to the closest air priority office.

(3) The Air Priority Division Office in Washington, D. C., and Air Priority Control Offices established by the Chief of Transportation Service will not make actual reservations for air transportation but will function only in the establishment of priorities. Reservations or shipping arrangements must be made direct with the air carriers through the usual channels.

(d) Policy for administering priorities—(1) Registration and order of consideration of air priorities. Passengers or cargo with the same priority classification shall take precedence in the order that they are registered with the priority branch offices established by the Chief of Transportation Service, Services of Supply, where such are located, or with the local Air Transport Priority Representative, by the airline making the reservation.

(2) Displacement of priority passengers or cargo. Priority passengers or cargo will not be displaced enroute by other priority passengers or cargo of the same classification but will be displaced by passengers or cargo of higher classification. When it becomes necessary to displace priority passengers or cargo, the Priority Representative on duty will designate the priority to be removed based on instructions from the Chief of Transportation Service.

(e) Responsibility of Government Departments and Agencies. (1) Government Departments and Agencies must exercise care to assure that requests for priority air travel are limited to movements essential to the successful prosecution of the war effort.

(2) Government Departments and Agencies are requested to appoint an official or officials who will have authority to act as liaison representative between their particular department or agency and the Chief of Transportation Service, Service of Supply, or individuals or firms requesting priority air transportation. The names and telephone numbers of these liaison representatives will be reported to the Air Priority Division, Chief of Transportation Service, Room 5317, Department of Commerce Building, (Executive 2460, Extension 1240) for reference. [Sec. II]

§ 94.4 Special instructions for passengers and priority requesting agencies. (a) Unless specifically authorized by the Chief of Transportation Service, Services of Supply, air priorities may not be exercised on a specific flight or specific airline except when no alternative flights or lines will serve the purpose of the mission.

(b) When air priorities for passengers or cargo are desired, except when already authorized by previously issued orders or certificates, the following information should be submitted with the request:

(1) Name of the passenger or number, dimensions and weights of items in shipment.

(2) Address of the passenger, or person in care of whom passenger or shipment can be located and/or address of location of shipment.

(3) Telephone number of passenger, or telephone number of person in care of whom shipment can be located.

(4) Consignee and consignor (for cargo requests).

(5) Can shipment be divided (for cargo).

(6) Brief statement setting forth why air priority is necessary.

(7) Points between which priority is requested.

(8) Earliest time at which passenger or shipment will be available for air transportation.

(9) Latest arrival possible at destination to complete the mission.

(10) Name and authority of person requesting the priority.

(c) Priority air travel or shipment having been approved, the passenger or shipper shall notify the air carrier concerned without delay of the reservation desired, and of the priority certificate or orders directing travel by air. Immediately upon receipt of this information, the airline will register the priority with the Air Priority Control Office or the local air transport priority representative. Air Priority Control Officers, airlines, or local air transport priority representatives may require that priority credentials be presented at any time in advance of the flight departure. In the case of priority cargo the airline will be advised of the priority by the Air Priority Control Office, or local air transport priority representative.

(d) Passengers who are entitled to priority and intend to exercise same should so inform the airline at the time reservation is made.

(e) When tickets are purchased, check to see if they are properly stamped to indicate priority classification.

(f) Passengers who fail to establish their priority status at point of origin of their trip may not exercise priority at a point enroute on any one continuous trip. Such priorities may be established only by the Chief of Transportation Service, Services of Supply, or his priority branch office.

(g) After a priority reservation has been established and space confirmed to the passenger, air lines are not required to honor the same priority for a subsequent flight, unless the original reservation is cancelled at least three hours prior to scheduled departure of the original flight. Exceptions will be made when the passenger secures the specific approval of the Chief of Transportation Service, Services of Supply, his priority branch offices or the authorized person who granted the priority, or when the failure to use or cancel the original reservation resulted from circumstances beyond the control of the passenger.

(h) Priority certificates must be surrendered to the air carrier when ticket is purchased. Passengers making stopovers enroute must be provided with individual priority certificates for each portion of their journey unless reservations have been booked in advance and their tickets have been stamped to show their priority classification. Tickets or portions of tickets on which reservations have not been made will not be stamped to indicate priority. [Sec. III]

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order No. S-65]

Warwick Laboratories Corporation of Brooklyn, N. Y. is engaged in the manufacture of automotive parts and is subject to the provisions of Preference Rating Order P-54,[1] Limitation Order L-4,[2] and Priorities Regulation No. 1.[3]

During the months of November and December, 1941, the Company obtained a large quantity of brass hooks and nickel steel split rivets by means of an A-3 Preference Rating Order P-54. The Company did not use the material so obtained for the purpose specified in Preference Rating Order P-54 and thereby violated that order and Priorities Regulation No. 1.

During the period from September 15, 1941 to December 31, 1941 the Company manufactured 205,144 universal joint cover units which was 31,141 units in excess of the amount it was permitted to manufacture under the provisions of Limitation Order L-4 and the manufacture thereof constituted a violation of that order.

During the period from September 15, 1941 to December 31, 1941 the Company manufactured 15,520 gallons of hydraulic brake fluid for use in passenger automobiles and light trucks which was 7,775 gallons in excess of the amount it was permitted to manufacture under the provisions of Limitation Order L-4 and the manufacture thereof constituted a violation of that order.

These violations of Preference Rating Order P-54, Limitation Order L-4, and Priorities Regulation No. 1 have impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States by diverting materials to uses not authorized by the Director of Industry Operations. In view of the foregoing facts,

It is hereby ordered:

§ 1010.65 Suspension Order S-65. (a) Deliveries of material or equipment to Warwick Laboratories Corporation, its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order, and no preference rating shall be applied or assigned to such deliveries by any Preference Rating Certificate, Preference Rating Order, General Preference Order, or any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations, except as the Director of Industry Operations may specifically direct.

(b) No allocation to Warwick Laboratories Corporation, its successors and assigns, shall be made of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Warwick Laboratories Corporation, its successors and assigns, from any restrictions, prohibitions, or provisions contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations except insofar as the same may be inconsistent herewith.

Issued this 10th day of July, 1942.

Director of Industry Operations.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

GREAT WESTERN BRASS FOUNDRY

Harry Rushton, doing business in Denver, Colorado, as Great Western Brass Foundry, buys brass and copper and casts saddle horns, brass parts for plumbing items, and makes lead traps with brass parts for plumbing fixtures.

Subsequent to January 1, 1942, Great Western Brass Foundry used copper in the production of saddle horns without regard for the limitation placed by Conservation Order M-9-c[1] upon the use of copper for this item. At the time of the manufacture the foundry, through Mr. Rushton, knew of the restrictions imposed by Order M-9-c. Consequently, this use of copper was a willful violation of Conservation Order M-9-c.

This willful violation of Conservation Order M-9-c has impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to a use prohibited by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing facts,

It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.68 Suspension order S-68. (a) Harry Rushton, individually or doing business as the Great Western Brass Foundry, his successors and assigns, are prohibited from receiving, processing, or delivering copper or copper base alloy, as defined in Conservation Order M-9-c, except as specifically authorized by the Director of Industry Operations.

(b) Harry Rushton, doing business as the Great Western Brass Foundry, shall submit within ten days from the effective date of this order, a schedule of its inventories of copper, copper base alloy, and finished and semi-finished brass and copper items to the Inventory and Requisitioning Branch, War Production Board, Washington, D. C.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Harry Rushton, individually or doing business as Great Western Brass Foundry, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on July 13, 1942, and shall expire on October 13, 1942, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2(a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 10th day of July 1942.

Director of Industry Operations.

(2) Terne plate means steel sheets coated with terne metal (including primes, seconds, and waste-waste) and includes:

(i) Short ternes, meaning steel sheets generally referred to as black plate, coated with terne metal, and

(ii) Long ternes, meaning steel sheets other than black plate, coated with terne metal.

(3) Terne metal means the lead-tin alloy used as the coating for terne plate.

(4) Process means cut, draw, stamp, spin, or otherwise shape.

(5) Put into process means the first change by a manufacturer in the form of material from that form in which the tin plate or terne plate is received by him.

(b) Restrictions on use of tin plate and terne plate. Except to the extent specified in Schedule A or with specific permission of the Director of Industry Operations:

(1) No person shall use tin plate, or terne plate in the production of any item or part thereof.

(2) No person shall use hot dipped tin plate with a pot yield exceeding 1.25 pounds per base box.

(3) No person shall coat long ternes with terne metal containing over 10 percent tin.

(d) Restrictions on production, sale, and delivery of tin plate and terne plate. (1) No person shall produce, sell, or deliver tin plate or terne plate to or for the account of any person if he knows or has reason to believe that such material will be used in violation of the terms of this order or any other or further order or direction of the Director of Industry Operations.

(2) A person producing, selling, or delivering tin plate or terne plate may rely on the certificate of his customer that such material will not be sold or used except in compliance with this order and all other orders of the Director of Industry Operations. Such statement shall be a representation to the War Production Board and shall be preserved by the seller for a period of at least two years.

(e) Exceptions as to materials in inventory. (1) Exceptions granted prior to July 11, 1942, permitting use of material in inventory, are hereby confirmed. All other exceptions are revoked as of July 11, 1942.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (b) shall not apply to roofing materials or to furnace pipe and fitting materials in inventory on May 16, 1942, to be sold or delivered for maintenance and repair purposes regardless of rating or on orders for defense housing, as permitted by the Defense Housing Critical List.

(3) The provisions of paragraph (b) shall not apply to materials in inventory (other than materials referred to in paragraph (e) (2)) which on May 16, 1942 had been put into process, or had been painted, lacquered, lithographed, or enameled.

(f) Exception for Army, Navy, and Maritime Commission orders. The provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) shall not apply in the case of articles to be purchased by or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, or the United States Maritime Commission, or to be physically incorporated into products to be so purchased, to the extent that the use of tin plate or terne plate is required by the specifications

(including performance specifications) of the Army or Navy of the United States, or the United States Maritime Commission applicable to the contract, subcontract, or purchase order, provided, however, that the seller of such material must obtain from his customer a statement in duplicate (except when the sale or delivery of such material is made to a warehouse, in which case the warehouse must obtain such statement from its customer) setting forth the name of the article to be manufactured, the use for which it is intended, and the government contract number, and provided that the seller shall immediately forward a duplicate of such statement to the War Production Board, Iron and Steel Branch, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M–21–e.

(g) Reports of frozen stocks. Any person who possesses stocks of tin plate or terne plate and who is unable to sell, deliver, or use such material because of the provisions of this order shall file in duplicate immediately with the War Production Board, Iron and Steel Branch, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M–21–e, an itemized list of such material giving quantity (in net tons), size, gauge, and weight of coating.

(h) Restrictions on tin consumption. During the first calendar quarter of 1942 and during each calendar quarter thereafter, no person shall use tin in the production of tin plate or terne plate in excess of the quota assigned to such person by the Director of Industry Operations.

(i) Special directions. The Director of Industry Operations may from time to time issue special directions as to production, sale, delivery, and use of tin plate and terne plate, which may include directions as to the tin or lead content thereof.

(j) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him or would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of tin plate and/or terne plate conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-war to war work, may apply to the War Production Board, Iron and Steel Branch, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M–21–e, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. No appeal will be considered until the provisions of paragraph (g) have been complied with. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(k) Applicability of other orders. Insofar as any other order of the Director of Industry Operations may have the effect of limiting to a greater extent than herein provided the use of any material in the production of any item, the limitation of such order shall be observed.

(l) Communications. All reports to be filed hereunder and communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Iron and Steel Branch, Washington, D. C.—Ref.: M–21–e. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Section 1138.1 (General Preference Order M–112) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1138.1 General Preference Order M–112—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Antimony" means and includes:

(i) Ores and concentrates, including beneficiated or treated forms, containing antimony, commercially recognized;

(ii) Antimony metal, otherwise known as "regulus" and the element antimony in commercially pure form;

(iii) Liquated antimony, sometimes known, respectively, as "needle antimony", "crude antimony", or "crudum", which is in any case the result of separating antimony sulphide from antimony ores by fusion, without essential chemical change;

(iv) Any alloy containing 50 per cent or more by weight of antimony, as defined in (i), (ii), and (iii) above;

(v) Chemical compounds which result from the primary processing of antimony ores and concentrates.

(vi) Mixtures or fusions (including frits) containing antimony oxide.

(b) Deliveries and allocations—(1) Restrictions on deliveries. Hereafter no person shall deliver or accept delivery of antimony except pursuant to specific authorization by the Director of Industry Operations; provided that until further order and in the absence of a specific direction to the contrary by the Director of Industry Operations the following deliveries of antimony are permitted:

(i) Amounts totaling not more than 50 tons of contained antimony during any one calendar month by any person who produces antimony ores and concentrates from mines located within the continental United States or Alaska.

(ii) To any person in lots of 25 pounds or less (contained antimony), provided that the total quantity of antimony which any person may receive in one calendar month from all sources of supply pursuant to the authorization contained in this paragraph shall be limited to 25 pounds of contained antimony;

(iii) To the Metals Reserve Company or to any other Corporation organized under section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act as amended (15 U. S. C., section 606 (b)), or to any duly authorized agent of any such Corporation.

(2) Allocations. The Director of Industry Operations will from time to time allocate the supply of antimony and specifically direct the manner and quantities in which deliveries to particular persons and for particular uses shall be made or withheld. The Director may also require any person seeking to place a purchase order for antimony to place the same with one or more particular suppliers. Such allocations and directions will be made primarily to insure satisfaction of all defense requirements of the United States, both direct and indirect, and they may be made without regard to any preference ratings assigned to particular contracts or purchase orders.

(c) Applications and reports. (1) Unless otherwise ordered or specifically directed by the Director of Industry Operations, no person shall be entitled to receive an allocation of antimony unless not later than the 20th day of the month next preceding the month in which delivery is desired, he shall have filed with the War Production Board and with each supplier with whom he may place a purchase order for antimony an application for such material on form PD–381, and in addition, if the quantity of antimony requested on any such application or applications for any month exceeds in the aggregate 448 pounds (contained antimony), shall have filed with the War Production Board a report on form PD–380, or such other form as said Board may from time to time prescribe.

(2) Any person who on the first day of any calendar month has in his possession or under his control a quantity of antimony in excess of 672 pounds (contained antimony), shall file a report with the War Production Board on form PD–380, on or before the 20th day of such month, whether or not such person applies for an allocation of antimony for delivery during the succeeding month.

(3) Failure by any person to file an application pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (c) (1) of this order may be construed as notice to the Director of Industry Operation and to all suppliers of antimony that such person does not desire an allocation of antimony for the succeeding month.

(d) Special directions. The Director of Industry Operations may from time to time issue specific directions with respect to the kind or quantity of antimony, including antimony in the inventory of a person at the effective date of this order, which may be used in the manufacture or composition of any product or material, and the Director may also in his discretion, require the use of antimony-bearing lead scrap, secondary antimony-bearing lead alloys or any other practicable substitute in lieu of antimony, in the production of any materials or products.

(e) Restrictions on use of antimony in certain products—(1) Prohibited uses. No person shall use antimony in any form, including the antimony content of any alloy, scrap or secondary material, in the preparation, processing or manufacture of:

(i) White inorganic pigments for non-ceramic enamels, paints, lacquers, or printing inks, except as a reinforcing or chemical agent not to exceed 2% by weight of pure pigment contained.

(ii) White pigments, opacifiers, or frits for non-acid-resisting ceramic enamels;

(iii) Toys or decorative or ornamental objects or parts thereof.

(2) Limitation on use in metals and alloys. Hereafter, no person shall use more than 0.5% by weight of antimony in the composition of any metal or alloy, unless a higher percentage of antimony content is required by specification, and in no event shall such antimony content exceed the maximum specified.

(3) Limitation on use of antimony for automotive batteries. (i) The quantity of new antimony which may be used by any person in the production of alloys for automotive batteries shall be limited in any calendar month to not more than 7 per cent of the total contained antimony used by him for such purposes during the same period. (The balance of antimony required by such person in the production of such alloys shall be obtained from antimony-bearing scrap or secondary alloys.)

(ii) The antimony content of alloys used by any person in the production of grids for automotive batteries shall be limited as nearly as practicable to a maximum of 7% by weight, and shall in no event exceed 7.5% by weight, unless otherwise ordered or directed by the Director of Industry Operations.

(f) Exceptions to paragraphs (e) (1) and (e) (3). The prohibitions and restrictions contained in paragraphs (e) (1) and (e) (3) of this order shall not apply to the use of antimony in any product or part thereof which is being produced for purchase by or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the War Shipping Administration, the United States Maritime Commission, or the Coast Guard, where the use of antimony to the extent employed, is required by the specifications (including performance specifications) of the Army or Navy of the United States, the War Shipping Administration, the United States Maritime Commission, or the Coast Guard applicable to the contract, subcontract, or purchase order.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(h) General Imports Order M–63 unaffected. Nothing contained in this order shall be construed as altering or modifying in any way the provisions of General Imports Order M–63 applicable to antimony.

(i) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the Tungsten-Antimony Branch, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Reference: M–112. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. PART 1295—ANILINE

[Conservation Order M-184]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of aniline, as hereinafter defined, for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1295.1 Conservation Order M-184—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Aniline" means aniline, aniline oil, and the salts of aniline.

(2) "Producer" means any person who produces or imports aniline and includes any person who has aniline produced for him pursuant to toll agreement.

(3) "Distributor" means any person who has purchased, or purchases, aniline from a producer for purposes of resale.

(b) Restrictions on use and delivery of aniline. On and after September 1, 1942 no person shall use, deliver or accept delivery of aniline except as specifically directed or authorized by the Director of Industry Operations upon application pursuant to paragraph (d) (1) hereof, subject to the exemptions specifically provided for in paragraph (c) hereof.

(c) Uses and deliveries specifically exempted. The restrictions provided for in paragraph (b) hereof shall not apply to:

(1) The use by the United States Army or Navy of aniline produced by them.

(2) The use by any person of not to exceed five hundred (500) pounds of aniline in any one month;

(3) The delivery by any producer or distributor of not to exceed five hundred (500) pounds of aniline to any one person in any one month, and the acceptance thereof by any such person, provided that each producer or distributor before making any such delivery, with the exception provided for below, shall have received a certificate from the deliveree to the effect that if the delivery covered by such certificate is made the deliveree will not have received during the current month in excess of five hundred (500) pounds of aniline, and provided, further, that the aggregate amount of such deliveries by any producer or distributor during any one month shall not exceed two thousand five hundred (2500) pounds of aniline. No such certificate shall be required for deliveries of fifty (50) pounds or less of aniline to any one person in any one month.

(d) Applications and reports. In addition to such other reports as may from time to time be required by the Director of Industry Operations:

(1) Each person seeking authorization to use or accept delivery of aniline during any month, including producers or distributors seeking authorization to use or accept delivery of aniline, shall file Form PD-583 in the manner prescribed therein on or before the 10th day of the month preceding the month for which authorization for use or delivery is requested, provided, however, that application for authorization may be made in any form setting forth the information called for by Form PD-583 by the United States Army, Navy, Coast Guard, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration on or before the 20th day of such preceding month.

(2) Each producer and distributor shall file Form PD-584 in the manner prescribed therein on or before August 20, 1942 and on or before the 20th day of each month thereafter, provided, however, that reports setting forth the information called for by Form PD-584 may be made in any form by the United States Army, Navy, Coast Guard, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration on or before August 25, 1942 and on or before the 25th day of each month thereafter.

(e) Notification of customers. Producers and distributors of aniline shall, as soon as practicable, notify each of their regular customers of the requirements of this order, but failure to give notice shall not excuse any such person from complying with the terms hereof.

(f) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected hereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(2) Intra-company deliveries. The prohibitions and restrictions of this order with respect to deliveries of aniline, shall apply not only to deliveries to other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also to deliveries from one branch, division or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

(3) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact, or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(4) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Chemicals Branch, Washington, D. PART 1298—SITKA SPRUCE LOGS

[General Preference Order M-186]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of Sitka spruce for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1298.1 General Preference Order M-186—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Sitka spruce logs" means Grade No. 1 and Grade No. 2 logs of the botanical species of Picea sitchensis and logs which meet the specifications of Grade No. 1 and Grade No. 2 logs of that species (including cants and flitches of such logs), which are produced in those parts of Oregon and Washington lying west of the crest of the Cascade Mountain Range, or in Alaska.

(2) Grades of Sitka spruce logs specified in subparagraph (1) means such grades as understood in the particular district on August 1, 1941. For the purpose of this paragraph, Sitka spruce logs produced in Alaska shall be graded in the district to which they are first delivered.

(3) "District" means any one of four districts as follows:

(i) Puget Sound district, including all counties in the State of Washington lying west of the crest of the Cascade Mountains except those named in the Willapa Bay and Grays Harbor, and Columbia River districts.

(ii) Willapa Bay and Grays Harbor district, including the counties of Grays Harbor and Pacific in the State of Washington.

(iii) Columbia River district, including the counties of Wahkiakum, Cowlitz, Clarke, and Skamania in the State of Washington, and Clatsop, Columbia, Washington, Clackamas, and Hood River in the State of Oregon.

(iv) Willamette Valley district, including all counties in the State of Oregon lying west of the crest of the Cascade Mountain Range except those named in the Columbia River district.

(4) "Logger" means any person who produces Sitka Spruce logs.

(b) Restrictions on delivery. (1) On and after July 20, 1942, no person shall make delivery of Sitka spruce logs, and no person shall accept delivery of, or consume or process Sitka spruce logs, except as authorized by the Director of Industry Operations. This restriction shall apply to all stocks of Sitka spruce logs held within the continental limits of the United States (including Alaska) as of the date of this order, whether in private or in government hands; but shall not apply to cants and flitches held for aircraft use by manufacturers of aircraft. The Director of Industry Operations may from time to time allocate the supply of Sitka spruce logs or any part sawed therefrom, and specifically direct the manner and quantities in which deliveries to particular persons shall be made or withheld. He may also direct or prohibit particular uses of Sitka spruce logs, or any part sawed therefrom. Such allocations and directions will be made to insure the satisfaction of defense requirements of the United States, both direct and indirect, and they may be made, in the discretion of the Director of Industry Operations, without regard to any preference ratings assigned to particular contracts or purchase orders. The Director may also take into consideration the possible dislocation of labor and the necessity of keeping a plant in operation so that it may be able to fulfill war orders and essential civilian requirements.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing restrictions, Sitka spruce logs in transit on July 20, 1942, may be delivered to their immediate destination.

(c) Applications and reports. (1) Unless otherwise ordered by the Director of Industry Operations, no person (other than an aircraft manufacturing plant receiving Sitka spruce logs for aircraft uses) shall be entitled to receive an allocation of Sitka spruce logs unless, not later than the 20th day of the month (beginning with the month of July 1942) next preceding the month in which delivery is desired, he shall have filed with the Western Log and Lumber Administrator of the War Production Board an application on Form PD593.

(2) Any person, other than a logger or aircraft manufacturer, who, on July 13, 1942, has in his possession or under his control Sitka spruce logs in excess of 100,000 feet, log scale, shall file with the Western Log and Lumber Administrator of the War Production Board, not later than the fifth day after such date, an inventory report on Form PD594.

(3) Failure by a person to file an application pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) of this order may be construed as notice to the Director of Industry Operations that such person does not desire an allocation of Sitka spruce logs for the next succeeding month.

(4) All persons engaged in scaling Sitka spruce logs shall promptly forward to the Western Log and Lumber Administrator of the War Production Board, a copy of each scaling certificate issued by such person.

(d) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944) as amended from time to time, and all other applicable priorities regulations, except to the extent that any provisions hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(e) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of Sitka Spruce logs conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion, from non-defense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board, by letter or other written communication, in duplicate, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Industry Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(f) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Western Log and Lumber Administrator, War Production Board, Portland, Oregon, Ref: M-186.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, the Director of Industry Operations may prohibit such person from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control, may withhold from such person priorities assistance, and may take such other action as he deems appropriate. (P. D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2(a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 13th day of July 1942.

J. S. KNOWLSON,
Director of Industry Operations.

PART 1341—CANNED AND PRESERVED FOODS

[Amendment 3 to Maximum Price Regulation 152[2]]

CANNED VEGETABLES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Three new paragraphs (h), (i), and (j) are added to § 1341.22.

(h) (1) Any canner who sold and delivered a particular brand of canned vegetable packed by him during the calendar year 1941 on an established prepaid freight, freight allowed, or delivered price basis may add to the maximum price per dozen f. o. b. factory computed for each grade and container size of such canned vegetable under paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section the average freight factor which he added to his f. o. b. factory price during the calendar year 1941 for such grade and container size of such brand of canned vegetable. The resulting price shall be the canner's maximum delivered price for such brand of canned vegetable for the area in which such average freight factor applied in 1941.

(2) Every canner who makes sales and deliveries of a particular brand of canned vegetable on a prepaid freight, freight allowed or delivered price basis shall file with the Office of Price Administration on or before August 15, 1942, a statement under oath or affirmation showing his maximum price per dozen f. o. b. factory, the average freight factor which he added to his f. o. b. factory price during the calendar year 1941, and the maximum delivered price for each kind, grade, brand and container size of canned vegetable packed after the 1941 pack.

(i) If any canned snap beans (green or wax) were packed more than once during the calendar year 1941 at the same factory, the maximum price per dozen f. o. b. factory for each kind, grade and container size of canned snap beans (green or wax) packed after the 1941 pack shall be:

(1) The weighted average price per dozen charged by the canner f. o. b. factory for such grade and container size during the first 60 days after the beginning of the spring 1941 pack and the first 60 days after the beginning of the fall 1941 pack; plus

(2) Eight percent of the weighted average price per dozen f. o. b. factory as determined under paragraph (i) (1) of this section; plus

(3) The actual increase per dozen cans in the cost of the raw agricultural commodity as of May 4, 1942, over the cost of the raw agricultural commodity for the entire 1941 pack.

(4) In determining the canner's maximum price for canned snap beans (green or wax):

(i) The "weighted average price" shall be the total gross sales dollars charged for each grade and container size divided by the number of dozens sold for such grade and container size, for the 60 day period after the beginning of the spring 1941 pack and the 60 day period after the beginning of the fall 1941 pack.

(ii) Except insofar as provided to the contrary in this paragraph (i) all other paragraphs of this section shall apply to the canner who packed canned snap beans (green or wax) more than once during the calendar year 1941. The second sentence of paragraph (a) (4) in § 1341.30 shall not apply to the canner of canned snap beans.

(j) If the maximum price for some grades and container sizes of a particular kind of canned vegetable can be computed under paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section, and the maximum price of the remaining grades and container size of such canned vegetable cannot be so computed, the canner shall select from the grades and container sizes the maximum prices for which have been computed under paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section that grade and container size of which the canner packed the largest number of dozens during the calendar year 1941, and add or subtract from the maximum price of that grade and container size the same differentials, in dollars and cents, that existed between that grade and container size, and the grade and container size being priced, in the quoted 1941 future price list of such canner, or if no such quotations were made in 1941, such canner's 1941 opening spot price list.

(c) Amendment No. 3 (§§ 1341.22 (h), (i), (j), 1341.30 (a) (4)) shall become effective July 13, 1942.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.)

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

NATIONAL GYPSUM CO.

AUTHORIZATION FOR DETERMINATION OF PRICES FOR CERTAIN NEW PRODUCTS

Maximum prices authorized under § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation[1]—Order No. 26.

On May 22 and June 9, 1942, the National Gypsum Company of Buffalo, New York filed applications with the Office of Price Administration seeking specific authorization pursuant to § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation to determine maximum prices for certain new products and for instructions as to the method to be used in determining prices for such products to be manufactured by them. These new products are (1) gypsum wallboard consisting of panels of standard one-half inch thick gypsum wallboard laminated together to form a one inch thick two-faced panel, (2) standard smooth surface asphalt roll roofing laminated to a fully completed panel of standard gypsum board, (3) standard smooth surface asphalt roll roofing laminated to a fully completed panel of standard gypsum board which has been previously laminated to another gypsum board and (4) standard smooth surface asphalt roll roofing laminated to a fully completed standard gypsum board which has been previously laminated to a fiber insulation building board.

Due consideration has been given to the applications and an Opinion in support of this Order has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register. For the reasons set forth in the Opinion, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and in accordance with § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration it is hereby ordered:

§ 1499.63 Authorization for National Gypsum Company to determine maximum prices for certain new products. (a) The maximum prices which may be charged by National Gypsum Company for (1) gypsum wallboard consisting of panels of standard one-half inch thick gypsum wallboard laminated together to form a one-inch thick two-faced panel, (2) standard smooth surface asphalt roll roofing laminated to a fully completed panel of standard gypsum board, (3) standard smooth surface asphalt roll roofing laminated to a fully completed panel of standard gypsum board which has been previously laminated to another gypsum board and (4) standard smooth surface asphalt roll roofing laminated to a fully completed standard gypsum board which has been previously laminated to a fiber insulation building board shall be determined in accordance with the following formula:

Determine in accordance with the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation the f. o. b. mill selling price on a carload basis of the square footage of gypsum board which is to be used in the manufacture of 1,000 square feet of the new product. Determine in accordance with the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation the selling price to jobbers on a carload basis, f. o. b. gypsum board mill, of the square footage of fiber insulation board which is to be used in the manufacture of 1,000 square feet of the new product. Develop in terms of percentage on average May 1942 prime cost (material cost plus direct labor) the gross margin between the total selling price as determined above of the quantities of gypsum board and/or fiber insulation board which are to be used in the manufacture of 1,000 square feet of the new product and the average May prime cost of that gypsum board and/or fiber insulation board. Compute the total of those of the following additional cost factors involved in fabricating the new product per 1,000 square feet of the new product: cost of asphalt roll roofing f. o. b. gypsum plant, adhesive, direct labor, wrapping paper, and direct labor in wrapping. The labor factors shall be determined on the basis of the highest rate charged during March 1942 for similar labor. To this total of additional cost factors involved, add the percentage of gross margin as developed above. Add the resultant figure to the selling prices, as determined above, of the gypsum board and fiber insulation board entering into 1,000 square feet of the new product.

A separate determination of price shall be made for each product for each plant at which it is manufactured using the cost factors set forth in the formula which are applicable to that new product at each such plant.

(b) All freight equalization practices and allowances and all trade or cash discounts applicable to the sale of gypsum board, whether based on quantity, class of purchaser or any other cause shall be applicable to the sale of any products whose maximum prices are established under this Order.

(c) Within ten days after a maximum price has been determined in accordance with this Order, the National Gypsum Company shall report that price to the Office of Price Administration, stating that the price was determined in accordance with the formula set forth in paragraph (a) hereof and setting forth in detail the calculations made in determining that price. This report shall be filed under oath or affirmation and shall be filed in triplicate.

(d) Any selling price determined under this Order shall be subject to adjustment at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

(e) This Order No. 26 may be revoked or amended by the Office of Price Administration at any time.

(f) This Order No. 26 (§ 1499.63) shall become effective July 13, 1942. (Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 11th day of July 1942.

In said application, applicants state that to the best of their belief and knowledge they have not committed any violations of the Act, the Code, or regulations thereunder, other than those referred to in said Notices of and Orders for Hearing herein dated April 18, 1942.

Also, in said application, applicants state that

> All of the transactions involved in these matters were handled by the Costanzo Coal Mining Company as sales agent for the two code members, and it is so alleged in the respective notices of and orders for hearing, dated April 18, 1942. The Costanzo Coal Mining Company in Docket No. 1540–FD has had a severe penalty imposed upon it in the suspension of its distributor's registration. (Nine months) The code members were passive participants in all of the transactions and no culpability should attach to them in any event.

Interested parties desiring to do so may file recommendations, or requests for informal conference in respect to the above-described application within fifteen (15) days from the date of this notice.

The petition proposed that price classifications and minimum prices be made effective from two shipping points, Somers, Pennsylvania, on the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad, and Pricedale, Pennsylvania, on the Monessen Southwestern Railway, for the coals of Johnson Mine, Mine Index No. 109, of A. L. Brautegam (Victoria Coal Company); Patko Mine, Mine Index No. 2006, of Alex Opatkeiwicz; Ella Mine, Mine Index No. 5059, of John Balas (Balas Coal Company); Ella Mine, Mine Index No. 59, of McDermott Coal Company; Williams Mine, Mine Index No. 698, of Williams Coal Company; and the Bertone Mine, Mine Index No. 511, of Sam Bertone, for All Shipments Except Truck. While it appears that an adequate showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief by establishing temporary price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the above-named mines for All Shipments Except Truck, from Somers, Pennsylvania, on the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad, it appears that the original petitioner has not set forth sufficient facts to warrant making such classifications and minimum prices effective from Pricedale, Pennsylvania, on the Monessen Southwestern Railway for the coals of these mines for All Shipments Except Truck, without a hearing, and for the further reason that the Monessen Southwestern Railway is not listed by the Interstate Commerce Commission as a common carrier, and that, while it is a common carrier within the State of Pennsylvania, it has not on file with the Public Utility Commission of Pennsylvania appropriate tariffs or freight rates for the shipment of coal from Pricedale, Pennsylvania.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the portion of Docket No. A–1511 relating to the coals of the Johnson Mine, Mine Index No. 109, of A. L. Brautegam (Victoria Coal Company); Patko Mine, Mine Index No. 2006, of Alex Opatkeiwicz; Ella Mine, Mine Index No. 5059, of John Balas (Balas Coal Company); Ella Mine, Mine Index No. 59, of McDermott Coal Company; Williams Mine, Mine Index No. 698, of Williams Coal Company; and the Bertone Mine, Mine Index No. 511 of Sam Bertone, be, and it hereby is, severed from the remainder of Docket No. A–1511, and designated as Docket No. A–1511, Part II.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in Docket No. A–1511 Part II under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on August 24, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of Records Section in Room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Floyd McGown or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit to the Division proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before August 17, 1942.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervenors or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of District Board No. 2 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of Johnson Mine, Mine Index No. 109, of A. L. Brautegam (Victoria Coal Company); Patko Mine, Mine Index No. 2006, of Alex Opatkeiwicz; Ella Mine, Mine Index No. 5059, of John Balas (Balas Coal Company); Ella Mine, Mine Index No. 59, of McDermott Coal Company; Williams Mine, Mine Index No. 698, of Williams Coal Company; and the Bertone Mine, Mine Index No. 511, of Sam Bertone, for All Shipments Except Truck which would permit coals passing through a preparation plant not constituting a part of the facilities of the mine at which said coals were produced to take the same prices for the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal as if said preparation plant were located at the mine where said coal was actually produced.

It is further ordered, That, pending final disposition of Docket No. A–1511, Part II, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 2 for All Shipments Except Truck, is supplemented to include the price classifications and minimum prices set forth in the schedule marked "Supplement R" annexed hereto and hereby made a part hereof.

Notice is hereby given that application to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief granted herein may be filed pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Dated: July 10, 1942.

DISTRICT BOARD 4

MEMORANDA OPINION AND ORDER SEVERING DOCKETS AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 4 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 4; and requesting the establishment of an additional price instruction to be added to the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 4 for all shipments except truck to permit the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for coals prepared at a preparation plant not a part of the mine at which said coals were produced.

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 4 for the establishment of an additional price instruction to be added to the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 4 for all shipments except truck which would permit coals passing through a preparation plant not constituting a part of the facilities of the mine in which said coals were produced to take the same prices for the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal as if said preparation plant were located at the mine where said coal was actually produced.

The original petition in the above-entitled matter which was filed with this Division, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requested the issuance of orders establishing temporary and permanent price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 4, and further requested the establishment of an additional price instruction to be added to the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 4 for All Shipments Except Truck which would permit coals passing through a preparation plant not constituting a part of the facilities of the mine at which said coals were produced to take the same prices for the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal as if said preparation plant were located at the mine where said coal was actually produced.

A petition to intervene was filed in this matter on July 2, 1942, by District Board No. 7.

As was found in an Order issued today in Docket No. A–1504, a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of relief prayed for by the petitioner with certain exceptions stated therein, and except as to that part of the petition requesting the establishment of an additional price instruction to be added to the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 4 for All Shipments Except Truck. With respect to the establishment of the additional price instruction, it appears that the original petitioner has not set forth sufficient facts to warrant the establishment of said price instruction without a hearing. It appears, therefore, that an adequate showing of necessity has not been made for the granting of temporary relief in the matter of establishing said price instruction.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the portion of Docket No. A–1504 relating to the establishment of an additional price instruction to be added to the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 4 for All Shipments Except Truck be, and it hereby is, severed from the remainder of Docket No. A–1504 and designated as Docket No. A–1504, Part II.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in Docket No. A–1504, Part II under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on August 7, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street NW., Washington, D. C. On that day the Chief of the Records Section in Room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Charles O. Fowler or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit to the Division proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before August 1, 1942.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervenors or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in respect to the petition of District Board No. 4 for the establishment of an additional price instruction to be added to the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 4 for All Shipments Except Truck which would permit coals passing through a preparation plant not constituting a part of the facilities of the mine at which said coals were produced to take the same prices for the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal as if said preparation plant were located at the mine where said coal was actually produced.

EDISON SAULT ELECTRIC CO.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 10th day of July, A. D. 1942.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration or application (or both) has been filed with this Commission by Edison Sault Electric Company pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and particularly section 6 (b) thereof and Rule U-50 of the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. All interested persons are referred to said declaration or application, which is on file in the office of said Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Edison Sault Electric Company, a subsidiary of American States Utilities Corporation, a registered holding company, proposes to issue and sell to three insurance companies $990,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, Series A 3¾%, due July 1, 1972, at 104. The expenses of the transaction are estimated at $61,809, of which amount $36,920 is a premium payable on the redemption of outstanding bonds, referred to hereinafter, and $10,000 is a selling agents' fee or commission to be paid to Battles & Co., Inc., Smith, Landeryou & Co., and White, Weld & Co. The company proposes to apply the proceeds as follows: (a) $923,000 (apart from the premium of $36,920 hereinabove referred to) to redeem presently outstanding First Mortgage Sinking Fund Bonds, Series A 4½% and Series B 4½% due October 1, 1961; (b) $42,500 to reduce short term bank loans now outstanding in the amount of $142,500; and (c) $2,300 (balance) to be paid into the treasury of the company.

The company seeks to have the proposed issuance and sale of the bonds exempted from Rule U-50 (b) and (c) by virtue of Rule U-50 (a) (5) and seeks to have its application for such exemption acted upon prior to its application for exemption of the proposed sale of the bonds pursuant to section 6 (b). The company states that its principal generating unit is a hydro-electric generating plant located at Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan which is owned by the United States of America, and that its present occupancy is as a tenant at will, a thirty-year lease having expired June 30, 1942. The company further states that in view of its tenancy status the salability of the bonds to the public is seriously impaired. The company also estimates that costs incident to a public sale would be about $11,000 more than the proposed refunding plan.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matters and that said declaration shall not become effective nor said application be granted except pursuant to further order of this Commission;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and rules of the Commission thereunder be held on July 29, 1942, at 10:00 o'clock A. M., E. W. T., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in the room designated on said day by the hearing-room clerk in Room 318. At such hearing, cause shall be shown why such declaration or application (or both) shall become effective or shall be granted. Notice is hereby given of said hearing to the above-named declarant or applicant and to all interested persons, said notice to be given to said declarant or applicant by registered mail and to all other persons by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That Willis E. Monty or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a Trial Examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of issues presented by said declaration or application otherwise to be considered in this proceeding, particular attention will be directed at said hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the proposed issuance and sale of the bonds are solely for the purpose of financing the business of the company.

(2) Whether the proposed issuance and sale of the bonds have been expressly authorized by the state commission of the state in which the company is organized and doing business.

(3) Whether it is appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers to impose any terms or conditions in any order granting an exemption of the issue and sale of the bonds from the provisions of section 6 (a) of the Act.

(4) Whether it is appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers that the proposed issue or sale of the bonds be excepted from the scope of Rule U-50.

Scrip, when sufficient to aggregate one or more full shares, may be surrendered to The United Light and Railways Company, prior to but not after July 1, 1944, in exchange for full shares of Common Stock of The United Light and Railways Company. After July 1, 1944, scrip not surrendered shall be entitled to no rights whatsoever.

6. The right of stockholders of The United Light and Power Company to receive common stock or scrip certificates of The United Light and Railways Company shall expire July 1, 1944.

7. Upon the entry by the Commission of an order approving the proposed Plan and requiring its consummation, and until the distribution date (defined in paragraph 8 below), the general voting power now vested exclusively in the holders of Class B Common Stock of The United Light and Power Company shall be distributed among all three classes of stockholders according to the basis of exchange heretofore set forth.

8. As soon as practicable after the Commission has entered an order approving the Plan and requiring its consummation, The United Light and Power Company shall request the Commission, pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Act, to apply to a Federal court to enforce and carry out the terms and provisions of the Plan. If the court shall approve the Plan as fair and equitable and shall enter a decree enforcing the Plan and requiring its consummation, the distribution of Common Stock and scrip of The United Light and Railways Company to the stockholders of The United Light and Power Company in accordance with the Plan shall be made on and after the thirtieth day following the date on which such court decree becomes final and is no longer subject to judicial review. The date upon which such distribution shall be commenced is herein referred to as the "distribution date."

9. All funds and assets of The United Light and Power Company of whatever character remaining after payment of its liabilities and expenses will be contributed by The United Light and Power Company to the paid-in surplus of The United Light and Railways Company.

10. As soon as practicable after the distribution date, The United Light and Power Company shall be dissolved.

The applicants request the Commission to enter an order

(a) finding that the Plan is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Act and to enable The United Light and Power Company to comply with the Commission's order of March 20, 1941, and is fair and equitable to the persons affected by the Plan;

(b) approving the Plan and authorizing, directing, and requiring The United Light and Power Company and The United Light and Railways Company to consummate the Plan without the necessity of obtaining any further authorization from the Commission with respect to any action contemplated thereby; and

(c) providing that the holders of the Preferred and Common Stocks of The United Light and Power Company shall have only the rights specifically set forth in the Plan and that all other rights of such stockholders shall cease and become void.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that the hearings herein be reconvened for the purpose of considering Application No. 14,

It is ordered, That the hearings in this proceeding be reconvened at the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in such room as may be designated on such date by the Hearing Room Clerk in Room 318, at 10:00 A. M. on the 4th day of August 1942. All persons desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in the proceedings should notify the Commission in the manner provided by our Rules of Practice, Rule XVII, on or before August 1, 1942. At said reconvened hearing on that day the issues will be limited to a consideration of the matters presented by Application No. 14.

It is further ordered, That William W. Swift or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matters. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to assert all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the Act and to the trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of issues presented by said application, particular attention will be directed at said hearing to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the proposed action is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Act and the Commission's Orders of March 20 and August 5, 1941 in these proceedings;

2. Whether the proposed Plan is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby;

3. Whether the proposed capital structure of The United Light and Railways Company meets the standards of the applicable sections of the Act;

4. Whether the proposed increase and distribution of the new shares of Common Stock will unduly complicate the structure, or unfairly or inequitably distribute voting power among the security holders, of the holding-company system or will be detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers or the proper functioning of such holding-company system;

5. Whether the terms and conditions with respect to the proposed distribution of the new Common Stock, including the basis of its allocation among the stockholders of The United Light and Power Company, are appropriate and consistent with the applicable standards of the Act;

6. Whether the accounting entries proposed to be recorded are appropriate and in accordance with sound accounting principles and practice;

7. Whether the fees and expenses to be paid, directly or indirectly, in connection with any of the proposed transactions are for necessary service and are reasonable in amount;

8. In the event the Commission finds the proposed transactions generally appropriate, what terms and conditions, if any, should be imposed;

9. Generally, whether the proposed transactions are in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers and consistent with all applicable requirements of the Act and the Rules thereunder.

It is further ordered, That notice of this reconvened hearing is hereby given to all stockholders of The United Light and Power Company and to all other persons and that a copy of this notice shall be mailed to all persons who have entered their appearance herein and that publication of this notice shall be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That the limiting of the matters to be considered at said reconvened hearing to the issues presented by Application No. 14 shall be without prejudice to the subsequent consideration in these proceedings of other issues under the applicable provisions of the Act and the Rules.

By the Commission.

garded as having 30 days, relates only to compensation of officers and employees of the United States for personal services, and has no application to contracts for nonpersonal service, as for the hire of a wagon and team, payment for which for a fractional part of a month should be on the basis of the actual number of days in the month. See 22 Comp. Dec. 711.

(4) Forms of agreements for services of continuous nature. Services of a continuous nature must be supported by a formal contract when the yearly amount exceeds $500, or an informal agreement when the yearly amount is $500 or less, same to be numbered and filed in the General Accounting Office. See 6 Comp. Gen. 642. When service is temporary, notation to that effect should appear on the voucher.

(5) Rates effective "until further notice." In the absence of competition there is no objection to entering into agreements for public utilities services at stipulated rates "until further notice," without necessity for new agreements or annual renewals except to cover changes in rates or service, unless the interests of the Government require otherwise in a particular case, the original agreements and all changes to be filed in the General Accounting Office, and the vouchers to cite the agreement involved and bear a statement by a responsible officer of the public utility concerned as to the rates charged. Payment may not be made for service in an amount stipulated in a substitute agreement which is in excess of the rate stated in the original contract, effective "until further notice," prior to the date of actual receipt of the substitute agreement by the proper administrative representative of the Government. See 15 Comp. Gen. 920, MS. Comp. Gen. A-65231, December 15, 1936.

(c) Payment of taxes and duties on purchases by Government—(1) Customs duties on foreign purchases. In the absence of specific legislation authorizing purchases made by the Government to come into the United States free of customs duty, the particular appropriation for a purchase is properly chargeable with the amount of the customs duty assessed thereon by the United States, the fact that the importation came through in a certain fiscal year does not require it to be considered as a service rendered in that fiscal year so as to be charged against an appropriation in the fiscal year in which the importation was made instead of the appropriation involved in the particular purchase. (See 26 Comp. Dec. 610.) Checks issued in payment of customs duties on imported merchandise will be drawn payable to and forwarded to the collector or deputy collector of customs at the port where entry was made.

(2) Philippine export tax. Appropriated funds may not be used to pay an export tax on property of the United States shipped from the Philippines sought to be imposed pursuant to the authority granted in the Philippine Independence Act of March 24, 1934 (48 Stat. 456), as amended by the Act of August 7, 1939 (53 Stat. 1226), to lay an export tax on "every Philippine article shipped from the Philippines to the United States." See 21 Comp. Gen. 226. (R.S. 161; 5 U.S.C. 22) [Par. 4, AR 35-6040, June 12, 1942]

§ 35.8 Adjustments—(a) Mistakes in bids. Where a contractor claims payment in addition to the contract price on the ground of a mistake in bid, the contract price only will be paid and any protest on the part of the contractor will be forwarded through the Chief of Finance to the General Accounting Office. (See 8 Comp. Gen. 397.)

(b) Transportation costs—(1) Savings in freight charges. Shipment from a point nearer destination than the f. o. b. point named in a contract does not entitle the contractor to the saving in freight charges. (See 3 Comp. Gen. 56.) Where a contract provides for delivery f. o. b. destination, and shipment is made on Government bill of lading, which entitles the Government to certain land-grant deductions from the regular commercial rates, the contractor is not entitled to the benefits obtained by the Government on account of said land-grant deductions. (See MS. Comp. Gen. A-30249, April 8, 1930.)

(2) Adjustments by General Accounting Office. Where contractors are permitted to make shipments of supplies from points other than those named in the contract, which contract, in pursuance of advertisement for bids to that effect, permits such procedure and provides an apportionment feature for excess transportation costs, and the contractor is not willing to allow deductions for freight charges from the actual shipping point to destination, or claims an additional amount on account of paying freight or other delivery charges that should have been borne by the Government, disbursing officers will submit vouchers in question to the General Accounting Office for direct settlement. (See 8 Comp. Gen. 500.)

(c) Coal contracts—(1) Changes in base scale. Standard Government forms of coal contracts provide for adjustment of prices on account of increases or decreases in cost of production due to changes in wage scale. See 8 Comp. Gen. 231; 16 id. 805; Finance Circular No. 19.

(2) Ash content. Standard Form No. 45, Standard Government Purchase Contracts—Coal, which forms a part of contracts for coal, provides for adjustment of prices where coal is sampled and found to contain excess ash content.

(d) Inferior goods. Acceptance of inferior goods does not entitle the contractor to other than payment on the basis of the reasonable value of the goods. (See 5 Comp. Gen. 993; 15 id. 422.) Disbursing officers will submit vouchers in such cases to the Chief of Finance for instructions as to payment.

(e) Set-off. Where a contractor is indebted to the Government under one contract, the Government may offset, without separate action, an amount owing to the contractor under another contract. (Barry v. United States (1913), 229 U.S. 47. See 7 Comp. Gen. 186.) The right of set-off does not apply to unliquidated demands, but the Government has the equitable right to withhold payment of moneys due under one contract to a contractor who is in default under another contract until his indebtedness thereunder can be liquidated. See 7 Comp. Dec. 213.

(f) Delay in performance—(1) When damages provided for in contract. (i) Where no specific provision is made in a contract for either liquidated or actual damages, the contractor is, upon failure to complete the contract within the specified time, chargeable with all expenses caused the Government by the delay as actual damages. (See 8 Comp. Gen. 455; 16 id. 277, 410.)

(ii) Where there has been delay in performance under a contract which does not contain a provision for damages, payment in full will not be made except as set forth in (iv) below unless a certificate is furnished by the contracting officer, or the officer delegated by him to supervise performance, that no actual damage has been caused the Government by the delay. (See MS. Comp. Gen. A-8698, September 30, 1929.)

(iii) In the case of delays in the completion of informal contracts involving less than $500, the purchasing officer may furnish for file with the voucher a statement of the damage resulting from the delay, or certify that no damage resulted from the delay, and payment may be made in accordance with the certificate. (See 2 Comp. Gen. 385.) See also subdivision (iv) of this subparagraph.

(iv) Certificates will not be required in cases where, due to the nature of the supplies involved or of the purpose for which they were procured, it is apparent either that the contractor was not responsible for the delay, or that the delay resulted in no damage, but in all other cases involving delay in delivery, credit may not be allowed by the General Accounting Office for payment without deduction unless it be shown, by a certificate or otherwise, either that the contractor was not responsible for the delay, or that the delay did not result in any actual damage to the United States. See MS. Comp. Gen. B-23662, March 3, 1942.

(2) When damages provided for in contract—(i) Deductions of damages. Whenever, under a standard Government form of contract containing a provision for liquidated damages, the contractor fails for any reason to execute completely the contract within the period stipulated in the original contract or valid agreements supplemental thereto, or change orders, such period to include any extensions in the time for completion made in accordance with the provisions of the contract, the disbursing officer when making payment thereunder will withhold the liquidated damages covering the entire period of delay regardless of cause, and claim credit for the net amount only, leaving in the appropriation the amount so withheld, subject to final adjustment by the General Accounting Office. Amounts withheld on account of liquidated damages will not again become available for obligation or for payment by disbursing officers. Any protest made by the contractor against the deduction of liquidated damages will be forwarded, together with a statement of all payments made, citations to all vouchers, and a detailed statement from the contracting officer, through the Chief of Finance to the General Accounting Office. See 16 Comp. Gen. 374.

(ii) Discounts and price changes. (a) Where a contract contains a liquidated damage clause based on the contract price, but not to exceed a stated percentage of the stipulated value of the articles or materials not delivered, and also an offer of discount for prompt payment, liquidated damages for delayed performance should be deducted on the basis of the gross contract price, irrespective of discount which likewise is to be computed on the gross contract price, irrespective of liquidated damages.

(b) Where a contract originally specifying a delivered price, subsequently modified for acceptance f. o. b. contractor's works at a reduced price because of delivery by Government bill of lading, contains a liquidated damage clause based on the contract price, but not to exceed a stated percentage of the stipulated value of the articles or materials not delivered, and also an offer of discount for prompt payment, liquidated damages and discount should be computed on the basis of the reduced contract price, and without regard to each other; that is, each on the basis of the gross new contract price.

(c) Where a contract containing a liquidated damage clause based on the contract price, but not to exceed a stated percentage of the stipulated value of the articles or materials not delivered, contains also guarantees by the contractor that the equipment will be in accordance with the specifications, and provisions for either rejection, acceptance at a price reduction, or deduction of a specified amount, as a penalty, for overweight, liquidated damage assessments for delayed performance should be computed on the new contract price where price reduction is made because of the overweight, but, where a penalty is assessed for the overweight, and no new contract price is effected thereby, liquidated damages and discount should be computed on the basis of original contract price. See 18 Comp. Gen. 784.

(iii) Progress payments. Partial payments as distinguished from final payment, may be made on periodical progress reports without deduction of liquidated damages for time intervening between the effective date of an order for suspension of work and the effective date of an order to resume work, or delivery of supplies. See 8 Comp. Gen. 80.

(iv) Change orders. Liquidated damages need not be deducted for delays resulting from changes in specifications covered by change orders issued in accordance with provisions of standard forms of contracts. The change order should specify the changes, increase or decrease in price, and the number of days added thereby. See MS. Comp. Gen. A-26558, April 1, 1929.
